EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

The Protocol scheduled to this Order makes certain alterations to the Convention set out in the Schedule to the Double Taxation Relief (Taxes on Estates of Deceased Persons and Inheritances and on Gifts) (Netherlands) Order 1980.

The principal amendments are as follows.

The United Kingdom's inheritance tax is added to the list of taxes covered by the Convention.

Amendment is made to the definition of "national" in relation to the United Kingdom as the definition in the Convention (Article 3) is out of date.

The time period of three years provided in the Convention (Article 13) for chargeable gifts made before death is extended to seven years. This amendment reflects the change in the treatment for United Kingdom inheritance tax purposes of gifts made within seven years before death.

The territorial extension article of the Convention (Article 16) is amended so as to include a specific reference to Aruba which is no longer part of the Netherlands Antilles.

The Protocol enters into force on the date of the later of the notifications by each country of the completion of the procedures required by its law to bring the Protocol into force. It will then take effect in respect of property by reference to which a charge to tax arises after 17th March 1986.

The date of entry into force will be published in the London, Edinburgh and Belfast Gazettes.
