London lorries: emergency permits

- 10 (1) This paragraph applies where a person proposes to undertake a journey before the end of the next complete eight working days, being a journey—
- proposed to be undertaken in connection with the carrying out of authorised works, and
 - for which a permit under the London Lorry Ban Order will be required.
- (2) The person may apply for a permit under the Order for the journey by giving the details mentioned in sub-paragraph (3) below to the authority concerned by telephone or by means of facsimile transmission.
- (3) The details referred to above are—
- the identity of the applicant,
 - a number on which he can be contacted by telephone or by means of facsimile transmission,
 - the registration number of the vehicle to which the application relates,
 - the authorised works in connection with which the journey is to be undertaken,
 - whether any approved arrangements are relevant to the application, and, if so, what they are,
 - the date when the journey is proposed to be undertaken,
 - if it is proposed to stop anywhere in Greater London for the purpose of making a delivery or collection, the place or places at which, and the time or times when, it is proposed to stop for that purpose.
- (4) In this paragraph—
- “approved arrangements”, “authorised works” and “the London Lorry Ban Order” have the same meanings as in paragraph 9 above; and
- “working day” means any day which is not a Saturday or Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday or a bank holiday in England and Wales under the ^{M1}Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971.
