

Civil Liability Act 2018

2018 CHAPTER 29

PART 1

WHIPLASH

Whiplash injuries

1 “Whiplash injury” etc

- (1) In this Part “whiplash injury” means an injury of soft tissue in the neck, back or shoulder that is of a description falling within subsection (2), but not including an injury excepted by subsection (3).
- (2) An injury falls within this subsection if it is—
 - (a) a sprain, strain, tear, rupture or lesser damage of a muscle, tendon or ligament in the neck, back or shoulder, or
 - (b) an injury of soft tissue associated with a muscle, tendon or ligament in the neck, back or shoulder.
- (3) An injury is excepted by this subsection if—
 - (a) it is an injury of soft tissue which is a part of or connected to another injury, and
 - (b) the other injury is not an injury of soft tissue in the neck, back or shoulder of a description falling within subsection (2).
- (4) For the purposes of this Part a person suffers a whiplash injury because of driver negligence if—
 - (a) when the person suffers the injury, the person—
 - (i) is using a motor vehicle other than a motor cycle on a road or other public place in England or Wales, or
 - (ii) is being carried in or on a motor vehicle other than a motor cycle while another uses the vehicle on a road or other public place in England or Wales,

- (b) the injury is caused—
 - (i) by the negligence of one or more other persons, or
 - (ii) partly by the negligence of one or more other persons and partly by the negligence of the person who suffers the injury, and
 - (c) the negligence of the other person or persons consists in an act or acts done by the person or persons while using a motor vehicle on a road or other public place in England or Wales.
- (5) The fact that the act or acts constituting the negligence of the other person or persons is or are also sufficient to establish another cause of action does not prevent subsection (4)(b) being satisfied.
- (6) For the purposes of this section references to a person being carried in or on a vehicle include references to a person entering or getting on to, or alighting from, the vehicle.
- (7) In this section—
“act” includes omission;
“motor cycle” has the meaning given by section 185(1) of the Road Traffic Act 1988;
“motor vehicle” means a mechanically propelled vehicle intended or adapted for use on roads;
“road” means a highway or other road to which the public has access, and includes bridges over which a road passes.

2 Power to amend section 1

- (5) After the first review, the Lord Chancellor may not carry out a review under subsection (2) before the end of the period of three years beginning with—
- (a) if regulations under subsection (1) were made following the previous review, the day on which those regulations came into force, or
 - (b) if no regulations under subsection (1) were made following the previous review, the day on which a copy of the report of the previous review was laid before Parliament.
- (6) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section is subject to affirmative resolution procedure.

Damages

3 Damages for whiplash injuries

- (1) This section applies in relation to the determination by a court of damages for pain, suffering and loss of amenity in a case where—
- (a) a person (“the claimant”) suffers a whiplash injury because of driver negligence, and
 - (b) the duration of the whiplash injury or any of the whiplash injuries suffered on that occasion—
 - (i) does not exceed, or is not likely to exceed, two years, or
 - (ii) would not have exceeded, or would not be likely to exceed, two years but for the claimant’s failure to take reasonable steps to mitigate its effect.
- (2) The amount of damages for pain, suffering and loss of amenity payable in respect of the whiplash injury or injuries, taken together, is to be an amount specified in regulations made by the Lord Chancellor.
- (3) If the claimant suffers one or more minor psychological injuries on the same occasion as the whiplash injury or injuries, the amount of damages for pain, suffering and loss of amenity payable in respect of the minor psychological injury or the minor psychological injuries, taken together, is to be an amount specified in regulations made by the Lord Chancellor.
- (4) If regulations made by the Lord Chancellor so provide, the amount of damages for pain, suffering and loss of amenity payable in respect of—
- (a) the whiplash injury or injuries, and

- (8) Nothing in this section prevents a court, in a case where a person suffers an injury or injuries in addition to an injury or injuries to which regulations under this section apply, awarding an amount of damages for pain, suffering and loss of amenity that reflects the combined effect of the person's injuries (subject to the limits imposed by regulations under this section).
- (9) Nothing in this section prevents the amount of damages payable being reduced by virtue of section 1 of the Law Reform (Contributory Negligence) Act 1945.
- (10) This section does not apply in relation to damages payable by a person because of the person's breach of the duty under section 143(1)(b) of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (duty not to cause or permit any other person to drive without insurance or security in respect of third party risks).

- and loss of amenity in respect of the injuries mentioned in sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii).
- (2) The regulations may require a court to be satisfied, before making the determination mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c), that—
- (a) the degree of pain, suffering or loss of amenity caused by the whiplash injury or injuries in question makes it appropriate to use the greater amount, and
 - (b) it is the case that—
 - (i) the whiplash injury is, or one or more of the whiplash injuries are, exceptionally severe, or
 - (ii) where the person’s circumstances increase the pain, suffering or loss of amenity caused by the injury or injuries, those circumstances are exceptional.
- (3) The regulations must specify the maximum percentage by which the greater amount mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c) may exceed the relevant tariff amount.
