COMPANIES

The Companies Act 1989 (Eligibility for Appointment as Company Auditor)
(Consequential Amendments) Regulations 1991

Made	- - - -	3rd September 1991
Laid before Parliament		9th September 1991
Coming into force	- -	1st October 1991

The Secretary of State, in exercise of his powers under section 50 of the Companies Act 1989(1) and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, and having obtained the consent of those Ministers and other persons whose consent he is required to obtain by virtue of section 50(5) of that Act, hereby makes the following Regulations:

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1. –

(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Companies Act 1989 (Eligibility for Appointment as Company Auditor) (Consequential Amendments) Regulations 1991 and shall come into force on 1st October 1991.

(2) In these Regulations, “the Act” means the Companies Act 1989.

Consequential amendments

2. The enactments mentioned in the Schedule to these Regulations shall have effect with the amendments specified therein.

3. Where a partnership constituted under the law of England and Wales or under the law of any other country or territory in which a partnership is not a legal person is appointed under any enactment as amended by these Regulations, the provisions of section 26 of the Act apply to the appointment in the same way as they apply to the appointment as company auditor of such a partnership.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Transitional provision

4. None of the amendments specified in the Schedule to these Regulations shall have the effect that a person is required to resign from or otherwise surrender an appointment, or that the appointment of a person must be terminated, before the date on which the person's appointment would, apart from these Regulations, have expired.

3rd September 1991

John Redwood
Minister of State,
Department of Trade and Industry

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Regulation 2 of the regulations and the Schedule to them make amendments to the enactments mentioned in the Schedule which are consequential upon the provisions of Part II of the Companies Act 1989 (eligibility for appointment as company auditor) having effect in place of section 389 of the Companies Act 1985 (qualification for appointment as auditor). Section 389 of the Companies Act 1985 is repealed on 1st October 1991.

Regulation 3 of the regulations makes provision as to what the effect is when a partnership which is not a legal person is appointed under an enactment amended by the regulations and regulation 4 of the regulations contains a transitional provision concerning the position of persons holding an appointment when the regulations come into force.
