Subsequent modification of scheme

- 9 (1) The Secretary of State may by notice to the old energy company and the new energy company modify an energy transfer scheme after it has taken effect, but only modifications to which both the old energy company and the new energy company have consented may be made.
- (2) The notice must specify the time at which it is to take effect (the “modification time”).
- (3) Where a notice is issued under this paragraph in relation to an energy transfer scheme, as from the modification time, the scheme shall for all purposes be treated as having taken effect, at the time appointed for the purposes of paragraph 3(4), with the modifications made by the notice.
- (4) Those modifications may make—
- (a) any provision that could have been included in the scheme when it took effect at the time appointed for the purposes of paragraph 3(4); and
 - (b) transitional provision in connection with provision falling within paragraph (a).
- (5) In deciding whether to modify an energy transfer scheme, the Secretary of State must have regard, in particular, to—
- (a) the public interest; and
 - (b) the effect the modification is likely to have (if any) upon the interests of third parties.

Changes to legislation: Energy Act 2004, Cross Heading: Subsequent modification of scheme is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 22 April 2024.
