- (1) Nothing in sections 6 to 8 of this Act (persons in full-time employment, persons completing secondary education and persons affected by trade disputes), nor any determination under section 10(3) or (4) of this Act (attendance for instruction or training, or maintenance in a centre), shall prevent the payment of supplementary benefit in an urgent case.
- (2) In determining whether any supplementary benefit is payable by virtue of this section, and the amount or nature of any such benefit, the Commission shall not be bound by anything in Schedule 1 to this Act, or in any regulations made under this Act, which appears to them inappropriate in the circumstances of the case.
- (3) Where, by virtue only of this section, any sums are paid to a person engaged in remunerative full-time work, the Commission may determine that the whole or part of those sums shall be recoverable from him by the Secretary of State, if (they are satisfied that the circumstances are such that the recovery would be equitable).

7 Exclusion from supplementary benefit of persons completing secondary education

- (1) A person attending a school, or receiving full-time instruction of a kind given in schools, shall not be entitled to supplementary benefit; but, where it appears to the Commission that there are exceptional circumstances justifying it, they may award supplementary benefit to a person who would be entitled to it but for this section.
- (2) The Secretary of State may, by regulations made under this section, specify the circumstances in which a person is, or is not, to be treated for the purposes of this section as attending a school or receiving full-time instruction of a kind given in schools.
- (3) This section does not prejudice the amount of any supplementary benefit to which a person who is providing for the requirements of any person attending a school, or receiving full-time instruction of a kind given in schools, may be entitled.

8 Persons affected by trade disputes

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, where a person—
 - (a) is, by reason of a stoppage of work which is due to a trade dispute at his place of employment, without employment for any period during the stoppage; and
 - (b) has not during that stoppage become bona fide employed elsewhere in the occupation which he usually follows, or become regularly engaged in some other occupation;

his requirements for that period shall be disregarded for the purposes of supplementary benefit except so far as those requirements include the requirement to provide for any other person.

- (2) Subsection (1) above does not apply in the case of a person who proves that he is not participating in or directly interested in the trade dispute which caused the stoppage of work.
- (3) Until section 111(2) of the Employment Protection Act 1975 has effect (in accordance with an order under section 129(3) of that Act), for subsection (2) above there shall be substituted the following—

- (1) Where a person—
- (a) has, by reason of a stoppage of work which was due to a trade dispute at his place of employment, been without employment for any period during the stoppage ; and

 - (c) becomes engaged in remunerative full-time work again in consequence of the ending of the stoppage ; section 6 of this Act (exclusion of persons in full-time employment) shall not apply in his case until the expiration of the period of fifteen days from the beginning of the engagement mentioned in paragraph (c) above ; but subsection (2) below shall have effect in such a case.

- (4) Where, on a claim for supplementary benefit made by a person engaged in remunerative full-time work, the Commission determine that the claimant is, by virtue of subsection (1) above, entitled to supplementary benefit, and award benefit to him accordingly, they shall—

 - (b) adding £3 ; and ;
 - (c) subtracting from the result the aggregate weekly amount of any child benefit which falls to be taken into account in calculating his resources for the purposes of this Act.
- (6) If it appears to the Secretary of State that, in cases where two or more persons falling within subsection (1)(a) and (b) above also fall within subsection (1)(c) above in consequence of the ending of the same stoppage of work, anomalies in the operation of this section would result from the arrangements for dealing with claims for supplementary benefit, the Secretary of State may, by regulations made under this subsection, make such provision as he thinks appropriate for securing that this section will operate uniformly in relation to both or all of those persons.
- (7) No provision shall be made by regulations under subsection (6) above which would result in any supplementary benefit paid to a person being recoverable from him by virtue of subsection (2) above where that benefit is paid to him in circumstances in which it would not be so recoverable but for such regulations.
- (8) Until 4th April 1977, for subsection (5)(c) above there shall be substituted the following—
- “(c) subtracting from the result the aggregate weekly amount of any allowances under the Family Allowances Act 1965, or benefit under section 16 of the Child Benefit Act 1975 (interim benefit for unmarried or separated parents), which falls to be taken into account in calculating his resources for the purposes of this Act.”.

- (3) The Commission may determine that the right of a person to a supplementary allowance for the whole or part of the period specified in a direction in force in his case under subsection (1) above shall be subject to the condition that he attends such course of instruction or training as the Commission may specify, being a course approved by

11 Supplementary benefit in kind

- (1) Where it appears to the Commission that, by reason of exceptional circumstances, the requirements of any person can best be met by the provision of goods or services instead of the whole or part of any payment to which he would otherwise be entitled under this Act, they may determine that goods or services shall be so provided under arrangements made by them on behalf of the Secretary of State.
- (2) In making a determination under this section to meet sudden and urgent need the Commission may dispense with inquiry into resources or other circumstances and with compliance with any regulations made under this Act.

the amount of, or of the increase in, the relevant social security benefit may, at the discretion of the authority administering it, be abated by the amount by which the amounts paid under this Act exceed what the Commission determine they would have been had A, at the time the amount of the supplementary benefit was determined, been making payments for the maintenance of B at a rate equal to the amount of the relevant social security benefit, or of the increase in the relevant social security benefit, as the case may be.

- (3) Where it appears to the Commission that it is necessary for protecting the interests of a claimant or his dependants that the whole or part of any supplementary benefit should be issued to some other person, or where the claimant so requests, they may determine that it shall be issued to that other person.
- (4) The Commission may, if they think fit, defray travelling expenses incurred in connection with claims for supplementary benefit.

18 Recovery of expenditure on supplementary benefits from persons liable for maintenance

- (1) Where supplementary benefit is paid or claimed to meet requirements which are, or include, those of a person whom another person is, for the purposes of this Act, liable to maintain (in this section referred to respectively as " the dependant " and " the liable relative ") the Commission may make a complaint against the liable relative to a magistrates' court for an order under this section.
- (2) No complaint under subsection (1) above shall be made where the dependant is an illegitimate child and the liable relative is his father.
- (3) On the hearing of a complaint under subsection (1) above the court shall have regard to all the circumstances and, in particular, to the resources of the liable relative, and may order him to pay such sum, weekly or otherwise, as it may consider appropriate.
- (4) In determining whether to order any payments to be made in respect of supplementary benefit for any period before the complaint was made, or the amount of any such payments, the court shall disregard any amount by which the liable relative's resources exceed the resources which were his during that period.
- (5) Any payments ordered to be made under this section shall be made—
 - (a) to the Secretary of State in so far as they are attributable to any supplementary benefit (whether paid before or after the making of the order);
 - (b) to the person claiming supplementary benefit or (if different) the dependant; or
 - (c) to such other person as appears to the court expedient in the interests of the dependant.
- (6) Where the order provides for the making of payments to the Secretary of State, the Commission shall be a party to any proceedings with respect to the enforcement, revocation or variation of the order to which, but for this subsection, the Secretary of State would be a party.
- (7) An order under this section shall be enforceable as an affiliation order, and any proceedings for such an order (but not proceedings for the enforcement, revocation or variation of such an order) shall be included among the proceedings which are domestic proceedings within the meaning of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1952; and section 56 of that Act (definition of " domestic proceedings ") shall have effect accordingly.
- (8) In the application of this section to Scotland, subsections (2) and (7) shall be omitted, and for the references to a complaint and to a magistrates' court there shall be substituted respectively references to an application and to the sheriff.

19 Affiliation orders

- (1) The provisions of this section apply in any case in which supplementary benefit is paid to meet requirements which include those of an illegitimate child.
- (2) If no affiliation order is in force the Commission may, within three years from the time when any payment by way of supplementary benefit was made, make application to a justice of the peace acting for the petty sessions area in which the mother of the child resides for a summons to be served under section 1 of the Affiliation Proceedings Act 1957.

- (3) In any proceedings on an application under subsection (2) above the court shall hear such evidence as the Commission may produce, and shall in all other respects, subject to the provisions of subsection (4) below, proceed as on an application made by the mother under section 1 of the said Act of 1957.
- (4) An affiliation order—
- (a) made on an application made by the Commission under subsection (2) above ; or
 - (b) made on an application made by the Commission in proceedings brought by the mother of the child under section 1 of the said Act of 1957 ;
- may be made so as to provide that the payments, or a part of the payments, to be made under the order shall, instead of being made to the mother or a person having custody of the child, be made to the Secretary of State or to such other person as the court may direct.
- (5) Any affiliation order, whether made before or after the commencement of this Act, may, on the application of the Commission, be varied so as to provide for the making of payments, or part thereof, as mentioned in subsection (4) above; and an application by the Commission under this subsection may be made—
- (a) notwithstanding that the mother has died and no person has been appointed to have the custody of the child; and
 - (b) where the child is not in the care of the mother and she is not contributing to his maintenance, without making her a party to the proceedings.
- (6) Any affiliation order which provides for the making of payments, or part thereof, as mentioned in subsection (4) above may, on the application of the mother of the child, be varied so as to provide that the payments shall be made to the mother or a person having the custody of the child.
- (7) Where an affiliation order provides for the making of payments, or part thereof, to the Secretary of State, the Commission shall be a party to any proceedings with respect to the enforcement, revocation or variation of the order to which, but for this subsection, the Secretary of State would be a party.
- (8) In the application of this section to Scotland, the following provisions shall have effect in substitution for subsections (2) to (7) above—
- (a) the Commission shall have the like right as the mother to raise an action of affiliation and aliment concluding for payment of aliment for the child ;
 - (b) where in any action of affiliation and aliment in respect of the child, whether at the instance of the Commission under the foregoing paragraph or at the instance of the mother, the sheriff grants or has granted decree against any person for payment of aliment for the child, the sheriff may at the time of granting the decree or at any subsequent time on the application of the Commission, order that the sums due under the decree or any part thereof shall, instead of being paid to the mother of the child, be paid to the Secretary of State or to such other person as the sheriff may direct;
 - (c) if such an order is made in favour of the Secretary of State, the Commission, or, if it is made in favour of another person, that person, shall have the like right to enforce the decree (so far as relating to the said sums) by diligence, including the right to take proceedings under the Civil Imprisonment

 - (a) the Secretary of State incurs any expenditure under this Act; or
 - (b) any sum recoverable under this Act by or on behalf of the Secretary of State is not recovered ;
 the Secretary of State shall be entitled to recover the amount thereof from that person.
- (2) If, whether in connection with any legal proceedings or otherwise, any question arises whether any amount paid by way of supplementary benefit is recoverable by the Secretary of State under this section, or as to the amount so recoverable, the question shall be referred to the Appeal Tribunal, and the decision of the tribunal shall be conclusive for all purposes.
- (3) A certificate signed by the clerk of the Appeal Tribunal showing the decision of the tribunal upon a question referred to it under subsection (2) above shall be conclusive evidence of that decision in any legal proceedings; and any certificate purporting to be signed by the clerk of the Appeal Tribunal shall be deemed to be so signed unless the contrary is proved.
- (4) Where any amount paid by way of supplementary benefit is recoverable under this section, it may, without prejudice to any other method of recovery, be recovered by deduction from benefit under Part II of the Social Security Act 1975 or Part II of the Social Security Pensions Act 1975.
- (5) Until 6th April 1979, in subsection (4) above, the words " or Part II of the Social Security Pensions Act 1975 " shall be omitted.

PART II

RECOVERY OF SUPPLEMENTARY BENEFIT PAID

Service and contents of deduction notices

- 2 (1) Where the Secretary of State receives a notification of award under section 9(4) of this Act, then, unless the amount of supplementary benefit specified therein as having been awarded to the claimant has already been repaid by the claimant, the Secretary of State shall serve on the person, if any, by whom the claimant is for the time being employed a notice under this paragraph (in this Schedule referred to as a " deduction notice ") relating to the claimant.
- (2) Every deduction notice shall contain the following particulars—
- (a) particulars enabling the employer to identify the claimant;
 - (b) the amount by reference to which deductions are to be made by the employer from the claimant's earnings by virtue of the notice;
 - (c) the claimant's protected earnings; and
 - (d) such other particulars as may be prescribed.
- (3) Subject to the following provisions of this Part of this Schedule—
- (a) the amount specified in a deduction notice as the amount by reference to which deductions are to be made by the employer shall be equal to the amount of supplementary benefit specified in the notification of award to the claimant under section 9(4) of this Act or, if any part of the last-mentioned amount has been repaid by the claimant before the date of the deduction notice, shall be equal to so much of that amount as has not been so repaid before that date ; and
 - (b) the sum so specified as the claimant's protected earnings shall, subject to the regulations, be the same as that specified in that notification of award.
- (4) If, after the Secretary of State has received a notification of award under section 9(4) of this Act and served a deduction notice relating to the claimant, the Secretary of State receives a further notification of award relating to the same person, then, unless the aggregate of the amounts of supplementary benefit respectively specified in all notifications of award relating to the claimant which have been received by the Secretary of State since the beginning of the relevant engagement has already been repaid by the claimant, the Secretary of State shall serve a further deduction notice on the person, if any, by whom the claimant is for the time being employed.
- (5) Where a further deduction notice is served at any time by virtue of sub-paragraph (4) above, then—
- (a) if at that time there is in force in relation to the claimant a previous deduction notice served after the beginning of the relevant engagement, the amount specified in the further deduction notice as the amount by reference to which deductions are to be made by the employer shall be equal to the sum of the following amounts—

- (i) the amount specified in the previous deduction notice as the amount by reference to which deductions are to be so made ; and
 - (ii) the amount of supplementary benefit which, in the further notification of award in consequence of which the further deduction notice is being served, is specified as having been awarded to the claimant;
- reduced by the aggregate of any amounts repaid by the claimant on or after the date of the previous notice and before the date of the further deduction notice ;
- (b) in any other case, the amount so specified in the further deduction notice shall be the amount which would fall to be so specified in that notice in accordance with paragraph 5 below if the further deduction notice were being served by virtue of that paragraph.
- (6) Service of a further deduction notice by virtue of sub-paragraph (4) above shall have the effect of cancelling any earlier deduction notice relating to the claimant which is in force when the further deduction notice is served, but shall not affect the validity of anything done by virtue of the earlier notice while it was in force.

Period for which deduction notice has effect

- 3 (1) A deduction notice shall come into force when it is served on the employer of the claimant to whom it relates and shall (unless previously cancelled by virtue of paragraph 2(6) above or sub-paragraph (2) below) cease to have effect as soon as any of the following events occur—
- (a) the claimant dies or ceases to be in the employment of the person on whom the deduction notice was served ;
 - (b) the aggregate of—
 - (i) all amounts, if any, repaid by the claimant on or after the date of the deduction notice in question ; and
 - (ii) all amounts, if any, deducted from the claimant's earnings by virtue of the deduction notice in question or, if the condition specified in sub-paragraph (4) below is fulfilled in the case of the notice in question, all amounts, if any, deducted from the claimant's earnings by virtue of that notice of any relevant previous deduction notice within the meaning of that sub-paragraph; reaches the amount specified in the notice in question as the amount by reference to which deductions are to be made by the employer;
 - (c) the expiration of the period of fourteen weeks beginning with the date of the notice.
- (2) The Secretary of State may at any time give a direction in writing cancelling a deduction notice, and shall cause a copy of any such direction to be served on the employer concerned and on the claimant. A direction given under this sub-paragraph shall take effect when a copy of it is served on the employer concerned.
- (3) Where a deduction notice is cancelled under sub-paragraph (2) above, no further deduction notice relating to the claimant shall be served in connection with any supplementary benefit awarded to him by virtue of section 9(1) of this Act during the period of fifteen days from the beginning of the relevant engagement.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (4) If, in the case of a deduction notice which is in force (in this sub-paragraph referred to as " the current notice ") the following condition is fulfilled, namely that at the time when that notice was served on the employer there was in force in relation to the claimant a previous deduction notice served on the same employer after the beginning of the relevant engagement, each of the following shall for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(b)(ii) above constitute a relevant previous deduction notice, that is to say—
- (i) that previous deduction notice ; and
 - (ii) any earlier previous deduction notice relating to the claimant which was served on that employer after the beginning of the relevant engagement, if (subject to sub-paragraph (5) below) the claimant was continuously in the employment of that employer from the time when the earlier previous notice in question was served to the time when the current notice was served.
- (5) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (4) above the continuity of a period of employment under the same employer shall be treated as having been broken on any occasion on which a deduction notice relating to the employee, which was served on the employer after the beginning of the relevant engagement, ceased to have effect by reason of the expiration of the period of fourteen weeks mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(c) above.

Effect of deduction notice

- 4 (1) While a deduction notice is in force in respect of an employee, the following provisions of this paragraph shall apply as regards any pay-day on which his available earnings exceed his protected earnings (as specified in the notice):

Provided that, as regards any pay-day falling within the period of seven days beginning with the day on which the deduction notice comes into force, sub-paragraphs (2) and (3)(a) below shall have effect as if for the words " shall deduct" there were substituted the words " may deduct " .

In this paragraph " the notified amount " , in relation to a deduction notice, means the amount specified in that notice in accordance with paragraph 2(2)(b) above.

- (2) If on the pay-day in question the employee's available earnings exceed his protected earnings (as specified in the deduction notice) by an amount equal to or less than one-tenth of the notified amount, the employer shall deduct from the employee's available earnings the amount of the excess.
- (3) If on the pay-day in question the employee's available earnings exceed his protected earnings (as specified in the deduction notice) by an amount greater than one-tenth of the notified amount, the employer—
 - (a) shall deduct from the employee's available earnings an amount equal to one-tenth of the notified amount; and
 - (b) may with the consent in writing of the employee deduct from the employee's available earnings a larger amount:

Provided that the total amount deducted from the employee's available earnings by virtue of this sub-paragraph on any one payday shall not be greater than the amount by which the employee's available earnings exceed his protected earnings (as specified in the deduction notice).

- (4) Notwithstanding anything in sub-paragraph (2) or (3) above—

- (a) the employer shall not make a deduction on a pay-day by virtue of the deduction notice if the employee satisfies him that up to that pay-day he has not obtained payment of the supplementary benefit to which the deduction notice relates; and
 - (b) the employer shall not on any pay-day deduct from the employee's earnings by virtue of the deduction notice an amount greater than the amount by which, immediately before that pay-day, the notified amount exceeds the aggregate of all such amounts as, in relation to that notice, are mentioned in paragraph 3(1)(b)(i) and (ii) above.
- (5) Where on any pay-day the employer makes no deduction from the employee's earnings by reason only that the employee has satisfied him as mentioned in sub-paragraph (4)(a) above, the employer shall forthwith give notice of that fact to the Secretary of State at the prescribed place and in the prescribed manner.
- (6) Where the employer is required by sub-paragraph (2) or (3)(a) above to make a deduction on a pay-day and the amount of the deduction which he would be so required to make apart from this sub-paragraph includes a fraction of 1p, the amount which he is so required to deduct on that pay-day shall be reduced by that fraction.

Power to serve further deduction notice in certain circumstances

- 5 (1) Where a deduction notice has ceased to have effect by reason of the claimant ceasing to be in the employment of the person on whom the notice was served or by reason of the expiration of the period of fourteen weeks mentioned in paragraph 3(1)(c) above, the Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, serve a further deduction notice on the person, if any, by whom the claimant is for the time being employed.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this Schedule, in any further deduction notice served by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) above—
- (a) the amount specified as the amount by reference to which deductions are to be made by the employer shall be equal to the amount mentioned in sub-paragraph (3) below ; and
 - (b) the amount specified as the claimant's protected earnings shall, subject to the regulations, be the same as the amount specified in that behalf in the last deduction notice relating to him which was in force before the date of the further deduction notice.
- (3) The amount referred to in sub-paragraph (2)(a) above is the aggregate of the amounts of supplementary benefit respectively specified in all notifications of award under section 9(4) of this Act relating to the claimant received by the Secretary of State after the beginning of the relevant engagement and before the date of the further deduction notice in question reduced—
- (a) by so much, if any, of the aggregate of those amounts as has been repaid by the claimant before the date of the further deduction notice;
 - (b) in respect of every previous deduction notice served after the beginning of the relevant engagement which has been in force in relation to the claimant, by whichever is the greater of the following amounts—
 - (i) the aggregate of the amounts actually deducted by the relevant employer from the claimant's earnings by virtue of the previous deduction notice in question ; and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (ii) the aggregate of the amounts which that employer was required by paragraph 4(2) or 4(3)(a) above to deduct from those earnings by virtue of that previous notice.

Liability of employers

- 6 (1) A person who by virtue of a deduction notice makes one or more deductions from the earnings of a person in his employment shall, in accordance with the regulations, pay the amount or amounts deducted to the Secretary of State.
- (2) No criminal proceedings shall lie against any person on account of a contravention of sub-paragraph (2) or (3)(a) of paragraph 4 above ; but if, on any pay-day on which the said sub-paragraph (2) or the said sub-paragraph (3)(a) requires a person to make a deduction from the earnings of a person in his employment, the employer makes no deduction from the employee's earnings, or deducts from them an amount smaller than the amount which he is thereby required to deduct, then—
- (a) so much of the last-mentioned amount as is not deducted by the employer from the employee's earnings on that payday shall be recoverable from the employer by the Secretary of State; and
- (b) any sum recovered from the employer by the Secretary of State by virtue of paragraph (a) above in consequence of his omission to deduct the required amount from the employee's earnings on that pay-day shall, for the purposes of this Schedule, be deemed to have been repaid by the employee.
- (3) For the purposes of any proceedings brought by the Secretary of State by virtue of sub-paragraph (2)(a) above against a person in connection with a deduction notice served on him in respect of a person who at the material time was in that person's employment, it shall be presumed, except in so far as the contrary is proved, that on every pay-day which occurred while that notice was in force the employee's available earnings exceeded his protected earnings (as specified in the notice) by an amount greater than one-tenth of the notified amount (within the meaning of paragraph 4 above).

Right of Secretary of State to recover directly from claimant

- 7 (1) Where the Secretary of State has received a notification of award under section 9(4) of this Act and it is at any time not practicable for him, by means of a deduction notice, to effect recovery of—
- (a) the amount of supplementary benefit specified in that notification as having been awarded to the claimant; or
- (b) so much of that amount as, not having previously been repaid by the claimant or deducted from the claimant's earnings by virtue of this Part of this Schedule, remains to be recovered from the claimant;
- the amount of supplementary benefit so specified or so much of it as remains to be recovered from the claimant, as the case may be, shall, by virtue of this paragraph, be recoverable from the claimant by the Secretary of State.
- (2) For the purpose of any proceedings brought by virtue of this paragraph a certificate purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the Secretary of State and stating that it is not practicable for him, by means of a deduction notice, to effect the recovery of—
- (a) the amount of supplementary benefit specified in a notification of award under section 9(4) of this Act as having been awarded to the claimant; or

(b) so much of that amount as remains to be recovered from the claimant; shall be conclusive evidence of the matters dealt with in the certificate (other than any matter affecting the determination of the actual amount, if any, which the Secretary of State is entitled to recover from the claimant by virtue of this paragraph).

Increase of amount of award on appeal or review

8 If, after the Secretary of State has received a notification of award under section 9(4) of this Act and served a deduction notice relating to the claimant, the amount of the award which was the subject of the notification is increased—

- (a) on an appeal under section 15 of this Act; or
- (b) as a result of a review by the Commission of any determination affecting that amount;

the foregoing provisions of this Schedule shall have effect as if on the date on which the increase is awarded the Secretary of State had received a further notification of award under section 9(4) of this Act specifying the amount of the increase as the amount of supplementary benefit awarded to the claimant and, subject to the regulations, specifying as the claimant's protected earnings the same amount as was specified in that behalf in the last notification of award relating to him which was received by the Secretary of State. References in the provisions of this Schedule to a notification of award shall be construed accordingly.
