PART II

AMENDMENTS CONNECTED WITH LOCAL AUTHORITIES’ SERVICES UNDER THE NATIONAL ASSISTANCE ACT 1948

44 Extension of power, under the National Assistance Act 1948, of local authority to provide accommodation elsewhere than in premises managed by them or another such authority.

[^{F2}(1) For subsection (1) of section 26 of the ^{M1}National Assistance Act 1948 (provision of accommodation in premises maintained by voluntary organisations), there shall be substituted the following subsections:—

“(1) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this Part of this Act, but subject to the next following subsection, a scheme under section twenty-one thereof may provide that a local authority—

- (a) may make, in lieu or in supplementation of the provision, in premises managed by them or another local authority, of accommodation of the kind mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of the said section twenty-one, arrangements—
 - (i) with a voluntary organisation managing any premises, for the provision in those premises of accommodation of that kind;
 - (ii) with a person registered under section thirty-seven of this Act in respect of a disabled persons’ or old persons’ home, for the provision in that home of accommodation of that kind; and
- (b) may make, in lieu or supplementation of the provision, in premises managed by them or another local authority, of accommodation of the kind mentioned in paragraph (b) of the said subsection (1), arrangements with a voluntary organisation managing any premises for the provision in those premises of accommodation of that kind.

(1A) No arrangements shall be made by virtue of paragraph (a) of the foregoing subsection by a local authority with a person who has been convicted of an offence against regulations under section forty of this Act.”]

(2) In subsection (2) of the said section 26 (which requires arrangements under subsection (1) of that section provide for the making by the local authority of payments to the voluntary organisation with which they are made) for the words “the organisation” there shall be substituted the words “the other party thereto”.

- (3) Section 4(2) (which penalises, amongst other things, the reception by a person as mentioned in section 1(1)(b) of children exceeding two in number and coming from more than one household without his being a relative of theirs and registered under section 1) shall, as from the expiration of the period aforesaid, have effect with the substitution, for the words "children of whom he is not a relative, and (a) the number of children exceeds two, and (b) the children come from more than one household", of the words "a child of whom he is not a relative".
- (4) The punishment that may be imposed on a person guilty of an offence under section 4, being an offence committed after the coming into operation of this section, shall, instead of being a fine not exceeding £25 or, in the case of a second or subsequent offence, imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month or a fine not exceeding £25 or both, be a fine not exceeding [^{F24}£50][^{F24}level 3 on the standard scale] or, in the case of a second or subsequent offence, imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or a fine not exceeding [^{F24}£100][^{F24}level 3 on the standard scale] or both, and the proviso to subsection (4) of that section (which limits to £5 the punishment that may be imposed in the case of a first offence under subsection (5) of that section) shall, except in relation to an offence committed before the coming into operation of this section, cease to have effect.
- (5) In section 1(3) (by virtue whereof a local health authority may refuse to register premises if, inter alia, they are satisfied that the premises are not fit to be used for the reception of children) after the word "fit" (where last occurring), there shall be inserted the words "(whether because of the condition thereof or of the equipment thereof or for any reason connected with the situation, construction or size thereof or with other persons therein)".
- (6) In section 1(4) (by virtue whereof a local health authority may refuse to register a person if, inter alia, they are satisfied that the premises in which the children are received or are proposed to be received are not fit, whether because of the condition thereof or for any reason connected with other persons therein, to be used for the purpose), after the word "thereof", there shall be inserted the words "or of the equipment thereof", and after the words "connected with" there shall be inserted the words "the situation, construction or size thereof or with".
- (7) An application for the registration under section 1 of any premises shall be of no effect unless it contains a statement with respect to each person employed or proposed to be employed in looking after children at the premises, and each person who has attained the age of sixteen years and (though not so employed or proposed to be so employed) is normally resident at the premises, whether or not—
 - (a) there has been made against him any such order as is mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (e) of [^{F25}section 7 of the Foster Children Act 1980][^{F26}and the Foster Children (Scotland) Act 1984] (disqualification for keeping foster children);
 - (b) he has been convicted as mentioned in paragraph (c) thereof;
 - (c) his rights and powers with respect to a child have been vested as mentioned in paragraph (d) thereof; or
 - (d) an order has been made under section 43 of the ^{M10}Adoption Act 1958 (removal of protected children from unsuitable surroundings) for the removal of a child from his care;

- and an application for the registration under section 1 of a person shall be of no effect unless it contains a similar statement with respect to him, each person employed or proposed to be employed by him in looking after children and each person other than himself who has attained the age of sixteen years and (though not so employed or proposed to be so employed) is normally resident at the premises in which the children are received or proposed to be received; and a person who, in any such application as aforesaid, makes, with respect to himself or another, any such statement as aforesaid which is false and is known to him to be false or recklessly makes, with respect to himself or another, such a statement which is false shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding [^{F27}level 3 on the standard scale] or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.
- (8) Section 2(2) (which empowers a local health authority to order that the number of children that may be received by a person in his home as mentioned in section 1(1) (b), together with any other children therein, shall not exceed such number as may be specified) shall have effect with the omission of the words “together with any other children in his home” and the addition at the end thereof of the words “and in making an order under this subsection an authority shall have regard to the number of any other children who may from time to time be in the home”.
- (9) The power of the local health authority under the said section 2(2) to limit the number of children that may be received by a person in his home as mentioned in section 1(1) (b) shall include power by order to impose requirements for securing—
- (a) that there shall be available, for looking after the children received by him as so mentioned, persons adequate in number and in qualifications or experience;
 - (b) that the premises in which the children are received shall be kept safe and adequately maintained and the equipment thereof shall be adequately maintained;
 - (c) that there shall be adequate arrangements for feeding the children so received and that an adequate and suitable diet shall be provided for them;
 - (d) that records shall be kept in relation to the children so received containing such particulars as may be specified by the authority.
- (10) In paragraph (d) of section 2(4) (which specifies, as one of the objects for the securing of which, as respects registered premises, requirements may be imposed by a local health authority, that the premises and the equipment thereof shall be adequately maintained), after the word “premises”, there shall be inserted the words “shall be kept safe and adequately maintained”.
- (11) Section 7 (inspection) shall have effect—
- (a) as if, at the end of subsection (1), there were added the words “and may at all reasonable times enter the home of a person registered under section one of this Act by the authority, and may inspect it and any children received there as mentioned in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section (1) of this Act, the arrangements for their welfare and any records relating to them kept in pursuance to this Act”; and
 - (b) as if, in subsection (2), the words “is refused admission to the home of a person registered under section one of this Act, or” and the words “admission has been refused, or, as the case may be, that” were omitted.
- (12) The maximum amount of the fee that, under section 3(3) may be demanded by a local health authority for the issue of a copy of a certificate of registration under section one shall be increased from two shillings and sixpence to five shillings, and accordingly in 71 Compensation for stopping employment to prevent spread of disease in Scotland.

- (1) With a view to preventing the spread of—
 - (a) any infectious disease, or
 - (b) any food poisoning to which section 22(1) of the ^{M55}Food and Drugs (Scotland) Act 1956 applies,a person who is at work may be requested by the [^{F105}designated medical officer] for the place where the person is at work, by notice in writing, to discontinue his work.
- (2) The local authority for the place in question shall compensate a person who has suffered any loss in complying with a request under this section; and any dispute arising under this subsection, whether as to the fact of loss or as to the amount of any compensation, shall be determined by a single arbiter, who, failing agreement between the parties, shall be appointed by the sheriff.

[^{F106}(3) In this section “local authority” means an islands or district council.]

[^{F107}71A Fees for certificates relating to notifiable diseases and food poisoning.

- (1) Subject to any exceptions which he may specify, the Secretary of State may direct that a Health Board shall pay to a medical practitioner a fee of such amount as the direction may specify for each certificate duly sent by him under—
 - (a) section 3(1) of the Infectious Diseases (Notification) Act 1889 (notification of infectious diseases);
 - (b) regulations made under section 1 of the Public Health (Scotland) Act 1945 (power to make regulation with a view to preventing the spread of certain diseases);
 - (c) section 22(1) of the Food and Drugs (Scotland) Act 1956 (notification of cases of food poisoning).
- (2) The Secretary of State may direct that different fees shall be paid under this section in relation to different circumstances.
- (3) A direction under this section may make provision in relation to fees payable after a date specified in the direction.
- (4) The date may be before or after the date of the direction but may not be before if it would be to the detriment of medical practitioners.
- (5) Before giving a direction as to a fee under this section the Secretary of State shall consult any body accepted by him as a proper body for negotiating fees for medical practitioners.
- (6) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that the fact that a medical practitioner who gives any such certificate as is referred to in subsection (1) above holds the office to whose holder the certificate is required to be sent does not disentitle him to payment of the fee (if any) payable for the certificate.

- (a) that there is reason to believe that some person in the district is or has been suffering from an infectious disease, or, though not suffering from such a disease, is carrying an organism that is capable of causing it, and
- (b) that in his own interest, or in the interest of his family, or in the public interest, it is expedient that he should be medically examined, and
- (c) that he is not under the treatment of a registered medical practitioner, or that the registered medical practitioner who is treating him consents to the making of an order under this section, the sheriff may order him to be medically examined by the [F108designated medical officer], or by a registered medical practitioner nominated by the [F108designated medical officer].

- (2) If the sheriff (acting if he deems it necessary, ex parte) is satisfied, on a written certificate issued by the [F108designated medical officer] for any district—
 - (a) that there is reason to believe that one of a group of persons, though not suffering from an infectious disease, is carrying an organism that is capable of causing it; and
 - (b) that in the interest of those persons or their families, or in the public interest, it is expedient that those persons should be medically examined, the sheriff may order them to be medically examined by the [F108designated medical officer] or by a registered medical practitioner nominated by the [F108designated medical officer].

- (3) In this section, references to a person's being medically examined shall be construed as including references to his being submitted to bacteriological and radiological tests and similar investigations, and references to the sheriff shall be construed, in relation to any place, as including references to any justice of the peace appointed for an area which includes that place, and to any burgh magistrate so appointed.

 - (a) the ^{M56}Infectious Disease (Notification) Act 1889; or
 - (b) the Public Health (Scotland) Acts 1897 to 1945; or
 - (c) this Act;or, if he has reason to believe that any infectious disease exists, or has recently existed, in the premises, for the purpose of inspecting the premises.
- (2) If the sheriff, on a written certificate issued by the [F109designated medical officer] for any district,—
 - (a) is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for entry into any premises for any such purpose as aforesaid, and

- (b) is also satisfied either—
- (i) that admission to the premises has been refused, or a refusal is apprehended and that notice of the intention to apply for a warrant has been given to the occupier, or
 - (ii) that an application for admission, or the giving of such a notice, would defeat the object of the entry, or
 - (iii) that the case is one of urgency, or
 - (iv) that the premises are unoccupied or that the occupier is temporarily absent, he may by warrant under his hand authorise the [F109 designated medical officer] to enter the premises, if need be by force.

- (3) A [F109 designated medical officer] entering any premises by virtue of this section, or of a warrant issued thereunder, may take with him such other persons as may be necessary, and, on leaving any unoccupied premises which he has entered by virtue of such a warrant, shall leave them as effectively secured against unauthorised entry as he found them.

- (4) Every warrant granted under this section shall continue in force for a period of one month.

- (5) If—

- (a) any person who, in compliance with the provisions of this section, or of a warrant issued thereunder, enters a factory or workplace, discloses to any person any information obtained by him in the factory or workplace with regard to any manufacturing process or trade secret; or
- (b) any person to whom by reason of his official position any information obtained as aforesaid is communicated, discloses that information to any person, he shall, unless such disclosure was made in the performance of his duty, be guilty of an offence against this section.

- (6) A person who wilfully obstructs any person acting in the execution of this section or of a warrant issued thereunder shall be guilty of an offence against this section.

- (7) A person who fails to give to any person acting in the execution of this section or of any warrant issued thereunder any assistance which that person may reasonably request him to give, or any information which that person is expressly authorised by any enactment to call for or may reasonably require, or who, when required to give any such information, knowingly makes any mis-statement in respect thereof, shall be guilty of an offence against this section:

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall be construed as requiring a person to answer any question, or give any information, if to do so might incriminate him.

- (8) A person guilty of an offence against this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [F110 level 3 on the standard scale] or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

- (9) In this section . . . F111 references to the sheriff shall be construed in relation to any place, as including references to any justice of the peace appointed for an area which includes that place, and to any burgh magistrate so appointed.
