

Planning Act 2008

2008 CHAPTER 29

PART 6

DECIDING APPLICATIONS FOR ORDERS GRANTING DEVELOPMENT CONSENT

CHAPTER 1

HANDLING OF APPLICATION BY COMMISSION

55 Acceptance of applications

- (1) The following provisions of this section apply where the [^{F1}Secretary of State] receives an application that purports to be an application for an order granting development consent.
- (2) The [^{F1}Secretary of State] must, by the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day after the day on which [^{F2}the Secretary of State] receives the application, decide whether or not to accept the application.
- (3) The [^{F1}Secretary of State] may accept the application only if the [^{F1}Secretary of State] concludes—
 - (a) that it is an application for an order granting development consent,
 - ^{F3}(b)
 - (c) that development consent is required for any of the development to which the application relates,
 - ^{F4}(d)
 - (e) that the applicant has, in relation to a proposed application that has become the application, complied with Chapter 2 of Part 5 (pre-application procedure)^{F5}, and
 - (f) that the application (including accompaniments) is of a standard that the Secretary of State considers satisfactory.]

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2012.

Changes to legislation: Planning Act 2008, Part 6 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 24 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The [^{F1}Secretary of State], when deciding whether [^{F6}the Secretary of State] may reach the conclusion in subsection (3)(e), must have regard to—
- (a) the consultation report received under section 37(3)(c),
 - (b) any adequacy of consultation representation received by [^{F6}the Secretary of State] from a local authority consultee, and
 - (c) the extent to which the applicant has had regard to any guidance issued under section 50.
- (5) In subsection (4)—
- “local authority consultee” means—
- (a) a local authority consulted under [^{F7}section 42(1)(b)] about a proposed application that has become the application, or
 - (b) the Greater London Authority if consulted under [^{F8}section 42(1)(c)] about that proposed application;
- “adequacy of consultation representation” means a representation about whether the applicant complied, in relation to that proposed application, with the applicant's duties under sections 42, 47 and 48.
- [^{F9}(5A) The Secretary of State, when deciding whether the Secretary of State may reach the conclusion in subsection (3)(f), must have regard to the extent to which—
- (a) the application complies with the requirements in section 37(3) (form and contents of application) and any standards set under section 37(5), and
 - (b) any applicable guidance given under section 37(4) has been followed in relation to the application.]
- (6) If the [^{F1}Secretary of State] accepts the application, [^{F10}the Secretary of State] must notify the applicant of the acceptance.
- (7) If the [^{F1}Secretary of State] is of the view that [^{F11}the application cannot be accepted, the Secretary of State] must—
- (a) notify that view to the applicant, and
 - (b) notify the applicant of [^{F12}the Secretary of State's] reasons for that view.
- (8) If in response the applicant modifies (or further modifies) the application, subsections (2) to (7) then apply in relation to the application as modified.

104 [F113 Decisions in cases where national policy statement has effect]

- (1) This section applies in relation to an application for an order granting development consent if [F114 a national policy statement has effect in relation to development of the description to which the application relates].
- (2) In deciding the application the [F115 Secretary of State] must have regard to—
 - (a) any national policy statement which has effect in relation to development of the description to which the application relates (a “relevant national policy statement”),
 - [F116(aa) the appropriate marine policy documents (if any), determined in accordance with section 59 of the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009;]
 - (b) any local impact report (within the meaning given by section 60(3)) submitted to the [F117 Secretary of State] before the deadline specified in a notice under section 60(2),
 - (c) any matters prescribed in relation to development of the description to which the application relates, and
 - (d) any other matters which the [F115 Secretary of State] thinks are both important and relevant to [F118 the Secretary of State's] decision.
- (3) The [F119 Secretary of State] must decide the application in accordance with any relevant national policy statement, except to the extent that one or more of subsections (4) to (8) applies.
- (4) This subsection applies if the [F120 Secretary of State] is satisfied that deciding the application in accordance with any relevant national policy statement would lead to the United Kingdom being in breach of any of its international obligations.
- (5) This subsection applies if the [F121 Secretary of State is] satisfied that deciding the application in accordance with any relevant national policy statement would lead to the [F122 Secretary of State] being in breach of any duty imposed on the Secretary of State] by or under any enactment.
- (6) This subsection applies if the [F123 Secretary of State] is satisfied that deciding the application in accordance with any relevant national policy statement would be unlawful by virtue of any enactment.
- (7) This subsection applies if the [F124 Secretary of State] is satisfied that the adverse impact of the proposed development would outweigh its benefits.

LEGAL CHALLENGES

118 Legal challenges relating to applications for orders granting development consent

- (1) A court may entertain proceedings for questioning an order granting development consent only if—
 - (a) the proceedings are brought by a claim for judicial review, and
 - (b) the claim form is filed during the period of 6 weeks beginning with—
 - (i) the day on which the order is published, or
 - (ii) if later, the day on which the statement of reasons for making the order is published.
- (2) A court may entertain proceedings for questioning a refusal of development consent only if—
 - (a) the proceedings are brought by a claim for judicial review, and
 - (b) the claim form is filed during the period of 6 weeks beginning with the day on which the statement of reasons for the refusal is published.
- (3) A court may entertain proceedings for questioning a decision of the [^{F157}Secretary of State] under section 55 not to accept an application for an order granting development consent only if—
 - (a) the proceedings are brought by a claim for judicial review, and
 - (b) the claim form is filed during the period of 6 weeks beginning with the day on which the [^{F157}Secretary of State] notifies the applicant as required by subsection (7) of that section.
- (4) A court may entertain proceedings for questioning a decision under paragraph 1 of Schedule 4 in relation to an error or omission in a decision document only if—
 - (a) the proceedings are brought by a claim for judicial review, and
 - (b) the claim form is filed during the period of 6 weeks beginning with the day on which a correction notice in respect of the error or omission is issued under paragraph 2 of that Schedule or, if the correction is required to be made by order contained in a statutory instrument, the day on which the order is published.
- (5) A court may entertain proceedings for questioning a decision under paragraph 2(1) of Schedule 6 to make a change to an order granting development consent only if—
 - (a) the proceedings are brought by a claim for judicial review, and
 - (b) the claim form is filed during the period of 6 weeks beginning with the day on which notice of the change is given under paragraph 2(12)(b) of that Schedule or, if the change to the order is required to be made by order contained in a statutory instrument, the day on which the order making the change is published.
- (6) A court may entertain proceedings for questioning a decision under paragraph 3(1) of Schedule 6 to make a change to, or revoke, an order granting development consent only if—
