- (1) This section applies where an application is transmitted electronically for recording in the general register of sasines of a writ <sup>F23</sup>... which may be recorded in the register.
- (2) The keeper of the register must on receipt of an application cause it to be acknowledged to the sender.
- (3) The keeper must cause the name of the sender to be entered in the presentment book.
- (4) The writ is to be recorded in the same manner as a traditional document, save that the copy or copies are to be entered in and kept on a computer or similar device under the keeper's management and control.
- (5) Following recording, the keeper must confirm recording to the sender.

[ For the purposes of this section, submission by electronic means of a copy of the writ <sup>F24</sup>(6) is sufficient evidence of the original for the purposes of accepting an application.

- (7) But subsection (6) applies only where submission of the copy is by a means (and in a form) which is specified on the Keeper's website as being acceptable.
- (8) In subsection (6), the reference to submission by electronic means is to submission—
  - (a) by means of an electronic communications network (for example as an attachment to an email), or
  - (b) by other means but in a form which requires the use of electronic apparatus by the recipient to render the thing delivered intelligible.

- (9) In this section—

“electronic communications network” has the meaning given by section 32 of the Communications Act 2003,

“the Keeper's website” means the website maintained by, or on behalf of, the Keeper of the Registers of Scotland.]]

7 Registration how to be made, &c.

Registration of writs in the general register of sasines shall, except in so far as altered by the provisions of this Act, continue to be made in conformity with the practice heretofore in use; and no error or omission in any presentment book of the general register of sasines to be kept as aforesaid shall invalidate, or in any way affect injuriously, the registration of any writ recorded in said register.

8 Particular registers of sasines abolished.

The whole particular registers of sasines in Scotland shall be discontinued . . . <sup>F25</sup> and all writs which, previous to the discontinuance of the said particular registers respectively, might competently have been presented for registration therein, shall after said discontinuance be registrable only in the general register of sasines; and registration in the general register of sasines as herein-before directed to be kept for separate counties shall have all the force and effect previously attached to registration in such particular registers of sasines respectively.
