(1) On an application for the grant of a licence the applicant shall make a declaration in the prescribed form as to whether or not he is suffering from any such disease or physical disability as may be specified in the form, or any other disease or physical disability which would be likely to cause the driving by him of a motor vehicle, being a vehicle of such a class or description as he would be authorised by the licence to drive, to be a source of danger to the public.

(2) If from the declaration it appears that the applicant is suffering from any such disease or disability as aforesaid, the licensing authority shall refuse to grant the licence:

Provided that—

- (a) a licence limited to driving an invalid carriage may be granted to the applicant if the licensing authority are satisfied that he is fit to drive such a carriage;

 - (c) if on the first application for the grant of a licence by a person who at the commencement of this Act is the holder of a driver's licence under the Motor Car Act, 1903, an applicant who is suffering from a disease or disability other than a disease or disability prescribed as aforesaid makes a declaration that notwithstanding his disease or disability he has during the six months immediately preceding the application been in the habit of driving a motor vehicle of any such class or description as he would be authorised by the licence to drive and that the disease or disability from which he suffered did not cause the driving of such a motor vehicle by him to be a source of danger to the public, the licence shall not be refused by reason only of the provisions of this subsection;
 - (d) if on the application for the grant of a licence the applicant makes a declaration that on the occasion of a previous application by him a licence was granted to him after passing such a test as aforesaid, or making such a declaration as is mentioned in the last preceding proviso, a further test shall not be required, unless from the declaration as to physical fitness made by him for the purposes of his application, or from information received by the licensing authority, it appears that the disease or physical disability from which the applicant is suffering has become more acute, or that the applicant is suffering from some disease or disability not disclosed on the previous occasion or contracted since that occasion.
- (3) For the purpose of enabling the applicant for the grant of a licence to learn to drive a motor vehicle with a view to passing a test under this section, the licensing authority may, if so requested by him and on payment of a fee of five shillings, grant him a provisional licence to be in force for a period of three months, which licence shall be in the prescribed form and granted subject to the prescribed conditions.

If any person to whom such a provisional licence is granted fails to comply with any of the conditions subject to which it is granted, he shall be guilty of an offence.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (4) If it appears to a licensing authority that there is reason to believe that any person who holds a licence granted by them is suffering from a disease or physical disability likely to cause the driving by him of a motor vehicle, being a vehicle of any such class or description as he is authorised by the licence to drive, to be a source of danger to the public, and on inquiry into the matter the authority are satisfied that the licence holder is suffering from such a disease or disability as aforesaid, then, whether or not the licence holder so suffering as aforesaid has previously passed a test under this section, the licensing authority may, after giving to the licence holder notice of their intention so to do, revoke the licence, and the licence holder shall, on receipt of such notice, deliver the licence to the licensing authority for cancellation:

Provided that the licence holder may, except in the case of such diseases and disabilities as may be prescribed, claim to be subjected to a test as to his fitness or disability to drive a motor vehicle, and if he passes the prescribed test the licence shall not be revoked.

- (5) If any person is aggrieved by the refusal of a licensing authority to grant a licence or by the revocation of a licence under this section, he may, after giving to the authority notice of his intention so to do, appeal to a court of summary jurisdiction acting for the petty sessional division in which the said person resides, and on any such appeal the court may make such order as it thinks fit, and any order so made shall be binding on the licensing authority.

Provided that, if the court thinks fit, any disqualification imposed under this section may be limited to the driving of a motor vehicle of the same class or description as the vehicle in relation to which the offence was committed.

- (2) A person who by virtue of an order of a court under this Part of this Act is disqualified for holding or obtaining a licence may appeal against the order in the same manner as against a conviction, and the court may, if it thinks fit, pending the appeal, suspend the operation of the order.

Provided that, where an application under this subsection is refused, a further application thereunder shall not be entertained if made within three months after the date of the refusal.

If the court orders a disqualification to be removed, the court shall cause particulars of the order to be endorsed on the licence, if any, previously held by the applicant and the court shall in any case have power to order the applicant to pay the whole or any part of the costs of the application.

- (4) If any person who under the provisions of this Part of this Act is disqualified for holding or obtaining a licence applies for or obtains a licence while he is so disqualified, or if any such person while he is so disqualified drives a motor vehicle, or, if the disqualification is limited to the driving of a motor vehicle of a particular class or description, a motor vehicle of that class or description, on a road, that person shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or if the court think that, having regard to the special circumstances of the case, a fine would be an adequate punishment for the offence, to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds, or to both such imprisonment and such fine, and a licence obtained by any person disqualified as aforesaid shall be of no effect.
- (5) Notwithstanding any enactment prescribing the time within which proceedings may be brought before a court of summary jurisdiction, proceedings for an offence under subsection (4) of this section may be brought—
- (a) within a period of six months from the date of the commission of the alleged offence; or

Provided that, in reckoning the said period of three years, any period during which the person was by virtue of the order disqualified for holding or obtaining a licence shall be excluded.

Where the disqualification to which a person has become subject is limited to the driving of a motor vehicle of a particular class or description, the licensing authority to whom that person's licence has been forwarded under this subsection shall forthwith after the receipt thereof issue to that person a new licence on which there shall be indicated in the prescribed manner the class or description of vehicle which the holder of the licence is not thereby authorised to drive, and the licence so issued shall remain in force either for the unexpired period of the original licence or for the period of the disqualification, whichever is the shorter.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section relating to vehicles in respect of which a licence to ply for hire has been granted before the commencement of this Act, a licence to use a vehicle adapted to carry eight or more passengers as a stage carriage, express carriage or contract carriage shall not be granted unless a certificate (hereinafter referred to as a certificate of fitness) has been issued by a certifying officer that the prescribed conditions as to fitness are fulfilled in respect of the vehicle and such a certificate is in force in respect of the vehicle:

Provided that the Minister may by regulations extend the provisions of this subsection to stage carriages and express carriages adapted to carry seven passengers or any smaller number of passengers specified in the regulations.

The Minister may at any time withdraw his approval of any type vehicle, and thereupon any certificate that any other vehicle conforms to that type vehicle shall cease to have effect as a certificate of fitness.

- (6) With a view to spreading the certification of vehicles over a term of years the commissioners may during the first four years after the commencement of this Act grant public service vehicle licences in respect of such vehicles, being vehicles in respect of which licences to ply for hire were granted before the commencement of this Act, as they think fit, notwithstanding that the provisions of subsection (1) of this section have not been complied with, and the Minister may by order provide that as and when the said subsection becomes applicable to any such vehicle, the requirements of the regulations prescribing the conditions as to fitness shall be relaxed in relation to that vehicle to such extent as may be specified in the order.

70 Notice to be given to commissioners of failure in, damage to, or alteration of vehicles.

- (1) It shall be the duty of the holder of a public service vehicle licence on the happening to the vehicle in respect of which the licence was granted of any failure or damage of a nature calculated to affect the safety of the passengers or of persons using the road, as soon as may be to report the matter to the commissioners for the traffic area in which the failure or damage happened.

Provided that, where in the opinion of the officer or examiner the defects are such as can be remedied within forty-eight hours, and are not defects which involve danger to the public, the suspension shall not operate before the expiration of forty-eight hours, nor shall it operate after the expiration of that time if the licensee before the expiration of that time furnishes evidence to the satisfaction of the officer or examiner that the defects have been or are in the course of being remedied.

- (2) Where a certifying officer or public service vehicle examiner suspends a licence under this section he shall forthwith give notice of the suspension to the' commissioners who granted the licence, and to the licensee, and a suspension under this section which becomes operative shall continue in force until it is removed or ceases in accordance with the provisions hereinafter contained.
- (3) Where a licence has been suspended under this section, the suspension may be removed by any certifying officer or public service vehicle examiner and where any such officer or examiner removes any suspension of a licence, he shall forthwith give notice of the removal to the commissioners by whom the licence was granted.
- (4) Where a public service vehicle examiner for any traffic area refuses to remove the suspension of a public service vehicle licence, the holder of the licence may make an application to the commissioners of that area to have the vehicle inspected by the certifying officer for that area, and where any such application is made, a certifying officer, on the matter being referred to him, shall, if he considers that the prescribed conditions as to fitness are fulfilled in respect of the vehicle, remove the suspension.
