Depository receipts

67 Depository receipts

- (1) Subject to subsection (9) below, subsection (2) or (3) below (as the case may be) applies where an instrument [^{F11}(other than a bearer instrument)] transfers relevant securities of a company incorporated in the United Kingdom to a person who at the time of the transfer falls within subsection (6), (7) or (8) below.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 1986, PART III. (See end of Document for details)

[^{F12}(2) If stamp duty is chargeable on the instrument under Part I of Schedule 13 to the Finance Act 1999 (conveyance or transfer on sale), the rate at which that duty is chargeable is [^{F13}1.5% of—

- (a) the amount or value of the consideration for the sale to which the instrument gives effect, or
- (b) where subsection (2A) applies—
 - (i) the amount or value of the consideration for the sale to which the instrument gives effect, or
 - (ii) if higher, the value of the securities at the date the instrument is executed.]

[^{F14}(2A) This subsection applies where the instrument transferring the securities is executed pursuant to—

- (a) the exercise of an option to buy or to sell the securities, and
- (b) either—
 - (i) a term of the option which provides for the securities to be transferred to the person falling within subsection (6), (7) or (8), or
 - (ii) a direction, given by or on behalf of the person entitled or bound to acquire the securities pursuant to the exercise of the option, for the securities to be so transferred.]

(3) [^{F15}[^{F16}If stamp duty is not chargeable on the instrument under Part 1 of Schedule 13 to the Finance Act 1999 (transfer on sale)]—

- (a) stamp duty is chargeable on the instrument under this subsection, and
- (b)] subject to subsection (5), the rate at which that duty is chargeable is 1.5% of the value of the securities at the date the instrument is executed.]

(4) ^{F17}

(5) In a case where —

- (a) securities are issued, or securities sold are transferred, and (in either case) they are to be paid for in instalments,
- (b) the person to whom they are issued or transferred holds them and transfers them to another person when the last instalment is paid,
- (c) the transfer to the other person is effected by an instrument in the case of which subsection (3) above applies,
- (d) before the execution of the instrument mentioned in paragraph (c) above an instrument is received by a person falling (at the time of the receipt) within subsection (6), (7) or (8) below,
- (e) the instrument so received evidences all the rights which (by virtue of the terms under which the securities are issued or sold as mentioned in paragraph (a) above) subsist in respect of them at the time of the receipt, and
- (f) the instrument mentioned in paragraph (c) above contains a statement that paragraphs (a), (b) and (e) above are fulfilled, subsection (3) above shall have effect as if the reference to the value there mentioned were to an amount (if any) equal to the total of the instalments payable, less those paid before the transfer to the other person is effected.

(6) A person falls within this subsection if his business is exclusively that of holding relevant securities —

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 1986, PART III. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) as nominee or agent for a person whose business is or includes issuing depositary receipts for relevant securities, and
 - (b) for the purposes of such part of the business mentioned in paragraph (a) above as consists of issuing such depositary receipts (in a case where the business does not consist exclusively of that).
- (7) A person falls within this subsection if —
- (a) he is specified for the purposes of this subsection by the Treasury by order made by statutory instrument, and
 - (b) his business is or includes issuing depositary receipts for relevant securities.
- (8) A person falls within this subsection if —
- (a) he is specified for the purposes of this subsection by the Treasury by order made by statutory instrument,
 - (b) he does not fall within subsection (6) above but his business includes holding relevant securities as nominee or agent for a person who falls within subsection (7)(b) above at the time of the transfer, and
 - (c) he holds relevant securities as nominee or agent for such a person, for the purposes of such part of that person's business as consists of issuing depositary receipts for relevant securities (in a case where that business does not consist exclusively of that).
- [^{F18}(8A) Where an instrument transfers shares or stock or marketable securities admitted to trading on a recognised growth market but not listed on any market, subsections (2) to (5) do not apply and stamp duty is not chargeable on the instrument.
- (8B) In subsection (8A) “listed” and “recognised growth market” are to be construed in accordance with section 99A below.]
- (9) Where an instrument transfers relevant securities of a company incorporated in the United Kingdom —
- (a) to a company which at the time of the transfer falls within subsection (6) above ^{F19} . . . , and
 - (b) from a company which at that time falls within that subsection ^{F19} . . . ,
- subsections (2) to (5) above shall not apply and [^{F20}stamp duty is not chargeable on the instrument].
- [^{F21}(9A) In this section “bearer instrument” has the meaning given in paragraph 3 of Schedule 15 to the Finance Act 1999.]
- (10) This section applies to any instrument executed on or after the day on which the rule of The Stock Exchange that prohibits a person from carrying on business as both a broker and a jobber is abolished.

69 Depository receipts: supplementary

- (1) For the purposes of sections 67 and 68 above a depository receipt for relevant securities is an instrument acknowledging—
- (a) that a person holds relevant securities or evidence of the right to receive them, and
 - (b) that another person is entitled to rights, whether expressed as units or otherwise, in or in relation to relevant securities of the same kind, including the right to receive such securities (or evidence of the right to receive them) from the person mentioned in paragraph (a) above,
- except that for those purposes a depository receipt for relevant securities does not include an instrument acknowledging rights in or in relation to securities if they are issued or sold under terms providing for payment in instalments and for the issue of the instrument as evidence that an instalment has been paid.
- (2) The Treasury may by regulations provide that for subsection (1) above (as it has effect for the time being) there shall be substituted a subsection containing a different definition of a depository receipt for the purposes of sections 67 and 68 above.
- (3) References in this section and sections 67 and 68 above to relevant securities, or to relevant securities of a company, are to shares in or stock or marketable securities of any company (which, unless otherwise stated, need not be incorporated in the United Kingdom).
- (4) For the purposes of [^{F24}section 67(2)(b)(ii) and (3)] above the value of securities at the date the instrument is executed shall be taken to be the price they might reasonably be expected to fetch on a sale at that time in the open market.

75 Acquisitions: reliefs.

- (1) This section applies where a company (the acquiring company) acquires the whole or part of an undertaking of another company (the target company) in pursuance of a scheme for the reconstruction of the target company.
- (2) If the first and second conditions (as defined below) are fulfilled, stamp duty under ^{F48}Part I of Schedule 13 to the Finance Act 1999 (conveyance or transfer on sale) shall not be chargeable on an instrument executed for the purposes of or in connection with the transfer of the undertaking or part.
- (3) An instrument on which stamp duty is not chargeable by virtue only of subsection (2) above shall not be taken to be duly stamped unless it is stamped with the duty to which it would be liable but for that subsection or it has, in accordance with section 12 of the Stamp Act 1891, been stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with any duty.
- (4) The first condition is ^{F49}... that the consideration for the acquisition—
 - (a) consists of or includes the issue of ^{F50}non-redeemable] shares in the acquiring company to all the shareholders of the target company;
 - (b) includes nothing else (if anything) but the assumption or discharge by the acquiring company of liabilities of the target company.

^{F51}In paragraph (a) above, “non-redeemable shares” means shares which are not redeemable shares.]

- (5) The second condition is that—
 - (a) the acquisition is effected for bona fide commercial reasons and does not form part of a scheme or arrangement of which the main purpose, or one of the main purposes, is avoidance of liability to stamp duty, income tax, corporation tax or capital gains tax,
 - (b) after the acquisition has been made, each shareholder of each of the companies is a shareholder of the other, and
 - (c) after the acquisition has been made, the proportion of shares of one of the companies held by any shareholder is the same ^{F52}, or as nearly as may be the same,] as the proportion of shares of the other company held by that shareholder.
- ^{F53}(5A) If immediately before the acquisition the target company or the acquiring company holds any of its own shares, the shares are to be treated for the purposes of subsections (4) and (5) as having been cancelled before the acquisition (and, accordingly, the company is to be treated as if it were not a shareholder of itself.)]
- (6) This section applies to any instrument which is executed after 24th March 1986 unless it is executed in pursuance of an unconditional contract made on or before 18th March 1986.
- (7) This section shall be deemed to have come into force on 25th March 1986.

77 Acquisition of target company's share capital

- (1) Stamp duty under [^{F55}Part I of Schedule 13 to the Finance Act 1999 (conveyance or transfer on sale)] shall not be chargeable on an instrument transferring shares in one company (the target company) to another company (the acquiring company) if the conditions mentioned in subsection (3) below are fulfilled.
- (2) An instrument on which stamp duty is not chargeable by virtue only of subsection (1) above shall not be taken to be duly stamped unless it is stamped with the duty to which it would be liable but for that subsection or it has, in accordance with section 12 of the Stamp Act 1891, been stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with any duty.
- (3) The conditions are that —
 - ^{F56}(a)
 - (b) the transfer forms part of an arrangement by which the acquiring company acquires the whole of the issued share capital of the target company,
 - (c) the acquisition is effected for bona fide commercial reasons and does not form part of a scheme or arrangement of which the main purpose, or one of the main purposes, is avoidance of liability to stamp duty, stamp duty reserve tax, income tax, corporation tax or capital gains tax,
 - (d) the consideration for the acquisition consists only of the issue of shares in the acquiring company to the shareholders of the target company,
 - (e) after the acquisition has been made, each person who immediately before it was made was a shareholder of the target company is a shareholder of the acquiring company,

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 1986, PART III. (See end of Document for details)

- (f) after the acquisition has been made, the shares in the acquiring company are of the same classes as were the shares in the target company immediately before the acquisition was made,
- (g) after the acquisition has been made, the number of shares of any particular class in the acquiring company bears to all the shares in that company the same proportion [^{F57}, or as nearly as may be the same proportion,] as the number of shares of that class in the target company bore to all the shares in that company immediately before the acquisition was made, ^{F58} ...
- (h) after the acquisition has been made, the proportion of shares of any particular class in the acquiring company held by any particular shareholder is the same [^{F59}, or as nearly as may be the same,] as the proportion of shares of that class in the target company held by him immediately before the acquisition was made [^{F60}, and
- (i) at the time the instrument mentioned in subsection (1) is executed there are no disqualifying arrangements, within the meaning given by section 77A, in existence.]

[^{F61}(3A) If immediately before the acquisition the target company or the acquiring company holds any of its own shares, the shares are to be treated for the purposes of subsection [^{F62}(3)(b) to (h)] as having been cancelled before the acquisition (and, accordingly, the company is to be treated as if it were not a shareholder of itself).]

- (4) In this section [^{F63}and section 77A] references to shares and to share capital include references to stock.
- (5) This section applies to any instrument executed on or after 1st August 1986.

[^{F64}77A Disqualifying arrangements

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of section 77(3)(i).
- (2) Arrangements are “disqualifying arrangements” if it is reasonable to assume that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the arrangements is to secure that—
 - (a) a particular person obtains control of the acquiring company, or
 - (b) particular persons together obtain control of that company.

[^{F65}but a person who has held at least 25% of the issued share capital of the target company at all times during the relevant period is not within paragraph (a) or (b).]

[For the purposes of subsection (2) the “relevant period” is the period of 3 years ending ^{F66}(2A) immediately before the time at which the shares in the acquiring company are issued (or first issued) as consideration for the acquisition.]

- (3) ^{F67}... neither of the following are disqualifying arrangements—
 - (a) the arrangements for the issue of shares in the acquiring company which is the consideration for the acquisition mentioned in section 77(3);
 - (b) any relevant merger arrangements.
- (4) In subsection (3) “relevant merger arrangements” means arrangements for the issue of shares in the acquiring company to the shareholders of a company (“company B”) other than the target company (“company A”) in a case where—
 - (a) that issue of shares to the shareholders of company B would be the only consideration for the acquisition by the acquiring company of the whole of the issued share capital of company B,
 - (b) the conditions in section 77(3)(c) and (e) would be met in relation to that acquisition (if that acquisition were made in accordance with the arrangements), and
 - (c) the conditions in paragraphs (f) to (h) of section 77(3) would be met in relation to that acquisition if—
 - (i) that acquisition were made in accordance with the arrangements, and
 - (ii) the shares in the acquiring company issued as consideration for the acquisition of the share capital of company A were ignored for the purposes of those paragraphs;

and in section 77(3)(e) to (h) and (3A) as they apply by virtue of this subsection, references to the target company are to be read as references to company B.

- (5) Where—
 - (a) arrangements within any paragraph of subsection (3) are part of a wider scheme or arrangement, and
 - (b) that scheme or arrangement includes other arrangements which—
 - (i) fall within subsection (2), and
 - (ii) do not fall within any paragraph of subsection (3),those other arrangements are disqualifying arrangements despite anything in subsection (3).

[The Treasury may by regulations amend subsection (2) or (2A) so as to alter the ^{F68}(5A) percentage or length of the period for the time being specified there.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 1986, PART III. (See end of Document for details)

(5B) The power to make regulations under subsection (5A) is exercisable by statutory instrument subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the House of Commons.]

(6) In this section—

- “the acquiring company” has the meaning given by section 77(1);
- “arrangements” includes any agreement, understanding or scheme (whether or not legally enforceable);
- “control” is to be read in accordance with section 1124 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010;
- “the target company” has the meaning given by section 77(1).]

79 Loan capital: new provisions.

^{F75}(1)

(2) Stamp duty under [^{F76}Schedule 15 to the Finance Act 1999 (bearer instruments)] shall not be chargeable on the issue of an instrument which relates to loan capital or on the transfer of the loan capital constituted by, or transferable by means of, such an instrument.

(3) Stamp duty shall not be chargeable on an instrument which transfers loan capital issued or raised by —

(a) the financial support fund of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development,

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 1986, PART III. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the Inter-American Development Bank, or
 - (c) an organisation which was a designated international organisation at the time of the transfer (whether or not it was such an organisation at the time the loan capital was issued or raised).
- (4) Subject to subsections (5) and (6) below, stamp duty shall not be chargeable on an instrument which transfers any other loan capital.
- (5) Subsection (4) above does not apply to an instrument transferring loan capital which, at the time the instrument is executed, carries a right (exercisable then or later) of conversion into shares or other securities, or to the acquisition of shares or other securities, including loan capital of the same description.
- (6) Subject to [^{F77}subsections (7) to (7B)] below, subsection (4) above does not apply to an instrument transferring loan capital which, at the time the instrument is executed or any earlier time, carries or has carried —
- (a) a right to interest the amount of which exceeds a reasonable commercial return on the nominal amount of the capital,
 - (b) a right to interest the amount of which falls or has fallen to be determined to any extent by reference to the results of, or of any part of, a business or to the value of any property, or
 - (c) a right on repayment to an amount which exceeds the nominal amount of the capital and is not reasonably comparable with what is generally repayable (in respect of a similar nominal amount of capital) under the terms of issue of loan capital listed in the Official List of The Stock Exchange.
- (7) Subsection (4) above shall not be prevented from applying to an instrument by virtue of subsection (6)(a) or (c) above by reason only that the loan capital concerned carries a right to interest, or (as the case may be) to an amount payable on repayment, determined to any extent by reference to an index showing changes in the general level of prices payable in the United Kingdom over a period substantially corresponding to the period between the issue or raising of the loan capital and its repayment.
- [^{F78}(7A) Subsection (4) above shall not be prevented from applying to an instrument by virtue of subsection (6)(b) above by reason only that the loan capital concerned carries a right to interest which—
- (a) reduces in the event of the results of a business or part of a business improving, or the value of any property increasing, or
 - (b) increases in the event of the results of a business or part of a business deteriorating, or the value of any property diminishing.]

[^{F79}(7B) Subsection (4) shall not be prevented from applying to a capital market instrument by virtue of subsection (6)(b) by reason only that the capital market investment concerned carries or has carried a right to interest which ceases or reduces if, or to the extent that, the issuer, after meeting or providing for other obligations specified in the capital market arrangement concerned, has insufficient funds available from that capital market arrangement to pay all or part of the interest otherwise due.]

[^{F80}(8) Where stamp duty is chargeable under Part I of Schedule 13 to the Finance Act 1999 (conveyance or transfer on sale) on an instrument which transfers loan capital, the rate at which duty is charged under that Part shall be 0.5% of the amount or value of the consideration for the sale to which the instrument gives effect.]

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 1986, PART III. (See end of Document for details)

[^{F81}(8A) In the application of this section to loan capital that falls within paragraph (d) of section 78(7) (alternative finance investment bonds)—

(a) subsection (6) has effect as if—

(i) paragraph (a) were omitted, and

(ii) for paragraph (c) there were substituted—

“(c) a right at the end of the bond term (within the meaning of [^{F82}section 564G(1) of the Income Tax Act 2007][^{F83}or section 507(1) of the Corporation Tax Act 2009]) to a payment of an amount that exceeds the aggregate of—

(i) the amount paid for the issue of the bond, and

(ii) the notional payment amount;

and for this purpose the “notional payment amount” means the amount of the payments that would represent a reasonable commercial return (within the meaning of [^{F82}section 564G(1) of the Income Tax Act 2007][^{F83}or section 507(1) of the Corporation Tax Act 2009]) on the bond over the bond term, less the amount of the payments actually made.”,

(b) subsections (6)(b), (7), (7A), (7B) and (13) have effect as if references to interest were references to additional payments (“additional payments” having the same meaning as in [^{F84}section 564G of the Income Tax Act 2007][^{F85}or section 507 of the Corporation Tax Act 2009]), and

(c) subsections (7B) and (13) also have effect as if—

(i) references to a capital market investment were references to the loan capital falling within paragraph (d) of section 78(7), and

(ii) references to a capital market arrangement were to the arrangements under which that loan capital is raised.]

^{F75}(9)

^{F75}(10)

^{F75}(11)

(12) Subsections (7), (9) ^{F86} . . . of section 78 above shall apply as if references to that section included references to this.

[^{F87}(13) In this section—

“capital market instrument” means an instrument transferring a capital market investment issued as part of a capital market arrangement, and

“capital market investment” and “capital market arrangement” have the same meaning as in section 72B of the Insolvency Act 1986 (see paragraphs 1 to 3 of Schedule 2A to that Act).]

[^{F130}80D Repurchases and stock lending: replacement stock on insolvency

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) A and B have entered into an arrangement falling within section 80C(1),
 - (b) the conditions in subsection (2A) or (3) of that section are met,
 - (c) stock is transferred to A or A's nominee, and
 - (d) the conditions in subsection (2) below are met.
- (2) The conditions in this subsection are that—
 - (a) A and B are not connected persons within the meaning of [^{F131}section 1122 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010],
 - (b) after B has transferred stock under the arrangement, A or B becomes insolvent,
 - (c) it becomes apparent (whether before or after the insolvency occurs) that, as a result of the insolvency, stock will not be transferred to B or B's nominee in accordance with the arrangement,
 - (d) the party who does not become insolvent (“the solvent party”) or the solvent party's nominee acquires replacement stock, and
 - (e) the replacement stock is acquired before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which the insolvency occurs (“the insolvency date”).
- (3) Where collateral is provided under the arrangement (or under arrangements of which that arrangement forms part), stamp duty is not chargeable on any instrument transferring to the solvent party or the solvent party's nominee—
 - (a) replacement stock acquired using the collateral (whether directly or indirectly), or
 - (b) where the solvent party uses the whole of the value of the collateral to acquire replacement stock, any further replacement stock.
- (4) Where no collateral is provided as mentioned in subsection (3), stamp duty is not chargeable on any instrument transferring replacement stock to the solvent party or the solvent party's nominee.
- (5) Subsections (3) and (4) may apply as regards more than one instrument (and where those subsections apply as regards more than one instrument, the instruments may be executed by different persons).
- (6) But those subsections apply only as regards replacement stock up to the amount of stock which will not be transferred as a result of the insolvency.
- (7) An instrument on which stamp duty is not chargeable by virtue only of subsection (3) or (4) is not to be deemed to be duly stamped unless it has been stamped with a stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with any duty.
- (8) Despite section 122(1) of the Stamp Act 1891, the stamp mentioned in subsection (7) may be a stamp of such kind as the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs may prescribe.
- (9) For the purposes of this section a person becomes insolvent—
 - (a) if a company voluntary arrangement takes effect under Part 1 of the Insolvency Act 1986,
 - (b) if an administration application (within the meaning of Schedule B1 to that Act) is made or a receiver or manager, or an administrative receiver, is appointed,

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 1986, PART III. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) on the commencement of a creditor's voluntary winding up (within the meaning of Part 4 of that Act) or a winding up by the court under Chapter 6 of that Part,
- (d) if an individual voluntary arrangement takes effect under Part 8 of that Act,
- (e) on the ^{F132}making of a bankruptcy application or] presentation of a bankruptcy petition (within the meaning of Part 9 of that Act),
- (f) if a compromise or arrangement takes effect under Part 26 ^{F133}or 26A] of the Companies Act 2006,
- (g) if a bank insolvency order takes effect under Part 2 of the Banking Act 2009,
- (h) if a bank administration order takes effect under Part 3 of that Act, ^{F134}...
- ^{F135} [if a special administration order takes effect under the Investment Bank Special Administration Regulations 2011, ^{F136}...]
- ^{F137} (ha) [if a special administration order takes effect under the Payment and Electronic Money Institution Insolvency Regulations 2021, or]
- (i) on the occurrence of any corresponding event which has effect under or as a result of the law of Scotland or Northern Ireland or a country or territory outside the United Kingdom.

(10) In this section—

“collateral” means an amount of money or other property which is payable to, or made available for the benefit of, a party to an arrangement or that party's nominee for the purpose of securing the discharge of the requirement to transfer stock to that party or the nominee;

“replacement stock”, in the event of a party to an arrangement becoming insolvent, is stock of the same kind as the stock which will not be transferred to the other party or that party's nominee as a result of the insolvency.]
