SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1

Section 4(1)

TRANSITORY AMENDMENTS TO EXISTING REGIME

Suspension of registration

- 1 After subsection (7) of section 128 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (c. 52) (as it has effect without the substitution of that section by Schedule 6 to the Road Safety Act 2006 (c. 49)) (removal of names from register) insert—
- “(7A) The Registrar may suspend a person's registration if the Registrar—
- (a) has given, or is about to give, the person notice under subsection (4),
  - (b) is considering whether to remove the person's name from the register, or has decided to remove the name but the decision is not yet in effect, and
  - (c) believes that the person would pose a significant threat to the safety of members of the public if the person's registration were not suspended.
- (7B) The Registrar must, on deciding to suspend a person's registration, give written notice of the decision to the person.
- (7C) The decision to suspend takes effect on the giving of the notice.
- (7D) No notice may be given under subsection (7B) before the notice under subsection (4) is given but the subsection (7B) notice may be included in the subsection (4) notice if the subsection (4) notice is still to be given when the decision to suspend is made.
- (7E) A suspension under subsection (7A) is terminated if—
- (a) the Registrar decides not to remove the person's name from the register,
  - (b) the Registrar decides to remove the person's name from the register but the decision has not taken effect and an appeal against the decision is successfully concluded,
  - (c) the Registrar has not decided whether to remove the person's name from the register and the period of 75 days beginning with the giving of the subsection (4) notice has ended,
  - (d) the person's name is removed from the register (whether under this section or otherwise), or
  - (e) the Registrar decides to terminate the suspension.
- (7F) The Registrar must give written notice to a person of the fact that the person's suspension is terminated as mentioned in subsection (7E)(a) to (c) or (e).
- (7G) For the purposes of this Part of this Act the fact that a person's registration is suspended does not prevent the person's name from being in the register.”

Compensation in respect of suspension

7 After section 131 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (c. 52) (appeals) insert—

“Compensation

131A Compensation in respect of suspension

- (1) The Secretary of State must by regulations make a scheme for the making of payments by the Secretary of State to persons in respect of one or more of the following—
  - (a) income losses incurred by them as a result of their registrations or licences being suspended by virtue of section 128(7A) to (7G) or (as the case may be) 130(7) to (13),
  - (b) non-income losses so incurred, and
  - (c) any other matters which relate to either such suspension and are provided for in the scheme.
- (2) No payments may be made under a scheme in respect of the suspension of a person’s registration or licence unless—
  - (a) the suspension is terminated because the Registrar decides not to remove the person’s name from the register or (as the case may be) not to revoke the licence,
  - (b) an appeal is successfully concluded against the decision of the Registrar to remove the person’s name from the register or (as the case may be) to revoke the licence (whether or not the Registrar’s decision has taken effect), or
  - (c) any other circumstances provided for in the scheme apply.
- (3) Where the decision of the Registrar to remove the person’s name from the register or to revoke the licence has taken effect before an appeal against it is successfully concluded, any payments under a scheme may relate only to the suspension.
- (4) A scheme may, in particular, specify—
  - (a) the description or descriptions of income losses, or
  - (b) the description or descriptions of non-income losses, in respect of which payments are to be made but need not provide for the making of payments in respect of all income losses or all non-income losses or for the making of payments which correspond to the full amount of any income losses or non-income losses.

- (5) A scheme may also, in particular—
- (a) specify the basis or bases of valuation for determining losses or the person who is to decide their valuation,
  - (b) specify the amounts of payments to be made or the basis or bases on which such amounts are to be calculated,
  - (c) provide for the procedure to be followed (including when claims may be made and the provision of information) in respect of claims under the scheme and for the determination of such claims.
- (6) A person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Secretary of State as to the person's entitlement to payments under a scheme or the amounts of any such payments may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal.
- (7) On an appeal, the First-tier Tribunal may make such order as it considers appropriate.
- (8) If the Tribunal considers that any evidence adduced on an appeal had not been adduced to the Secretary of State before the making of the decision to which the appeal relates, the Tribunal may (instead of making an order under subsection (7)) remit the matter to the Secretary of State for the Secretary of State to reconsider the decision.
- (9) In this section—
- “income losses” means losses of income, and
- “non-income losses” means losses other than income losses.”
