

Deer (Scotland) Act 1996

1996 CHAPTER 58

PART III

OFFENCES IN RELATION TO DEER

[^{F1}Register of persons competent to shoot deer

[^{F1}17B Review of competence etc. by SNH

- (1) SNH must carry out a review of the following matters if the power in section 17A(1) is not exercised by 1st April 2014—
 - (a) levels of competence among persons who shoot deer in Scotland;
 - (b) the effect of such levels of competence on deer welfare.
- (2) In any such review, the matters SNH must consider include—
 - (a) the extent to which such persons have been trained to shoot deer and the availability and nature of such training;
 - (b) any available evidence as regards any effect of the absence of such training, or the nature of such training, on the welfare of deer which have been shot.
- (3) If SNH carries out a review, it must—
 - (a) when doing so consult such persons and organisations as it considers have an interest in the review; and
 - (b) publish a report of the review.]
