1984 CHAPTER 30

PART VII

GENERAL AND SUPPLEMENTAL

Acquisition of land, and order to permit works

110 Compulsory purchase of land

A local authority may be authorised by the responsible Minister to purchase land compulsorily for the purposes of this Act, except for the purposes of paragraph (b) of section 50(1), and in relation to the compulsory purchase of land under this section—

- (a) the Acquisition of Land Act 1981 applies ; and
- (b) " land " includes any interest in land and any easement or right in, to or over land.

In this section "the responsible Minister", in relation to the purposes of section 70, means the Minister, and in relation to the other purposes of this Act means the Secretary of State.

111 Order to occupier to permit works

If, on a complaint made by the owner of any premises, it appears to a magistrates' court that the occupier of those premises prevents the owner from executing any work which he is by or under this Act required to execute, the court may order the occupier to permit the execution of the work.

In this section—

" owner " means the person for the time being receiving the rackrent of the premises, whether on his own account or as agent or trustee for any other person, or would so receive it if those premises were let at a rackrent;

This section does not apply to Parts IV and V; and in this section " the appropriate Minister " , in relation to anything authorised to be done under this Act by the Minister or the Ministers, or the Secretary of State, means that Minister or those Ministers, or the Secretary of State, as the case may be.

(3) If a council or board with respect to whom an order has been made under subsection (2) fail to comply with any requirement of the order within the time limited by it for compliance with that requirement, the appropriate Minister, instead of enforcing the order by mandamus or otherwise may—

 - (b) when any order is so revoked the appropriate Minister may, either by the revoking order or by a subsequent order, provide as seems to him to be desirable with respect to the transfer, vesting and discharge of any property or liabilities acquired or incurred by the county council or by him in discharging any of the functions to which the order so revoked related.
