

Registration of Burials Act 1864

1864 CHAPTER 97 27 and 28 Vict

An Act to make further Provisions for the Registration of Burials in England. [29th July 1864]

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 Preamble omitted under authority of Statute Law Revision Act 1893 \(c. 14\)

1 All burials to be registered.

All burials in any burial ground in England which are not now by law required to be registered shall be registered in register books to be provided for each such burial ground by the company, body, or persons to whom the same belongs, and to be kept for that purpose according to the laws in force by which registers are required to be kept by rectors, vicars, or curates of parishes or ecclesiastical districts in England.

2 By whom books to be kept.

Such register books shall be so kept for every such burial ground by some officer or person to be appointed to that duty by the company, body, or persons to whom such burial ground belongs.

[^{F13} Copies of registers to be sent to registrars of diocese.

Copies of the register books kept under this Act for every such burial ground shall be from time to time made, verified, and signed by such officer or person as aforesaid, and sent by him to the registrar of the diocese wherein the burial ground to which the same relates is situate, to be kept with the copies of the register books of the parishes within such diocese.]
