After section 23A of the Children and Young Persons Act 1969 (c. 54) there is inserted—

“23B Report by local authority in certain cases where person remanded on bail

- (1) Subsection (2) below applies where a court remands a person aged 10 or 11 on bail and either—
- the person is charged with or has been convicted of a serious offence, or
  - in the opinion of the court the person is a persistent offender.
- (2) The court may order a local authority to make an oral or written report specifying where the person is likely to be placed or maintained if he is further remanded to local authority accommodation.
- (3) An order under subsection (2) above must designate the local authority which is to make the report; and that authority must be the local authority which the court would have designated under section 23(2) of this Act if the person had been remanded to local authority accommodation.

- (4) An order under subsection (2) above must specify the period within which the local authority must comply with the order.
- (5) The maximum period that may be so specified is seven working days.
- (6) If the Secretary of State by order so provides, subsection (2) above also applies where—
  - (a) a court remands on bail any person who has attained the age of 12 and is under the age of 17,
  - (b) the requirement in section 23AA(3) of this Act is fulfilled, and
  - (c) in a case where he is remanded after conviction, the court is satisfied that the behaviour which constituted the offence was due, to a significant extent, to the circumstances in which the offender was living.
- (7) In this section—
  - “serious offence” means an offence punishable in the case of an adult with imprisonment for a term of two years or more.
  - “working day” means any day other than—
    - (a) a Saturday or a Sunday,
    - (b) Christmas day or Good Friday, or
    - (c) a bank holiday in England and Wales under the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971.”.

[<sup>F7</sup>91 Proceedings under section 222 of the Local Government Act 1972: power of arrest attached to injunction

- (1) This section applies to proceedings in which a local authority is a party by virtue of section 222 of the Local Government Act 1972 (c. 70) (power of local authority to bring, defend or appear in proceedings for the promotion or protection of the interests of inhabitants of their area).
- (2) If the court grants an injunction which prohibits conduct which is capable of causing nuisance or annoyance to a person it may, if subsection (3) below applies, attach a power of arrest to any provision of the injunction.
- (3) This subsection applies if the local authority applies to the court to attach the power of arrest and the court thinks that either—
  - (a) the conduct mentioned in subsection (2) consists of or includes the use or threatened use of violence, or
  - (b) there is a significant risk of harm to the person mentioned in that subsection.
- (4) Harm includes serious ill-treatment or abuse (whether physical or not).
- (5) Local authority has the same meaning as in section 222 of the Local Government Act 1972.]
