18 Charge on property and priority [^{F49}of local loans by the Treasury].

Where [^{F50}a local loan] is granted by the [^{F51}Treasury] on the security of a mortgage of any property (whether with or without any other security), the property from and after the date of the mortgage shall be charged with the payment to the use of Her Majesty of the loan with interest as in the mortgage mentioned, in priority, save so far as otherwise specified in the mortgage, over every other debt, mortgage, or charge whatsoever affecting the property, except any loan due to any creditor not assenting to such priority which has been advanced in good faith before the loan advanced by [^{F52}the Treasury] and secured by a mortgage of the property executed to a person who is entitled as a bona fide creditor to the repayment thereof with interest.

Provided that if there is more than one such creditor and not less than four fifths in value of such creditors consent in writing that the said charge shall have priority over the loans and mortgages of such creditors, in such case the loans and mortgages of all such creditors, as well those who have not agreed as those who have agreed, shall be postponed to the loan granted by [^{F52}the Treasury] and to the said charge thereof, and to the security for the same.

Nothing in any special Act, and no rule of law or custom shall affect the priority given by this section, except so far as the special Act negative such priority in terms expressly referring to this Act.

19 Charges on rate of [^{F53}local loan and local loan] not to be repudiated by locality having had the benefit of it.

Where [^{F54}a local loan] is granted by the [^{F55}Treasury] on the security of a mortgage of any rate (whether with or without any other security) such rate from and after the date of the mortgage shall be charged with the payment to the use of Her Majesty of the loan with interest as in the mortgage mentioned.

Where the loan has been granted to any borrower who appeared to [^{F56}the Treasury] to have power to levy and mortgage such rate and has been expended upon the work in respect of which or in or for the benefit of the locality in which such rate or any part thereof is levied, the mortgage of the rate for securing the repayment of the loan with interest shall be valid, and may be enforced in pursuance of this Act, notwithstanding any defect in the power or title of the borrower by whom the mortgage purports to be granted; and in particular [^{F56}the Treasury] may, although such borrower was not legally constituted or is dissolved, or is otherwise incapable and always was incapable of making, levying, or mortgaging such rate, have the same power of making and levying and enforcing the making or levying the said rate for the purpose of repaying such loan and interest, and all other sums due under the mortgage, as if such borrower had been duly constituted, and was not dissolved, and had had full power to make, levy, and mortgage such rate.

Where a mortgage of property has been given to secure [^{F62}any local loan] granted by the [^{F63}Treasury], and default is made in making payment according to the terms of such mortgage, then at any time after such default and without any consent on the part of any person interested in the equity of redemption of the mortgaged property, [^{F64}the Treasury], without prejudice to any other remedy, shall have power to do all or any of the following things; namely,—

- (1) Take possession of the mortgaged property, or any part thereof; and
- (2) Grant any lease of the mortgaged property, or any part thereof, for such term and upon such reasonable conditions as they may think expedient, and that either for a premium or rent, or both; and
- (3) Sell or mortgage the mortgaged property, or any part thereof.

22 Powers of [^{F65}the Treasury] when in possession.

The [^{F66}Treasury], when authorised [^{F67}by this Act] to take possession of any mortgaged property, may take possession either by themselves or by any person appointed by them (whether such person is interested in the mortgaged property or not), and upon possession of any mortgaged property being so taken,—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Works Loans Act 1875. (See end of Document for details)

- (1) All the estate, right, interest, powers, authorities, and privileges, of what nature or kind soever, which were at the time of the making of the mortgage or may for the time being be vested in or exerciseable by the mortgagor or any person claiming through or under the mortgagor, either in relation to the property or necessary for carrying on and managing the same, shall become vested in the [^{F68}Public Works Loans Secretary]; and
- (2) [^{F69}The Treasury,] or any person appointed as aforesaid[^{F70}, may] manage and carry on the property, and receive the revenue arising therefrom, or in any way receivable in respect thereof, or otherwise, in pursuance of the mortgage, and exercise all or any of the powers and authorities vested in [^{F71}the Public Works Loans Secretary] by this Act; and
- (3) The [^{F72}Treasury] or [^{F73}the Public Works Loans Secretary] or such person as aforesaid shall not be liable for the repairs or maintenance of the mortgaged property, but may apply any moneys received in respect thereof or raised from any rate towards such repairs or maintenance to such extent as the [^{F72}Treasury] may think expedient; and
- (4) [^{F74}The Treasury may] advance out of moneys at their disposal under this Act sums for the completion, repair, improvement, or security of the mortgaged property, and every such sum shall be deemed and shall be a loan secured on the property and repayable with the like interest from the time of the advance, and by the like person, and shall have the like priority and be recoverable in the like manner as if it were part of the original loan secured by the said mortgage; and
- (5) If the revenue received from or in respect of the property is insufficient to keep down the current expenses of working, maintaining, and repairing the same, together with the instalments of principal and the interest for the time being due on the mortgage, and no rate or no sufficient rate can be levied to meet the deficiency, [^{F75}the Treasury may] destroy or cause to be destroyed, or (if they sell the same) authorise the purchaser with the like consent to destroy the same, and sell or authorise the purchaser to sell the materials thereof and other the articles, goods, and effects belonging thereto, and [^{F76}neither the Treasury, nor the Public Works Loans Secretary], nor the purchaser so authorised, nor his representatives, shall be liable in damages or otherwise to any person whomsoever for such destruction; and the provisions of this Act with respect to the sale of any mortgaged property shall apply to any sale under this section; and
- (6) Possession under this Act may be relinquished at such time and in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as [^{F77}the Treasury] think fit, and upon such relinquishment all powers, authorities, and privileges which on the taking of possession become vested in [^{F78}the Public Works Loans Secretary] shall, so far as they are not reserved, revert to and become vested in the person in whom the same would have been vested if possession had not been taken, but [^{F79}the Treasury] may, if they think fit, on the relinquishment of possession, reserve any of the said powers, authorities, and privileges, with a view to the payment of any sum due to them:
- (7) Every such relinquishment of possession of any mortgaged property shall be without prejudice to the power of again taking possession thereof under the provisions of this Act.

23 Powers in relation to rate where default made.

Where [^{F80}a local loan] made by the [^{F81}Treasury] is secured by the mortgage of a rate (whether with or without any other security), and the [^{F81}Treasury] might, if such loan were secured upon a mortgage of property, take possession of such property, the [^{F81}Treasury] may, without prejudice to any other remedy, by notice in writing served at the office or last known place of address of the mortgagor, or where from any cause the same cannot be so served by notice in writing published in the prescribed manner, declare their intention to exercise the powers conferred by this Act, and thereupon the [^{F81}Treasury] shall have and may exercise the same power as the mortgagor of making and levying the rate mortgaged, and for that purpose the [^{F81}Treasury] or [^{F82}the Public Works Loans Secretary] with their concurrence may appoint an officer who, subject to the direction of the [^{F81}Treasury], shall have and may exercise the same powers, authorities, and duties as if he had been appointed by the mortgagor.

The [^{F81}Treasury], in making an estimate of the rate to be levied for the purpose of paying any sum due, may add such sum as they think sufficient for defraying and may defray thereout all costs, charges, and expenses, including remuneration to any officer or other person employed, incurred by the [^{F81}Treasury] in the execution of their powers under this section or otherwise by reason of the default in payment.

Any balance remaining in the hands of the [^{F81}Treasury] shall be paid by them to the mortgagor.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Works Loans Act 1875. (See end of Document for details)

The [^{F81}Treasury] may, by a like notice, declare their intention to relinquish the powers conferred by this section, and that either absolutely or with reservations and conditions, and thereupon all such powers shall revert in the mortgagor, subject to the said reservations and conditions.

25 Sale and mortgage by [^{F86}the Treasury] of mortgaged premises.

Where the [^{F87}Treasury] have power [^{F88}under this Act] to sell or mortgage, they shall have power to sell or mortgage either together or in parcels, by public auction or private contract, and subject to such conditions as to title or evidence of title or otherwise as [^{F89}the Treasury] may think proper.

They may also buy in at any auction and rescind any contract for sale or mortgage, and resell or remortgage, without being responsible for any loss occasioned thereby.

Where a sale cannot be made in the ordinary way for a sum equal to the amount remaining due under the mortgage, the [^{F87}Treasury] may, if they think fit, sell in such a manner and subject to such conditions, stipulations, and agreements as they may think expedient for the purpose of ensuring the completion or carrying on of the work comprised in such mortgage by the purchaser thereof, with a view to the public good or general benefit, or for any other purpose, notwithstanding such conditions, stipulations, and agreements may be prejudicial to the sale, or may not be beneficial to the persons interested in the equity of redemption in the property.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Works Loans Act 1875. (See end of Document for details)
