- (3) The official receiver is, by virtue of his office, the liquidator during any vacancy.
- (4) At any time when he is the liquidator of the company, the official receiver may—
- (a) summon separate meetings of the company's creditors and contributories for the purpose of choosing a person to be liquidator of the company in place of the official receiver; or
  - (b) apply to the Secretary of State for the appointment of a person as liquidator of the company in place of the official receiver.
- (5) It shall be the duty of the official receiver—

- (6) A notice given under subsection (5)(b) above to the company's creditors shall contain an explanation of the creditors' power under subsection (5)(c) above to require the official receiver to summon meetings of the company's creditors and contributories.

- (1) Where a winding-up order has been made by the court in Scotland, the liquidator appointed by the court under section 535 of the 1985 Act (in this section referred to as " the interim liquidator ") shall continue in office until another person becomes liquidator in his place under this section or section 72 below.
- (2) The interim liquidator shall, subject to subsection (3) below, as soon as practicable in the period of twenty-eight days beginning with the day on which the winding-up order was made or such longer period as the court may allow, summon separate meetings of the company's creditors and contributories for the purpose of choosing a person (who may be the person who is the interim liquidator) to be liquidator of the company in place of the interim liquidator.
- (3) If it appears to the interim liquidator, in any case where a company is being wound up on grounds including its inability to pay its debts, that it would be inappropriate to summon under subsection (2) above a meeting of the company's contributories, he may summon only a meeting of the company's creditors for the purpose mentioned in that subsection.
- (4) If one or more meetings are held in pursuance of this section but no person is appointed or nominated by the meeting or meetings, the interim liquidator shall make a report to the court which shall appoint either the interim liquidator or some other person to be liquidator of the company.
- (5) A person who becomes liquidator of the company in place of the interim liquidator shall, unless he is appointed by the court, forthwith notify the court of that fact.

72 Choice of liquidator at meetings of creditors and contributories

- (3) Where the court makes an appointment under subsection (1) or (2) above, subsections (2) and (5)(a) and (b) of section 70 above shall not apply in relation to the winding up.

74 Committee of creditors etc. in England and Wales

- (1) Where a winding-up order has been made by the court in England and Wales and separate meetings of creditors and contributories have been summoned for the purpose of choosing a person to be liquidator of the company, those meetings may establish a committee to exercise the functions conferred on it by or under this Part or the 1985 Act.
- (2) The liquidator of a company, not being the official receiver, may at any time, if he thinks fit, summon separate general meetings of the company's creditors and contributories for the purpose of determining whether such a committee should be established and, if it is determined that one should be established, of establishing it; and the liquidator of a company who is not the official receiver shall summon such a meeting if he is requested, in accordance with the rules, to do so by one-tenth, in value, of the company's creditors.
- (3) Where meetings are summoned under this section, or for the purpose of choosing a person to be liquidator of a company, and either the meeting of creditors or the meeting of contributories decides that a committee should be established under this section but the other meeting does not so decide or decides that a committee should not be so established, the committee shall be established in accordance with the rules, unless the court otherwise orders.
- (4) A committee established under this section shall not be able or required to carry out its functions at any time when the official receiver is the liquidator of the company; but at any such time the functions of such a committee shall be vested in the Secretary of State except to the extent that the rules otherwise provide.
- (5) Where in the case of any winding up there is for the time being no committee established under this section and the liquidator is a person other than the official receiver, the functions of such a committee shall be vested in the Secretary of State except to the extent that the rules otherwise provide.

75 Committee of creditors etc. in Scotland

- (1) Where a winding-up order has been made by the court in Scotland and separate meetings of creditors and contributories have been summoned for the purpose of choosing a person to be liquidator of the company or, under section 71(3) above, only a meeting of the company's creditors has been summoned for that purpose, those meetings or, as the case may be, that meeting may establish a committee to exercise the functions conferred on it by or under this Part or the 1985 Act.
- (2) The liquidator of the company may at any time, if he thinks fit, summon separate general meetings of the company's creditors and contributories for the purpose of determining whether such a committee should be established and, if it is determined that one should be established, of establishing it.
- (3) A liquidator appointed by the court otherwise than under section 72(4)(a) above shall be required to summon meetings under subsection (2) above if he is requested, in accordance with the rules, to do so by one-tenth, in value, of the company's creditors.
- (4) Where meetings are summoned under this section, or for the purpose of choosing a person to be liquidator of a company, and either the meeting of creditors or the meeting of contributories decides that a committee should be established under this section but the other meeting does not so decide or decides that a committee should not be so established, the committee shall be established in accordance with the rules, unless the court otherwise orders.
- (5) Where in the case of any winding up there is for the time being no committee established under this section, the functions of such a committee shall be vested in the court except to the extent that the rules otherwise provide.
- (6) In addition to the powers and duties conferred and imposed on it by this Act and the 1985 Act, a committee established under this section shall have such of the powers and duties of commissioners in a sequestration as may be conferred and imposed on such committees by the rules.

76 Power of official receiver to apply for early dissolution

- (1) The official receiver may at any time apply to the registrar of companies for the early dissolution of a company in respect of which a winding-up order has been made by the court in England and Wales if—

  - (b) it appears to him—
    - (i) that the realisable assets of the company are insufficient to cover the expenses of the winding up; and
    - (ii) that the affairs of the company do not require any further investigation.
- (2) Before making an application to the registrar under subsection (1) above, the official receiver shall give not less than twenty-eight days' notice of his intention to do so to the company's creditors and contributories and, if there is an administrative receiver of the company, to that receiver.
- (3) With the giving with respect to a company of a notice under subsection (2) above the official receiver shall (subject to any directions under this section) cease to be required to perform any duties imposed on him in relation to the company, its creditors or its

  - (c) that for any other reason the early dissolution of the company is inappropriate.
- (6) On the receipt of an application under subsection (1) above the registrar shall forthwith register it and, at the end of the period of three months beginning with the day of its registration, the company shall be dissolved; but the Secretary of State may, on the application of the official receiver or any other person who appears to the Secretary of State to be interested, give directions under this section at any time before the end of that period.
- (7) Directions under this section are directions making such provision as the Secretary of State thinks fit for enabling the winding up of the company to proceed as if no notice had been given under subsection (2) above and may, in the case of an application under subsection (6) above, include a direction deferring the date at which the dissolution of the company is to take effect for such period as the Secretary of State thinks fit.
- (8) An appeal to the court shall lie from any decision of the Secretary of State on an application for directions under this section.
- (9) It is the duty of the person on whose application any directions are given under this section, or in whose favour an appeal with respect to an application for such directions is determined, within seven days after the giving of the directions or the determination of the appeal, to deliver to the registrar for registration such a copy of the directions or determination as is prescribed.
- (10) If a person without reasonable excuse fails to deliver a copy as required by subsection (9) above, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one-fifth of the statutory maximum and, for continued contravention, to a daily default fine not exceeding one-fiftieth of the statutory maximum.

77 Early dissolution of company in Scotland

- (2) Where the liquidator makes an application under subsection (1) above, if the court is satisfied that the realisable assets of the company are insufficient to cover the expenses of the winding up and it appears to the court appropriate to do so, the court shall make an order that the company be dissolved in accordance with this section.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, if it appears to the liquidator of a company which is being wound up by the court that the winding up of the company is for practical purposes complete and the liquidator is not the official receiver, the liquidator shall summon a final general meeting of the company's Creditors which—
  - (a) shall receive the liquidator's report of the winding up; and
  - (b) shall determine whether the liquidator should have his release under section 80 below.
- (2) The liquidator may, if he thinks fit, give the notice summoning the final general meeting at the same time as giving notice of any final distribution of the company's property but, if summoned for an earlier date, that meeting shall be adjourned (and, if necessary, further adjourned) until a date on which the liquidator is able to report to the meeting that the winding up of the company is for practical purposes complete.

  - (a) the office holder may apply to the court for an order under this section; and
  - (b) the court shall, on such an application, make such order as it thinks fit for restoring the position to what it would have been if the company had not entered into that transaction or, as the case may be, had not given that preference.
- (2) For the purposes of this section and section 102 below a company enters into a transaction with a person at an undervalue if—
  - (a) the company makes a gift to that person or otherwise enters into a transaction with that person on terms that provide for the company to receive no consideration; or
  - (b) the company enters into a transaction with that person for a consideration the value of which, in money or money's worth, is significantly less than the value, in money or money's worth, of the consideration provided by the company.

- (b) that at the time it did so there were reasonable grounds for believing that the transaction would benefit the company.
- (4) For the purposes of this section and section 102 below a company gives a preference to a person if—

- (5) The court shall not make an order under this section in respect of a preference given to any person unless the company which gave the preference was influenced in deciding to give it by a desire to produce in relation to that person the effect mentioned in subsection (4)(b) above.
- (6) A company which has given a preference to a person connected with the company at the time the preference was given shall be presumed, unless the contrary is shown, to have been influenced in deciding to give it by such a desire as is mentioned in subsection (5) above.
- (7) The fact that something has been done in pursuance of the order of a court shall not, without more, prevent the doing or suffering of that thing from constituting the giving of a preference.
- (8) Subject to subsection (9) below, the time at which a company enters into a transaction at an undervalue or gives a preference is a relevant time for the purposes of this section if the transaction is entered into or the preference is given—
- (a) in the case of a transaction at an undervalue or of a preference which is given to a person who is connected with the company, at a time in the period of two years ending with the commencement date; or

  - (b) becomes unable to pay its debts within the meaning of that section in consequence of the transaction or preference ;

- (f) provide for security to be provided for the discharge of any obligation imposed by or arising under the order, for such an obligation to be charged on any property and for such security or charge to have the same priority as a security or charge released or discharged (in whole or in part) under the transaction or by the giving of the preference ; and
- (g) provide for the extent to which any person whose property is vested by the order in the company, or on whom obligations are imposed by the order, is to be able to prove in the winding up of the company for debts or other liabilities which arose from, or were released or discharged (in whole or in part) under or by, the transaction or the giving of the preference.

- (2) An order under section 101 above may affect the property of, or impose any obligation on, any person whether or not he is the person with whom the company in question entered into the transaction or, as the case may be, the person to whom the preference was given ; but such an order—

- (a) shall not prejudice any interest in property which was acquired from a person other than the company and was acquired in good faith, for value and without notice of the relevant circumstances, or prejudice any interest deriving from such an interest; and
- (b) shall not require a person who received a benefit from the transaction or preference in good faith, for value and without notice of the relevant circumstances to pay a sum to the office holder, except where that person was a party to the transaction or the payment is to be in respect of a preference given to that person at a time when he was a creditor of the company.

- and it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that a transaction with respect to which an application is made under this section is or, as the case may be, was extortionate.

105 Unenforceability of liens on books etc.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, a lien or other right to retain possession of any of the books, papers or other records of the company shall be unenforceable to the extent that its enforcement would deny possession of any books, papers or other records to the office holder.

  - (b) direct that the order mentioned in subsection (1) above shall continue, or (if it has ceased to have effect) shall be renewed, for such further period as the court may specify in the direction.
- (5) The court may, on the application of the nominee, extend the period for which the order mentioned in subsection (1) above has effect so as to enable the nominee to have more time to prepare the report required by this section.
- (6) If the court is satisfied on receiving the report required by this section that a meeting of the debtor's creditors should be summoned to consider the debtor's proposal, the court shall direct that the period for which the order mentioned in subsection (1) above has effect shall be extended, for such further period as it may specify in the direction, for the purpose of enabling the debtor's proposal to be considered by his creditors in accordance with the following provisions of this Chapter.
- (7) The court may discharge the order mentioned in subsection (1) above if it is satisfied, on the application of the nominee—
  - (a) that the debtor has failed to comply with his obligations under subsection (3) above ; or
  - (b) that for any other reason it would be inappropriate for a meeting of the debtor's creditors to be summoned to consider the debtor's proposal.

114 Summons of creditors' meeting

- (1) Where the court has made an interim order and after the making of the order or, as the case may be, with a view to its being made a person has reported to the court under section 113 above or section 123(3) below that a meeting of the debtor's creditors should be summoned, that person shall, unless the court otherwise directs, summon that meeting for the time, date and place proposed in his report.
- (2) The persons who shall be summoned to a meeting of creditors under this section shall be every creditor of the debtor of whose claim and address the person summoning the meeting is aware.

Consideration and implementation of proposal

115 Decision of creditors' meeting

- (1) A meeting summoned under section 114 above shall decide whether to approve the composition or scheme proposed by the debtor.
- (2) Such a meeting may approve the proposed composition or scheme with modifications but shall not do so unless the debtor consents to each modification.
- (3) The modifications subject to which the proposed composition or scheme may be approved may include one conferring the functions proposed to be conferred on the nominee on another person qualified to act as an insolvency practitioner in relation to the debtor but shall not include any modification by virtue of which the proposal ceases to be a proposal such as is mentioned in section 110 above.
- (4) Except with the concurrence of the secured creditor concerned, a meeting summoned under section 114 above shall not approve any proposal or modification which affects the right of a secured creditor of the debtor to enforce his security.
- (5) Except with the concurrence of the preferential creditor concerned, a meeting summoned under section 114 above shall not approve any proposal or modification under which—
  - (a) any preferential debt of the debtor is to be paid otherwise than in priority to such of his debts as are not preferential debts; or
  - (b) a preferential creditor of the debtor is to be paid an amount in respect of a preferential debt that bears to that debt a smaller proportion than is borne to another preferential debt by the amount that is to be paid in respect of that other debt.
- (6) Subject to subsections (1) to (5) above, a meeting summoned under section 114 above shall be conducted in accordance with the rules.
- (7) After the conclusion in accordance with the rules of a meeting summoned under section 114 above, the chairman of the meeting shall report the result of the meeting to the court and, immediately after reporting to the court, shall give notice of the result of the meeting to such persons as may be prescribed.

- (9) In this section " preferential debt" means any of the debts which in the distribution of a bankrupt's estate are, under section 166 below and Schedule 4 to this Act (read with Schedule 3 to the Social Security Pensions Act 1975), to be paid in priority to all other debts, and " preferential creditor " shall be construed accordingly.
- (10) For the purposes of this section Schedule 4 to this Act and Schedule 3 to the said Act of 1975 shall each have effect, in relation to a debtor who is not an undischarged bankrupt, as if—
  - (a) references to the relevant date were references to the date of the interim order made with respect to his proposal; and
  - (b) references to the debtor being adjudged bankrupt were references to the making of that order.

116 Effect of approval

- (1) This section has effect where a meeting summoned under section 114 above approves a proposed composition or scheme (with or without modifications).
- (2) The approved composition or scheme shall take effect as if made by the debtor at the meeting and shall bind every person who in accordance with the rules had notice of, and was entitled to vote at, the meeting (whether or not he was present or represented at the meeting) as if he were a party to the composition or scheme.
- (3) The Deeds of Arrangement Act 1914 shall not apply to the approved composition or scheme.

  - (b) at any time when an application under section 117 below or an appeal in respect of such an application is pending or at any time in the period within which such an appeal may be brought.
- (6) Except to such extent as the court may direct for the purposes of any application under section 117 below, any interim order in force in relation to the debtor immediately before the end of the period of twenty-eight days beginning with the day on which the report with respect to the meeting was made to the court under section 115(7) above shall cease to have effect at the end of that period.
- (7) Where proceedings on a bankruptcy petition have been stayed by an interim order which ceases to have effect under subsection (6) above, that petition shall be deemed, unless the court otherwise orders, to have been dismissed.

117 Challenge of meeting's decision

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, an application to the court may be made, by any of the persons specified in subsection (2) below, on one or both of the following grounds, namely—

  - (a) the debtor;

- (4) Where on an application under this section the court is satisfied as to either of the grounds mentioned in subsection (1) above, it may do one or both of the following, namely—
  - (a) revoke or suspend any approval given by the meeting in question;
  - (b) give a direction to any person for the summoning of a further meeting of the debtor's creditors to consider any revised proposal he may make or, in a case falling within subsection (1)(b) above, to reconsider his original proposal.
- (5) Where at any time after giving a direction under subsection (4)(b) above for the summoning of a meeting to consider a revised proposal the court is satisfied that the debtor does not intend to submit such a proposal, the court shall revoke the direction and revoke or suspend any approval given at the previous meeting.
- (6) Where the court gives a direction under subsection (4)(b) above, it may also give a direction continuing or, as the case may require, renewing, for such period as may be specified in the direction, the effect in relation to the debtor of any interim order.
- (7) In any case where the court, on an application made under this section with respect to any meeting, gives a direction under subsection (4)(b) above or revokes or suspends an approval under subsection (4)(a) or (5) above, the court may give such supplemental directions as it thinks fit and, in particular, directions with respect to—

- (3) If the debtor, any of his creditors or any other person is dissatisfied by any act, omission or decision of the supervisor, he may apply to the court; and on such an application the court may confirm, reverse or modify any act or decision of the supervisor, may give him directions or may make such other order as it thinks fit.
- (4) The supervisor may apply to the court for directions in relation to any particular matter arising under the composition or scheme.
- (5) Without prejudice to section 41(2) of the Trustee Act 1925 (power of court to appoint trustees of deeds of arrangement), the court may, whenever—

  - (b) it is inexpedient, difficult or impracticable for an appointment to be made without the assistance of the court,

- (6) The court shall have a general power, if it appears to it appropriate to do so on the grounds that there has been a contravention of the rules or for any other reason, to dismiss a bankruptcy petition or to stay proceedings on such a petition; and, where it stays proceedings on a bankruptcy petition, it may do so on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit.
- (7) Without prejudice to subsection (6) above, where a petition under paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (1) above in respect of an individual is pending at a time when a criminal bankruptcy order is made against him, or is presented after such an order has been so made, the court may on the application of the Official Petitioner dismiss the petition if it appears to it appropriate to do so.

Creditor's petition

120 Creditor's petition

- (1) A creditor's petition must be in respect of one or more debts owed by the debtor, and the petitioning creditor or each of the petitioning creditors must be a person to whom the debt or, as the case may be, at least one of the debts is owed.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) to (6) below, a creditor's petition may be presented to the court in respect of a debt or debts only if, at the time the petition is presented—

- (c) the debt, or each of the debts, is a debt which the debtor appears either to be unable to pay or to have no reasonable prospect of being able to pay ; and
  - (d) there is no outstanding application to set aside a demand served for the purposes of subsection (3)(a) or (4) below in respect of the debt or any of the debts.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(c) above the debtor appears to be unable to pay a debt if, but only if, the debt is payable immediately and either—
  - (a) the petitioning creditor to whom the debt is owed has served on the debtor a demand in the prescribed form requiring him to pay the debt or to secure or compound for it to the satisfaction of the creditor, at least three weeks have elapsed since the demand was served and the demand has been neither complied with nor set aside in accordance with the rules; or
  - (b) execution or other process issued in respect of the debt on a judgment or order of any court in favour of the petitioning creditor, or one or more of the petitioning creditors to whom the debt is owed, has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2)(c) above the debtor appears to have no reasonable prospect of being able to pay a debt if, but only if, the debt is not immediately payable and—
  - (a) the petitioning creditor to whom it is owed has served on the debtor a demand in the prescribed form requiring him to establish to the satisfaction of the creditor that there is a reasonable prospect that the debtor will be able to pay the debt when it falls due ;
  - (b) at least three weeks have elapsed since the demand was served; and
  - (c) the demand has been neither complied with nor set aside in accordance with the rules.
- (5) A debt which is the debt, or one of the debts, in respect of which a creditor's petition is presented need not be unsecured if either—

  - (b) the petition is expressed not to be made in respect of the secured part of the debt and contains a statement by that person of the estimated value at the date of the petition of the security for the secured part of the debt;and in a case falling within paragraph (b) above the secured and unsecured parts of the debt shall be treated for the purposes of this section as separate debts.
- (6) In the case of a creditor's petition presented wholly or partly in respect of a debt which is the subject of such a demand as is mentioned in subsection (3) (a) or (4) above, the petition may be presented before the end of the three week period so mentioned if there is a serious possibility that the debtor's property or the value of any of his property will be significantly diminished during that period and the petition contains a statement to that effect,
- (7) A debt shall not be regarded for the purposes of this section as a debt for a liquidated sum by reason only that the amount of the debt is specified in a criminal bankruptcy order.
- (8) In this section " the bankruptcy level" means £750; but the Secretary of State may by order made by statutory instrument substitute any amount specified in the order for that amount or, as the case may be, for the amount which by virtue of such an order is for the time being the amount of the bankruptcy level.

- (9) An order shall not be made under subsection (8) above unless a draft of it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

121 Proceedings on creditor's petition

- (1) The court shall not make a bankruptcy order on a creditor's petition unless it is satisfied that the debt, or one of the debts, in respect of which the petition was presented is either—
- (a) a debt which, having been payable at the date of the petition or having since become payable, has been neither paid nor secured or compounded for ; or
  - (b) a debt which the debtor has no reasonable prospect of being able to pay when it falls due.
- (2) In a case in which a creditor's petition contains such a statement as is required by section 120(6) above, the court shall not make a bankruptcy order until at least three weeks have elapsed since the service of any demand required by virtue of section 120(3)(a) or (4) above.
- (3) The court may dismiss a creditor's petition if it is satisfied that the debtor is able to pay all his debts or is satisfied—
- (a) that the debtor has made an offer to secure or compound for a debt in respect of which the petition is presented ;
  - (b) that the acceptance of that offer would have required the dismissal of the petition ; and
  - (c) that the offer has been unreasonably refused ;
- and, in determining for the purposes of this subsection whether the debtor is able to pay all his debts, the court shall take into account his contingent and prospective liabilities.
- (4) In determining for the purposes of this section what constitutes a reasonable prospect that a debtor will be able to pay a debt when it falls due, it shall be assumed that the prospect given by the facts and other matters known to the creditor at the time he entered into the transaction resulting in the debt was a reasonable prospect.
- (5) Nothing in this section or section 120 above shall prejudice the power of the court, in accordance with the rules, to authorise a creditor's petition to be amended by the omission of any creditor or debt and to be proceeded with as if things done for the purposes of this section or that section had been done only by or in relation to the remaining creditors or debts.

  - (b) that if a bankruptcy order were made the value of the bankrupt's estate would be equal to or more than the minimum amount;
  - (c) that within the period of five years ending with the presentation of the petition the debtor has neither been adjudged bankrupt nor made a composition with his creditors in satisfaction of his debts or a scheme of arrangement of his affairs; and

- (2) Where, on the hearing of a debtor's petition, it appears to the court as mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to (d) above, the court shall appoint a person who is qualified to act as an insolvency practitioner in relation to the debtor to prepare a report under subsection (3) below and, subject to section 115(3) above, to act in relation to any composition or scheme to which the report relates either as trustee or otherwise for the purpose of supervising its implementation.
- (3) A person appointed under subsection (2) above shall inquire into the debtor's affairs and, within such period as the court may direct, shall submit a report to the court stating whether the debtor is willing, for the purposes of Chapter I of this Part, to make a proposal for a composition in satisfaction of his debts or for a scheme of arrangement of his affairs.
- (4) A report under subsection (3) above which states that the debtor is willing to make a proposal for the purposes of Chapter I of this Part shall also state—

- (6) Where—
- (a) the court makes a bankruptcy order in a case in which it appears to the court as mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (c) of subsection (1) above (whether it makes the order because it does not appear to the court as mentioned in paragraph (b) or
  - (a) of that subsection or it makes it under subsection (5) (b) above); and
  - (b) it appears to the court appropriate to do so,
- the court shall issue a certificate for the summary administration of the bankrupt's estate.

    - (i) was contained in any statement of affairs or other document supplied by the debtor under Chapter I of this Part to any person ; or
    - (ii) was otherwise made available by the debtor to his creditors at or in connection with a meeting summoned under that Chapter ; or
  - (c) that the debtor has failed to do all such things as may for the purposes of the composition or scheme have been reasonably required of him by the supervisor of the composition or scheme.
- (2) Where a bankruptcy order is made on a petition under section 119(1)(c) above, any expenses properly incurred as expenses of the administration of the composition or scheme in question shall be a first charge on the bankrupt's estate.

Petition based on criminal bankruptcy order

125 Petition based on criminal bankruptcy order

- (1) Subject to subsection (6) of section 119 above, the court shall make a bankruptcy order on a petition under subsection (1)(d) of that section on production of a copy of the criminal bankruptcy order on which the petition is based, unless it appears to the court that the criminal bankruptcy order has been rescinded in consequence of an appeal.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this Part, the fact that an appeal is pending against any conviction by virtue of which a criminal bankruptcy order was made shall not affect any proceedings on a petition under section 119(1)(d) above based on that order.

128 Effect of discharge

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) to (6) below, where a bankrupt is discharged from his bankruptcy, the discharge shall release him from all the bankruptcy debts but shall have no effect on the functions (so far as they remain to be carried out) of the trustee of his estate or on the operation, for the purposes of the carrying out of those functions, of the provisions of this Part and, in particular, shall not affect the right of any creditor of the bankrupt to prove in the bankruptcy for any debt from which the bankrupt is released.

- (11) No order shall be made under this section by virtue of subsection (10) above where an appeal is pending (within the meaning of section 125 above) against the individual's conviction of any offence by virtue of which the criminal bankruptcy order was made.

  - (b) require any property to be so vested if it represents in any person's hands the application either of the proceeds of sale of property so transferred or of money so transferred;

- (2) An order under section 174 above may affect the property of, or impose any obligation on, any person whether or not he is the person with whom the individual in question entered into the transaction or, as the case may be, the person to whom the preference was given; but such an order—
- (a) shall not prejudice any interest in property which was acquired from a person other than that individual and was acquired in good faith, for value and without notice of the relevant circumstances, or prejudice any interest deriving from such an interest; and
  - (b) shall not require a person who received a benefit from the transaction or preference in good faith, for value and without notice of the relevant circumstances to pay a sum to the trustee of the bankrupt's estate, except where he was a party to the transaction or the payment is to be in respect of a preference given to that person at a time when he was a creditor of that individual.
- (3) Any sums required to be paid to the trustee in accordance with an order under section 174 above shall be comprised in the bankrupt's estate.
- (4) For the purposes of this section the relevant circumstances, in relation to a transaction or preference, are—
- (a) the circumstances by virtue of which an order under section 174 above could be made in respect of the transaction or preference if the individual in question were adjudged bankrupt within a particular period after the transaction is entered into or the preference given; and

- (2) The court may, on the application of the trustee of the bankrupt's estate, make an order with respect to the transaction if the transaction is or was extortionate and was not entered into more than three years before the commencement of the bankruptcy.
- (3) For the purposes of this section a transaction is extortionate if, having regard to the risk accepted by the person providing the credit—
- (a) the terms of it are or were such as to require grossly exorbitant payments to be made (whether unconditionally or in certain contingencies) in respect of the provision of the credit; or
  - (b) it otherwise grossly contravened ordinary principles of fair dealing;
- and it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that a transaction with respect to which an application is made under this section is or, as the case may be, was extortionate.

177 Avoidance of general assignment of book debts

- (1) Where a person engaged in any business makes a general assignment to another person of his existing or future book debts, or any class of them, and is subsequently adjudged bankrupt, the assignment shall be void against the trustee of the bankrupt's estate as regards book debts which were not paid before the presentation of the bankruptcy petition unless the assignment has been registered under the Bills of Sale Act 1878.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) above " assignment" includes an assignment by way of security or charge on book debts and " general assignment" does not include an assignment of book debts due at the date of the assignment from specified debtors or of debts becoming due under specified contracts or an assignment of book debts included either in a transfer of a business made in good faith and for value or in an assignment of assets for the benefit of creditors generally.
- (3) For the purposes of registration under the said Act of 1878 an assignment of book debts shall be treated as if it were a bill of sale given otherwise than by way of security for the payment of a sum of money; and the provisions of that Act with respect to the registration of bills of sale shall apply accordingly with such necessary modifications as may be made by rules under that Act.

178 Contracts to which bankrupt is a party

- (1) Where a contract has been made with a person who is subsequently adjudged bankrupt, the court may, on the application of any other party to the contract, make an order discharging obligations under the contract on such terms as to payment by the applicant or the bankrupt of damages for non-performance or otherwise as appear to the court to be equitable.
