EVIDENCE

The Evidence (British Indian Ocean Territory) Order 1984

Made - - - - 25th June 1984
Coming into Operation 25th June 1984

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of June 1984

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas Her Majesty in Council is satisfied that there exist in the British Indian Ocean Territory (hereinafter referred to as 'the Territory') public registers kept under the law of the Territory and recognised by the courts thereof as authentic records, and that those registers are regularly and properly kept:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 5(1) of the Oaths and Evidence (Overseas Authorities and Countries) Act 1963 and all other powers in that behalf in Her vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Evidence (British Indian Ocean Territory) Order 1984, and shall come into operation on 25th June 1984.

(2) This Order extends to all parts of the United Kingdom.

2. The registers of the Territory specified in the first column of the Schedule to this Order shall be deemed to be public registers kept under the authority of the law of the Territory and recognised by the Courts thereof as authentic records, and to be documents of such a public nature as to be admissible as evidence of the matters regularly recorded therein.

3. For the purposes of the preceding Article all matters recorded in the registers shall be deemed, until the contrary is proved, to be regularly recorded.

4. Subject to any requirements of rules of court, a document which purports to be issued in the Territory as an official copy of an entry in any of the registers specified in the first column of the Schedule to this Order and which purports to be authenticated by an officer of the Territory in the manner specified in that Schedule, shall, without evidence as to the custody of the register or of inability to produce it and without any further or other proof, be received as evidence that the register contains such an entry.
