

Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013

2013 CHAPTER 33

PART 5

REGULATION OF PAYMENT SYSTEMS

Overview

39 Overview

- (1) This Part contains provision for the establishment of a new body (the “Payment Systems Regulator”) to exercise functions in relation to payment systems.
- (2) Section 40 provides for the establishment of the Payment Systems Regulator.
- (3) Sections 41 and 42 contain definitions of “payment system” and related terms.
- (4) Sections 43 to 48 make provision about designating a payment system as a regulated payment system.
- (5) Sections 49 to 53 contain provision about the general duties of the Payment Systems Regulator under this Part.
- (6) Sections 54 to 67 confer various regulatory and competition functions on the Payment Systems Regulator.
- (7) Sections 68 to 70 contain provision about the making of complaints to the Payment Systems Regulator.
- (8) Sections 71 to 80 contain provision about enforcement and appeals.
- (9) Sections 81 to 95 contain information and investigation powers and provision about the disclosure of information.
- (10) Sections 96 and 97 contain supplementary powers.

- (11) Sections 98 to 102 contain provision about the Payment Systems Regulator’s relationship with other regulators.
- (12) Sections 103 to 107 contain provision about consultation, accountability and oversight.
- (13) Sections 108 to 110 contain miscellaneous and supplemental provision.

The Payment Systems Regulator

40 The Payment Systems Regulator

- (1) The FCA must establish a body corporate to exercise the functions conferred on the body by or under this Part.
- (2) The body established under subsection (1) is referred to in this Part as the Payment Systems Regulator.
- (3) The FCA must take such steps as are necessary to ensure that the Payment Systems Regulator is, at all times, capable of exercising the functions referred to in subsection (1).
- (4) In complying with the duty imposed by subsection (3) the FCA may, in particular—
 - (a) provide staff to the Payment Systems Regulator, and
 - (b) provide services to the Payment Systems Regulator which the FCA considers would facilitate the exercise of any of those functions.
- (5) Schedule 4 (which contains further provision about the Payment Systems Regulator) has effect.

“Payment system” etc

41 Meaning of “payment system”

- (1) In this Part “payment system” means a system which is operated by one or more persons in the course of business for the purpose of enabling persons to make transfers of funds, and includes a system which is designed to facilitate the transfer of funds using another payment system.
- (2) But “payment system” does not include—
 - (a) any arrangements for the physical movement of cash;
 - (b) a system which does not make any provision for the transfer of funds by payers, or to recipients, in the United Kingdom;
 - (c) a securities settlement system operated by a person approved under regulations under section 785 of the Companies Act 2006 (provision enabling procedures for evidencing and transferring title);
 - (d) a system operated by a recognised clearing house;
 - (e) any other system whose primary purpose is not that of enabling persons to transfer funds.
- (3) In this section—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

“recognised clearing house” has the meaning given by section 285(1) of FSMA 2000;

“securities settlement system” means a computer-based system, and procedures, which enable title to units of a security to be evidenced and transferred without a written instrument, and which facilitate supplementary and incidental matters.

- (4) The Treasury may by order amend this section so as to—
- (a) add descriptions of systems or arrangements that are not to be regarded as payment systems, or
 - (b) vary or remove any such description.

42 Participants in payment systems etc

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of this Part.
- (2) The following persons are “participants” in a payment system—
- (a) the operator of the payment system (see subsection (3));
 - (b) any infrastructure provider (see subsection (4));
 - (c) any payment service provider (see subsection (5)).
- (But see also subsection (8).)
- (3) “Operator”, in relation to a payment system, means any person with responsibility under the system for managing or operating it; and any reference to the operation of a payment system includes a reference to its management.
- (4) “Infrastructure provider”, in relation to a payment system, means any person who provides or controls any part of the infrastructure used for the purposes of operating the payment system.
- (5) “Payment service provider”, in relation to a payment system, means any person who provides services to persons who are not participants in the system for the purposes of enabling the transfer of funds using the payment system.
- (6) A payment service provider has “direct access” to a payment system if the payment service provider is able to provide services for the purposes of enabling the transfer of funds using the payment system as a result of arrangements made between the payment service provider and the operator of the payment system.
- (7) Any reference to participation in a payment system is to be read in accordance with this section, and in particular—
- (a) in the case of an operator of a payment system, includes a reference to developing the system, and
 - (b) in the case of a payment service provider with direct access to a payment system, includes a reference to entering into an agreement with a person to enable the person to become a payment service provider in relation to the system.
- (8) The Bank of England is not to be regarded as a participant of any kind in any payment system.

Designation as a regulated payment system

43 Designation orders

- (1) The Treasury may by order (a “designation order”) designate a payment system as a regulated payment system for the purposes of this Part.
- (2) A designation order must specify in as much detail as is reasonably practicable the arrangements that constitute the payment system.

44 Designation criteria

- (1) The Treasury may make a designation order in respect of a payment system only if they are satisfied that any deficiencies in the design of the system, or any disruption of its operation, would be likely to have serious consequences for those who use, or are likely to use, the services provided by the system.
- (2) In considering whether to make a designation order in respect of a payment system, the Treasury must have regard to—
 - (a) the number and value of the transactions that the system presently processes or is likely to process in the future,
 - (b) the nature of the transactions that the system presently processes or is likely to process in the future,
 - (c) whether those transactions or their equivalent could be handled by other payment systems, and
 - (d) the relationship between the system and other payment systems.

45 Procedure

- (1) Before making a designation order in respect of a payment system the Treasury must—
 - (a) consult the Payment Systems Regulator and, if the system is a recognised inter-bank payment system, the Bank of England,
 - (b) notify the operator of the system, and
 - (c) consider any representations made.
- (2) In considering whether to make a designation order in respect of a payment system, the Treasury may rely on information provided by—
 - (a) the Bank of England,
 - (b) the FCA,
 - (c) the PRA, or
 - (d) the Payment Systems Regulator.

46 Amendment of designation order

- (1) The Treasury may amend a designation order.
- (2) Before amending a designation order made in respect of a payment system, the Treasury must—
 - (a) consult the Payment Systems Regulator and, if the payment system is a recognised inter-bank payment system, the Bank of England,
 - (b) notify the operator of the payment system, and

- (c) consider any representations made.
- (3) The Treasury must consider any request by the operator of a regulated payment system for the amendment of its designation order.

47 Revocation of designation orders

- (1) The Treasury may revoke a designation order.
- (2) The Treasury must revoke a designation order if they are not satisfied that the criteria in section 44 are met in respect of the payment system to which the order relates.
- (3) Before revoking a designation order made in respect of a payment system, the Treasury must—
 - (a) consult the Payment Systems Regulator and, if the payment system is a recognised inter-bank payment system, the Bank of England,
 - (b) notify the operator of the payment system, and
 - (c) consider any representations made.
- (4) The Treasury must consider any request by the operator of a regulated payment system for the revocation of its designation order.

48 Publication

- (1) The Treasury must publish any designation order.
- (2) If the Treasury amends a designation order, the Treasury must publish the amended order.
- (3) The Treasury must publish any revocation of a designation order.

General duties of Regulator

49 Regulator's general duties in relation to payment systems

- (1) In discharging its general functions relating to payment systems the Payment Systems Regulator must, so far as is reasonably possible, act in a way which advances one or more of its payment systems objectives.
- (2) The payment systems objectives of the Payment Systems Regulator are—
 - (a) the competition objective (see section 50),
 - (b) the innovation objective (see section 51), and
 - (c) the service-user objective (see section 52).
- (3) In discharging its general functions relating to payment systems the Payment Systems Regulator must have regard to—
 - (a) the importance of maintaining the stability of, and confidence in, the UK financial system,
 - (b) the importance of payment systems in relation to the performance of functions by the Bank of England in its capacity as a monetary authority, and
 - (c) the regulatory principles in section 53.

- (4) The general functions of the Payment Systems Regulator relating to payment systems are—
- (a) its function of giving general directions under section 54 (considered as a whole),
 - (b) its functions in relation to the giving of general guidance under section 96 (considered as a whole), and
 - (c) its function of determining the general policy and principles by reference to which it performs particular functions.

50 The competition objective

- (1) The competition objective is to promote effective competition in—
- (a) the market for payment systems, and
 - (b) the markets for services provided by payment systems,
- in the interests of those who use, or are likely to use, services provided by payment systems.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1) to promoting effective competition includes, in particular, promoting effective competition—
- (a) between different operators of payment systems,
 - (b) between different payment service providers, and
 - (c) between different infrastructure providers.
- (3) The matters to which the Payment Systems Regulator may have regard in considering the effectiveness of competition in a market mentioned in subsection (1) include—
- (a) the needs of different persons who use, or may use, services provided by payment systems;
 - (b) the ease with which persons who may wish to use those services can do so;
 - (c) the ease with which persons who obtain those services can change the person from whom they obtain them;
 - (d) the needs of different payment service providers or persons who wish to become payment service providers;
 - (e) the ease with which payment service providers, or persons who wish to become payment service providers, can provide services using payment systems;
 - (f) the ease with which payment service providers can change the payment system they use to provide their services;
 - (g) the needs of different infrastructure providers or persons who wish to become infrastructure providers;
 - (h) the ease with which infrastructure providers, or persons who wish to become infrastructure providers, can provide infrastructure for the purposes of operating payment systems;
 - (i) the needs of different operators of payment systems;
 - (j) the ease with which operators of payment systems can change the infrastructure used to operate the payment systems;
 - (k) the level and structure of fees, charges or other costs associated with participation in payment systems;
 - (l) the ease with which new entrants can enter the market;

- (m) how far competition is contributing to the development of efficient and effective infrastructure for the purposes of operating payment systems;
- (n) how far competition is encouraging innovation.

51 The innovation objective

- (1) The innovation objective is to promote the development of, and innovation in, payment systems in the interests of those who use, or are likely to use, services provided by payment systems, with a view to improving the quality, efficiency and economy of payment systems.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1) to promoting the development of, and innovation in, payment systems includes, in particular, a reference to promoting the development of, and innovation in, infrastructure to be used for the purposes of operating payment systems.

52 The service-user objective

The service-user objective is to ensure that payment systems are operated and developed in a way that takes account of, and promotes, the interests of those who use, or are likely to use, services provided by payment systems.

53 Regulatory principles

The regulatory principles referred to in section 49(3)(c) are as follows—

- (a) the need to use the resources of the Payment Systems Regulator in the most efficient and economic way;
- (b) the principle that a burden or restriction which is imposed on a person, or on the carrying on of an activity, should be proportionate to the benefits, considered in general terms, which are expected to result from the imposition of that burden or restriction;
- (c) the desirability of sustainable growth in the economy of the United Kingdom in the medium or long term;
- (d) the general principle that those who use services provided by payment systems should take responsibility for their decisions;
- (e) the responsibilities of the senior management of persons subject to requirements imposed by or under this Part, including those affecting persons who use services provided by payment systems, in relation to compliance with those requirements;
- (f) the desirability where appropriate of the Payment Systems Regulator exercising its functions in a way that recognises differences in the nature of, and objectives of, businesses carried on by different persons subject to requirements imposed by or under this Part;
- (g) the desirability in appropriate cases of the Payment Systems Regulator publishing information relating to persons on whom requirements are imposed by or under this Part, or requiring such persons to publish information, as a means of contributing to the advancement by the Payment Systems Regulator of its payment systems objectives;
- (h) the principle that the Payment Systems Regulator should exercise its functions as transparently as possible.

Regulatory and competition functions

54 Directions

- (1) The Payment Systems Regulator may give directions in writing to participants in regulated payment systems.
- (2) A direction given to a participant in a regulated payment system may—
 - (a) require or prohibit the taking of specified action in relation to the system;
 - (b) set standards to be met in relation to the system.
- (3) A direction under this section may apply—
 - (a) generally,
 - (b) in relation to—
 - (i) all operators, or every operator of a regulated payment system of a specified description,
 - (ii) all infrastructure providers, or every person who is an infrastructure provider in relation to a regulated payment system of a specified description, or
 - (iii) all payment service providers, or every person who is a payment service provider in relation to a regulated payment system of a specified description, or
 - (c) in relation to specified persons or persons of a specified description.
- (4) The Payment Systems Regulator must publish any direction given under this section that applies as mentioned in subsection (3)(a) or (b).
- (5) A direction under this section that applies as mentioned in subsection (3)(a) or (b) is referred to in this Part as a “general direction”.

55 System rules

- (1) The Payment Systems Regulator may require the operator of a regulated payment system—
 - (a) to establish rules for the operation of the system;
 - (b) to change the rules in a specified way or so as to achieve a specified purpose;
 - (c) to notify the Payment Systems Regulator of any proposed change to the rules;
 - (d) not to change the rules without the approval of the Payment Systems Regulator.
- (2) A requirement under subsection (1)(c) or (d) may be general or specific.
- (3) A requirement under this section that is imposed on—
 - (a) all operators of regulated payment systems, or
 - (b) every operator of a regulated payment system of a specified description,is referred to in this Part as a “generally-imposed requirement”.

56 Power to require granting of access to payment systems

- (1) This section applies where a person (“the applicant”) applies for an order under this section.

- (2) The Payment Systems Regulator may by order require the operator of a regulated payment system to enable the applicant to become a payment service provider in relation to the system.
- (3) The Payment Systems Regulator may by order require any payment service provider with direct access to a regulated payment system to enter into an agreement with the applicant to enable the applicant to become a payment service provider in relation to the system.
- (4) An order under this section may provide for the applicant to become a payment service provider in relation to a payment system—
 - (a) for a period specified in the order;
 - (b) on terms and conditions specified in the order.

57 Variation of agreements relating to payment systems

- (1) This section applies to the following agreements—
 - (a) any agreement made between the operator of a regulated payment system and a payment service provider;
 - (b) any agreement made between a payment service provider with direct access to a regulated payment system and another person for the purpose of enabling that other person to become a payment service provider in relation to the system;
 - (c) any agreement concerning fees or charges payable in connection with—
 - (i) participation in a regulated payment system, or
 - (ii) the use of services provided by a regulated payment system.
- (2) The Payment Systems Regulator may, on the application of a party to an agreement to which this section applies, vary the agreement by—
 - (a) varying any of the fees or charges payable under the agreement, or
 - (b) in the case of an agreement within subsection (1)(a) or (b), varying any other terms and conditions relating to the payment service provider's participation in the payment system.
- (3) In the case of an agreement within subsection (1)(b), the reference in subsection (2)(b) to the payment service provider is to the payment service provider which does not have direct access to the payment system.
- (4) The power under this section to vary any fee or charge includes power to specify a maximum fee or charge.
- (5) If the Payment Systems Regulator varies an agreement under this section, the agreement has effect subject to the variation.

58 Power to require disposal of interest in payment system

- (1) The Payment Systems Regulator may require a person who has an interest in the operator of a regulated payment system to dispose of all or part of that interest.
- (2) The power conferred by subsection (1) may be exercised only if the Payment Systems Regulator is satisfied that, if the power is not exercised, there is likely to be a restriction or distortion of competition in—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) the market for payment systems, or
 - (b) a market for services provided by payment systems.
- (3) The Payment Systems Regulator may not exercise the power conferred by subsection (1) without the consent of the Treasury.
- (4) If the Payment Systems Regulator decides to exercise the power conferred by subsection (1) in relation to a person who has an interest in the operator of a regulated payment system—
- (a) the Payment Systems Regulator must notify the relevant competition authorities (see subsection (5)), and
 - (b) the relevant competition authorities may not take any action in relation to the person that would require the person to dispose of all or part of that interest.
- (5) The relevant competition authorities are—
- (a) the Secretary of State,
 - (b) the Competition and Markets Authority, and
 - (c) the FCA.

59 The Regulator’s functions under Part 4 of the Enterprise Act 2002

- (1) The functions to which this subsection applies are to be concurrent functions of the Payment Systems Regulator and the Competition and Markets Authority (“the CMA”).
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to the functions of the CMA under Part 4 of the Enterprise Act 2002 (market investigations), so far as those functions—
- (a) are exercisable by the CMA Board (within the meaning of Schedule 4 to the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013), and
 - (b) relate to participation in payment systems.
- (3) But subsection (1) does not apply to functions under the following sections of the Enterprise Act 2002—
- section 166 (duty to maintain register of undertakings and orders);
 - section 171 (duty to publish guidance).
- (4) So far as is necessary for the purposes of, or in connection with, subsections (1) and (2)—
- (a) references in Part 4 of the Enterprise Act 2002 to the CMA (including references in provisions of that Act applied by that Part) are to be read as including references to the Payment Systems Regulator,
 - (b) references in that Part to section 5 of that Act are to be read as including references to section 64 of this Act, and
 - (c) references in that Part to consumers are to be read as including references to any person who uses, or is likely to use, services provided by payment systems in the course of a business carried on by the person.
- (5) But subsection (4) does not apply—
- (a) in relation to section 166 or 171 of that Act, or
 - (b) where the context otherwise requires.
- (6) Section 130A of the Enterprise Act 2002 is to have effect in relation to the Payment Systems Regulator by virtue of subsections (1) and (2) as if—

- (a) in subsection (2)(a) of that section, the reference to the acquisition or supply of goods or services of one or more than one description in the United Kingdom were a reference to the participation in payment systems used to provide services in the United Kingdom, and
- (b) in subsection (2)(b) of that section, the reference to the extent to which steps can and should be taken were a reference to the extent to which steps that might include steps under Part 4 of that Act can and should be taken.

60 Restrictions on exercise of functions under Part 4 of the Enterprise Act 2002

- (1) Before the CMA or the Payment Systems Regulator first exercises any of the concurrent functions in relation to any matter, it must consult the other.
- (2) Neither the CMA nor the Payment Systems Regulator may exercise any of the concurrent functions in relation to any matter if any of those functions have been exercised in relation to that matter by the other.
- (3) In subsections (1) and (2) “the concurrent functions” means the functions which by virtue of section 59 are concurrent functions of the Payment Systems Regulator and the CMA.
- (4) Before the FCA or the Payment Systems Regulator first exercises any of the concurrent functions in relation to any matter, it must consult the other.
- (5) Neither the FCA nor the Payment Systems Regulator may exercise any of the concurrent functions in relation to any matter if any of those functions have been exercised in relation to that matter by the other.
- (6) In subsections (4) and (5) “the concurrent functions”—
 - (a) in relation to the Payment Systems Regulator, means the functions which by virtue of section 59 are concurrent functions of the Payment Systems Regulator and the CMA, and
 - (b) in relation to the FCA, means the functions which by virtue of section 234I of FSMA 2000 are concurrent functions of the FCA and the CMA.
- (7) In this section “the CMA” means the Competition and Markets Authority.

61 The Regulator’s functions under the Competition Act 1998

- (1) The functions to which this subsection applies are to be concurrent functions of the Payment Systems Regulator and the Competition and Markets Authority (“the CMA”).
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to the functions of the CMA under the provisions of Part 1 of the Competition Act 1998, so far as relating to any of the following that relate to participation in payment systems—
 - (a) agreements, decisions or concerted practices of the kind mentioned in section 2(1) of that Act,
 - (b) conduct of the kind mentioned in section 18(1) of that Act,
 - (c) agreements, decisions or concerted practices of the kind mentioned in Article 101(1) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and
 - (d) conduct which amounts to abuse of the kind mentioned in Article 102 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

- (3) But subsection (1) does not apply to functions under the following sections of that Act—
- section 31D(1) to (6) (duty to publish guidance);
 - section 38(1) to (6) (duty to publish guidance about penalties);
 - section 40B(1) to (4) (duty to publish statement of policy on penalties);
 - section 51 (rules).
- (4) So far as necessary for the purposes of, or in connection with, the provisions of subsections (1) and (2), references to the CMA in Part 1 of the Competition Act 1998 are to be read as including references to the Payment Systems Regulator.
- (5) But subsection (4) does not apply—
- (a) in relation to sections 31D(1) to (6), 38(1) to (6), 40B(1) to (4), 51, 52(6) and (8) and 54 of that Act, or
 - (b) where the context otherwise requires.

62 Duty to consider exercise of powers under Competition Act 1998

- (1) Before exercising any power within subsection (2), the Payment Systems Regulator must consider whether it would be more appropriate to proceed under the Competition Act 1998.
- (2) The powers referred to in subsection (1) are—
- (a) its power to give a direction under section 54 (apart from the power to give a general direction);
 - (b) its power to impose a requirement under section 55 (apart from the power to impose a generally-imposed requirement);
 - (c) its powers under sections 56, 57 and 58.
- (3) The Payment Systems Regulator must not exercise the power if it considers that it would be more appropriate to proceed under the Competition Act 1998.

63 Provision of information and assistance to a CMA group

- (1) For the purpose of assisting a CMA group in carrying out a relevant investigation, the Payment Systems Regulator must give the CMA group—
- (a) any relevant information which it has in its possession, and
 - (b) any other assistance which the CMA group may reasonably require in relation to any matters falling within the scope of the investigation.
- (2) A “relevant investigation” is an investigation carried out on a reference made by the Payment Systems Regulator under section 131 of the Enterprise Act 2002 by virtue of section 59.
- (3) “Relevant information”, in relation to a relevant investigation, is information—
- (a) which relates to matters falling within the scope of the investigation, and
 - (b) which—
 - (i) is requested by the CMA group for the purpose of the investigation, or
 - (ii) in the opinion of the Payment Systems Regulator, it would be appropriate to give to the CMA group for that purpose.

- (4) A CMA group, in carrying out a relevant investigation, must take into account any information given to it under this section.
- (5) In this section “CMA group” has the same meaning as in Schedule 4 to the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013.

64 Function of keeping markets under review

- (1) For the purpose of the functions conferred on it by sections 58 to 63 the Payment Systems Regulator is to have the function of keeping under review—
 - (a) the market for payment systems, and
 - (b) the markets for services provided by payment systems.
- (2) The function conferred by subsection (1) is to be carried out with a view to (among other things) ensuring that the Payment Systems Regulator has sufficient information to take informed decisions and to carry out its other functions effectively.

65 Exclusion of general duties

- (1) Section 49 (the Payment Systems Regulator’s general duties) does not apply in relation to anything done by the Payment Systems Regulator in the carrying out of its functions by virtue of sections 59 to 63.
- (2) But in the carrying out of any functions by virtue of sections 59 to 63, the Payment Systems Regulator may have regard to any of the matters in respect of which a duty is imposed by section 49 if it is a matter to which the Competition and Markets Authority is entitled to have regard in the carrying out of those functions.

66 Concurrent competition powers: supplementary provision

- (1) If any question arises as to whether, by virtue of section 59 or 61, any functions fall to be, or are capable of being, carried out by the Payment Systems Regulator in relation to any particular case, that question is to be referred to, and determined by, the Treasury.
- (2) No objection is to be taken to anything done under the Competition Act 1998 or Part 4 of the Enterprise Act 2002 by or in relation to the Payment Systems Regulator on the ground that it should have been done by or in relation to the Competition and Markets Authority.

67 Amendments relating to Regulator’s competition powers

- (1) In section 9E of the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986 (interpretation of sections 9A to 9D), in subsection (2), after paragraph (f) insert—
 - “(g) the Payment Systems Regulator established under section 40 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013.”
- (2) In section 54 of the Competition Act 1998 (regulators), in subsection (1), omit the “and” at the end of paragraph (g) and after paragraph (h) insert—
 - “(i) the Payment Systems Regulator established under section 40 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013.”
- (3) In section 136 of the Enterprise Act 2002 (investigations and reports on market investigation references)—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) in subsection (7), at the end insert—
 - “(j) in relation to the Payment Systems Regulator, section 59 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013.”;
- (b) in subsection (8), for “or Monitor” substitute “, Monitor or the Payment Systems Regulator.”;
- (c) at the end insert—
 - “(10) In this section “the Payment Systems Regulator” means the body established under section 40 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013.”
- (4) In section 52(4) of the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013 (power to remove concurrent competition functions of sectoral regulators), after paragraph (f) insert—
 - “(g) the Payment Systems Regulator established under section 40 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013.”
- (5) In Schedule 4 to the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013 (the Competition and Markets Authority), in paragraph 16 (concurrency report), at the end of subparagraph (7) insert—
 - “(h) the Payment Systems Regulator established under section 40 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013.”

Complaints

68 Complaints by representative bodies

- (1) A designated representative body may make a complaint to the Payment Systems Regulator that a feature, or combination of features, of a market in the United Kingdom for services provided by payment systems is, or appears to be, significantly damaging the interests of those who use, or are likely to use, those services (“service-users”).
- (2) “Designated representative body” means a body designated by the Treasury by order.
- (3) The Treasury—
 - (a) may designate a body only if it appears to them to represent the interests of service-users of any description, and
 - (b) must publish in such manner as they think fit (and may from time to time vary) criteria to be applied by them in determining whether to make or revoke a designation.
- (4) The reference in subsection (1) to a feature of a market in the United Kingdom for services provided by payment systems is a reference to—
 - (a) the structure of the market concerned or any aspect of that structure,
 - (b) any conduct (whether or not in the market concerned) of one or more than one person who supplies or acquires services in the market concerned, or
 - (c) any conduct relating to the market concerned of customers of any person who supplies or acquires services, and “conduct” includes any failure to act (whether or not intentional) and any other unintentional conduct.
- (5) In this section “market in the United Kingdom” includes a market which operates only in a part of the United Kingdom.

- (6) In section 234C of FSMA 2000 (complaints by consumer bodies), after subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) But a complaint may not be made to the FCA under this section if it is a complaint which could be made to the Payment Systems Regulator by a designated representative body under section 68 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 (complaints by representative bodies).

“Designated representative body” and “the Payment Systems Regulator” have the same meaning in this subsection as they have in that section.”

69 Response by Regulator

- (1) The Payment Systems Regulator must within 90 days after the day on which it receives a complaint under section 68 publish a response stating how it proposes to deal with the complaint, and in particular—
- (a) whether it has decided to take any action, or to take no action, and
 - (b) if it has decided to take action, what action it proposes to take.
- (2) The response must—
- (a) include a copy of the complaint, and
 - (b) state the Payment Systems Regulator’s reasons for its proposals.
- (3) The Treasury may by order amend subsection (1) by substituting any period for the period for the time being specified there.

70 Complaints: guidance

- (1) The guidance given by the Payment Systems Regulator under section 96—
- (a) must include guidance about the presentation of a reasoned case for a complaint under section 68, and
 - (b) may include guidance about any other matters that appear to the Payment Systems Regulator to be appropriate for the purposes of that section.
- (2) Guidance given in accordance with subsection (1) is to be treated as general guidance for the purposes of this Part.

Enforcement and appeals

71 Meaning of “compliance failure”

In this Part “compliance failure” means a failure by a participant in a regulated payment system to—

- (a) comply with a direction given under section 54, or
- (b) comply with a requirement imposed under section 55 or 56.

72 Publication of compliance failures etc

- (1) The Payment Systems Regulator may publish details of a compliance failure by a participant in a regulated payment system.

- (2) The Payment Systems Regulator may publish details of a sanction imposed under section 73.

73 Penalties

- (1) The Payment Systems Regulator may require a participant in a regulated payment system to pay a penalty in respect of a compliance failure.
- (2) A penalty—
- (a) must be paid to the Payment Systems Regulator, and
 - (b) may be enforced by the Payment Systems Regulator as a debt.
- (3) The Payment Systems Regulator must prepare a statement of the principles which it will apply in determining—
- (a) whether to impose a penalty, and
 - (b) the amount of a penalty.
- (4) The Payment Systems Regulator must—
- (a) publish the statement on its website,
 - (b) send a copy to the Treasury,
 - (c) review the statement from time to time and revise it if necessary (and paragraphs (a) and (b) apply to a revision), and
 - (d) in applying the statement to a compliance failure, apply the version in force when the compliance failure occurred.

74 Warning notices

- (1) Before imposing a sanction on any person the Payment Systems Regulator must—
- (a) give the person a notice in writing (a “warning notice”),
 - (b) give the person at least 21 days to make representations,
 - (c) consider any representations made, and
 - (d) as soon as is reasonably practicable, give the person a notice in writing stating whether or not it intends to impose the sanction.
- (2) In subsection (1) any reference to imposing a sanction is a reference to—
- (a) publishing details under section 72(1), or
 - (b) requiring the payment of a penalty under section 73.

75 Injunctions

- (1) If, on the application of the Payment Systems Regulator, the court is satisfied—
- (a) that there is a reasonable likelihood that there will be a compliance failure, or
 - (b) that there has been a compliance failure and there is a reasonable likelihood that it will continue or be repeated,
- the court may make an order restraining the conduct constituting the failure.
- (2) If, on the application of the Payment Systems Regulator, the court is satisfied—
- (a) that there has been a compliance failure by a participant in a regulated payment system, and
 - (b) that there are steps which could be taken for remedying the failure, the court may make an order requiring the participant, and anyone else who appears to have been knowingly concerned in the failure, to take such steps as the court may direct to remedy it.

- (3) If, on the application of the Payment Systems Regulator, the court is satisfied—
 - (a) that there may have been a compliance failure by a participant in a regulated payment system, or
 - (b) that a person may have been knowingly concerned in a compliance failure, the court may make an order restraining the participant or the person (as the case may be) from dealing with any assets which it is satisfied the participant or person is reasonably likely to deal with.
- (4) The jurisdiction conferred by this section is exercisable—
 - (a) in England and Wales and Northern Ireland, by the High Court, and
 - (b) in Scotland, by the Court of Session.
- (5) In this section—
 - (a) references to an order restraining anything are, in Scotland, to be read as references to an interdict prohibiting that thing,
 - (b) references to remedying a failure include mitigating its effect, and
 - (c) references to dealing with assets include disposing of them.

76 Appeals: general

- (1) A person who is affected by any of the following decisions of the Payment Systems Regulator may appeal against the decision—
 - (a) a decision to give a direction under section 54 (other than a general direction),
 - (b) a decision to impose a requirement under section 55 (other than a generally-imposed requirement),
 - (c) a decision to exercise its power under section 56, 57 or 58,
 - (d) a decision to impose a sanction.
- (2) In subsection (1) the reference to imposing a sanction is a reference to—
 - (a) publishing details under section 72(1), or
 - (b) requiring the payment of a penalty under section 73.
- (3) If the decision is a CAT-appealable decision, the appeal must be made to the Competition Appeal Tribunal in accordance with section 77.
- (4) A “CAT-appealable decision” means—
 - (a) a decision to give a direction under section 54,
 - (b) a decision to impose a requirement under section 55, or
 - (c) a decision to publish details under section 72(1).
- (5) If the decision is a decision to impose a penalty on the person under section 73, the appeal must be made to the Competition Appeal Tribunal in accordance with section 78.
- (6) If the decision is a CMA-appealable decision, the appeal must be made to the Competition and Markets Authority (“the CMA”) in accordance with section 79.
- (7) A “CMA-appealable decision” means—

- (a) a decision to impose a requirement under section 56,
 - (b) a decision to vary an agreement under section 57, or
 - (c) a decision to impose a requirement under section 58.
- (8) The permission of the CMA is required for an appeal to be made in accordance with section 79.
- (9) The CMA may refuse permission for an appeal only if—
- (a) the appeal is made for reasons that are trivial or vexatious, or
 - (b) the appeal has no reasonable prospect of success.

77 Appeals to Competition Appeal Tribunal

- (1) This section applies where a person is appealing to the Competition Appeal Tribunal (“the Tribunal”) against a CAT-appealable decision.
- (2) The means of making an appeal is by sending the Tribunal a notice of appeal in accordance with Tribunal rules.
- (3) The notice of appeal must be sent within the period specified, in relation to the decision appealed against, in those rules.
- (4) In determining an appeal made in accordance with this section, the Tribunal must apply the same principles as would be applied by a court on an application for judicial review.
- (5) The Tribunal must either—
- (a) dismiss the appeal, or
 - (b) quash the whole or part of the decision to which the appeal relates.
- (6) If the Tribunal quashes the whole or part of a decision, it may refer the matter back to the Payment Systems Regulator with a direction to reconsider and make a new decision in accordance with its ruling.
- (7) The Tribunal may not direct the Payment Systems Regulator to take any action which it would not otherwise have the power to take in relation to the decision.
- (8) The effect of a decision to publish details under section 72(1) is suspended by the making of an appeal against the decision (and the details may not be published until the appeal has been determined).
- (9) The effect of any other CAT-appealable decision is not suspended by the making of an appeal against the decision.
- (10) In this section and section 78 “Tribunal rules” means rules under section 15 of the Enterprise Act 2002.

78 Appeals in relation to penalties

- (1) This section applies where a person is appealing to the Competition Appeal Tribunal (“the Tribunal”) against a decision to impose a penalty under section 73.
- (2) The person may appeal against—
- (a) the imposition of the penalty,
 - (b) the amount of the penalty, or

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (c) any date by which the penalty, or any part of it, is required to be paid.
- (3) The means of making an appeal is by sending the Tribunal a notice of appeal in accordance with Tribunal rules.
- (4) The notice of appeal must be sent within the period specified, in relation to the decision appealed against, in those rules.
- (5) The Tribunal may do any of the following—
 - (a) uphold the penalty;
 - (b) set aside the penalty;
 - (c) substitute for the penalty a penalty of an amount decided by the Tribunal;
 - (d) vary any date by which the penalty, or any part of it, is required to be paid.
- (6) If an appeal is made in accordance with this section, the penalty is not required to be paid until the appeal has been determined.
- (7) Subsections (2), (5) and (6) do not restrict the power to make Tribunal rules; and those subsections are subject to Tribunal rules.
- (8) Except as provided by this section, the validity of the penalty may not be questioned by any legal proceedings whatever.
- (9) In the case of an appeal made in accordance with this section, a decision of the Tribunal has the same effect as, and may be enforced in the same manner as, a decision of the Payment Systems Regulator.

79 Appeals to Competition and Markets Authority

- (1) This section applies where a person is appealing to the Competition and Markets Authority (“the CMA”) against a CMA-appealable decision.
- (2) In determining the appeal the CMA must have regard, to the same extent as is required of the Payment Systems Regulator, to the matters to which the Payment Systems Regulator must have regard in discharging its functions under this Part.
- (3) In determining the appeal the CMA—
 - (a) may have regard to any matter to which the Payment Systems Regulator was not able to have regard in relation to the decision, but
 - (b) must not, in the exercise of that power, have regard to any matter to which the Payment Systems Regulator would not have been entitled to have regard in reaching its decision had it had the opportunity of doing so.
- (4) The CMA must either—
 - (a) dismiss the appeal, or
 - (b) quash the whole or part of the decision to which the appeal relates.
- (5) The CMA may act as mentioned in subsection (4)(b) only to the extent that it is satisfied that the decision was wrong on one or more of the following grounds—
 - (a) that the Payment Systems Regulator failed properly to have regard to any matter mentioned in subsection (2);
 - (b) that the Payment Systems Regulator failed to give the appropriate weight to any matter mentioned in subsection (2);
 - (c) that the decision was based, wholly or partly, on an error of fact;

- (d) that the decision was wrong in law.
- (6) If the CMA quashes the whole or part of a decision, it may either—
 - (a) refer the matter back to the Payment Systems Regulator with a direction to reconsider and make a new decision in accordance with its ruling, or
 - (b) substitute its own decision for that of the Payment Systems Regulator.
- (7) The CMA may not direct the Payment Systems Regulator to take any action which it would not otherwise have the power to take in relation to the decision.
- (8) Schedule 5 contains further provision about the making of appeals in accordance with this section.

80 Enforcement of requirement to dispose of interest in payment system

- (1) A requirement imposed under section 58 is enforceable by civil proceedings brought by the Payment Systems Regulator for an injunction or for interdict or for any other appropriate relief or remedy.
- (2) Civil proceedings may not be brought to enforce a requirement imposed under that section unless—
 - (a) the time for bringing an appeal against the decision to impose the requirement has expired and no appeal has been brought within that time, or
 - (b) the person on whom the requirement was imposed has within that time brought such an appeal and the appeal has been dismissed or withdrawn.

Information and investigation powers

81 Power to obtain information or documents

- (1) The Payment Systems Regulator may by notice in writing require a person to provide information or documents—
 - (a) which the Payment Systems Regulator thinks will help the Treasury in determining whether to make a designation order, or
 - (b) which the Payment Systems Regulator otherwise requires in connection with its functions under this Part.
- (2) In particular, a notice under subsection (1) may require a participant in a regulated payment system to notify the Payment Systems Regulator if events of a specified kind occur.
- (3) A notice under subsection (1) may require information or documents to be provided—
 - (a) in a specified form or manner;
 - (b) at a specified time;
 - (c) in respect of a specified period.

82 Reports by skilled persons

- (1) The Payment Systems Regulator may—
 - (a) require a person who is a participant in a regulated payment system to provide the Payment Systems Regulator with a report on any matter relating to the person's participation in the system ("the matter concerned"), or

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (b) appoint a person to provide the Payment Systems Regulator with a report on the matter concerned.

The person whose participation in the payment system is to be the subject of the report is referred to in this section as “the relevant participant”.

- (2) The power conferred by subsection (1)(a) is exercisable by giving the relevant participant a notice in writing.
- (3) When acting under subsection (1)(a), the Payment Systems Regulator may require the report to be in a form specified in the notice.
- (4) The Payment Systems Regulator must give written notice of an appointment under subsection (1)(b) to the relevant participant.
- (5) A person appointed to make a report under this section—
 - (a) must be a person appearing to the Payment Systems Regulator to have the skills necessary to make a report on the matter concerned, and
 - (b) where the appointment is to be made by the relevant participant, must be a person nominated or approved by the Payment Systems Regulator.
- (6) It is the duty of—
 - (a) the relevant participant, and
 - (b) any person who is providing (or who has at any time provided) services to the relevant participant in relation to the matter concerned,to give the person appointed to prepare a report all such assistance as the appointed person may reasonably require.
- (7) The obligation imposed by subsection (6) is enforceable, on the application of the Payment Systems Regulator, by an injunction or, in Scotland, by an order for specific performance under section 45 of the Court of Session Act 1988.
- (8) The Payment Systems Regulator may direct the relevant participant to pay any expenses incurred by the Payment Systems Regulator in relation to an appointment under subsection (1)(b).

83 Appointment of persons to conduct investigations

- (1) If it considers that it is desirable to do so in order to advance any of its payment systems objectives, the Payment Systems Regulator may appoint one or more competent persons to conduct an investigation on its behalf into the nature, conduct or state of the business of any participant in a regulated payment system.
- (2) If it appears to the Payment Systems Regulator that there are circumstances suggesting that there may have been a compliance failure, the Payment Systems Regulator may appoint one or more competent persons to conduct an investigation on its behalf.

84 Investigations: general

- (1) This section applies if the Payment Systems Regulator appoints one or more competent persons (“investigators”) under section 83 to conduct an investigation on its behalf.
- (2) The Payment Systems Regulator must give written notice of the appointment of an investigator to the person who is the subject of the investigation.

- (3) Subsections (2) and (9) do not apply if—
- (a) the Payment Systems Regulator believes that the notice required by subsection (2) or (9) would be likely to result in the investigation being frustrated, or
 - (b) the investigator is appointed under subsection (2) of section 83.
- (4) A notice under subsection (2) must—
- (a) specify the provision under which the investigator was appointed, and
 - (b) state the reason for the appointment.
- (5) Nothing prevents the Payment Systems Regulator from appointing as an investigator—
- (a) a member of its staff, or
 - (b) a member of staff of the FCA.
- (6) An investigator who conducts an investigation must make a report of the investigation to the Payment Systems Regulator.
- (7) The Payment Systems Regulator may, by a direction to an investigator, control—
- (a) the scope of the investigation,
 - (b) the period during which the investigation is to be conducted,
 - (c) the conduct of the investigation, and
 - (d) the reporting of the investigation.
- (8) A direction may, in particular—
- (a) confine the investigation to particular matters;
 - (b) extend the investigation to additional matters;
 - (c) require the investigator to discontinue the investigation or to take only those steps that are specified in the direction;
 - (d) require the investigator to make such interim reports as are so specified.
- (9) If there is a change in the scope or conduct of the investigation and, in the opinion of the Payment Systems Regulator, the person who is the subject of the investigation is likely to be significantly prejudiced by not being made aware of it, that person must be given written notice of the change.

85 Powers of persons appointed under section 83

- (1) An investigator may require any person within subsection (2)—
- (a) to attend before the investigator at a specified time and place and answer questions, or
 - (b) otherwise to provide any information which the investigator requires.
- (2) The persons referred to in subsection (1) are—
- (a) the person who is the subject of the investigation (“the person under investigation”);
 - (b) any person connected with the person under investigation;
 - (c) in the case of an investigation into whether there has been a compliance failure, any person who in the investigator’s opinion is or may be able to give information which is or may be relevant to the investigation.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (3) An investigator may also require any person to produce at a specified time and place any specified documents or documents of a specified description.
- (4) A requirement under subsection (1) or (3) may be imposed only so far as the investigator concerned reasonably considers the question, provision of information or production of the document to be relevant to the purposes of the investigation.
- (5) In the case of an investigation into whether there has been a compliance failure, the investigator may also require any person falling within subsection (2)(c) to give the investigator all assistance in connection with the investigation which the person is reasonably able to give.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, a person is connected with the person under investigation (“A”) if the person is or has at any relevant time been—
 - (a) a member of A’s group,
 - (b) a controller of A, or
 - (c) a partnership of which A is a member.
- (7) In this section—
 - “controller” has the same meaning as in FSMA 2000 (see section 422 of that Act);
 - “group” has the same meaning as in FSMA 2000 (see section 421 of that Act);
 - “investigator” means a person conducting an investigation under section 83;
 - “specified” means specified in a notice in writing.

86 Information and documents: supplemental provisions

- (1) In this section “relevant document” means a document produced in response to a requirement imposed under section 81 or 85.
- (2) In a case where—
 - (a) the Payment Systems Regulator has power under section 81, or an investigator has power under section 85, to require a person to produce a document, but
 - (b) it appears that the document is in the possession of another person,the power may be exercised in relation to that other person.
- (3) Any person to whom a relevant document is produced may—
 - (a) take copies or extracts from the document, or
 - (b) require the person producing the document, or any relevant person (see subsection (4)), to provide an explanation of the document.
- (4) “Relevant person”, in relation to a person who is required to produce a document, means a person who—
 - (a) has been or is or is proposed to be a director or controller of that person,
 - (b) has been or is an auditor of that person,
 - (c) has been or is an actuary, accountant or lawyer appointed or instructed by that person, or
 - (d) has been or is an employee of that person.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (5) A relevant document may be retained for so long as the person to whom it is produced considers that it is necessary to retain it (rather than copies of it) for the purposes for which the document was requested.
- (6) If the person to whom a relevant document is produced has reasonable grounds for believing—
- (a) that the document may have to be produced for the purposes of any legal proceedings, and
 - (b) that it might otherwise be unavailable for those purposes,
- it may be retained until the proceedings are concluded.
- (7) If a person who is required under section 81 or 85 to produce a document fails to do so, the Payment Systems Regulator or an investigator may require the person to state, to the best of the person's knowledge and belief, where the document is.
- (8) A lawyer may be required under section 81 or 85 or this section to provide the name and address of a client.
- (9) A person may not be required under section 81 or 85 or this section to disclose information or produce a document in respect of which the person owes an obligation of confidence as a result of carrying on the business of banking unless—
- (a) the person is the person under investigation or a member of that person's group,
 - (b) the person to whom the obligation of confidence is owed is the person under investigation or a member of that person's group,
 - (c) the person to whom the obligation of confidence is owed consents to the disclosure or production, or
 - (d) the imposing on the person of a requirement with respect to such information or document has been specifically authorised by the Payment Systems Regulator.
- (10) If a person claims a lien on a document, its production under section 81 or 85 does not affect the lien.
- (11) In this section—
- “controller” has the same meaning as in FSMA 2000 (see section 422 of that Act);
 - “group” has the same meaning as in FSMA 2000 (see section 421 of that Act);
 - “investigator” means a person appointed under section 83.

87 Admissibility of statements made to investigators

- (1) A statement made to an investigator by a person in compliance with an information requirement is admissible in evidence in any proceedings, so long as it also complies with any requirements governing the admissibility of evidence in the circumstances in question.
- (2) But in criminal proceedings in which that person is charged with an offence to which this subsection applies—
- (a) no evidence relating to the statement may be adduced by or on behalf of the prosecution, and

- (b) no question relating to the statement may be asked by or on behalf of the prosecution, unless evidence relating to the statement is adduced, or a question relating to it is asked, in the proceedings by or on behalf of that person.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies to any offence other than—
- (a) an offence under section 90(6);
 - (b) an offence under section 5 of the Perjury Act 1911 (false statements made otherwise than on oath);
 - (c) an offence under section 44(2) of the Criminal Law (Consolidation) (Scotland) Act 1995 (false statements made otherwise than on oath);
 - (d) an offence under Article 10 of the Perjury (Northern Ireland) Order 1979.
- (4) In this section—
- “information requirement” means a requirement imposed by an investigator under section 85 or 86;
 - “investigator” means a person appointed under section 83.

88 Entry of premises under warrant

- (1) A justice of the peace may issue a warrant under this section if satisfied on information on oath given by or on behalf of the Payment Systems Regulator or an investigator that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the first or second set of conditions is satisfied.
- (2) The first set of conditions is—
- (a) that a person on whom an information requirement has been imposed has failed (wholly or in part) to comply with it, and
 - (b) that on the premises specified in the warrant—
 - (i) there are documents which have been required, or
 - (ii) there is information which has been required.
- (3) In this section “information requirement” means—
- (a) a requirement imposed by the Payment Systems Regulator under section 81 or 86, or
 - (b) a requirement imposed by an investigator under section 85 or 86.
- (4) The second set of conditions is—
- (a) that the premises specified in the warrant are premises of a participant in a regulated payment system,
 - (b) that there are on the premises documents or information in relation to which an information requirement could be imposed, and
 - (c) that if such a requirement were to be imposed—
 - (i) it would not be complied with, or
 - (ii) the documents or information to which it related would be removed, tampered with or destroyed.
- (5) A warrant under this section authorises a constable—
- (a) to enter the premises specified in the warrant,
 - (b) to search the premises and take possession of any documents or information appearing to be documents or information of a kind in respect of which a warrant under this section was issued (“the relevant kind”) or to take, in relation to any such documents or information, any other steps which may appear to be necessary for preserving them or preventing interference with them,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (c) to take copies of, or extracts from, any documents or information appearing to be of the relevant kind,
 - (d) to require any person on the premises to provide an explanation of any document or information appearing to be of the relevant kind or to state where it may be found, and
 - (e) to use such force as may be reasonably necessary.
- (6) A warrant under this section may be executed by any constable.
- (7) The warrant may authorise persons to accompany any constable who is executing it.
- (8) The powers in subsection (5) may be exercised by a person who—
- (a) is authorised by the warrant to accompany a constable, and
 - (b) exercises those powers in the company of, and under the supervision of, a constable.
- (9) In England and Wales, sections 15(5) to (8) and 16(3) to (12) of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 (execution of search warrants and safeguards) apply to warrants issued under this section.
- (10) In Northern Ireland, Articles 17(5) to (8) and 18(3) to (12) of the Police and Criminal Evidence (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 apply to warrants issued under this section.
- (11) This section has effect in relation to Scotland as if—
- (a) for any reference to a justice of the peace there were substituted a reference to a justice of the peace or a sheriff, and
 - (b) for any reference to information on oath there were substituted a reference to evidence on oath.
- (12) In this section “investigator” means a person appointed under section 83.

89 Retention of documents taken under section 88

- (1) Any document of which possession is taken under section 88 (“a seized document”) may be retained so long as it is necessary to retain it (rather than copies of it) in the circumstances.
- (2) A person claiming to be the owner of a seized document may apply to a magistrates’ court or (in Scotland) the sheriff for an order for the delivery of the document to the person appearing to the court or sheriff to be the owner.
- (3) If on an application under subsection (2) the court or (in Scotland) the sheriff cannot ascertain who is the owner of the seized document the court or sheriff (as the case may be) may make such order as the court or sheriff thinks fit.
- (4) An order under subsection (2) or (3) does not affect the right of any person to take legal proceedings against any person in possession of a seized document for the recovery of the document.
- (5) Any right to bring proceedings (as described in subsection (4)) may only be exercised within 6 months of the date of the order made under subsection (2) or (3).

90 Enforcement of information and investigation powers

- (1) If a person other than an investigator (“the defaulter”) fails to comply with a requirement imposed under any of sections 81 to 88, the person imposing the requirement may certify that fact in writing to the court.
- (2) If the court is satisfied that the defaulter failed without reasonable excuse to comply with the requirement, it may deal with the defaulter (and in the case of a body corporate, any director or other officer of the body) as if that person were in contempt.
- (3) In subsection (2) “officer”, in relation to a limited liability partnership, means a member of the limited liability partnership.
- (4) A person who knows or suspects that an investigation is being or is likely to be conducted under section 83 is guilty of an offence if the person—
 - (a) falsifies, conceals, destroys or otherwise disposes of a document which the person knows or suspects is or would be relevant to such an investigation, or
 - (b) causes or permits the falsification, concealment, destruction or disposal of such a document.
- (5) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (4) to show that the person had no intention of concealing facts disclosed by the documents from the investigator.
- (6) A person is guilty of an offence if the person, in purported compliance with a requirement imposed under any of sections 81 to 88—
 - (a) provides information which the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular, or
 - (b) recklessly provides information which is false or misleading in a material particular.
- (7) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (4) or (6) is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction—
 - (i) in England and Wales, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months (or 6 months, if the offence was committed before the commencement of section 154(1) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003) or a fine, or both;
 - (ii) in Scotland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or both;
 - (iii) in Northern Ireland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or both;
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or a fine, or both.
- (8) Any person who intentionally obstructs the exercise of any rights conferred by a warrant under section 88 is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction—
 - (a) in England and Wales, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 51 weeks (or 3 months, if the offence was committed before the commencement of section 280(2) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003) or a fine, or both;
 - (b) in Scotland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale, or both;
 - (c) in Northern Ireland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale, or both.

(9) In this section—

“court” means the High Court or, in Scotland, the Court of Session;

“investigator” means a person appointed under section 83.

Disclosure of information

91 Restrictions on disclosure of confidential information

- (1) Confidential information must not be disclosed by a primary recipient, or by any person obtaining the information directly or indirectly from a primary recipient, without the consent of—
 - (a) the person from whom the primary recipient obtained the information, and
 - (b) if different, the person to whom it relates.
- (2) In this section “confidential information” means information which—
 - (a) relates to the business or other affairs of any person,
 - (b) was received by the primary recipient for the purposes of, or in the discharge of, any functions of the Payment Systems Regulator under this Part, and
 - (c) is not prevented from being confidential information by subsection (4).
- (3) It is immaterial for the purposes of subsection (2) whether or not the information was received—
 - (a) as a result of a requirement to provide it imposed by or under any enactment;
 - (b) for other purposes as well as purposes mentioned in that subsection.
- (4) Information is not confidential information if—
 - (a) it has been made available to the public by virtue of being disclosed in any circumstances in which, or for any purposes for which, disclosure is not precluded by this section, or
 - (b) it is in the form of a summary or a collection of information that is framed in such a way that it is not possible to ascertain from it information relating to any particular person.
- (5) Each of the following is a primary recipient for the purposes of this section—
 - (a) the Payment Systems Regulator;
 - (b) the FCA;
 - (c) a person who is or has been employed by the Payment Systems Regulator or the FCA;
 - (d) a person who is or has been engaged to provide services to the Payment Systems Regulator or the FCA;
 - (e) any auditor or expert instructed by the Payment Systems Regulator or the FCA;
 - (f) a person appointed to make a report under section 82;
 - (g) a person appointed under section 83.
- (6) Nothing in this section applies to information received by a primary recipient for the purposes of, or in the discharge of, any functions of the Payment Systems Regulator under the Competition Act 1998 or the Enterprise Act 2002 by virtue of section 59 or 61.

(For provision about the disclosure of such information, see Part 9 of the Enterprise Act 2002.)

92 Exemptions from section 91

- (1) Section 91 does not prevent a disclosure of confidential information which—
 - (a) is made for the purpose of facilitating the carrying out of a public function, and
 - (b) is permitted by regulations made by the Treasury under this section.
- (2) For the purposes of this section “public functions” includes—
 - (a) functions conferred by or in accordance with any provision contained in any enactment;
 - (b) functions conferred by or in accordance with any provision contained in the EU Treaties or any EU instrument;
 - (c) similar functions conferred on persons by or under provisions having effect as part of the law of a country or territory outside the United Kingdom;
 - (d) functions exercisable in relation to specified disciplinary proceedings.
- (3) Regulations under this section may, in particular, make provision permitting the disclosure of confidential information or of confidential information of a specified kind—
 - (a) by specified recipients, or recipients of a specified description, to any person for the purpose of enabling or assisting the recipient to discharge specified public functions;
 - (b) by specified recipients, or recipients of a specified description, to specified persons, or persons of specified descriptions, for the purpose of enabling or assisting those persons to discharge specified public functions;
 - (c) by the Payment Systems Regulator to the Treasury for any purpose;
 - (d) by any recipient if the disclosure is with a view to or in connection with specified proceedings.
- (4) Regulations under this section may also include provision—
 - (a) making any permission to disclose confidential information subject to conditions (which may relate to the obtaining of consents or any other matter);
 - (b) restricting the uses to which confidential information disclosed under the regulations may be put.
- (5) In relation to confidential information, each of the following is a “recipient”—
 - (a) a primary recipient;
 - (b) a person obtaining the information directly or indirectly from a primary recipient.
- (6) In this section—
 - “confidential information” and “primary recipient” have the same meaning as in section 91;
 - “specified” means specified in regulations.

93 Offences relating to disclosure of confidential information

- (1) A person who discloses information in contravention of section 91 is guilty of an offence.

- (2) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) is liable—
- (a) on summary conviction—
 - (i) in England and Wales, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or a fine, or both;
 - (ii) in Scotland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or both;
 - (iii) in Northern Ireland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or both;
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or a fine, or both.
- (3) A person is guilty of an offence if—
- (a) information has been disclosed to the person in accordance with regulations made under section 92, and
 - (b) the person uses the information in contravention of any provision of those regulations.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (3) is liable on summary conviction—
- (a) in England and Wales, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 51 weeks (or 3 months, if the offence was committed before the commencement of section 280(2) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003) or a fine, or both;
 - (b) in Scotland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale, or both;
 - (c) in Northern Ireland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale, or both.
- (5) In proceedings against a person (“P”) for an offence under this section it is a defence for P to prove—
- (a) that P did not know and had no reason to suspect that the information was confidential information;
 - (b) that P took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence.
- (6) In this section “confidential information” has the same meaning as in section 91.

94 Information received from Bank of England

- (1) The following are regulators for the purposes of this section—
- (a) the Payment Systems Regulator;
 - (b) the FCA.
- (2) A regulator must not disclose to any person specially protected information.
- (3) “Specially protected information” is information in relation to which the first and second conditions are met.
- (4) The first condition is that the regulator received the information from—
- (a) the Bank of England (“the Bank”), or
 - (b) the other regulator where that regulator had received the information from the Bank.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (5) The second condition is that the Bank notified the regulator to which it disclosed the information that the Bank held the information for the purpose of its functions with respect to any of the following—
- (a) monetary policy;
 - (b) financial operations intended to support financial institutions for the purposes of maintaining stability;
 - (c) the provision of private banking services and related services.
- (6) The notification referred to in subsection (5) must be—
- (a) in writing, and
 - (b) given before, or at the same time as, the Bank discloses the information.
- (7) The prohibition in subsection (2) does not apply—
- (a) to disclosure by one regulator to the other regulator where the regulator making the disclosure informs the other regulator that the information is specially protected information by virtue of this section;
 - (b) where the Bank has consented to disclosure of the information;
 - (c) to information which has been made available to the public by virtue of being disclosed in any circumstances in which, or for any purposes for which, disclosure is not precluded by this section;
 - (d) to information which the regulator is required to disclose in pursuance of any EU obligation.
- (8) In this section references to disclosure by or to a regulator or by the Bank include references to disclosure by or to any of the following—
- (a) persons who are, or are acting as, officers of, or members of the staff of, the regulator;
 - (b) persons who are, or are acting as, officers, employees or agents of the Bank;
 - (c) auditors, experts, contractors or investigators appointed by the regulator or the Bank under powers conferred by this Part or otherwise.
- (9) References to disclosure by a regulator do not include references to disclosure between persons who fall within subsection (8)(a) or (b) in relation to that regulator.
- (10) Each regulator must take such steps as are reasonable in the circumstances to prevent the disclosure of specially protected information, in cases not excluded by subsection (7), by those who are or have been—
- (a) its officers or members of staff (including persons acting as its officers or members of staff);
 - (b) auditors, experts, contractors or investigators appointed by the regulator under powers conferred by this Part or otherwise;
 - (c) persons to whom the regulator has delegated any of its functions.

95 Disclosure of information by Bank to Regulator

In section 246 of the Banking Act 2009 (information), in subsection (2), after paragraph (c) insert—

- “(ca) the Payment Systems Regulator (established under section 40 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013);”.

Guidance

96 Guidance

- (1) The Payment Systems Regulator may give guidance consisting of such information and advice as it considers appropriate—
 - (a) with respect to the operation of specified provisions of this Part;
 - (b) with respect to any other matter relating to its functions under this Part;
 - (c) with respect to any other matters about which it appears to the Payment Systems Regulator to be desirable to give information or advice.
- (2) Guidance given by the Payment Systems Regulator under this section must include guidance about how it intends to advance its payment systems objectives in discharging its functions under this Part in relation to different categories of payment system or participants in payment systems.
- (3) In this Part “general guidance” means guidance given by the Payment Systems Regulator under this section which—
 - (a) is given—
 - (i) to persons generally,
 - (ii) to participants in payment systems, or regulated payment systems, generally, or
 - (iii) to a class of participant in a payment system or regulated payment system,
 - (b) is intended to have continuing effect, and
 - (c) is given in writing or other legible form.
- (4) The Payment Systems Regulator may give financial or other assistance to persons giving information or advice of a kind which the Payment Systems Regulator could give under this section.
- (5) The Payment Systems Regulator may—
 - (a) publish its guidance,
 - (b) offer copies of its published guidance for sale at a reasonable price, and
 - (c) if it gives guidance in response to a request made by any person, make a reasonable charge for that guidance.

Reports

97 Reports

If it considers that it is desirable to do so in order to advance any of its payment systems objectives, the Payment Systems Regulator may prepare and publish a report into any matter which it considers relevant to the exercise of its functions under this Part.

Relationship with other regulators

98 Duty of regulators to ensure co-ordinated exercise of functions

- (1) The following are regulators for the purposes of this section—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) the Payment Systems Regulator;
 - (b) the Bank of England;
 - (c) the FCA;
 - (d) the PRA.
- (2) The regulators must co-ordinate the exercise of their relevant functions (see subsection (5)) with a view to ensuring—
- (a) that each regulator consults every other regulator (where not otherwise required to do so) in connection with any proposed exercise of a relevant function in a way that may have a material adverse effect on the advancement by that other regulator of any of its objectives;
 - (b) that where appropriate each regulator obtains information and advice from every other regulator in connection with the exercise of its relevant functions in relation to matters of common regulatory interest in cases where the other regulator may be expected to have relevant information or relevant expertise.
- (3) The duty in subsection (2) applies only to the extent that compliance with the duty—
- (a) is compatible with the advancement by each regulator of any of its objectives, and
 - (b) does not impose a burden on the regulators that is disproportionate to the benefits of compliance.
- (4) A function conferred on a regulator relates to matters of common regulatory interest if—
- (a) another regulator exercises similar or related functions in relation to the same persons,
 - (b) another regulator exercises functions which relate to different persons but relate to similar subject-matter, or
 - (c) its exercise could affect the advancement by another regulator of any of its objectives.
- (5) “Relevant functions” means—
- (a) in relation to the Payment Systems Regulator, its functions under this Part;
 - (b) in relation to the Bank of England, its functions under Part 5 of the Banking Act 2009 (inter-bank payment systems);
 - (c) in relation to the FCA, the functions conferred on it by or under FSMA 2000 (see section 1A(6) of that Act);
 - (d) in relation to the PRA, the functions conferred on it by or under FSMA 2000 (see section 2A(6) of that Act).
- (6) “Objectives” means—
- (a) in relation to the Payment Systems Regulator, its payment systems objectives;
 - (b) in relation to the Bank of England, its Financial Stability Objective under section 2A of the Bank of England Act 1998;
 - (c) in relation to the FCA, its strategic objective and operational objectives under section 1B of FSMA 2000;
 - (d) in relation to the PRA, its general objective under section 2B of that Act.

99 Memorandum of understanding

- (1) The following are regulators for the purposes of this section—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) the Payment Systems Regulator;
 - (b) the Bank of England;
 - (c) the FCA;
 - (d) the PRA.
- (2) The regulators must prepare and maintain a memorandum which describes in general terms—
- (a) the role of each regulator in relation to the exercise of relevant functions which relate to matters of common regulatory interest, and
 - (b) how the regulators intend to comply with section 98 in relation to the exercise of such functions.
- (3) The regulators must review the memorandum at least once in each calendar year.
- (4) The regulators must give the Treasury a copy of the memorandum and any revised memorandum.
- (5) The Treasury must lay before Parliament a copy of any document received by them under this section.
- (6) The regulators must ensure that the memorandum as currently in force is published in the way appearing to them to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.
- (7) The memorandum need not relate to any aspect of compliance with section 98 if the regulators consider—
- (a) that publication of information about that aspect would be against the public interest, or
 - (b) that that aspect is a technical or operational matter not affecting the public.
- (8) In this section—
- (a) the reference in subsection (2)(a) to matters of common regulatory interest is to be read in accordance with section 98(4), and
 - (b) references to relevant functions are to be read in accordance with section 98(5).

100 Power of Bank to require Regulator to refrain from specified action

- (1) Where the first, second and third conditions are met, the Bank of England may give a direction under this section to the Payment Systems Regulator.
- (2) The first condition is that the Payment Systems Regulator is proposing to exercise any of its powers under this Part in relation to a participant in a regulated payment system.
- (3) The second condition is that the Bank of England is of the opinion that the exercise of the power in the manner proposed may—
- (a) threaten the stability of the UK financial system,
 - (b) have serious consequences for business or other interests in the United Kingdom, or
 - (c) have an adverse effect on the Bank’s ability to act in its capacity as a monetary authority.
- (4) The third condition is that the Bank of England is of the opinion that the giving of the direction is necessary in order to avoid the possible consequence falling within subsection (3).

- (5) A direction under this section is a direction requiring the Payment Systems Regulator not to exercise the power or not to exercise it in a specified manner.
- (6) The direction may be expressed to have effect during a specified period or until revoked.
- (7) The Payment Systems Regulator is not required to comply with a direction under this section if or to the extent that in the opinion of the Payment Systems Regulator compliance would be incompatible with any EU obligation or any other international obligation of the United Kingdom.

101 Power of FCA to require Regulator to refrain from specified action

- (1) Where the first, second and third conditions are met, the FCA may give a direction under this section to the Payment Systems Regulator.
- (2) The first condition is that the Payment Systems Regulator is proposing to exercise any of its powers under this Part in relation to a participant in a regulated payment system.
- (3) The second condition is that the FCA is of the opinion that the exercise of the power in the manner proposed may have an adverse effect on the ability of the FCA to comply with its duty under section 1B(1) of FSMA 2000 (FCA's general duties).
- (4) The third condition is that the FCA is of the opinion that the giving of the direction is necessary in order to avoid the possible consequence falling within subsection (3).
- (5) A direction under this section is a direction requiring the Payment Systems Regulator not to exercise the power or not to exercise it in a specified manner.
- (6) The direction may be expressed to have effect during a specified period or until revoked.
- (7) The Payment Systems Regulator is not required to comply with a direction under this section if or to the extent that in the opinion of the Payment Systems Regulator compliance would be incompatible with any EU obligation or any other international obligation of the United Kingdom.

102 Power of PRA to require Regulator to refrain from specified action

- (1) Where the first, second and third conditions are met, the PRA may give a direction under this section to the Payment Systems Regulator.
- (2) The first condition is that the Payment Systems Regulator is proposing to exercise any of its powers under this Part in relation to—
 - (a) a class of PRA-authorized persons, or
 - (b) a particular PRA-authorized person.
- (3) The second condition is that the PRA is of the opinion that the exercise of the power in the manner proposed may—
 - (a) threaten the stability of the UK financial system,
 - (b) result in the failure of a PRA-authorized person in a way that would have an adverse effect on the stability of the UK financial system,
 - (c) threaten the continuity of core services provided in the United Kingdom, or

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (d) have an adverse effect on the ability of the PRA to comply with its duty under section 2B(1) of FSMA 2000 (the PRA’s general objective).
- (4) The third condition is that the PRA is of the opinion that the giving of the direction is necessary in order to avoid the possible consequence falling within subsection (3).
- (5) A direction under this section is a direction requiring the Payment Systems Regulator not to exercise the power or not to exercise it in a specified manner.
- (6) The direction may be expressed to have effect during a specified period or until revoked.
- (7) The Payment Systems Regulator is not required to comply with a direction under this section if or to the extent that in the opinion of the Payment Systems Regulator compliance would be incompatible with any EU obligation or any other international obligation of the United Kingdom.
- (8) The reference in subsection (3)(b) to the “failure” of a PRA-authorized person is to be read in accordance with section 2J(3) and (4) of FSMA 2000.
- (9) In this section—
 - “core services” has the same meaning as in FSMA 2000 (see section 142C of that Act), and
 - “PRA-authorized person” has the same meaning as in FSMA 2000 (see section 2B(5) of that Act).

Consultation, accountability and oversight

103 Regulator’s general duty to consult

- (1) The Payment Systems Regulator must make and maintain effective arrangements for consulting relevant persons on—
 - (a) the extent to which its general policies and practices are consistent with its general duties under section 49, and
 - (b) how its payment systems objectives may best be achieved.
- (2) The following are “relevant persons” for the purposes of this section—
 - (a) participants in regulated payment systems, and
 - (b) those who use, or are likely to use, services provided by regulated payment systems.
- (3) Arrangements under this section must include the establishment and maintenance of one or more panels of persons to represent the interests of relevant persons.
- (4) Where the Payment Systems Regulator establishes a panel under subsection (3), it must appoint one of the members of the panel to be its chair.
- (5) The Treasury’s approval is required for the appointment or dismissal of the chair of a panel established under subsection (3).
- (6) The Payment Systems Regulator must—
 - (a) consider representations that are made to it in accordance with arrangements made under this section, and

- (b) from time to time publish, in such manner as it thinks fit, responses to the representations.

104 Consultation in relation to generally applicable requirements

- (1) In this section references to imposing a generally applicable requirement are to—
 - (a) giving a general direction under section 54, or
 - (b) imposing a generally-imposed requirement under section 55,and references to the requirement are to be read accordingly.
- (2) Before imposing a generally applicable requirement, the Payment Systems Regulator must—
 - (a) consult the Bank of England, the FCA and the PRA, and
 - (b) after doing so, publish a draft of the proposed requirement in the way appearing to the Payment Systems Regulator to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.
- (3) The draft must be accompanied by—
 - (a) a cost benefit analysis,
 - (b) an explanation of the purpose of the proposed requirement,
 - (c) an explanation of the Payment Systems Regulator’s reasons for believing that imposing the requirement is compatible with its duties under section 49, and
 - (d) notice that representations about the proposed requirement may be made to the Payment Systems Regulator within a specified time.
- (4) Before imposing the proposed requirement the Payment Systems Regulator must have regard to any representations made to it in accordance with subsection (3)(d).
- (5) If the Payment Systems Regulator proposes to impose the requirement, it must publish an account, in general terms, of—
 - (a) the representations made to it in accordance with subsection (3)(d), and
 - (b) its response to them.
- (6) If the requirement differs from the draft published under subsection (2)(b) in a way which is, in the opinion of the Payment Systems Regulator, significant the Payment Systems Regulator must (in addition to complying with subsection (5)) publish details of the difference together with a cost benefit analysis.
- (7) For the purposes of this section a “cost benefit analysis” is—
 - (a) an analysis of the costs together with an analysis of the benefits that will arise—
 - (i) if the proposed requirement is imposed, or
 - (ii) if subsection (6) applies, from the requirement imposed, and
 - (b) subject to subsection (8), an estimate of those costs and of those benefits.
- (8) If, in the opinion of the Payment Systems Regulator—
 - (a) the costs or benefits referred to in subsection (7) cannot reasonably be estimated, or
 - (b) it is not reasonably practicable to produce an estimate,the cost benefit analysis need not estimate them, but must include a statement of the Payment Systems Regulator’s opinion and an explanation of it.

- (9) The Payment Systems Regulator may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of a draft published under subsection (2)(b).
- (10) Subsections (2)(b) and (3) to (6) do not apply if the Payment Systems Regulator considers that the delay involved in complying with them would be prejudicial to the interests of those who use, or are likely to use, services provided by regulated payment systems.
- (11) Subsections (3)(a) and (6) do not apply if the Payment Systems Regulator considers that, making the appropriate comparison—
 - (a) there will be no increase in costs, or
 - (b) there will be an increase in costs but the increase will be of minimal significance.
- (12) In subsection (11) the “appropriate comparison” means—
 - (a) in relation to subsection (3)(a), a comparison between the overall position if the requirement is imposed and the overall position if it is not imposed;
 - (b) in relation to subsection (6), a comparison between the overall position after the imposing of the requirement and the overall position before it was imposed.

105 Independent inquiries

- (1) Section 68 of the Financial Services Act 2012 (cases in which Treasury may arrange independent inquiries) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1), for “two” substitute “three”.
- (3) After subsection (3) insert—
 - “(3A) The third case is where it appears to the Treasury that—
 - (a) events have occurred in relation to a regulated payment system which caused or risked causing significant damage to business or other interests throughout the United Kingdom, and
 - (b) those events might not have occurred, or the threat or damage might have been reduced, but for a serious failure in—
 - (i) the system established by Part 5 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 for the regulation of payment systems, or
 - (ii) the operation of that system.”
- (4) In section 83(1) (interpretation), after the definition of “regulated activity” insert—
 - ““regulated payment system” has the same meaning as in Part 5 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 (see section 110 of that Act);”.

106 Investigations into regulatory failure

- (1) Part 5 of the Financial Services Act 2012 (inquiries and investigations) is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 76 insert—

“76A Duty of Payment Systems Regulator to investigate and report on possible regulatory failure

- (1) Subsection (3) applies where it appears to the Payment Systems Regulator that—
 - (a) events have occurred in relation to a regulated payment system which had or could have had a significant adverse effect on effective competition in the interests of—
 - (i) participants in the payment system, or
 - (ii) those who use, or are likely to use, the services provided by the payment system, and
 - (b) those events might not have occurred, or the adverse effect might have been reduced, but for a serious failure in—
 - (i) the system established by Part 5 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 for the regulation of payment systems, or
 - (ii) the operation of that system.
 - (2) Subsection (3) also applies where the Treasury direct the Payment Systems Regulator that it appears to the Treasury that the conditions in subsection (1) are met in relation to specified events.
 - (3) The Payment Systems Regulator must carry out an investigation into the events and the circumstances surrounding them and report to the Treasury on the result of the investigation.
 - (4) Subsection (3) does not apply by virtue of subsection (1) if the Treasury direct the Payment Systems Regulator that it is not required to carry out an investigation into the events concerned.
 - (5) In this section “participant”, in relation to a regulated payment system, has the same meaning as in Part 5 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 (see section 42 of that Act).”
- (3) In section 77 (power of Treasury to require FCA or PRA to undertake investigation)—
 - (a) in subsection (1)(a), for “either regulator” substitute “a regulator”;
 - (b) in subsection (3), omit the “or” at the end of paragraph (b) and after paragraph (c) insert “, or
 - (d) a regulated payment system.”;
 - (c) the heading of that section becomes “Power of Treasury to require regulator to undertake investigation”.
 - (4) In section 78 (conduct of investigation), in subsection (1), for “or 74” substitute “, 74 or 76A”.
 - (5) In section 79 (conclusion of investigation), for “or 74” substitute “, 74 or 76A”.
 - (6) In section 80 (statements of policy), in subsection (1)(a), for “or 74” substitute “, 74 or 76A”.
 - (7) In section 81 (publication of directions), in subsection (1), after paragraph (b) insert—

“(ba) section 76A(4);”.

- (8) In section 83(1) (interpretation)—
- (a) after the definition of “listed securities” insert—

““the Payment Systems Regulator” means the body established under section 40 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013;”;
 - (b) in the definition of “regulator”, for “or the PRA” substitute “, the PRA or the Payment Systems Regulator”.

107 Competition scrutiny

- (1) Chapter 4 of Part 9A of FSMA 2000 (competition scrutiny) applies to the Payment Systems Regulator’s practices and regulating provisions in relation to payment systems as it applies to the FCA’s practices and regulating provisions within the meaning of that Chapter.
- (2) In subsection (1)—
 - (a) the reference to the Payment Systems Regulator’s practices in relation to payment systems is a reference to practices adopted by it in the exercise of functions under this Part, and
 - (b) the reference to the Payment Systems Regulator’s regulating provisions in relation to payment systems is a reference to the following—
 - (i) any general directions given under section 54;
 - (ii) any generally-imposed requirements under section 55;
 - (iii) any guidance given under section 96.

Miscellaneous and supplemental

108 Relationship with Part 8 of the Payment Services Regulations 2009

- (1) The Payment Systems Regulator may not exercise any power under this Part for the purposes of enabling a relevant person to obtain access to, or otherwise participate in, a payment system if the payment system is one to which Part 8 of the Payment Services Regulations 2009 (S.I. 2009/209) does not apply.
- (2) A person is a “relevant person” for the purposes of subsection (1) if regulation 97 of the Payment Services Regulations 2009 (prohibition on restrictive rules on access to payment systems) applies in relation to access to, or participation in, a payment system by the person.

109 Exemption from liability in damages for FCA and PRA

- (1) In paragraph 25 of Schedule 1ZA to FSMA 2000 (FCA’s exemption from liability in damages), after sub-paragraph (1) insert—

“(1A) In sub-paragraph (1) the reference to the FCA’s functions includes its functions under Part 5 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 (regulation of payment systems).”
- (2) In paragraph 33 of Schedule 1ZB to FSMA 2000 (PRA’s exemption from liability in damages), after sub-paragraph (1) insert—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

“(1A) In sub-paragraph (1) the reference to the PRA’s functions includes its functions under Part 5 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 (regulation of payment systems).”

- (3) For provision conferring immunity from liability in damages on the Bank of England in respect of its functions, see section 244 of the Banking Act 2009.
