EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

The Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 makes provision for local government reorganisation in Wales. These regulations amend the Non-Domestic Rating (Demand Notices) (Wales) Regulations 1993 to take account of the changes resulting from local government reorganisation. In particular, they take account of the fact that from 1st April 1996 the only major precepting authorities in Wales will be police authorities, and that the requirements to supply, with demand notices, certain information relating to the previous year, will be inappropriate in the new authorities' first year.
