

Administration of Justice Act 1969

1969 CHAPTER 58

PART IV

MISCELLANEOUS AND SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

20 Orders for interim payment.

- [<sup>F1</sup>(1) The power to make rules of court under section 99 of the Judicature Act 1925, and the power to make county court rules under section 102 of the <sup>M1</sup>County Courts Act 1959, shall each include power by any such rules to make provision for enabling the court in which any proceedings are pending, in such circumstances as may be specified in the rules, to make an order requiring a party to the proceedings to make an interim payment of such amount as may be specified in the order, either by payment into court or (if the order so provides) by paying it to another party to the proceedings.
- (2) Where any such rules make provision in accordance with subsection (1) of this section, the rules may include provision for enabling a party to any proceedings who, in pursuance of such an order, has made an interim payment to recover the whole or part of the amount of the payment in such circumstances, and from such other party to the proceedings, as may be determined in accordance with the rules.
- (3) Any rules made by virtue of this section may include such incidental, supplementary and consequential provisions as the authority making the rules may consider necessary or expedient.
- (4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as affecting the exercise of any power relating to costs, including any power to make rules of court or county court rules relating to costs.]
- (5) In its application to Northern Ireland, this section shall have effect as if for the reference to section 99 of the Judicature Act 1925 there were substituted a reference to [<sup>F2</sup>section 55 of the <sup>M2</sup>Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978], and as if any reference to county court rules were omitted.
- [<sup>F1</sup>(6) In this section “interim payment”, in relation to a party to any proceedings, means a payment on account of any damages, debt or other sum (excluding any costs) which

21 Powers of court exercisable before commencement of action.

- [<sup>F3</sup>(1) On the application of any person in accordance with rules of court, the High Court shall, in such circumstances as may be specified in the rules, have power to make an order providing for any one or more of the following matters, that is to say—
- (a) the inspection, photographing, preservation, custody and detention of property which appears to the court to be property which may become the subject-matter of subsequent proceedings in the court, or as to which any question may arise in any such proceedings, and
  - (b) the taking of samples of any such property as is mentioned in the preceding paragraph and the carrying out of any experiment on or with any such property.
- (2) The power to make rules of court under section 99 of the Judicature Act 1925 shall include power to make rules of court as to the manner in which an application for such an order can be made, and as to the circumstances in which such an order can be made; and any such rules may include such incidental, supplementary and consequential provisions as the authority making the rules may consider necessary or expedient.
- (3) The preceding provisions of this section shall have effect in relation to county courts in England and Wales as they have effect in relation to the High Court, as if in those provisions references to rules of court and to section 99 of the Judicature Act 1925 included references to county court rules and to section 102 of the <sup>M3</sup>County Courts Act 1959.]
- (4) In the application of this section to Northern Ireland, “the High Court” means the High Court of Justice in Northern Ireland, the reference in subsection (2) to section 99 of the Judicature Act 1925 shall be construed as a reference to [<sup>F4</sup>section 55 of the <sup>M4</sup>Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978], and subsection (3) shall be omitted.
- [<sup>F3</sup>(5) In this section “property” includes any land, chattel or other corporeal property of any description.]

30 Superannuation benefits in respect of certain judicial offices.

In <sup>M6</sup> the Superannuation Act 1965 the following section shall be inserted after section 39:—

- (1) The Lord Chancellor may with the consent of the Minister for the Civil Service make rules with respect to the superannuation benefits payable to or in respect of persons who have been employed—

---

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Administration of Justice Act 1969, Part IV. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (a) in two or more offices falling within paragraphs (a) to (i) of subsection (3) of this section, or
  - (b) in one or more such offices and in one or more judicial offices remunerated out of central funds.
- (2) The Secretary of State may with the consent of the Minister for the Civil Service make rules with respect to the superannuation benefits payable to or in respect of persons who have been employed—
- (a) in two or more offices falling within paragraphs (j) and (k) of subsection (3) of this section, or
  - (b) in one or more such offices and in one or more judicial offices remunerated out of central funds.
- (3) The offices referred to in subsections (1)(a) and (2)(a) of this section are the following, that is to say—
- (a) Recorder of London;
  - (b) Common Serjeant;
  - (c) additional judge of the Central Criminal Court;
  - (d) recorder of Liverpool;
  - (e) recorder of Manchester;
  - (f) assistant judge of the Mayor’s and City of London Court;
  - (g) presiding judge of the Court of Passage of the City of Liverpool;
  - (h) chairman or deputy chairman of a court of quarter sessions where under any enactment (whether passed before or after this Act) a person may qualify for a pension by virtue of service in that office;
  - (i) stipendiary magistrate in England or Wales, other than metropolitan stipendiary magistrate;
  - (j) stipendiary magistrate appointed under section 455 of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act 1892;
  - (k) stipendiary magistrate appointed under section 24 of the Glasgow Corporation and Police Act 1895.
- (4) Subsections (2) to (5) of section 38 of this Act shall have effect in relation to rules made under this section as they have effect in relation to rules under that section, as if—
- (a) in subsection (2) of that section any reference to a public office were a reference to an office which is either an office specified in subsection (3) of this section or a judicial office remunerated out of central funds, and the reference to such supplemental and incidental provisions as are mentioned in that subsection were a reference to such supplemental and incidental provisions as appear to the Lord Chaancellor or to the Secretary of State (as the case may be) to be expedient, and
  - (b) in subsections (3) and (4) of that section any reference to different public offices, or to ceasing to be employed in one public office and becoming employed in another, were a reference to different offices or (as the case may be) to ceasing to be employed in one office and becoming employed in another (“office” for this purpose being taken to mean any office which is either an office specified in subsection (3) of this section or a judicial office remunerated out of central funds).

- (5) Where any rules under this section make provision for any pension to be defrayed partly by one authority and partly by one or more other authorities, whether by way of contribution or otherwise, nothing in section 10(2) of the Criminal Justice Administration Act 1956 (which requires contributions to be paid by the city councils of Liverpool and Manchester in respect of the Crown Courts and recorders of those cities) shall be construed as preventing the rules from applying that provision to, or making any such provision specially in respect of, persons whose employment includes employment as recorder of Liverpool or recorder of Manchester.
- (6) In this section “judicial office remunerated out of central funds” means any of the following, that is to say—
- (a) any office listed in Schedule 1 to the Administration of Justice (Pensions) Act 1950, with the exception of the offices of stipendiary magistrate referred to in the last two entries in that Schedule, and
  - (b) any office in relation to which sections 2 to 8 of that Act have effect as if it were listed in that Schedule, with the exception of the offices of recorder of Liverpool and recorder of Manchester,
- and “pension” has the meaning assigned to it by section 38(6) of this Act.”
