EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note does not form part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make a number of miscellaneous amendments to the provisions of the Companies Act 1985(c. 6) (“the 1985 Act”) concerning accounts and audit. The principal changes are as follows:

- (a) Regulation 2 amends section 224 of the 1985 Act (accounting reference periods and accounting reference date) to alter the method by which the accounting reference date of companies incorporated on or after 1st April 1996 is calculated.
- (b) Regulation 3 amends section 225 of the 1985 Act (alteration of accounting reference date) to widen the circumstances in which the accounting reference date of a company may be changed.
- (c) Regulation 5(3) amends section 234 of the 1985 Act (duty to prepare directors' report) by inserting in subsection (4) a reference to new Part VI of Schedule 7 to the 1985 Act. Regulation 14(5) amends Schedule 7 to the 1985 Act by the insertion of a new Part VI. Part VI provides that the directors' report of public companies and large private companies which are subsidiaries of a public company must contain a statement of the company's policy on payment of its suppliers. Companies which follow any code or standard on payment practice must state what code or standard is followed and where information about it can be found; companies which do not follow such codes or standards must give a fuller statement on their payment practices.

Regulation 14(8) and Schedule 6 to the Regulations contain amendments to Schedule 11 to the 1985 Act (modifications of Part VIII where company's accounts prepared in accordance with special provisions for banking or insurance companies) consequential on those amendments.
