1 Introduction of electrical power under orders of Board of Trade.

- (1) With the object of facilitating the introduction and use of electrical power on railways, the Board of Trade may, upon the application of a railway company, make orders for all or any of the following purposes, namely:—
- authorising a railway company to use electricity, in addition to or in substitution for any other motive power, and for any other purpose;
  - authorising the company to construct and maintain generating stations or other electrical works on any land belonging to the company;
  - authorising agreements between the company and any body corporate or other person for the supply to the company of electrical power or the supply to or use by the company of any electrical plant or equipment;
  - sanctioning any modification of any working agreement, so far as the modification is agreed to between the parties thereto and is consequential on the introduction or use of electrical power;
  - authorising the company to subscribe to any electrical undertaking which will facilitate the supply of electricity to the company;
  - securing the safety of the public;

- (g) authorising the issue of new capital by the company for any of the purposes of this Act;
- (h) any other matters, whether similar to the above or not, which may be considered ancillary to the objects of the order or expedient for carrying those objects into effect.

(2) ..... F2

Textual Amendments
F2 S. 1(2) repealed by Statute Law (Repeals) Act 1986 (c. 12), s. 1(1), Sch. 1 Pt. XII

2 Acquisition of land for electrical works.

- (1) An order under this Act may contain provisions authorising the acquisition of land, by any railway company, for the purpose of constructing generating stations or other electrical works, but, if power is given by order to acquire the land otherwise than by agreement, the order shall not come into operation, so far as it gives that power, unless confirmed by Parliament, and the Board of Trade may bring in a Bill for confirming the order.
- (2) If, while a Bill confirming any such order is pending in either House of Parliament, a petition is presented against the order, the Bill, so far as it relates to the order, may be referred to a Select Committee or, if the two Houses of Parliament think fit so to order, to a Joint Committee of those Houses, and the petitioner shall be allowed to appear and oppose, as in the case of Private Bills.

3 Board of Trade inquiries.

- (1) Before making an order under this Act, the Board of Trade shall be satisfied that the public notice, required by rules made under this Act, of the application for the order has been given, and shall consider any objections, made by the council of any county, any local authority or other person, to the application in accordance with those rules, and give to those by whom the objection is made an opportunity of being heard, and, if after consideration the Board decide that the objection should be upheld, the Board shall not make the order or shall modify the order so as to remove the objection.
- (2) The Board of Trade may, if they think fit, hold a local inquiry for the purpose of considering any application for an order under this Act, and the <sup>M1</sup>Board of Trade Arbitrations, &c. Act 1874, shall apply to any inquiry so held as if—
  - (a) the inquiry was held on an application made in pursuance of the special Act; and
  - (b) the parties making the application for the order and any person objecting to any such application were parties to the application within the meaning of section three of that Act.
