16 Existing NHS trusts: conversion of initial loan.

- (1) This section applies to any NHS trust in existence immediately before commencement.
- (2) On commencement so much of the originating capital debt of the NHS trust as remains outstanding immediately before commencement is to be treated as the originating capital of the NHS trust and accordingly is public dividend capital.
- (3) Any reference in any enactment, instrument or other document to the originating capital debt of the NHS trust is to be construed (except where the context otherwise requires) as a reference to its originating capital.
- (4) The Secretary of State may with the consent of the Treasury determine the amount and time for payment of interest on the NHS trust's initial loan in respect of the period ending with commencement.
- (5) In this section—
“commencement” means the coming into force of this section,

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Health Act 1999, Cross Heading: NHS trusts. (See end of Document for details)

“initial loan” has the meaning given by section 9(5) of [^{F5}the National Health Service and Community Care Act 1990, prior to the repeal of that section by the National Health Service (Consequential Provisions) Act 2006]
