

Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981

1981 CHAPTER 14

PART II

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO PUBLIC SERVICE VEHICLES

Public service vehicle operators' licences

12 PSV operators' licences.

[^{F1}(1) A public service vehicle shall not be used on a road for carrying passengers for hire or reward except under a PSV operator's licence granted in accordance with the following provisions of this Part of this Act.]

[^{F2}(1A) Subsection (1) applies in spite of Article 1.4(b) and (c) of the 2009 Regulation (exemptions unless otherwise provided in national law for certain undertakings engaged in road passenger transport services and for slow vehicles), but is subject to section 46 of this Act and section 18 of the Transport Act 1985]

[^{F3}(2) The authority having power to grant a PSV operator's licence is a traffic commissioner.

(3) A person may hold two or more PSV operator's licences but shall not at the same time hold more than one such licence in relation to the same traffic area.

(3A) Subject to the provisions of this Part of this Act, a PSV operator's licence authorises the holder to use anywhere in Great Britain a vehicle which has as its operating centre an operating centre specified in the licence.]

(4) An application for a PSV operator's licence shall be made in such a form as [^{F4}a traffic commissioner] may require, and an applicant shall give [^{F4}the traffic commissioner dealing with the application such information as he or another traffic commissioner] may reasonably require for disposing of the application.

(5) Subject to section 68(3) of this Act, if a vehicle is used in contravention of subsection (1) above, the operator of the vehicle shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F5}level 4 on the standard scale].

Changes to legislation: Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981, Cross Heading: Public service vehicle operators' licences is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. 13 Classification of licences.

- (1) A PSV operator's licence may be either a standard licence or a restricted licence.
- (2) A standard licence authorises the use of any description of public service vehicle and may authorise use either—
 - (a) on both national and international operations; or
 - (b) on national operations only.
- (3) A restricted licence authorises the use (whether on national or international operations) of—
 - (a) public service vehicles not adapted to carry more than eight passengers; and
 - (b) public service vehicles not adapted to carry more than sixteen passengers when used—
 - (i) otherwise than in the course of a business of carrying passengers; or
 - (ii) by a person whose main occupation is not the operation of public service vehicles adapted to carry more than eight passengers.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)(b)(i) above, a vehicle used for carrying passengers by a local or public authority shall not be regarded as used in the course of a business of carrying passengers unless it is used by the public service vehicle undertaking of that authority.

[^{F8}14 Grant of licences

- (1) On an application for a standard licence a traffic commissioner must consider whether the requirements of sections 14ZA and 14ZC are satisfied.
- (2) On an application for a restricted licence a traffic commissioner must consider whether the requirements of sections 14ZB and 14ZC are satisfied.
- (3) If on an application for a PSV operator's licence the traffic commissioner determines that the relevant requirements mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) are satisfied the commissioner must, subject to section 16 (conditions attached to licences), grant the licence in accordance with the application.

- (b) is of good repute (as determined in accordance with paragraph 1 of Schedule 3),
 - (c) has appropriate financial standing (as determined in accordance with Article 7 of the 2009 Regulation), and
 - (d) is professionally competent (as determined in accordance with paragraphs 3, 4 and 6 of Schedule 3).
- (3) The second requirement is that the traffic commissioner is satisfied that the applicant has designated a transport manager in accordance with Article 4 of the 2009 Regulation who—
- (a) is of good repute (as determined in accordance with paragraph 1 of Schedule 3),
 - (b) is professionally competent (as determined in accordance with paragraph 6 of Schedule 3), and
 - (c) in the case of a transport manager designated under Article 4.2 of the 2009 Regulation—
 - (i) is not prohibited from being so designated by a traffic commissioner, and
 - (ii) is not designated to act as transport manager for a greater number of road transport operators or in respect of a greater number of vehicles than the traffic commissioner considers appropriate, having regard to the upper limits in Article 4.2(c) of the 2009 Regulation, or such smaller number as the commissioner considers appropriate (see Article 4.3 of the 2009 Regulation).

14ZC. Requirements for standard and restricted licences

- (1) The requirement of this section is that the traffic commissioner is satisfied —
 - (a) that there will be adequate facilities or arrangements for maintaining in a fit and serviceable condition the vehicles proposed to be used under the licence; and
 - (b) that there will be adequate arrangements for securing compliance with the requirements of the law relating to the driving and operation of those vehicles.
- (2) In considering whether the requirement of this section is satisfied, the traffic commissioner may take into account any undertakings given by the applicant (or procured by the applicant to be given) for the purposes of the application and may assume those undertakings will be fulfilled.
- (3) Where the traffic commissioner grants an application for a PSV operator's licence, any undertakings taken into account by the commissioner under subsection (2) that the commissioner considers to be material to the granting of the application must be recorded in the licence issued to the applicant]

[^{F9}14A Objections to application for PSV operator's licence.

- (1) Where an application is made for the grant of a PSV operator's licence under this Act, any chief officer of police or local authority may object to the grant of the licence on the ground that one or more of the requirements mentioned in [^{F10}sections 14ZA to 14ZC] of this Act are not satisfied in relation to the application.
- (2) An objection under this section shall be made within the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner and shall contain particulars of the ground on which it is made.
[Where [^{F12}a traffic commissioner] considers there to be exceptional circumstances that ^{F11}(2A) justify his doing so, he may direct that an objection be treated for the purposes of this Part of this Act as duly made under this section, notwithstanding that it was not made within the prescribed time or in the prescribed manner.]
- ^{F13}(3)
- (4) In this section "local authority" means—
 - (a) in England and Wales, the council of a county, district or London borough or the Common Council of the City of London or a Passenger Transport Executive; and
 - (b) in Scotland, a [^{F14}council constituted under section 2 of the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994].
- (5) This section does not apply in relation to any application for a special licence (within the meaning of section 12 of the Transport Act 1985).]

- (3) [^{F22}A traffic commissioner may attach to a PSV operator's licence (whether at the time when the licence is granted or at any later time)] such conditions or additional conditions as [^{F23}he thinks] fit for restricting or regulating the use of vehicles under the licence, being conditions of any prescribed description.
- (4) Without prejudice to the generality of the power to prescribe descriptions of conditions for the purposes of subsection (3) above, the descriptions which may be so prescribed include conditions for regulating the places at which vehicles being used under a PSV operator's licence may stop to take up or set down passengers.
- (5) [^{F24}At any time while a PSV operator's licence is in force, a traffic commissioner may] vary the licence by—
- altering in such manner as [^{F25}he thinks] fit any condition attached under subsection (3) above to the licence; or
 - removing any condition so attached to the licence.
- (6) On the application of the holder of a PSV operator's licence, [^{F26}a traffic commissioner] may at any time while it is in force—
- vary the conditions attached under subsection (1) above to the licence; ^{F27} . . .
 - exercise [^{F28}his] powers (whether of alteration or removal) under subsection (5) above; [^{F29}or

- (6B) In any case where [^{F31}a traffic commissioner] grants an application under subsection (6) above, any undertakings taken into account by him under subsection (6A) above that he considers to be material to the granting of the application shall be recorded in the licence as varied.]
- (7) Subject to section 68(3) of this Act, if a condition attached to a PSV operator's licence is contravened, the holder of the licence shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F32}level 3 on the standard scale].
- (8) Compliance with any condition attached to a PSV operator's licence . . . ^{F33}[^{F34}(other than a condition so attached under subsection (1A) above)] may be temporarily dispensed with by [^{F35}a traffic commissioner] if [^{F36}he is] satisfied that compliance with the condition would be unduly onerous by reason of circumstances not foreseen when the condition was attached or, if the condition has been altered, when it was last altered.
- (9) It is hereby declared that the conditions attached under subsection (1) [^{F37}or (1A)] above to a PSV operator's licence granted [^{F38}in relation to a traffic area] do not affect the use by the holder of the licence of a vehicle—
- [^{F39}(a) under a PSV operator's licence granted to the holder of that licence in relation to any other traffic area;]

[^{F40}16A Conditions as to matters required to be notified.

(1) On issuing a standard licence, a traffic commissioner shall attach to it the following conditions, namely—

- (a) a condition requiring the licence-holder to inform [^{F41}a traffic commissioner] of any event which could affect the fulfilment by the licence-holder of any of the requirements of [^{F42}section 14ZA(2)] of this Act, and to do so within 28 days of the event; and
- (b) a condition requiring the licence-holder to inform [^{F41}a traffic commissioner] of any event which could affect the fulfilment by a [^{F43}... transport manager of the requirements mentioned in [^{F44}section 14ZA(3)(a) and (b)] of this Act, and to do so within 28 days of the event coming to the licence-holder's knowledge.

^{F45}(2)

(3) Any person who contravenes any condition attached under this section to a licence of which he is the holder is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale.]

17 Revocation, suspension etc. of licences.

[^{F46}(1) [^{F47}A traffic commissioner must revoke a standard] licence if it appears to the commissioner at any time that—

- (a) the holder no longer satisfies the requirements of section 14ZA(2), or
- (b) the transport manager designated in accordance with Article 4 of the 2009 Regulation no longer satisfies the requirements of section 14ZA(3).

(1A) Before revoking a standard licence under subsection (1), the traffic commissioner may serve on the holder a notice setting a time limit, in accordance with Article 13.1 of the 2009 Regulation, for the holder to rectify the situation.

(1B) If the holder rectifies the situation within the time limit set under subsection (1A), the traffic commissioner must not revoke the licence]

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1) above, [^{F48}a traffic commissioner] may, on any of the grounds specified in subsection (3) below, at any time—

- (a) revoke [^{F49}a PSV operator's licence];
- (b) suspend [^{F50}such a licence] for such period as [^{F51}he directs];

20 Duty to give traffic commissioners information about vehicles.

- (1) It shall be the duty of the holder of a PSV operator's licence, on the happening to any public service vehicle owned by him of any failure or damage of a nature calculated to affect the safety of occupants of the public service vehicle or of persons using the road, to report the matter as soon as is practicable [F85 to the [F86 Secretary of State]] [F85; in accordance with regulations made by virtue of subsection (2A) below].
- (2) It shall be the duty of the holder of a PSV operator's licence, on any alteration otherwise than by replacement of parts being made in the structure or fixed equipment of any public service vehicle owned by him, to give notice of the alteration as soon as is practicable [F85 to the [F86 Secretary of State]] [F85; in accordance with regulations made by virtue of subsection (2A) below].

[F87(2A) Regulations may make provision—

- (a) for any report or notice required under subsection (1) or (2) above to be made or given to the Secretary of State or to the prescribed testing authority;
 - (b) for requiring a public service vehicle to be submitted for examination in the event of any such failure or damage as is mentioned in subsection (1) above or any such alteration as is mentioned in subsection (2) above; and
 - (c) for the examinations to be carried out under the regulations and, in particular, for authorising any such examination to be carried out by or under the direction of a [F88 an examiner appointed under section 66A of the Road Traffic Act 1988] or an authorised inspector.]
- (3) [F89 A traffic commissioner] may—
- (a) require the holder of [F90 a PSV operator's licence to supply him or another traffic commissioner] forthwith or within a specified time with such information as [F91 he] may reasonably require about the public service vehicles owned by [F92 the holder] and normally kept at an operating centre within [F90 the traffic area to which the licence relates], and to keep up to date information supplied by [F92 the holder] under this paragraph; or
 - (b) require the holder or former holder of [F90 a PSV operator's licence to supply him or another traffic commissioner] forthwith or within a specified time with such information as [F91 he] may reasonably require about the public service vehicles owned by [F92 the holder or former holder] at any material time specified by [F91 him] which were at that time normally kept at an operating centre within [F90 the traffic area to which the licence relates].

In this subsection “material time” means a time when the PSV operator's licence in question was in force.

- (4) Subject to section 68(1) of this Act, a person who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1) or (2) above or with any requirement under subsection (3) above shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [F93 level 3 on the standard scale].
- (5) A person who in purporting to comply with any requirement under subsection (3) above supplies any information which he knows to be false or does not believe to be true shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [F94 level 4 on the standard scale].
