PART I

NOTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS FOR SEX OFFENDERS

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 Pt. I (ss. 1-6) modified (E.W.) (1.12.1998) by 1998 c. 37, s. 2(5); S.I. 1998/2327, art. 4(1)(a).
Pt. I (ss. 1-6) modified (S.) (1.12.1998) by 1998 c. 37, s. 20(6); S.I. 1998/2327, art. 4(1)(d).
Pt. I (ss. 1-6) modified (prosp.) by S.I. 1998/2839 (N.I. 20), arts. 1(3), 6(5).

1 Sex offenders subject to notification requirements.

- (1) A person becomes subject to the notification requirements of this Part if, after the commencement of this Part—
- he is convicted of a sexual offence to which this Part applies;
  - he is found not guilty of such an offence by reason of insanity, or to be under a disability and to have done the act charged against him in respect of such an offence; or
  - in England and Wales or Northern Ireland, he is cautioned by a constable in respect of such an offence which, at the time when the caution is given, he has admitted.
- (2) A person becomes subject to those requirements if, at that commencement—
- he has been convicted of a sexual offence to which this Part applies but has not been dealt with in respect of the offence; or
  - he has been found not guilty of such an offence by reason of insanity, or to be under a disability and to have done the act charged against him in respect of such an offence, but has not been dealt with in respect of the finding.
- (3) A person becomes subject to those requirements if, at that commencement—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/09/1997. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Sex Offenders Act 1997 (repealed), Part I is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 09 October 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) he is serving a sentence of imprisonment or a term of service detention, or is subject to a community order, in respect of a sexual offence to which this Part applies;
- (b) he is subject to supervision, having been released from prison after serving the whole or part of a sentence of imprisonment in respect of such an offence;
- (c) he is detained in a hospital, or is subject to a guardianship order, having been convicted of such an offence; or
- (d) he is detained in a hospital, having been found not guilty of such an offence by reason of insanity, or to be under a disability and to have done the act charged against him in respect of such an offence; and a person who would fall within paragraph (a), (c) or (d) above but for the fact that, at that commencement, he is unlawfully at large or absent without leave, on temporary release or leave of absence, or on bail pending an appeal, shall be treated as falling within that paragraph.

- (4) A person falling within subsections (1) to (3) above shall continue to be subject to those requirements for the period set out opposite a person of his description in the second column of the following Table.

TABLE

Description of person	Applicable period
A person who, in respect of the offence, is or has been sentenced to imprisonment for life or for a term of 30 months or more	An indefinite period
A person who, in respect of the offence or finding, is or has been admitted to a hospital subject to a restriction order	An indefinite period
A person who, in respect of the offence, is or has been sentenced to imprisonment for a term of more than 6 months but less than 30 months	A period of 10 years beginning with the relevant date
A person who, in respect of the offence, is or has been sentenced to imprisonment for a term of 6 months or less	A period of 7 years beginning with that date
A person who, in respect of the offence or finding, is or has been admitted to a hospital without being subject to a restriction order	A period of 7 years beginning with that date
A person of any other description	A period of 5 years beginning with that date

- (5) Subsection (6) below applies where a person falling within subsection (1)(a), (2)(a) or (3)(a), (b) or (c) above is or has been sentenced, in respect of two or more sexual offences to which this Part applies—
- (a) to consecutive terms of imprisonment; or
  - (b) to terms of imprisonment which are partly concurrent.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/09/1997. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Sex Offenders Act 1997 (repealed), Part I is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 09 October 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) Subsection (4) above shall have effect as if the person were or had been sentenced, in respect of each of the offences, to a term of imprisonment which—
- (a) in the case of consecutive terms, is equal to the aggregate of those terms;
  - (b) in the case of concurrent terms, is equal to the aggregate of those terms after making such deduction as may be necessary to secure that no period of time is counted more than once.
- (7) Where a person found to be under a disability, and to have done the act charged against him in respect of a sexual offence to which this Part applies, is subsequently tried for the offence, the finding, and any order made in respect of the finding, shall be disregarded for the purposes of this section.
- (8) In this Part “the relevant date” means—
- (a) in a case of a person falling within subsection (1)(a), (2)(a) or (3)(a) to (c) above, the date of the conviction;
  - (b) in a case of a person falling within subsection (1)(b), (2)(b) or (3)(d) above, the date of the finding;
  - (c) in a case of a person falling within subsection (1)(c) above, the date of the caution.
- (9) Schedule 1 to this Act (which lists the sexual offences to which this Part applies) shall have effect.

2 Effect of notification requirements.

- (1) A person who is subject to the notification requirements of this Part shall, before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the relevant date or, if later, the commencement of this Part, notify to the police the following information, namely—
- (a) his name and, where he also uses one or more other names, each of those names; and
  - (b) his home address.
- (2) A person who is subject to those requirements shall also, before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with—
- (a) his using a name which has not been notified to the police under this section;
  - (b) any change of his home address; or
  - (c) his having resided or stayed, for a qualifying period, at any premises in the United Kingdom the address of which has not been notified to the police under this section,
- notify that name, the effect of that change or, as the case may be, the address of those premises to the police.
- (3) A notification given to the police by any person shall not be regarded as complying with subsection (1) or (2) above unless it also states—
- (a) his date of birth;
  - (b) his name on the relevant date and, where he used one or more other names on that date, each of those names; and
  - (c) his home address on that date.
- (4) For the purpose of determining any period for the purposes of subsection (1) or (2) above, there shall be disregarded any time when the person in question—

- (a) is remanded in or committed to custody by an order of a court;
  - (b) is serving a sentence of imprisonment or a term of service detention;
  - (c) is detained in a hospital; or
  - (d) is outside the United Kingdom.
- (5) A person may give a notification under this section—
- (a) by attending at any police station in his local police area and giving an oral notification to any police officer, or to any person authorised for the purpose by the officer in charge of the station; or
  - (b) by sending a written notification to any such police station.
- (6) Any notification under this section shall be acknowledged; and an acknowledgment under this subsection shall be in writing and in such form as the Secretary of State may direct.
- (7) In this section—
- “home address”, in relation to any person, means the address of his home, that is to say, his sole or main residence in the United Kingdom or, where he has no such residence, premises in the United Kingdom which he regularly visits;
  - “local police area”, in relation to any person, means the police area in which his home is situated;
  - “qualifying period” means—
    - (a) a period of 14 days; or
    - (b) two or more periods, in any period of 12 months, which (taken together) amount to 14 days.
- (8) The definition of “local police area” in subsection (7) above shall apply as if Northern Ireland were a police area.

3 Offences.

- (1) If a person—
- (a) fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with section 2(1) or (2) above; or
  - (b) notifies to the police, in purported compliance with section 2(1) or (2) above, any information which he knows to be false,
- he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both.
- (2) A person commits an offence under subsection (1)(a) above on the day on which he first fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with section 2(1) or (2) above and continues to commit it throughout any period during which the failure continues; but a person shall not be prosecuted under that provision more than once in respect of the same failure.
- (3) Proceedings for an offence under this section may be commenced in any court having jurisdiction in any place where the person charged with the offence resides or is found.

4 Young sex offenders.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, this Part applies to—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/09/1997. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Sex Offenders Act 1997 (repealed), Part I is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 09 October 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) a period of detention which a person is liable to serve under a secure training order;
- (b) a period for which a person is ordered to be detained in residential accommodation under section 44(1) of the <sup>M1</sup>Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995;
- (c) a period of training in a training school, or of custody in a remand centre, which a person is liable to undergo or serve by virtue of an order under section 74(1)(a) or (e) of the <sup>M2</sup>Children and Young Persons Act (Northern Ireland) 1968;
- (d) a sentence of detention in a young offender institution, a young offenders institution or a young offenders centre;
- (e) a sentence under a custodial order within the meaning of section 71AA of the <sup>M3</sup>Army Act 1955 or the <sup>M4</sup>Air Force Act 1955 or section 43AA of the <sup>M5</sup>Naval Discipline Act 1957;
- (f) a sentence of detention under section 53 of the <sup>M6</sup>Children and Young Persons Act 1933, section 208 of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 or section 73 of the Children and Young Persons Act (Northern Ireland) 1968;
- (g) a sentence of custody for life under section 8 of the <sup>M7</sup>Criminal Justice Act 1982; and
- (h) a sentence of detention, or custody for life, under section 71A of the Army Act 1955 or the Air Force Act 1955 or section 43A of the Naval Discipline Act 1957, as it applies to an equivalent sentence of imprisonment; and references in this Part to prison or imprisonment shall be construed accordingly.

- (2) In the case of a person who is under 18 on the relevant date, section 1(4) above shall have effect as if for any reference to a period of 10 years, 7 years or 5 years there were substituted a reference to one-half of that period.
- (3) In the case of a person falling within section 1(1)(a) or (b) above who is under the relevant age on the relevant date, the court may direct that, until he attains that age, sections 2 and 3 above shall have effect as if an individual having parental responsibility or, in Scotland, parental responsibilities for him—
  - (a) were authorised to comply on his behalf with the provisions of section 2 above; and
  - (b) were liable in his stead for any failure to comply with those provisions;and in this subsection “the relevant age” means 18 in England and Wales and Northern Ireland and 16 in Scotland.
- (4) In the case of a person who is under 18, section 3(1) above shall have effect as if the words “or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both” were omitted.

5 Certificates for purposes of Part I.

- (1) Subsection (2) below applies where, on any date after the commencement of this Part, a person—
- (a) is convicted of a sexual offence to which this Part applies;
  - (b) is found not guilty of such an offence by reason of insanity; or
  - (c) is found to be under a disability and to have done the act charged against him in respect of such an offence.
- (2) If the court by or before which the person is so convicted or so found—
- (a) states in open court—
    - (i) that on that date he has been convicted, found not guilty by reason of insanity or found to be under a disability and to have done the act charged against him; and
    - (ii) that the offence in question is a sexual offence to which this Part applies; and
  - (b) certifies those facts (whether at the time or subsequently),
- the certificate shall, for the purposes of this Part, be evidence or, in Scotland, sufficient evidence of those facts.
- (3) Subsection (4) below applies where, on any date after the commencement of this Part, a person is in England and Wales or Northern Ireland cautioned by a constable in respect of a sexual offence to which this Part applies and which, at the time when the caution is given, he has admitted.
- (4) If the constable—
- (a) informs the person that he has been cautioned on that date and that the offence in question is a sexual offence to which this Part applies; and
  - (b) certifies those facts (whether at the time or subsequently) in such form as the Secretary of State may by order prescribe,
- the certificate shall, for the purposes of this Part, be evidence of those facts.
- (5) The power to make an order under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (6) In this section “court” includes a court-martial, a Standing Civilian Court and a disciplinary court ordered under the <sup>M8</sup>Naval Discipline Act 1957.

- (a) the Crown Court or the Court of Appeal imposes a sentence of imprisonment, or makes a hospital or guardianship order, in respect of a person convicted of a sexual offence to which this Part applies,
  - (b) the Crown Court or the Court of Appeal orders that a person who has been found not guilty of such an offence by reason of insanity, or to be under a disability and to have done the act charged against him in respect of such an offence, be admitted to hospital or makes a guardianship order in respect of him,
  - (c) a youth court makes a detention and training order for a term of twelve months or more, or a hospital or guardianship order, in respect of a person convicted of such an offence,
  - (d) a youth court makes a hospital or guardianship order in respect of a person who has been found not guilty of such an offence by reason of insanity, or to be under a disability and to have done the act charged against him in respect of such an offence.
- (2) The court may make an order under this section in respect of the person (“the offender”) if it is satisfied that it is necessary to do so in order to protect the public in general, or any particular members of the public, from serious harm from him.
- (3) The order may prohibit the offender from doing anything described in the order.
- (4) The order shall have effect for the period specified in it or until further order; and the offender shall not cease to be subject to the notification requirements of this Part while the order has effect.
- (5) The offender may appeal against the order—
- (a) where he was convicted of a sexual offence to which this Part applies, as if the order were a sentence passed on him for that offence,
  - (b) in a case within subsection (1)(b) or (d) above, as if he had been convicted of such an offence and the order were a sentence passed on him for that offence.
- (6) The Crown Court or, in a case within subsection (1)(c) or (d) above, the youth court for the area in which the offender resides may, on the application of—
- (a) the offender, or
  - (b) the chief officer of police, or the local probation board, for the area in which the offender resides,
- vary or discharge the order.
- (7) On the application the court may, after hearing the applicant, and the other persons mentioned in subsection (6) above (if they so wish), make any order under this section varying or discharging the previous order which the court considers appropriate.
- (8) If without reasonable excuse the offender does anything which he is prohibited from doing by an order under this section, he is guilty of an offence.
- (9) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or a fine, or both,
  - (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or both.
