- 3 Instead of varying with annual value, the percentage of the maximum charge to be imposed under section eighteen (compensation charge) on the renewal of an old on-licence in any year after nineteen hundred and fifty-nine shall be fixed and, notwithstanding any subsequent removal of the licence or other change of circumstances, shall be equal to the percentage of that charge imposed on the renewal of the licence in nineteen hundred and fifty-eight or, if a charge did not then fall to be imposed because the compensation authority considered its imposition unnecessary or the licence was in suspense and thus not renewed or the premises were in a licensing planning area, shall be equal to the percentage which would have been appropriate if a charge had then fallen to be imposed.
- 4 For the purpose of levying any charge imposed under section eighteen on the renewal of an old on-licence in nineteen hundred and fifty-nine, the percentage of the maximum charge imposed on the renewal shall be taken to have been equal to the percentage of that charge which, by virtue of the foregoing paragraph, will fall to be imposed on the renewal of the licence in any subsequent year.
