A + B,

where—

A is 3.75% of the salary notionally received during the person’s war service, and

B is interest on A at 3.5% per annum, compounded with yearly rests, from 1st July 1950 to the relevant date.

(3) The salary notionally received during the person’s war service is £200 per annum in the case of a man and £175 per annum in the case of a woman.

(4) The relevant date is—

- (a) 1st September 1974 if the person was then receiving a teacher’s pension,
- (b) if a transfer value has become payable in respect of him after 31st August 1974, the date on which he became subject to the receiving scheme, and
- (c) in any other case, the date on which the terminal sum is paid.

(5) If the additional contribution exceeds the terminal sum the excess is to be paid in such manner as may be agreed.

(6) If—

- (a) the counting of the war service period does not increase the retirement benefits payable, and

(b) no election is made under paragraph (8), no additional contribution is payable under paragraph (2).

(7) This paragraph applies where the whole of the person's other reckonable service would, in the event of his death, count in the calculation under regulation E28 of a spouse's or nominated beneficiary's pension ("the family pension").

(8) Where paragraph (7) applies, the person may elect that there is to be paid, by way of a further deduction from the appropriate terminal sum, an additional contribution in respect of his war service.

(9) The amount of the additional contribution is the actuarial cost of the increase in the family pension that would result from the war service period counting under regulation E28(4)(c).

(10) An election under paragraph (8) must be made by giving written notice to the Secretary of State before the appropriate terminal sum is paid.

(11) If a person who could have made an election under paragraph (8) dies without having made it, the election may be made by the nominated beneficiary or surviving spouse before the appropriate terminal sum has been paid.

Additional contributions for current period

C9.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (11) to (14), this regulation applies to a person who—

- (a) before attaining the age of 60 has ceased to be in pensionable employment, otherwise than by virtue of an election under regulation B5, and
- (b) was not then incapacitated, and
- (c) did not then become entitled to payment of retirement benefits, and
- (d) has not become a member of another occupational pension scheme or is not engaged in full-time employment in a capacity described in Part II of Schedule 2.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3), (4) and (10), a person to whom this regulation applies may elect to pay additional contributions in order to become entitled to count as reckonable service a period ("the period") beginning on the day after the cessation of the pensionable employment or, where paragraph (4)(a) applies, on the day after the last day of the earlier period.

(3) The period—

- (a) must end before the person's 60th birthday, and
- (b) must not in any case exceed the maximum calculated in accordance with Schedule 3, and
- (c) if the person has become employed as a teacher or supervisor in a school or educational service outside the British Islands, must not exceed 6 years, and
- (d) in any other case, must not exceed 3 years.

(4) If the person has paid additional contributions under this regulation for an earlier period and—

- (a) he has not since the end of that period been in pensionable employment, or
- (b) he has since been in pensionable employment but for less than 12 months, the earlier period is to be deducted from the maximum allowed by paragraph (3)(b).

(5) If before the end of the period the person—

- (a) becomes entitled to payment of retirement benefits,
- (b) becomes a member of another occupational pension scheme, or
- (c) dies,

the period is to be treated as having ended on the day on which the relevant event occurred; and if before the end of the period he fails to pay an additional contribution, or a late payment is not accepted under paragraph (9), it is to be treated as having ended on the day up to which additional contributions have been paid.

(6) An additional contribution is payable for each financial year and is a percentage of the notional salary for so much of the period as falls within that year.

(7) For the purposes of paragraph (6)—

- (a) the notional salary is an amount notified by the former employer or, where no such notification is given, estimated by the Secretary of State as being what the person's contributable salary would have been if pensionable employment had not ceased and the person had continued to be employed in the same post and on the same terms taking into account, where appropriate, any election under regulation C2(1); and
- (b) the percentage is $(A+B-C)$ where A, B and C have the same meanings as in regulation G5(2).

(8) The contribution for a financial year is to be paid direct to the Secretary of State—

- (a) where the period has not ended during the financial year, within 3 weeks after the end of the financial year, and
- (b) in any other case, within 6 weeks after the end of the period or the date of a written notification by the Secretary of State that payment is due, whichever is the later.

(9) A late payment of a contribution may for special reasons be accepted by the Secretary of State; but if it is accepted the person is to pay interest on the amount of the contribution at 4% per annum compounded with yearly rests, from the due date of payment to the date of payment.

(10) An election under this regulation must be made by giving written notice to the Secretary of State, which must specify the period and must be given—

- (a) if paragraph (3)(c) applies, within 6 months, and
- (b) in any other case, within 3 months, after the cessation of the person's pensionable employment or, if later, the end of a previous period for which he has paid additional contributions under this regulation.

(11) For the purposes only of this regulation a person remains in pensionable employment while he is absent from duty during and in consequence of a trade dispute.

(12) Paragraph (11) applies—

- (a) even if the person was not participating in or financing or otherwise directly interested in the trade dispute, and
- (b) even if his employer was not a party to the trade dispute.

(13) This regulation does not apply to a person whose pensionable employment is employment as a relief teacher, that is to say a teacher who is employed in place of a person regularly employed and whose contract of employment is a short-term one.

(14) In this regulation "trade dispute" has the meaning given in section 244 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992⁽¹⁰⁾.

Additional contributions for current period: service in a reserve force

C10.—(1) This regulation applies to a person who ceases to be in pensionable employment by virtue of being called out or recalled for permanent service in Her Majesty's armed forces in pursuance of a call-out notice or call-out order or a recall order made under the provisions of the Reserve Forces Act 1996⁽¹¹⁾, provided that—

(10) 1992 c. 52.

(11) 1996 c. 14.

- (a) the person does not apply for payment of any retirement benefits to which he would otherwise be entitled on ceasing to be in such employment, and
- (b) he does not accrue any reckonable service in the Armed Forces Pension Scheme or become a member of any other occupational pension scheme during his period of permanent service.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (10) and (11), a person to whom this regulation applies may elect to pay additional contributions in order to become entitled to count as reckonable service a period (“the period”) beginning on the day after the cessation of the pensionable employment and ending with the date on which he is released from permanent service or discharged.

(3) An additional contribution is payable for each financial year and is—

- (a) 6% of the notional salary for so much of the period as falls within that financial year; and
- (b) where an election has been made under regulation C2(1), an amount equivalent to any contributions which would have been paid under regulation C3(3) for so much of the period as falls within that financial year taking the reference in that regulation to the person’s actual contributable salary as a reference to the notional salary disregarding the election under regulation C2(1).

(4) The notional salary is the salary that would have been payable if pensionable employment had not ceased and the person had continued to be employed in the same post and on the same terms taking into account, where appropriate, any election under regulation C2(1).

(5) Subject to paragraphs (7) and (8), an election under this regulation must be made by giving written notice to the Secretary of State and must be given at any time between the cessation of pensionable employment and 6 months after the return to pensionable employment after the end of the period.

(6) An election has effect only if any contribution under this regulation is paid by the person to the Secretary of State within three months of the date of a written notification by the Secretary of State that payment is due to him; and provided that the person pays all contributions and payments payable by him in respect of the period in accordance with an election or elections made by him under regulation C4 (taken with Schedule 4), regulation C11 (taken with Schedule 6) and regulation C16.

(7) Where an election is made before the end of the period it must specify the day on which the period begins; and where an election is made after the end of the period it must specify the period.

(8) Subject to paragraph (9), where the person dies during his service in a reserve force without having made an election under this regulation, he shall be deemed to have made such an election so that the period beginning on the day after the cessation of the pensionable employment and ending with the date of his death shall count as reckonable service.

(9) Any contributions due under this regulation at the date of such death shall be deducted from any benefits payable under these Regulations.

(10) Notwithstanding that a person to whom this regulation applies has not made an election under this regulation, he shall be entitled to count the period as reckonable service where during the period his service pay, when aggregated with any payments under Part V of the Reserve and Auxiliary Forces (Protection of Civil Interests) Act 1951(12), is less than the remuneration he would have received if he had during the period continued in the pensionable employment in which he was employed immediately before being called into service in a reserve force.

(11) For the purposes of paragraph (10), “service pay” means pay for performing service in a reserve force, and includes marriage, family and other similar allowances.

Additional contributions for family benefits

C11.—(1) Parts I and III of Schedule 6 have effect for enabling men and unmarried women to pay additional contributions (“family benefit contributions”) in order to secure, or to increase, family benefits in respect of reckonable service before April 1972.

(2) Parts II and III of Schedule 6 have effect for enabling married women to pay family benefit contributions in respect of reckonable service before 6th April 1988.

Entitlement to repayment of balance of contributions

C12.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4), this regulation applies where a person has ceased to be in pensionable employment and—

- (a) he is not qualified for retirement benefits, and
- (b) no transfer value has since been paid or become payable in respect of him, and
- (c) he has not since taken any right to a cash equivalent, and
- (d) he did not re-enter pensionable employment within one month after ceasing to be in pensionable employment, and
- (e) he has not elected to pay additional contributions under regulation C9 or C10 for any period which includes the period beginning when he ceased to be in pensionable employment and ending one month later.

(2) This regulation does not apply if—

- (a) the person ceased to be in pensionable employment before 6th April 1980, and
- (b) the salary on which contributions were payable by him under the 1976 Regulations or under previous provisions in any year had exceeded £5,000.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (1) a woman who ceased to be in pensionable employment wholly or partly because of pregnancy or confinement is to be treated—

- (a) as having remained in such employment while she enjoyed the right to return to work conferred by sections 79 to 85 of the Employment Rights Act 1996⁽¹³⁾, and
- (b) if she has exercised that right, as not having ceased to be in pensionable employment.

(4) Subject to regulation C15 (application for repayment), where this regulation applies the person is entitled to be repaid the balance of his contributions, calculated in accordance with regulation C13.

(5) The entitlement takes effect one month after the person ceased to be in pensionable employment or on his 70th birthday if earlier.

Calculation of contributions to be repaid

C13.—(1) The balance of contributions referred to in regulation C12(4) is to be calculated as at the date of the calculation, or the person’s 70th birthday if earlier (“the calculation date”).

(2) The balance is

where—

- A is the total of the amounts specified in paragraph (3),
- B is the total of the deductions specified in paragraph (4), and
- C is the amount of the tax chargeable on (A–B) under section 598 of the Taxes Act.

(13) 1996 c. 18.

- (3) The amounts are those of—
- (a) all contributions paid, up to the date of receipt of the application for repayment, under regulations C3, C4, C9, C10 and C11, except—
 - (i) any treated for the purposes of regulation G2 as employer's contributions, and
 - (ii) any paid in respect of a period of employment for which a short-service incapacity grant under regulation E17 has been received,
 - (b) contributions paid in respect of any comparable British service in respect of which the person is entitled to count reckonable service by virtue of the acceptance of a transfer value,
 - (c) if the person was entitled to count any reckonable service by virtue of the acceptance of a transfer value in respect of an employment that was not comparable British service, either—
 - (i) any payment by way of repayment of contributions, and interest, that he would otherwise have been entitled to receive under the rules of the pension scheme to which he was subject in the employment, or
 - (ii) if that scheme made no provision for the repayment of contributions, the contributions he paid under it in respect of the employment, and
 - (d) interest to the calculation date, at 3% per annum, compounded with yearly rests—
 - (i) on the contributions mentioned in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b), from the first day of the financial year following that in which they were paid, and
 - (ii) where sub-paragraph (c) applies, from the first day of the financial year following that in which the transfer value was paid.
- (4) The deductions are—
- (a) the amount of any previous repayment of contributions,
 - (b) if the Secretary of State has made a payment in lieu of contributions, or the person is entitled to equivalent pension benefits, half the amount of the payment in lieu of contributions that was or, as the case may be, would otherwise have been made, and
 - (c) if the Secretary of State has paid a contributions equivalent premium, the amount recoverable by him under sections 61 to 63 of the 1993 Act.

Repayment of certain contributions paid for family benefits

C14.—(1) This paragraph applies where a member who has made no election under paragraph 3 of Schedule 6—

- (a) becomes entitled under regulation C12 to the repayment of the balance of his contributions, or
 - (b) becomes entitled to payment of retirement benefits unless on his death family benefits would become payable.
- (2) Subject to regulation C15, where paragraph (1) applies, the member is entitled to be repaid an amount calculated in accordance with paragraphs (3) to (5).
- (3) Where no family benefit would have been payable if the member had died before 1st April 1972, the amount includes the whole of his normal contributions and any additional contributions.
- (4) Where paragraph (3) does not apply, the amount includes—
- (a) half the normal contributions paid in respect of any period during which family benefits would have been payable in the event of the member's death,
 - (b) the whole of the normal contributions paid in respect of any other period, and
 - (c) the whole of any additional contributions.

(5) The remainder of the amount consists of interest at 3% per annum, compounded with yearly rests, from the first day of the financial year following that in which the contributions were paid to—

- (a) the date of the calculation, or
- (b) the member's 70th birthday, or
- (c) the date of his death, whichever is the earliest.

(6) There is to be deducted from the amount the tax chargeable on it under section 598 of the Taxes Act.

(7) Subject to regulation C15, where a member who has made no election under paragraph 3 of Schedule 6 dies and he was entitled under regulation C12 to be repaid the balance of his contributions or—

- (a) a death grant is payable under regulation E20, and
- (b) no family benefit other than a children's pension is payable, his personal representatives are entitled to be paid an amount calculated in accordance with paragraphs (3) to (5) but with the interest component calculated to the date of his death.

Application for repayment

C15.—(1) An amount to which a person is entitled under regulation C12 or C14 is to be paid to him only if the Secretary of State receives a written application for payment and paragraph (2), if applicable, is complied with.

(2) If the Secretary of State notifies him in writing that he so requires, the applicant is to provide any relevant information specified by the Secretary of State that is in his possession or that he can reasonably be expected to obtain.

Return of repaid contributions

C16.—(1) A person to whom contributions were repaid before June 1973—

- (a) who is in pensionable employment, or
- (b) who is in comparable British service and in respect of whom no transfer value has been paid since the end of his last pensionable employment, may at any time, by giving written notice to the Secretary of State, elect to return the contributions, with interest, to him.

(2) The return of contributions—

- (a) may in any case, and
- (b) if the amount of the contributions, together with the interest payable, does not exceed £500, must, be made by a single payment, which must be made within ten weeks of the giving of notice under paragraph (1).

(3) Except where paragraph (2)(b) applies, the person may elect to make the return of contributions—

- (a) if he is in full-time pensionable employment, by instalments under paragraph (5), or
- (b) if he is in part-time pensionable employment or in comparable British service, by instalments under paragraph (7).

(4) Interest is payable at the rate of 3.5% per annum from the date on which the contributions were repaid to the date on which their return is completed, and—

- (a) where the return is made by a single payment, is payable on the full amount of the contributions and is compounded with yearly rests, and
 - (b) where the return is made by instalments, is payable on the balance for the time being outstanding and is compounded with yearly rests on 31st March.
- (5) Instalments payable under this paragraph are of equal amounts and are, subject to paragraph (6), payable by deduction from the person's salary for a number of whole years, not exceeding 5 and ending before his 61st birthday, to be specified in the notice of the election.

(6) Where the total of—

- (a) the instalments payable by a person under paragraph (5) in any year, and
- (b) the other amounts to be deducted in that year under regulation C18, would otherwise exceed 15% of his contributable salary for that year, the instalments are payable for the smallest number of whole years that will secure that the total does not exceed 15% of his annual contributable salary.

(7) Instalments payable under this paragraph are, subject to paragraph (8), payable—

- (a) at equal intervals, of not more than six months, and
- (b) for a period, determined by the Secretary of State after consulting the person making the election.

(8) Instalments are of equal amounts unless in any year the payment of an instalment of an amount equal to that paid in previous years would exceed the limit specified in paragraph (9) and in that event the instalments (and the corresponding period over which they are payable) shall be recalculated so that they do not exceed that limit.

(9) The annual amount of instalments paid under paragraph (7) is to be such that A+B does not exceed 15% of the annual rate of the person's contributable salary in the year where—

A is the annual amount of the instalments; and

B is the annual amount of other contributions paid under Part C (except any treated for the purposes of regulation G2 as employers' contributions) or towards the provision of a pension otherwise than under these Regulations.

(10) For the purposes of this regulation, a person is to be treated as being in pensionable employment if he is paying additional contributions under regulation C9 or C10 and such a person may, except where paragraph (2)(b) applies, elect to make the return by instalments under paragraph (7).

Uncompleted return by instalments of repaid contributions

C17.—(1) This regulation applies where instalments are payable by a person under regulation C16(5) or (7).

(2) If before all the instalments have been paid—

- (a) the person becomes entitled to payment of retirement benefits, or
- (b) a death grant becomes payable in respect of him, the balance outstanding, discounted for early payment, is to be deducted from the appropriate terminal sum and the return of the contributions is to be treated as having been completed.

(3) This paragraph applies where the instalments are payable under regulation C16(5) and before they have all been paid, the person—

- (a) ceases to be in full-time pensionable employment, and
- (b) does not become entitled to payment of retirement benefits, and

- (c) continues in part-time pensionable employment or in comparable British service.
- (4) Where paragraph (3) applies—
 - (a) the person may by giving written notice to the Secretary of State elect to pay the balance outstanding by instalments under regulation C16(7), and
 - (b) if he does not so elect, he is to make a single payment of the balance outstanding, discounted for early payment.
- (5) This paragraph applies where before all the instalments have been paid—
 - (a) the person ceases to be in pensionable employment or in comparable British service, and
 - (b) neither paragraph (2) nor paragraph (3) applies.
- (6) Where paragraph (5) applies—
 - (a) the person may, if he elects to pay additional contributions for a current period under regulation C9 or C10, by giving written notice to the Secretary of State elect to pay the balance outstanding by instalments under regulation C16(7) (but payable at the same times as the additional contributions), and
 - (b) if he does not so elect, he is to make a single payment of the balance outstanding, discounted for early payment.
- (7) Where paragraph (3) or (5) applies and the person has not, within 3 months after the end of the relevant employment—
 - (a) made a payment under paragraph (4)(b) or (6)(b), or
 - (b) made any election he could have made under paragraph (4)(a) or (6)(a), the amount of the instalments already paid is to be repaid to him.
- (8) Where—
 - (a) a person who has elected as mentioned in regulation C16(3)(b) is in part-time pensionable employment or in comparable British service and an instalment has not been paid by the due date, or
 - (b) a person has made an election under paragraph (4)(a) and an instalment has not been paid by the due date, or
 - (c) a person has made an election under paragraph (6)(a) and an instalment is not paid by 21st April in the financial year following that in which it fell due, then, unless within 3 months he makes a single payment of the balance outstanding, discounted for early payment, the amount of the instalments already paid is to be repaid to him.

Deduction, payment and recovery of contributions

C18.—(1) The employer of a person in pensionable employment, other than a services education officer, is to deduct from his salary each month—

- (a) the contributions payable under regulation C3(1) and any contributions payable under regulation C3(3),
- (b) any additional contributions payable in accordance with Part I of Schedule 4 as a result of an election under regulation C4,
- (c) any additional contributions payable by virtue of regulation C6 or C11, and
- (d) any instalments payable under regulation C16(5), and any amount not so deducted in any month is to be deducted from the person's salary no later than 30th April next following the end of the financial year in which it ought to have been deducted.

(2) If and so far as deductions are not made under paragraph (1), any sum remaining due is to be paid by the person to the Secretary of State on receipt of a written demand specifying the sum.

(3) If the sum is not paid within 6 weeks after the date of the demand, interest is payable on it at 4% per annum, compounded with yearly rests, from the expiry of the 6 weeks to the date of payment.

(4) Without prejudice to any other means of recovery, any sum due to the Secretary of State under paragraph (2) or (3) may be recovered by deducting it from any benefits payable under Part E.

(5) Amounts due from a person under this Part which are not deductible under paragraph (1) are to be paid by him to the Secretary of State.

(6) If any amount to which paragraph (5) applies, except one due under regulation C9, C10, C16 or C17, is not paid within 6 months after the end of the period to which it relates, but remains payable, interest is payable on it at 4% per annum, compounded with yearly rests, from the expiry of the 6 months to the date of payment.

PART D

RECKONABLE SERVICE

Reckonable service generally

D1.—(1) Subject to regulation D2, a person is entitled to count as reckonable service—

- (a) subject to paragraph (2), any period spent by him in pensionable employment,
- (b) any period counting as reckonable service by virtue of regulations D3 (past period for which additional contributions have been paid), D4 (current period for which additional contributions have been paid) or F4(8) (acceptance of transfer value),
- (c) any period which does not count as reckonable service by virtue of sub-paragraph (a) or (b) but which immediately before 1st November 1988 counted as reckonable service under regulation 4(1) of the 1976 Regulations,
- (d) any period which immediately before 1st November 1988, under regulations 7 and 72(1) (a) of the 1976 Regulations (war service), was capable of counting as reckonable service for the purpose of calculating benefits under Part III of those Regulations,
- (e) any period counting as reckonable service by virtue of regulation D5 of the 1988 Regulations (which continues to have effect for certain purposes by virtue of paragraph 12 of Schedule 15), and
- (f) any period of specified country service.

(2) Where during a financial year a person has spent one or more periods in part-time pensionable employment each such period counts as—

$$365 \times \frac{A}{B}$$ of reckonable service, where—

A is the person's contributable salary for the period, and

B is what his contributable salary for the whole of the financial year would have been if the employment had been full-time and had continued throughout the year.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)—

- (a) a period of part-time employment ends, and another such period begins, when any change occurs in the rate of the person's contributable salary,

- (b) no account is to be taken of any reduction in contributable salary during a period of sick leave or maternity leave,
 - (c) if a half or any greater fraction of a day results it is to be taken as one day, and any smaller fraction resulting is to be left out, and
 - (d) if the calculation would result in more than 365 days counting as reckonable service in respect of the financial year, the excess does not so count.
- (4) In calculating the length of reckonable service—
- (a) no account shall be taken of a leap year day (29th February) except as provided in subparagraph (b) below; but
 - (b) where total reckonable service which includes part of a year ends in a leap year on or after the leap year day that day shall be included in the number of days of reckonable service.

Exclusion from reckonable service

D2. The following do not count as reckonable service—

- (a) any contributions refund period, and
- (b) any period in respect of which a transfer value has been paid under regulation F1 or a cash equivalent has been paid.

Past period for which additional contributions have been paid

D3.—(1) A person—

- (a) who has paid additional contributions for a past period in accordance with Part II of Schedule 4, or
- (b) in respect of whom payment of additional contributions for a past period in accordance with Part II of Schedule 4 has been made is entitled to count the past period as reckonable service.

(2) A person who—

- (a) has paid any additional contributions for a past period in accordance with Part I of Schedule 4, or
- (b) has continued to pay additional contributions for a past period in accordance with Schedule 5, is entitled to count as reckonable service a period calculated in accordance with Schedule 7.

Current period for which additional contributions have been paid

D4.—(1) A person who has paid additional contributions for a current period in accordance with regulation C9 is entitled—

- (a) if he was in full-time pensionable employment immediately before the start of the period, to count as reckonable service the period in respect of which they were paid, or
- (b) if he was then in part-time pensionable employment, to count as reckonable service the proportion of the period that would have counted under regulation D1 if he had continued in that employment.

(2) A person who has paid additional contributions for a current period in accordance with regulation C10 is entitled to count as reckonable service the period specified in regulation C10(2).

PART E

BENEFITS

Overriding provision as to guaranteed minimum pensions

E1.—(1) This regulation applies where a person’s pensionable employment is contracted-out employment.

(2) Where this regulation applies it overrides anything in these Regulations that is inconsistent with it, except regulations E14 (abatement on re-employment) and E18 (deferment, etc. of benefits).

(3) Where this regulation applies and the person, in relation to employment up to 6th April 1997, has a guaranteed minimum in relation to benefits under these Regulations—

- (a) unless on the cessation of the pensionable employment he is entitled to a retirement pension at a higher rate, he is from the date on which he attains state pensionable age entitled to a pension at a weekly rate equal to his guaranteed minimum,
- (b) if he attains state pensionable age while in pensionable employment, continues in the same employment for a further period of 5 years and does not then cease to hold it, he is (unless he consents to a postponement of the entitlement) entitled from the end of that period to so much of his retirement pension as equals his guaranteed minimum,
- (c) in the case of a man who dies at any time and leaves a widow, unless she is entitled to a widow’s pension at a higher rate she is, during any such period as is mentioned in section 17(5) of the 1993 Act, entitled to a pension at a weekly rate equal to half his guaranteed minimum, and
- (d) in the case of a woman who dies at any time leaving a widower who is not entitled to a widower’s pension at a higher rate, in circumstances prescribed under section 17(6) of the 1993 Act, the widower is entitled to a pension payable for the period so prescribed.

(4) The weekly rate of a widower’s pension payable under paragraph (3)(d) is half of that part of the deceased’s guaranteed minimum which is attributable to earnings factors for the period beginning with the tax year 1988-89 and ending with the tax year 1996-7.

(5) In paragraph (4) “earnings factors” means the earnings factors referred to in section 14(2) of the 1993 Act.

Nature of retirement benefits

E2. Retirement benefits consist of—

- (a) a retirement pension, and
- (b) a retirement lump sum, calculated in accordance with this Part.

Qualification for retirement benefits

E3.—(1) A person is qualified for retirement benefits if—

- (a) immediately before 6th April 1988 he would, but for his age, have been entitled under regulation 53 of the 1976 Regulations to payment of an annual allowance and an additional allowance by way of lump sum payment.
- (b) immediately before 3rd February 1998 regulation E3(5) of the 1988 Regulations applied to him and he was qualified for retirement benefits under regulation E3 of those Regulations, or

- (c) an appropriate qualifying period has been completed.
- (2) An appropriate qualifying period—
 - (a) comprises every period of a kind described in Schedule 8 together with any period referred to in paragraph (4)(b), where that sub-paragraph applies, but excluding any contributions refund period, and
 - (b) may be discontinuous.
- (3) If the person—
 - (a) was in pensionable employment, or paying contributions for a current period under regulation 30 of the 1976 Regulations on 6th April 1988, or
 - (b) entered pensionable employment after 6th April 1988 without having been in such employment before that date, any qualifying period of 2 years is an appropriate one.
- (4) If paragraph (3) does not apply, but the person was in pensionable employment before 6th April 1988 and subsequently entered pensionable employment again after that date, any qualifying period of—
 - (a) two years beginning on or after 6th April 1988; or
 - (b) such period beginning on or after 6th April 1988 as will, when taken with every period of a kind described in Schedule 9 to the 1988 Regulations before 6th April 1988, amount to 5 years whichever is the shorter, is an appropriate one.
- (5) For the purposes of paragraph (4) any period of the kind described in paragraph 4 of Schedule 8 (transfer value accepted) is to be treated as having begun after 5th April 1988.
- (6) Notwithstanding that an appropriate qualifying period has not been completed, a person is qualified for retirement benefits—
 - (a) subject to paragraph (7), if he has a guaranteed minimum in relation to benefits under these Regulations, or
 - (b) if a transfer value was paid in respect of him by the Secretary of State to the superannuation scheme of the Commission of the European Communities and one has since been received by the Secretary of State from that scheme.
- (7) If a contributions equivalent premium is paid by the Secretary of State, paragraph (6)(a) is to be treated as not having applied.

Entitlement to payment of retirement benefits

- E4.—(1) Subject to regulation E33(2) (application for payment), a person qualified for retirement benefits becomes entitled to payment of them in any of the Cases described in this regulation.
- (2) In Case A the person—
 - (a) has attained the age of 60,
 - (b) has ceased to be in pensionable employment, and
 - (c) is not within Case B or D.
 - (3) In Case B the person—
 - (a) has attained the age of 60,
 - (b) has ceased after 31st March 1972 and after attaining that age to be in pensionable employment, but would have ceased to be in such employment before attaining that age had not the employment continued beyond the attainment of that age due to a period of paid sick leave, and

(c) has become incapacitated before attaining that age.

(4) In Case C the person—

(a) has not attained the age of 60,

(b) has ceased after 31st March 1972 and before attaining the age of 60 to be in pensionable employment,

(c) is incapacitated and became so before attaining the age of 60, and

(d) is not within Case D,

and, in cases where the pensionable employment ceased on or after 1st April 1997 the Secretary of State has notified the person in writing that he has not exercised, or is not considering the exercise of, his powers under regulation 10(2) or (10) of the Education (Teachers) Regulations 1993⁽¹⁴⁾ to direct on grounds of that person's misconduct that he be not appointed to or employed in relevant employment as defined in regulation 7 of those Regulations.

(5) In Case D the person—

(a) has attained the age of 50,

(b) has ceased after attaining that age but before attaining the age of 60 to be in pensionable employment or excluded employment,

(c) is not within Case C, and

(d) has not received and is not to receive compensation under Part III of the Teachers (Compensation for Redundancy and Premature Retirement) Regulations 1997⁽¹⁵⁾ (discretionary compensation for termination), and his employer has notified the Secretary of State in writing—

(i) that his employment was terminated by reason of his redundancy or in the interests of the efficient discharge of the employer's functions, and

(ii) that the employer has agreed that he should become entitled to retirement benefits under this Case.

(6) If regulation 4(8) of the Teachers (Compensation for Redundancy and Premature Retirement) Regulations 1997 (employer to notify for purposes of those Regulations if requested by governing body) applies, the employer must notify the Secretary of State as mentioned in paragraph (5) above.

(7) In Cases A and B the entitlement takes effect as soon as the person falls within the Case.

(8) In Case C the entitlement takes effect—

(a) where, immediately before the person became incapacitated he was in excluded employment, on the day after the last day of his excluded employment; and

(b) in any other case, as soon as the person falls within the Case or as soon as the person would have fallen within the Case had there not been a requirement that the Secretary of State notify that person that he has not exercised, or is not considering the exercise of, his powers of direction under regulation 10(2) or (10) of the Education (Teachers) Regulations 1993, or (in all cases), if later, 6 months before the date of the last of any medical reports considered by the Secretary of State in determining under regulation H9 that the person had become incapacitated.

(9) In Case D the entitlement takes effect as from the day after the end of the employment.

(10) In no case shall a person be regarded as having ceased to be in pensionable employment until at least one day has passed without the person being in pensionable employment.

Amount of retirement pension

E5.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) to (6) and regulations E7 to E10, the annual rate of a person's retirement pension is 1/80th of his average salary multiplied by his effective reckonable service.

(2) If—

- (a) the person is entitled to count a period as reckonable service by virtue of regulation D3 (past period for which additional contributions have been paid), and
- (b) by reason of regulation E32(3) part of that period does not count in calculating his retirement lump sum, the annual rate calculated in accordance with paragraph (1) is, in respect of each year comprised in that part, increased by 1/350th of his average salary.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (4) to (6), where a person who has become entitled to payment of retirement benefits by virtue of regulation E4(5) has ceased to be in pensionable employment or excluded employment on or after 1st September 1997, the annual rate of the person's retirement pension shall be the annual rate of such pension calculated in accordance with paragraphs (1) and (2) and, where appropriate, regulations E7 or E9 but disregarding the effect of regulation E10, multiplied by the appropriate factor.

(4) Paragraph (3) does not apply where notice to terminate the person's employment was given or his resignation tendered on or before 22nd October 1996.

(5) If—

- (a) the person has a guaranteed minimum in relation to employment up to 6th April 1997, and
- (b) A exceeds B,

where—

A is the annual equivalent of his guaranteed minimum pension together with that of any equivalent pension benefits, and

B is the annual rate calculated in accordance with paragraphs (1) and (2) and, where applicable, paragraph (3), the annual rate of his retirement pension is A.

(6) If a contributions equivalent premium has been paid in respect of the person and has not been refunded (and his entitlement to a guaranteed minimum pension is therefore extinguished) the annual rate of his retirement pension is reduced by the annual equivalent of the guaranteed minimum pension to which he would otherwise have been entitled.

Amount of retirement lump sum

E6.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3) and regulations E7 and E8, the amount of a person's retirement lump sum is

$$A \times (B + C)$$

where—

A is 3/80th of the person's average salary,

B is his effective reckonable service (except any falling within C), and

C is any period which he is entitled to count as reckonable service by virtue of regulation D3 (past period for which additional contributions have been paid).

(2) If the person's effective reckonable service is restricted by regulation E32(2) the part of his retirement lump sum that is attributable to service before he attained the age of 60 is not to exceed his average salary multiplied by 1½.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4), where a person who has become entitled to the payment of retirement benefits by virtue of regulation E4(5) has ceased to be in pensionable employment or excluded employment on or after 1st September 1997, the amount of the person's retirement lump sum shall be the amount calculated in accordance with paragraphs (1) and (2) multiplied by the appropriate factor.

(4) Paragraph (3) shall not apply where notice to terminate the person's employment was given or his resignation tendered on or before 22nd October 1996.

Limitation of retirement benefits in certain cases

E7.—(1) Paragraphs (2) to (5) apply to a person who has made an election under regulation C1(6) of the 1988 Regulations or regulation C2(1) (reduced salary treated as having continued at previous rate) and whose average salary falls to be calculated by reference to the notional rate or, as the case may be, the rate specified in regulation C2(4).

(2) The annual rate of the person's retirement pension is not to exceed the fraction of the appropriate sum ascertained, by reference to the relevant age, from Table 1 below.

(3) Where the person has been in pensionable employment for less than 20 years, his retirement lump sum is not to exceed 3/80ths of the appropriate sum multiplied by the total of his reckonable service and the period ascertained, by reference to the number of complete years he has been in pensionable employment, from Table 2 below.

(4) Where the person has been in pensionable employment for 20 years or more his retirement lump sum is not to exceed the appropriate sum multiplied by 1½.

(5) The appropriate sum is the greater of—

- (a) the person’s contributable salary for the best one of his last 5 years in pensionable employment, and
- (b) 1/3rd of his aggregate contributable salary for his best 3 consecutive years in pensionable employment within the 10 years ending with its cessation, and, for the purposes of paragraph (2), the relevant age is his age when he first entered pensionable employment, unless he was not continuously in pensionable employment in which case it is the figure obtained by subtracting the number of years in pensionable employment from 60.

(6) In this regulation references to “retirement pension” and “retirement lump sum” are references to such pension and lump sum before any actuarial reduction required by regulation E5(3) or E6(3).

Enhancement of retirement benefits in case of incapacity

E8.—(1) This regulation applies to a person who has become entitled to payment of retirement benefits by virtue of regulation E4(3) or (4) by reason of his having become incapacitated before ceasing to be in pensionable employment, but only if—

- (a) he had completed periods of the kinds described in Schedule 8 totalling at least 5 years, excluding any contributions refund period, and
- (b) the application for payment required by regulation E33 is made within 6 months after the end of his pensionable employment.

(2) Subject to regulation E32(2) (limitation of effective reckonable service to 45 years, etc.), for the purpose of calculating the person’s retirement benefits the effective reckonable service of a person to whom this regulation applies is to be treated as having been increased by the appropriate period.

(3) If the person’s relevant service amounts to less than 10 years, the appropriate period is the shorter of—

- (a) the length of his relevant service, and
- (b) the period beginning when his pensionable employment ended and ending immediately before his 65th birthday.

(4) If the person’s relevant service amounts to 10 years or more, the appropriate period is the longer of period A and period B.

(5) Period A is the shortest of—

- (a) the period by which the person’s relevant service falls short of 40 years,
- (b) the period beginning when the person’s pensionable employment ended and ending immediately before his 60th birthday, and
- (c) 6 years and 243 days.

(6) Period B is so much of the period beginning when the person’s pensionable employment ended and ending immediately before his 65th birthday as would not cause his effective reckonable service to be increased to more than 20 years.

(7) A person's relevant service is so much of his effective reckonable service as does not consist of periods that count—

- (a) by virtue of regulation D3 (past period for which additional contributions have been paid), or
- (b) by virtue of the application to him of regulation 7 of the 1976 Regulations (war service).

(8) For the purposes of this regulation a person is to be treated as having been in pensionable employment during any period for which he was paying additional contributions under regulation C9 or C10.

Avoidance of duplicate pensions

E9.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), this regulation applies where a person's effective reckonable service includes a period that also counts towards another pension payable directly or indirectly out of moneys provided by Parliament or by the rates or council tax levied by local authorities ("the double period").

(2) This regulation does not apply where the other pension is subject to reduction under Schedule D6 to the Local Government Pension Scheme Regulations 1995⁽¹⁶⁾ or, when in force, regulation 142 of the Local Government Pension Scheme Regulations 1997⁽¹⁷⁾ or where the other pension is payable under regulation 7 of the Teachers (Compensation for Redundancy and Premature Retirement) Regulations 1997⁽¹⁸⁾.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (4) and (5), where this regulation applies the person's retirement benefits are reduced by so much as is necessary to secure that

where—

- A is the actuarial value of the retirement benefits in respect of the double period, and
- B is the actuarial value of the other pension in respect of that period.

(4) A is not to be reduced to less than the actuarial value of

where—

C is the amount of the contributions paid by the person in respect of the double period, including any paid under regulation C9 or C10, and

D is interest on those contributions at 3% per annum, compounded with yearly rests, from the first day of the financial year following that in which they were paid to the date on which the person became entitled to payment of the retirement pension.

(5) A retirement pension is not to be reduced so that so much of it as is attributable to the double period falls below the rate of any equivalent pension benefits attributable to that period.

(6) For the purposes of this regulation—

- (a) the other pension includes any sum payable, whether as a continuing allowance or as a lump sum, by way of pension, superannuation allowance, compensation for loss or abolition of office or otherwise in respect of retirement; and
- (b) references to "retirement benefits" are references to such benefits before any actuarial reduction required by regulation E5(3) or E6(3).

National Insurance modification of pensions

E10. Part I of Schedule 10 has effect for modifying the retirement pensions of persons who were in pensionable employment before 1st April 1980 including retirement pensions that have been actuarially reduced under regulation E5(3).

Allocation of part of retirement pension

E11.—(1) A person who has become qualified for retirement benefits may, unless he becomes entitled to payment of them by virtue of regulation E4(4) (incapacity), allocate part of his retirement pension to the provision of an alternative benefit.

(2) The alternative benefit may be either—

(a) an annuity for life, commencing on the death of the person making the allocation (“the allocator”), for a surviving spouse or dependant, or

(b) an annuity payable to the allocator while the allocator and allocator’s spouse are both alive, and if the spouse is the survivor a subsequent annuity for life, at twice the rate of the first annuity, for the spouse.

(3) The rates of the annuities mentioned in paragraph (2) shall be determined in accordance with tables prepared by the Government Actuary.

(4) An allocation must be made by delivering a declaration to the Secretary of State, and in paragraph (2) “spouse” refers to status at the time of its delivery.

(5) Further provisions as to an allocation under this regulation are contained in Schedule 11.

Duration of retirement pension

E12. Subject to regulations E13 to E15 and E18, a retirement pension continues to be payable, at the rate at which it initially became payable in accordance with regulation E5, until the death of the person entitled to it.

Pensioner ceasing to be incapacitated

E13.—(1) This regulation applies where a person who became entitled to payment of a teacher’s pension by virtue of regulation E4(4) ceases to be incapacitated.

(2) On the person ceasing to be incapacitated the pension ceases to be payable, but any equivalent pension benefits continue to be payable.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4) and to regulation E33(2) (application for payment), the pension becomes payable again—

(a) from the person’s 60th birthday, or

(b) if earlier, from the start of any renewed incapacity.

(4) Paragraph (3) does not apply if the person has been in pensionable employment at any time after he first became entitled to payment of the pension.

(5) If the pension becomes payable again under paragraph (3)(a) it is to be treated for the purposes of regulation E14 as one to the payment of which the person has become entitled by virtue of regulation E4(2).

Abatement of retirement pension during further employment

E14.—(1) This regulation applies while a person who has become entitled to payment of a teacher’s pension is employed—

- (a) in pensionable employment, comparable British service, or employment which would have been pensionable employment but for—
 - (i) his having made an election under regulation B5 (election for employment not to be pensionable),
 - (ii) his having attained the age of 70, or
 - (iii) regulation B4(2)(a) (employment not pensionable).
 - (b) in part-time employment in a capacity described in paragraphs 1 to 9 of Schedule 2.
- (2) If the person is concurrently both in employment falling within paragraph (1)(a) and in employment falling within paragraph (1)(b), this regulation applies only in respect of the former.
- (3) Where this regulation applies, the annual rate of the pension is reduced—
- (a) If A equals or exceeds (C+D-E), to zero, and
 - (b) in any other case, and subject to paragraph (4), by the amount (if any) which is necessary to secure that (A+B) does not exceed

where—

A is the initial annual rate of the person's salary in the employment,

B is the reduced annual rate of the pension as increased under the Pensions (Increase) Act 1971(19) disregarding any actuarial reduction required by regulation E5(3),

C is, or where his previous pensionable employment was part-time is the full-time equivalent of, the highest annual rate of contributable salary that was payable to him during the 3 years ending immediately before he became entitled to payment of the pension, or, if applicable, the highest annual rate of contributable salary that was payable to him during the 3 years ending immediately before he ceased to be employed in any pensionable employment entered into by him after he became entitled to payment of the pension, whichever is the greater.

D is the amount (if any) by which, immediately before the first day of the employment, C would have been increased if it had been the annual rate of an official pension, within the meaning of section 5(1) of the Pensions (Increase) Act 1971 beginning, and first qualifying for increases under that Act, on the same date as the pension, and

E is any part of the pension allocated under regulation E11.

(4) Where regulation E5(3) applies the amount (if any) by which the annual rate of the pension is to be reduced under paragraph (3)(b) shall be the amount (if any) referred to in that sub-paragraph multiplied by the appropriate factor.

Retirement benefits on cessation of further employment

E15.—(1) This regulation applies to a person who—

- (a) became entitled to payment of a teacher's pension ("the first pension"),
- (b) was subsequently in pensionable employment ("the further employment"), and
- (c) has ceased to be in the further employment.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), if the first pension was not enhanced under regulation E8 (enhancement of retirement benefits in case of incapacity), the person—

- (a) ceases to be entitled to payment of the first pension, and

- (b) becomes entitled to payment of retirement benefits (“combined benefits”) calculated, subject to paragraph (8), by reference to the total of his reckonable service in the further employment and the reckonable service taken into account in calculating the first pension.
- (3) If the average salary by reference to which combined benefits would fall to be calculated is less than that by reference to which the first pension was calculated, the person—
 - (a) remains entitled to the first pension, and
 - (b) subject to paragraph (7), becomes entitled to payment of retirement benefits calculated by reference to his reckonable service in the further employment.
- (4) Subject to paragraph (7), if the first pension was enhanced under regulation E8 he becomes entitled to payment of the first pension and of additional retirement benefits in respect of the further employment.
- (5) The additional retirement benefits are to be calculated—
 - (a) in respect of pensionable employment before attaining the age of 60, as if regulation E8 had applied and the further employment had begun when he became entitled to payment of the first pension, and
 - (b) in respect of other pensionable employment, in accordance with regulations E5 and E6, but the additional retirement lump sum is subject to reduction under paragraph (8).
- (6) If in the application of regulation E8 to the calculation of the first pension the appropriate period was Period B, paragraph (5)(a) applies with the substitution for “60” of “65”.
- (7) If the person ceased to be in the further employment before attaining the age of 60 and neither regulation E4(4) (incapacity) nor regulation E4(5) (redundancy, etc.) applied, he does not become entitled to payment of retirement benefits under paragraph (3)(b) or (4) until he attains that age.
- (8) A retirement lump sum payable under paragraph (2)(b), and an additional retirement lump sum payable under paragraph (4), is reduced by the amount of the retirement lump sum to which the person became entitled when he became entitled to payment of the first pension, of any lump sum to which he had previously become entitled under this regulation, and of any short-service incapacity grant paid to him under regulation E17.
- (9) Where a person ceases to be in further employment on or after 1st September 1997 and becomes entitled to retirement benefits by virtue of regulation E4(5)—
 - (a) regulation E5(3) shall apply to that person’s retirement pension under paragraph (2)(b) or (3)(b) or to his additional retirement pension under paragraph (4); and
 - (b) regulation E6(3) shall also apply to that person’s retirement lump sum under paragraph (2) (b) or (3)(b) or to his additional retirement lump sum under paragraph (4).

Short-service annuity

- E16.—(1) A person who—
- (a) has not been in pensionable employment at any time after 5th April 1980, and
 - (b) is not qualified for retirement benefits, and
 - (c) would, but for regulation 46(2) of the 1976 Regulations or regulation C12(2) (salary exceeding £5,000), have been entitled to be repaid the balance of his contributions,
- is entitled to be paid, from his 60th birthday, an annuity for life.
- (2) The rate of the annuity is the actuarial equivalent of the balance of his contributions calculated in accordance with regulation C13 as at his 60th birthday.

Short-service incapacity grant

E17.—(1) A person who—

- (a) has been in pensionable employment for at least one year, and
- (b) has become incapacitated, and
- (c) had not attained the age of 70 when he became incapacitated, and
- (d) is not entitled to payment of retirement benefits the aggregate value of which exceeds the relevant amount, is entitled, if he applies for payment within 6 months after the end of his pensionable employment, to an incapacity grant.

(2) The aggregate value of retirement benefits is the total of the retirement lump sum and the actuarial equivalent of the retirement pension.

(3) The relevant amount is $$\frac{A}{12} \times B,$$

where,

A is the person's average salary, and

B is the length of his reckonable service.

(4) The amount of the incapacity grant is the difference between the relevant amount and the aggregate value of any retirement benefits to which the person is entitled.

(5) The incapacity grant is not to be paid before the end of the person's pensionable employment.

Deferment etc. of benefits

E18.—(1) This regulation applies where a person is convicted of—

- (a) an offence of treason,
- (b) one offence or more under the Official Secrets Acts 1911 to 1989⁽²⁰⁾ for which he has been sentenced on the same occasion to a term of imprisonment of, or to two or more consecutive terms amounting in the aggregate to, at least 10 years, or
- (c) an offence in connection with pensionable employment or excluded employment which is certified by the Secretary of State either to have been gravely injurious to the State or to be liable to lead to serious loss of confidence in the public service, and any benefit under regulations E1 to E17 becomes payable to him after the offence was committed.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), the Secretary of State may—

- (a) defer or, as the case may be, suspend payment of the benefit for so long, or
- (b) reduce its amount or rate by so much, as he may determine,

(3) If—

- (a) the person has a guaranteed minimum in relation to benefits under these Regulations, and
- (b) the offence does not fall within paragraph (1)(a) or (b), a determination under paragraph (2) may not deprive him of his guaranteed minimum pension after he attains state pensionable age.

(20) 1911 c. 28; 1920 c. 75; 1939 c. 121; 1989 c. 6.

Commutation: exceptional circumstances of ill-health

E19.—(1) Where, at the time when a person first becomes entitled to a retirement pension by virtue of regulation E4(3) or (4), there are exceptional circumstances of serious ill health affecting the person the Secretary of State may discharge the liability to pay that pension in respect of so much of it as exceeds the person's guaranteed minimum by payment of a lump sum calculated in accordance with paragraph (2).

(2) The lump sum is an amount equal to five times the amount by which the annual rate of the retirement pension which would otherwise be payable to the person exceeds the amount of his guaranteed minimum.

Death grant

E20.—(1) Subject to paragraph (6), if at the time of his death a person—

- (a) was in pensionable employment, or
- (b) was paying additional contributions under regulation C9 or C10, or
- (c) had, not more than 12 months earlier, ceased to be in pensionable employment while incapacitated, a death grant may be paid.

(2) The amount of a death grant under paragraph (1) is the greater of—

- (a) the amount which, if on the date of the person's death he had ceased to be employed on becoming incapacitated, would have become payable by way of retirement lump sum or short-service incapacity grant, or both, and
- (b) (i) in a case of a death occurring before 1st April 1998, his average salary, or
(ii) in the case of a death occurring on or after 1st April 1998, twice his average salary, less, in either case, the amount of any retirement lump sum or short-service incapacity grant previously paid to him.

(3) Subject to paragraph (6), if a person who has ceased after 31st March 1972 to be in pensionable employment dies without having become entitled to payment of retirement benefits and—

- (a) the qualifying condition is satisfied, and
- (b) no death grant could be paid under paragraph (1), a death grant may be paid under this paragraph.

(4) The qualifying condition—

- (a) if the person ceased to be in pensionable employment before 1st November 1988, is that he was entitled to count at least 2 years' reckonable service, and
- (b) in any other case, is that he was so entitled and was qualified for retirement benefits, but, where sub-paragraph (a) applies, it is to be assumed for the purpose of calculating the death grant that he was qualified for retirement benefits.

(5) The amount of a death grant under paragraph (3) is the amount that would have become payable by way of retirement lump sum if the person had become entitled under regulation E4(2) to payment of retirement benefits, less the amount of any retirement lump sum or short-service incapacity grant previously paid to him.

(6) If a person who has at any time been in pensionable employment dies and—

- (a) no death grant could be paid under paragraph (1) or (3), or
- (b) the amount of such a death grant would be smaller and no pension becomes payable under regulation E26 to a surviving spouse or a nominated beneficiary, a death grant equal to the balance of his contributions, calculated in accordance with regulation C13 as at the date of his death, may be paid.

(7) Where any death grant is paid under this regulation, it is to be paid to the individual nominated by the deceased to receive the grant or, in the absence of such a nomination—

- (a) if the deceased is survived by one widow or by a widower, to the widow or widower,
- (b) if there are two or more widows, to the widows in equal shares, or
- (c) if there is no widow or widower, to the personal representatives.

(8) Any nomination for the purposes of paragraph (7) shall be made by giving written notice to the Secretary of State.

Supplementary death grant

E21.—(1) Subject to paragraph (5), this regulation applies where a person dies who—

- (a) has become entitled to payment of retirement benefits, and
- (b) is not in pensionable employment.

(2) If—

- (a) at least 10 years' reckonable service was taken into account in calculating the person's retirement benefits, and
- (b) the total of the amounts paid in respect of them is less than his average salary, a supplementary death grant equal to that deficiency or, where regulation E5(3) applies for the calculation of retirement pension, equal to that deficiency multiplied by the appropriate factor, may be paid.

(3) If—

- (a) less than 10 years' reckonable service was taken into account in calculating the person's retirement benefits, and
- (b) the amount paid in respect of his retirement pension is less than 5 times the annual rate at which it was payable when he died,

a supplementary death grant equal to that deficiency or, where regulation E5(3) applies for the calculation of retirement pension, equal to that deficiency multiplied by the appropriate factor, may be paid.

(4) For the purposes of this regulation—

- (a) any amount by which a retirement pension was reduced under regulation E5(3), E9 (avoidance of duplicate pensions) or E14 (abatment of retirement pension during further employment), and any part of a pension allocated under regulation E11, is to be treated as having been paid, and
- (b) a retirement lump sum is to be treated as having been paid without any deduction under these Regulations (including any actuarial reduction under regulation E6(3)).

(5) This regulation does not apply if the person's last employment was of a kind described in Part II of Schedule 9 to the 1988 Regulations and, by virtue of regulation E3(1)(b), formed part of the qualifying period for the purposes of regulation E3.

(6) Where any supplementary death grant is paid under this regulation it is to be paid to the individual nominated by the deceased to receive the grant or, in the absence of such a nomination,

- (a) if the deceased is survived by one widow or by a widower, to the widow or widower,
- (b) if there are two or more widows, to the widows in equal shares, or
- (c) if there is no widow or widower, to the personal representatives.

(7) Any nomination for the purposes of paragraph (6) shall be made by giving written notice to the Secretary of State.

(2) References in those regulations to a surviving spouse are references to a widow or widower; but—

- (a) in the case of a man who has not been in pensionable employment or paying additional contributions for a current period under regulation C9 or C10 at any time after 5th April 1978, such references, and references to a widow, do not include references to a woman married by that man after his last day in pensionable employment or, as the case may be, the end of the period for which such contributions were paid;
- (b) subject to paragraph (3), in the case of a woman who has not been in pensionable employment or paying additional contributions for a current period under regulation C9 or C10 at any time after 5th April 1988, such references and references to a widower do not include references to a man married by that woman after her last day in pensionable employment or, as the case may be, the end of the period for which such contributions were paid.

(3) Where a woman who nominated a person under regulation E23 subsequently marries, paragraph 2(b) shall have effect with the substitution of “1978” for “1988”.

(4) Where those regulations provide for a pension to be payable to a widow and there are two or more widows, the widows are jointly entitled to the pension.

(5) References in those regulations to a person’s child are to a person who is—

- (a) his legitimate, adopted or illegitimate child, or
- (b) accepted by him as a member of the family and wholly or mainly dependent on him, and who is a child within the meaning given in paragraphs (6) to (8).

(6) Subject to paragraphs (7) and (8) and paragraph 14 of Schedule 15, for the purposes of regulations E23 to E30 a person is a child while he is unmarried and—

- (a) he has not attained the age of 17, or
- (b) having attained that age, he is receiving full-time education or attending a course of not less than 2 years’ full-time training for a trade, profession or calling and he has been receiving such education or attending such a course of training or both continuously since having attained that age without a break at any one time of longer than a year, or
- (c) having ceased while incapacitated to fall within sub-paragraph (a) or (b), he continues to be incapacitated.

(7) For the purposes of paragraph (6)(b)—

- (a) a person is to be treated as receiving full-time education up to and including the week which includes the first Monday in January or the first Monday after Easter Monday or the first Monday in September next following the end of the last term in which he received it, and
- (b) a person is to be treated as not attending a course of training while he is receiving disqualifying remuneration.

(8) For the purposes of paragraph (7)(b) disqualifying remuneration is remuneration at a rate of not less than the annual rate at which an official pension, within the meaning of section 5(1) of the Pensions (Increase) Act 1971(21), would for the time being be payable if it had begun, and first qualified for increases under that Act, on 1st April 1972 and had then been payable at an annual rate of £250.

(9) References in regulations E24 to E30 to a nominated beneficiary are to a person nominated under regulation E23.

Nomination of beneficiaries

E23.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), an unmarried person (“the appointor”) may at any time before retirement benefits have been paid, by giving written notice to the Secretary of State, nominate an eligible person who is wholly or mainly financially dependent on the appointor and who is not a child to receive a pension under regulations E24 to E30.

- (b) on the marriage of the appointor.

Entitlement to short-term family benefits

E24.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4), a short-term pension is payable, from the day after that of his death, if a person dies—

- (a) while in pensionable employment,
- (b) during a period for which he is paying additional contributions under regulation C9 or C10,
- (c) within 12 months after ceasing to be in pensionable employment, or to pay such contributions, as a result of ill-health, but before becoming entitled to payment of retirement benefits, or
- (d) after becoming entitled to payment of retirement benefits.

(2) The short-term pension is payable—

- (a) subject to paragraph (4), to any surviving spouse or, if a nomination under regulation E23 had effect at the time of his death, to the nominated beneficiary; and
- (b) if the deceased is survived by a child or children of his to, or for the benefit of, the child or, as the case may be, the children jointly.

(3) Where two or more teachers confer on the same child or, as the case may be, children entitlement to a short-term pension, regulation E26(7)(b) shall apply in a like manner to short-term pensions payable by virtue of this regulation.

(4) No short-term pension is payable—

- (a) to a widower if one is payable to another person as a nominated beneficiary,

- (d) if regulation E24(1)(a) and (d) both apply, is the total of the rates specified in subparagraphs (a) and (c) above.

(2) If—

- (a) the short-term pension is payable to a surviving spouse, and
- (b) the annual rate calculated in accordance with paragraph (1) is less than that of a long-term pension to which the surviving spouse is prospectively entitled under regulation E26, the annual rate of the short-term pension is the same as that of the long-term pension.

(3) The duration of the short-term pension payable shall be ascertained from the table below and in that table “adult pension” means a short-term pension payable to the spouse or nominated beneficiary.

TABLE

Category	Person falling within regulation E24(2)	Duration of pension (months)
1	Spouse or nominated beneficiary	3

a long-term pension is payable to or for the benefit of the child or, as the case may be, the children jointly.

Amounts of spouses' and nominated beneficiaries' long-term pensions

E28.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the annual rate of a pension payable under regulation E26 to a surviving spouse or a nominated beneficiary is 1/160th of the deceased's average salary multiplied by the length of his family benefit service.

- A is the family benefit service calculated in accordance with paragraphs (3) to (7),
 - B is his effective reckonable service apart from C, and
 - C is the period which was, or would if regulation E8 had applied have been, the appropriate period within the meaning of regulation E8.

- (b) before that day he had married another woman, and
- (c) the persons to or for whose benefit a children’s pension is payable include a child who was, or children who were, a child or children of the deceased’s at any time during the earlier marriage, the annual rate of the children’s pension is the appropriate fraction of his average salary multiplied by the length of what would have been his family benefit service if regulation E28(4) had applied (“the notional family benefit service”).

(4) If the children’s pension is payable to, or for the benefit of—

- (a) one child who was a child of the deceased’s during the earlier marriage, and
- (b) one or more children who were not children of his during that marriage, the annual rate of the children’s pension is

$$\mathbf{A - B,}$$

B is 1/320th of his average salary multiplied by the actual length of his family benefit service.

(5) If—

- (a) no adult pension becomes payable, or
- (b) an adult pension ceases to be payable,

the annual rate of a children’s pension is the applicable fraction of the deceased’s average salary multiplied by the greater of C and D or, where regulation E28(8) applies, the greater of

where—

C is the notional family benefit service,

D is the deceased’s effective reckonable service apart from E, and

E is the period which was, or would if regulation E8 had applied have been, the appropriate period within the meaning of regulation E8.

(6) The applicable fraction—

- (a) while a children's pension is payable to or for the benefit of 2 or more children, is 1/120th, and

- (b) if no short-term pension became payable, from the day after that of the death.

(5) A children's pension ceases to be payable to a person or for his benefit when he ceases to be a child.

Average salary

E31.—(1) Subject to paragraph (11), a person's average salary—

- (a) where the material part of his average salary service is one year or more, is his full salary for the best consecutive 365 days of that part, and
- (b) in any other case, is the average annual rate of his full salary for that part.

(2) In determining, for the purposes of paragraph (1), what are the best consecutive 365 days of the material part of the person's average salary service, days on which the person is not in pensionable employment are disregarded.

(3) Average salary service comprises—

- (a) any period spent by the person in pensionable employment,
- (b) any period counting as reckonable service by virtue of regulation D4 (current period for which additional contributions have been paid), and
- (c) any period of comparable British service which began before 1st April 1974 and has not been followed by a period of pensionable employment and for which a transfer value has been accepted.

(4) The material part of a person's average salary service is—

- (a) where the person has less than 3 years of such service, the whole of it, or
- (b) in any other case, the last 3 years of it.

(5) In determining the material part of a person's average salary service, periods when the person was not in pensionable employment shall be disregarded and accordingly the period of 3 years referred to in paragraph (4) may be discontinuous.

(6) For the purposes of paragraphs (2), (3)(a) and (5) a person who is employed under a contract whereby that person is available for work but only undertakes (and accordingly is only paid for) work when, and for periods, requested by the employer is not treated as being in pensionable employment during periods when he is not undertaking work (whether or not such a person would be so treated apart from this paragraph).

(7) Subject to paragraphs (8) and (9), a person's full salary—

- (a) for a period falling within paragraph (3)(a), is his contributable salary for the period of pensionable employment, disregarding any reduction during sick leave or maternity leave,

- (c) for a period falling within paragraph (3)(c), is what would have been his salary for the purpose of calculating benefits under the pension scheme to which he was subject in the relevant employment.

(8) For—

- (a) a period of pensionable employment, or
- (b) a period counting as reckonable service by virtue of regulation D4, beginning after 31st July 1975 and ending before 1st August 1978, a person's full salary includes any sums that would have been payable to him if payment of them had not been withheld, whether by virtue of an enactment or otherwise, in order to comply with limits referred to in section 1 of the Remuneration, Charges and Grants Act 1975(25).

(9) For—

- (a) a period of pensionable employment, or
- (b) a period counting as reckonable service by virtue of regulation D4

beginning after 31st March 1979 and ending before 1st September 1980, a person's full salary is the notional salary resulting from the application to him of the Teachers' Superannuation (Notional Salaries) Regulations 1981(26).

(10) Where a person has during the material part of his average salary service spent any period in part-time employment the full salary for that period shall be the amount which it would have been if the employment had been full-time during that period.

(11) Subject to paragraph (12), where at any time during the material part of a person's average salary service a person has received an increase in his contributable salary such that—

A is the person's salary before the increase (or, in a case where the person has previously received an increase in salary such as is mentioned in this paragraph but no election under regulation G8 is made, the salary which the person is treated as receiving in accordance with the provision of this paragraph),

B is the person's salary after the increase, and

C is the standard increase of salary (expressed as a percentage),

(25) 1975 c. 57; section 1 was amended, and the period for which it had effect extended to end with 31st July 1978, by the Price Commission Act 1977 (c. 33), section 17; references to limits set out in documents laid before Parliament in 1976 and 1977 were added by S.I. 1976/1097, 1977/1294.

(26) S.I. 1981/934.

the person is treated as having received an increase in his contributable salary such that his salary after the increase is unless an election is made under regulation G8(3) to pay the additional contribution referred to in that regulation.

(12) Paragraph (11) does not apply—

- (a) in relation to a person who becomes entitled to the payment of retirement benefits by virtue of regulation E4(4),
- (b) for the purpose of calculating—
 - (i) a death grant under regulation E20, or
 - (ii) a pension payable under regulation E28 (spouses' and nominated beneficiaries' long-term pensions) or E29 (children's long-term pensions) in relation to a person who died while in pensionable employment, or
- (c) to any increase in contributable salary which was received while the person was employed by an employer other than the body which was the person's employer immediately before he became entitled to the payment of retirement benefits.

(13) For the purposes of paragraph (11), paragraph (12) and this paragraph—

- (a) where a person receives more than one increase in salary in a financial year the increases taken together shall be treated as one increase and accordingly, in paragraph (11), A is the person's salary before the first increase and B is the person's salary after the last increase;
- (b) a discretionary increase of salary is an increase received by a person to whom on the material date the 1991 Act applied which arises from—
 - (i) the person's promotion such that his salary is based on a different pay spine; or
 - (ii) the person being paid at the discretion of the body responsible for determining the person's salary at a higher point within the pay spine applicable to him;
- (c) the material date is the date on which the increase of salary took effect;
- (d) the standard increase of salary is—
 - (i) in the case of a person to whom on the material date the 1991 Act applied, the increase, if any, other than a discretionary increase of salary, that would have been received on the material date by the person in question in accordance with any order under section 2 of the 1991 Act for the time being in force or under any document referred to in such an order, had he not received the increase in salary referred to in paragraph (11) or, if he would have received no increase on that date in accordance with any such order or document, the next increase other than a discretionary increase of salary that would have been received by him in accordance with any such order or document;
 - (ii) In the case of a person to whom on the material date the 1991 Act does not apply, the average percentage of the increases, if any, that would have been received on the material date by persons ("the comparable employees") who were employed at the school or institution where the person in question was employed and whose circumstances corresponded most closely to those of that person or, if there were no comparable employees, by persons who were employed as teachers at that school or institution or, if the comparable employees or the persons so employed as teachers (as the case may be) would have received no increases on that date, the next increases they would have received;

- (e) where a body becomes a person's employer by virtue of any enactment regarding the transfer of staff or the transfer of rights and liabilities under a contract of employment that body and the person's previous employer shall be taken to be the same employer.

(14) Where an election under regulation G8 is made after the person becomes entitled to payment of retirement benefits the person is, until the date on which the election is received by the Secretary of State, entitled to retirement benefits calculated on the basis only of the contributable salary he is treated as receiving in the absence of such an election and accordingly as from the date on which the election is received by the Secretary of State the person becomes entitled to—

- (a) a lump sum payment equal to the difference between the retirement lump sum to which the person is entitled taking into account the election and the retirement lump sum previously paid to the person; and
- (b) a retirement pension taking into account the election.

Effective reckonable service

E32.—(1) A person's effective reckonable service is so much of his reckonable service as counts for the purpose of calculating a benefit under this Part, except a pension under regulation E26.

Payment of benefits

E33.—(1) Benefits under this Part are payable by the Secretary of State.

(2) No benefit is to be paid unless a written application for payment has been made and paragraph (3), if applicable, has been complied with.

(3) If the Secretary of State notifies him in writing that he so requires, the applicant is to provide any relevant information specified by the Secretary of State that is in his possession or that he can reasonably be expected to obtain.

(4) Subject to paragraphs (6) to (9), a benefit that does not consist of a single payment is to be paid monthly—

- (a) in the case of a family benefit, on the 28th of the month, and
- (b) in any other case, on the day before the birth date of the person entitled to payment, and the first payment under this paragraph is to be made on the first date referred to in subparagraph (a) or (b) which falls at least one month after the person's entitlement to benefit took effect.

(5) If a person was born on the 1st of a month, his birth date in any month is the 1st, and so on; in any month in which the date arrived at in that way does not occur, his birth date is the last day of the month.

(6) If—

- (a) the person's entitlement to payment of the benefit took effect, or
- (b) the benefit ceases to be payable,

on the day other than the day following the one specified in paragraph (4) (the "due date"), a proportionate payment is to be made for the relevant period as soon as practicable after the material date.

(7) The relevant period is—

- (a) where paragraph (6)(a) applies, the period beginning on the day on which the entitlement took effect and ending with the material date, and

(8) The material date is—

- (a) where paragraph (6)(a) applies, the due date immediately following the date on which the person's entitlement to benefit took effect, and
- (b) where paragraph (6)(b) applies, the day before the benefit ceased to be payable.

(9) A proportionate payment is a payment of $$\frac{A}{12} \times \frac{B}{C}$$

where—

A is the annual rate of the benefit,

B is the number of days in the relevant period, and

C is the number of days in the month ending with the material date.

(10) The Apportionment Act 1870⁽²⁹⁾ (being inconsistent with paragraphs (4) to (9)) is to be taken not to have effect in relation to benefits under this Part.

(11) If the person entitled to payment of a benefit has not attained the age of 18, or is incapable by reason of infirmity of mind or body of managing his affairs, the Secretary of State may—

- (a) pay it to any person having the care of the person entitled, or
- (b) apply it as he thinks fit for the benefit of the person entitled or his dependants.

Interest on late payment of certain benefits

E34.—(1) Where all or any part of the benefits payable under this Part, other than a pension payable under regulation E24, is not paid within one month of the due date, the Secretary of State shall pay to the person to whom the benefit is payable interest on the amount unpaid at the base rate for the time being quoted by the reference banks.

(2) The interest referred to in paragraph (1) shall be calculated on a day to day basis from the due date to the date of payment and compounded with three-monthly rests.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (1) the due date, where a benefit consists of a single payment, is—

- (a) the date on which the person becomes entitled to the benefit, where the benefit consists of a single payment other than a death grant referred to in paragraph (b), or
- (b) the day after the date on which the Secretary of State has become satisfied that the death grant may be paid under regulation E20 or E21, where the benefit is a death grant payable under either of those regulations.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (1) the due date, in a case where a benefit does not consist of a single payment, is—

- (a) the material date referred to in regulation E33(8) in the case of the payment referred to in regulation E33(6), or

(5) For the purposes of paragraph (1)—

- (a) “the base rate” means the rate for the time being quoted by the reference banks as applicable to sterling deposits or, where there is for the time being more than one such base rate, the rate which, when the base rate quoted by each bank is ranked in a descending sequence of four, is the first in the sequence; and
- (b) “the reference banks” means the four largest institutions for the time being which—
 - (i) are authorised by the Bank of England under the Banking Act 1987⁽³⁰⁾;

- (iii) quote a base rate applicable to sterling deposits.

Benefits not assignable

E35.—(1) Any assignment of or charge on or agreement to assign or charge any benefit under this Part is void.

(2) An allocation under regulation E11 is not an assignment, and an arrangement for the recovery by the Secretary of State of an overpayment does not constitute an assignment or an agreement to assign.

(3) Paragraph (1) shall not preclude any payment of benefit pursuant to an order of the court under section 25B or 25C of the Matrimonial Causes Act 1973⁽³¹⁾ or pursuant to regulations under section 25D of that Act.

(4) On the bankruptcy of a person entitled to a benefit under this Part, no part of the benefit passes to any trustee or other person acting on behalf of the creditors except in accordance with an income payments order made by a court under section 310 of the Insolvency Act 1986⁽³²⁾.

PART F TRANSFER VALUES

Payment of transfer values

F1.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) to (7), a transfer value is to be paid in respect of a person who has ceased to be in pensionable employment and has become subject to an approved pension scheme or, if he ceased to be in pensionable employment after 31st December 1985, a personal pension scheme (“the receiving scheme”).

(2) The person must have made a written application to the Secretary of State, within 12 months after the day on which he became subject to the receiving scheme, for the transfer value to be paid.

(3) A transfer value is not to be paid if one was paid before 3rd February 1998 in relation to the same transfer.

(4) A transfer value is not to be paid in respect of a person who, when the application was received, had become entitled under regulation E4 to payment of retirement benefits or under regulation E16 or E17 respectively to a short-service annuity or incapacity grant, unless the employment in which he has become subject to the receiving scheme is comparable British service and he entered it—

- (a) immediately after ceasing to be in pensionable employment, or
- (b) on or before his 60th birthday, and has not applied for payment of any benefit.

(5) A transfer value is not to be paid if the receiving scheme is an approved pension scheme which is administered wholly or primarily in the United Kingdom and is not a contracted-out scheme, unless the person—

- (a) has been in pensionable employment for less than 2 years or is not qualified for retirement benefits, or ⁽³¹⁾ 1973 c. 18; Sections 25B and 25C were inserted by Section 166 of the 1995 Act.

- (6) A transfer value is not to be paid if the person has acquired a right to a cash equivalent, unless—
- (a) the service to which the cash equivalent relates includes service before 1st September 1988, and
 - (b) the right has been exercised by requiring the whole of the cash equivalent to be paid to the scheme managers of an approved pension scheme which is not a club scheme.
- (7) A transfer value is not to be paid if the person—
- (a) has acquired a right to a part cash equivalent, and
 - (b) would on taking that right remain qualified for retirement benefits.

Amounts of transfer values and additional transfer values

F2.—(1) Part I of Schedule 12 has effect, subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), for determining the amounts of transfer values payable under regulation F1.

(2) Unless the receiving scheme is a club scheme, where—

- (a) the person in respect of whom a transfer value is payable had become entitled to count reckonable service under regulation F4(8) (acceptance of transfer value), and
- (b) the amount determined in accordance with Part I of Schedule 12, together with that of any cash equivalent paid on the transfer, is less than the appropriate amount, a transfer value of the appropriate amount is to be paid.

(3) The appropriate amount is

where—

A is the transfer value accepted under regulation F4,

B is the total of the contributions paid by the person under Part C, except any that fell to be treated for the purposes of regulation G2 as employers' contributions, and

C is any cash equivalent paid on the transfer.

F3. A person—

- (a) in respect of whom a transfer value has been paid under regulation F1, or
- (b) who has acquired a right to a cash equivalent and exercised the option to take that right, ceases to be entitled to count as reckonable service, or as part of a qualifying period within the meaning of regulation E3, any period to which the transfer value or cash equivalent related.

Acceptance of transfer values

F4.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) to (6), a transfer value offered to the Secretary of State by the scheme managers of—

- (a) an approved pension scheme, or
- (b) a personal pension scheme, or
- (c) a scheme consisting of a self-employed pension arrangement,

(“the previous scheme”), in respect of a person who has entered pensionable employment, may be accepted.

(2) In paragraph (1) “self-employed pension arrangement” means a personal pension scheme within the meaning of Chapter IV of Part XIV of the Taxes Act which—

- (a) is approved by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue under that Chapter, and
- (b) is neither a personal pension scheme nor a contract or scheme approved under Chapter III of Part XIV of the Taxes Act.

(3) The person must have made a written request to the Secretary of State for the transfer value to be accepted.

(4) Unless while the person was subject to the previous scheme he was employed in comparable British service, the request must have been made within 12 months after the day on which he entered pensionable employment.

(5) A transfer value is not to be accepted if one was accepted before 3rd February 1998 in relation to the same transfer.

(6) Subject to paragraph (7), a transfer value is not to be accepted if—

- (a) before he ceased to be subject to the previous scheme the person became entitled under regulation E4 to payment of retirement benefits, or
- (b) he has become entitled to payment of benefits under a provision of a statutory scheme corresponding to regulation E4.

(7) Paragraph (6) does not apply if, while the person was subject to the previous scheme, he was employed in comparable British service and he entered pensionable employment—

- (a) immediately after the end of the employment, or
- (b) on or before his 60th birthday.

(8) A person in respect of whom a transfer value has been accepted is entitled to count reckonable service in accordance with Part II of Schedule 12.

 - (b) so much of the contributions payable by services education officers under regulation C3(2) as falls within regulation C3(2)(a),
 - (c) so much of any additional contributions payable under regulation C9 and C10 as would have been payable under regulation C3(1) if pensionable employments had continued, and

- (3) Employers' contributions comprise—
- (a) the contributions payable under regulations G5, G6 and G8,
 - (b) so much of the contributions payable by services education officers under regulation C3(2) as falls within regulation C3(2)(b), and

 - (b) all transfer values accepted under regulation F4 and additional transfer values under regulation D6 of the 1988 regulations (which continues to have effect by virtue of paragraph 12 of Schedule 15 despite the revocation of the 1988 Regulations) received during the financial year,
 - (c) all contributions equivalent premiums refunded, or recovered under section 61 of the 1993 Act, during the financial year,
 - (d) any interest and other payments under these Regulations received during the financial year, and
 - (e) the notional investment income for the financial year on the balance in the account.
- (5) For the purposes of paragraph (4)(e), the notional investment income is an amount determined by the Government Actuary and derived by multiplying the balance on the account from time to time by the estimated percentage return (calculated over such period as the Government Actuary determines) on the total invested assets of relevant pension funds in the United Kingdom; and “relevant pension funds” means pension funds in excess of £1,000 million or such other sum as the Secretary of State may from time to time determine: provided that, in determining such an amount, the Government Actuary shall have regard to such information relating to such return on such assets as may be available to him from any organisation in the United Kingdom, designated by the Secretary of State, which compiles and publishes statistics relating to the assets of such funds.

Payments to be debited

- G3. There are to be debited to the account all sums paid during the financial year by way of—

 - (e) contributions equivalent premiums, and

- (f) increases payable under the Pensions (Increase) Act 1971(34).

Actuarial inquiries

G4. The Government Actuary shall make an actuarial inquiry reporting on the position in relation to the account as at the end of the financial year ending with 31st March 2001 and at the end of every fifth subsequent financial year (“the financial year in question”).

(2) The Government Actuary shall make a report on the inquiry to the Secretary of State as soon as practicable after the end of the financial year in question and the Secretary of State shall lay the report before each House of Parliament.

(3) The report is to specify the percentage of the contributable salaries of persons entering pensionable employment on the first day of the next financial year at which contributions should be paid, during the period beginning on 1st April next following the date of the report and ending with 31st March next following the date of the next report (“the relevant period”), so as to defray the cost of the payments of the kinds described in regulation G3(a) to (f) that are likely to be made in respect of them.

(4) The report is to state the amount by which, at the end of the financial year in question, the amount of the scheme assets exceeded or fell short of that of the scheme liabilities.

(5) The scheme assets are—

- (a) the value of the employees' contributions receivable after the end of the financial year in respect of persons who at the end of that year were or had been in pensionable employment,
- (b) the value of employers' contributions in respect of such persons receivable after the end of the financial year, except any such supplementary contributions as are mentioned in paragraph (7),
- (c) the value of payments that would fall to be credited under regulation G2(4)(d) and (e) to the accounts for subsequent financial years, and
- (d) the actuarial value at the end of the financial year in question of the balance in the account.

(6) The scheme liabilities are the payments to be made under these Regulations and in respect of pension increases under the Pensions (Increase) Act 1971 after the end of the financial year in question in respect of persons who at the end of that year were or had been in pensionable employment, except payments attributable to service before 1st June 1922.

(7) If the report states that the amount of the scheme liabilities exceeded that of the scheme assets, it is to specify a rate (expressed as a percentage) at which, during the relevant period, supplementary contributions should be paid by employers of persons in pensionable employment so as to remove the deficiency within the period of 15 years beginning on 1st April following the date of the report.

(8) If the report states that the amount of the scheme assets exceeded that of the scheme liabilities, it is to specify a rate (expressed as a percentage) at which, during the relevant period, the employers of persons in pensionable employment should receive a contribution rebate so as to remove the surplus within the period of 15 years beginning on 1st April following the date of the report.

(9) The rate referred to in paragraphs (7) and (8) is to be expressed as a percentage of the contributable salaries from time to time of persons in pensionable employment; the percentage must either be or be a multiple of 0.05.

(10) In this regulation “employees' contributions” and “employers' contributions” are to be construed in accordance with regulation G2(2) and (3) respectively.

Employers' contributions

G5.—(1) Subject to paragraph (3), the employer of a person in pensionable employment, other than a services education officer, is during every relevant period to pay contributions of the required percentage of his contributable salary for the time being.

(2) The required percentage for every relevant period beginning with the relevant period starting on the 1st April next following the date of the first report made under regulation G4, is

or, if the result would be less than zero, zero, where—

A is the percentage specified for the relevant period under regulation G4(3),

B is any percentage specified for the relevant period under regulation G4(7) and (9); and

C is any percentage specified for the relevant period under regulation G4(8) and (9).

(3) Paragraph 9 of Schedule 15 has effect for the purpose of determining the required percentage for relevant periods before that referred to in paragraph (2) above.

(4) No contributions are to be paid in respect of any person to whom regulation E32(2)(a) (restriction of reckonable service to 45 years) has become applicable.

(5) For the purposes of this regulation—

(a) a local education authority is deemed to be the employer of every person employed in or in connection with a school maintained by it, other than of a person who is in the employment of an employment business, and

(b) “relevant period” is to be construed in accordance with regulation G4(3).

(6) In this regulation “employment business” has the meaning assigned to it by section 13(3) of the Employment Agencies Act 1973(35).

Employers' contributions—employees' elections under regulation C2

G6.—(1) In this regulation “employer A”, “employer B” and “employer C” have the same meaning as in regulation C2(1)(b) and (6)(c).

(2) Where a person who falls within regulation C2(1)(a) has made an election under regulation C2(1) the person’s employer may elect that the contribution deficit, or such part of it as is specified in the election, is to be paid by that employer.

(3) Where a person who falls within regulation C2(1)(b) has made an election under regulation C2(1) either employer A or employer B may elect that the contribution deficit, or such part of it as is specified in the election, is to be paid by employer A or employer B as the case may be.

(4) Where a person who has made an election under regulation C2(1) ceases to be in pensionable employment in circumstances where—

(a) his election continues to have effect by virtue of regulation C2(6)(c)(ii), and

(b) an election has been made under paragraph (2), or under paragraph (3) by employer B, but

(c) the employer who made the election does not confirm it under paragraph (7)(a)(ii), employer C may elect that the contribution deficit, or such part of it as is specified in the election, is to be paid by employer C.

(5) In paragraphs (2) and (3) “the contribution deficit” means contributions of the required percentage of the difference between the person’s actual contributable salary and his contributable salary at the rate referred to in regulation C2(4).

(35) 1973 c. 35.

- (6) An election for the purposes of paragraphs (2), (3) or (4)—
- (a) must be made by giving written notice to the Secretary of State,
 - (b) has effect—
 - (i) in the case of an election under paragraph (2) or (3), from the date on which the employee’s election under regulation C2(1) has effect, or from the end of the month in which the election was made whichever is the later, and
 - (ii) in the case of an election under paragraph (4), from the date on which the person takes up employment with employer C or from the end of the month in which the election was made whichever is the later, and
 - (c) shall state whether the employer elects to pay the whole of the contribution deficit or a proportion of it and if so what that proportion is, and
 - (d) is irrevocable.
- (7) An election made under paragraph (2), under paragraph (3) by employer B or under paragraph (4) ceases to have effect—
- (a) in the case of an election under paragraph (2) or (3), if the person ceases to be employed by the employer who made the election unless—
 - (i) the person elects to pay additional contributions under regulation C10, or
 - (ii) by virtue of regulation C2(6)(c)(ii) the person’s election does not cease to have effect and the employer confirms the election before the date on which the person takes up employment with the new employer, and
 - (b) in the case of an election under paragraph (4) if the person ceases to be employed by the person who made the election unless he elects to pay additional contributions under regulation C10.
- (8) An election made under paragraph (3) by employer A ceases to have effect if the person ceases to be in pensionable employment unless he—
- (a) elects to pay additional contributions under regulation C10, or
 - (b) takes up pensionable employment with another employer within 6 months of ceasing to be in pensionable employment.
- (9) Where, in relation to a person who falls within regulation C2(1)(b)—
- (a) there are at any time elections by both employer A and employer B, or as the case may be both employer A and employer C; and
 - (b) if both elections were fully effective their combined effect would be that more than the contribution deficit would be paid to the Secretary of State,
- the election by employer B or as the case may be, employer C shall have full effect but the election by employer A shall have effect only to the extent of the difference (if any) between the contribution deficit and the amount which is the subject of the election by employer B or employer C.

Payment by employers to Secretary of State

- G7.—(1) The employer of a person in pensionable employment is to pay to the Secretary of State, within 7 days after the end of each month—
- (a) all amounts due from the person that are deductible from his salary under regulation C18(1),
 - (b) the contributions payable under regulation G5, and
 - (c) the contributions payable in pursuance of an election under regulation G6,
- in respect of his contributable salary for that month.

(2) The former employer of a person in pensionable employment who has made an election under regulation G6(3) (referred to in regulations C2(1)(6) and G6 as “employer A”) is to pay to the Secretary of State within 7 days after the end of each month the contributions in pursuance of the election.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (1)—

- (a) all salaries are to be treated as being payable monthly in arrears, and
- (b) any arrears payable by reason of a retrospective increase in contributable salary are to be treated as having become payable in the month in which they were paid.

(4) If the full amount of any payment required by paragraph (1) or (2) is not received by the Secretary of State within 7 days after the end of the month, interest is payable by the employer or the former employer on the amount outstanding at 12% per annum, compounded with monthly rests, from the 8th day to the date of payment; but the Secretary of State may in any particular case waive the payment of interest.

Employers' additional contributions

G8.—(1) Where an employer has elected under regulation C4(3) to pay additional contributions in respect of a person, payment to the Secretary of State of the lump sum referred to in paragraph 13(1) of Schedule 4 shall be made within the period referred to in paragraph 13(2) of that Schedule.

(2) Where a person receives an increase in contributable salary as is mentioned in regulation E31(11), the person’s last employer before he became entitled to payment of retirement benefits (“the former employer”) may make an election under paragraph (3).

(3) An election under this paragraph is an election to pay an additional contribution of

where—

A is the actuarial value of the retirement benefits to which the person would be entitled calculated by reference to the salary he received,

B is the actuarial value of the retirement benefits to which the person would be entitled if he was treated as receiving the increase in his contributable salary referred to in regulation E31(11), and

C is the aggregate of contributions which would be repaid under regulation H6 if no election had been made.

(4) An election under paragraph (3) may be made by giving written notice to the Secretary of State no later than six weeks after the date on which the person became entitled to payment of retirement benefits.

(5) Where an election is made under paragraph (3) the payment to the Secretary of State under the election shall be made within 14 days after the date of the election.

(6) If the full amount of payment under the election under paragraph (3) is not received by the end of the period referred to in paragraph (5), interest is payable by the former employer on the amount outstanding at 12% per annum compounded with monthly rests from the day after the end of the period referred to in paragraph (5) to the date of payment.

(2) A person's adjusted age—

- (a) if the person has continued in pensionable employment since the start of his first such employment and has not been credited with reckonable service on the acceptance of a transfer value in respect of comparable British service, is his age at the start of his first pensionable employment, and
- (b) in any other case, is

C is the person's age at the start of his most recent pensionable employment, and
D is the total of the time he had then spent in pensionable employment and the length of any reckonable service with which he has been credited on the acceptance of a transfer value in respect of comparable British service.

2.—(1) This paragraph applies to a person who—

 - (b) where the election is made after the person has attained the age of 60, are those resulting from the assumptions that he ceased to be in pensionable employment on his 60th birthday and then became entitled to retirement benefits.

(2) Where this paragraph applies, any right to elect to make a lump sum payment may be exercised only to the extent that it does not result in the addition to the service that the person would otherwise have been entitled to count as reckonable service of more than

where—

A is the longest period in respect of which he could have elected to pay the additional contributions,

B is the length of his reckonable service, excluding any past period reckonable by virtue of additional contributions, when he ceased to be in full-time pensionable employment,

4.—(1) At any time during the contribution period the person may, subject to paragraph 2, by giving written notice to the Secretary of State elect to shorten it or, if he has already made one or more such elections, to shorten it further.

(2) An election under this paragraph—

- (a) has effect only if the Secretary of State notifies the person in writing that it has been accepted, and
- (b) on acceptance, has effect as from the first day of the month following the date of its acceptance by the Secretary of State (“the effective date”).

(3) From the effective date Table 1 in paragraph 3 applies with the substitution—

- (a) for the person’s age at the date of the principal election, of his age at the date when notice of the election under this paragraph was given,
- (b) for the number of years in the contribution period, of the number of years after the effective date in the shortened period, and for the number of years in the past period, there shall be substituted that number multiplied by

where—

C is the number of years in the past period,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

D is the number of years in the contribution period up to the effective date, and E is the number of years in the contribution period.

5.—(1) At any time during the contribution period the person may by giving written notice to the Secretary of State elect to reduce the rate at which the additional contributions are payable.

- (2) An election under this paragraph is to specify whether the reduced rate is to be paid—
 - (a) in respect of the balance of the contribution period, specified in the principal election, after the election under this paragraph has effect in accordance with sub-paragraph (3), or
 - (b) for a particular period, specified in the election, extending beyond the contribution period during which additional contributions were to be paid in respect of the past period specified in the principal election.
- (3) An election under this paragraph—
 - (a) has effect only if the Secretary of State notifies the person in writing that it has been accepted, and
 - (b) on acceptance, has effect as from the first day of the month following the date of its acceptance by the Secretary of State.
- (4) Calculations relating to any change in the amount of reckonable service to which the person will become entitled, or to any change in the contribution period, resulting from an election under the paragraph shall be made on an actuarial basis.

6.—(1) Where—

- (a) the person is in pensionable employment at the end of the contribution period,
- (b) the principal election has not ceased to have effect under paragraph 7, and
- (c) at any time during the contribution period the person has been in part-time pensionable employment

he may, at any time before he becomes entitled to payment of retirement benefits, by giving written notice to the Secretary of State elect to make an additional lump sum contribution determined in accordance with sub-paragraph (2) (so that paragraph 2 of Schedule 7 shall apply).

(2) The additional lump sum contribution referred to in this paragraph is such sum as would be payable under Part II of this Schedule in order to count as reckonable service a period equivalent to the difference between the length of reckonable service arising from the contribution period and the length of such service if the person had been in full-time employment throughout the contribution period.

7.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), if the person—

- (a) before the end of the contribution period ceases to be in pensionable employment, and
- (b) does not again enter pensionable employment within one month and before becoming entitled to retirement benefits, the principal election ceases to have effect.

- (2) Unless the person receives a repayment of contributions under regulation C12, he may—
 - (a) if he became entitled to payment of retirement benefits on ceasing to hold his employment, on or after applying for them and before receiving a retirement lump sum, or
 - (b) in any other case, within 3 months after the end of his employment, by giving written notice to the Secretary of State make an election under paragraph 8 or 9.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(3) If the payment referred to in paragraph 8, or, as the case may be, paragraph 9 is not made within the period allowed in sub-paragraph (2) for making the election the election shall cease to have effect.

8.—(1) An election under this paragraph may be made when the person has been in full-time pensionable employment throughout the contribution period.

(2) An election under this paragraph is an election to complete the payment of additional contributions (so that paragraph 2 of Schedule 7 shall apply) by making a lump sum payment which shall be determined in accordance with sub-paragraphs (3), (4) or (6) as the case may be.

(3) Where he had not attained the age of 60 when he ceased to hold his employment, the amount of the payment is, subject to sub-paragraph (4) and to paragraph 3 of Schedule 3, the actuarial equivalent, when the employment ended, of the additional contributions that would have been payable for the remainder of the contribution period.

(4) Subject to sub-paragraph (5) where—

(a) when the person ceased to hold his employment he had become incapacitated and had not attained the age of 60, and

(b) he would have attained that age before the end of the contribution period,

the amount of the payment is, subject to paragraph 3 of Schedule 3, the actuarial equivalent, when the employment ended, of the additional contributions that would have been payable after he attained that age.

(5) Sub-paragraph (4) does not apply in a case where the declaration required by regulation C4(7) (d) was not made in good faith.

(6) Where the person had attained the age of 60 when he ceased to hold his employment, the amount of the payment is, subject to paragraph 3 of Schedule 3,

E x F,

where—

E is the amount of the additional contributions for one year at the rate at which they were last payable, and

F is the multiplier ascertained from, or where the remainder of the contribution period is not an exact number of years, by extrapolation from, Table 2 below.

9.—(1) An election under this paragraph may be made where the person has been in part-time pensionable employment at any time during the contribution period.

(2) An election under this paragraph may be—

- (a) an election to make a payment such that the person will be entitled to count as reckonable service the number of years which he would have been entitled to count if he had been in full-time pensionable employment throughout such of the contribution period as had elapsed before he ceased to be in pensionable employment (so that paragraph 3 of Schedule 7 will apply accordingly);
- (b) an election to complete payment of additional contributions as if he had been in full-time pensionable employment from the date on which he ceased to be in pensionable employment to the end of the contribution period (so that paragraph 3 of Schedule 7 will apply accordingly); or
- (c) an election to complete payment of additional contributions as if he had been in full-time pensionable employment throughout the contribution period (so that paragraph 2 of Schedule 7 will apply accordingly);

in each case by making a lump sum payment.

(3) Where the election is made under sub-paragraph (2)(a), the amount of the lump sum payment shall be such amount as would be payable under Part II of this Schedule in order to count as reckonable service the difference between the length of reckonable service arising from such of the contribution period as had elapsed before the person ceased to be in pensionable employment and the length of such service if the person had been in full-time pensionable employment throughout that period.

(4) Where an election is made under sub-paragraph (2)(b), the amount of the lump sum payment is one of the following amounts as appropriate—

- (a) the amount referred to in paragraph 8(3) on the assumption that the person would have been in full-time pensionable employment for the remainder of the contribution period;
- (b) the amount referred to in paragraph 8(4) on the assumption that the person would have been in full-time employment during such part of the contribution period as would have fallen after he attained the age of 60; or
- (c) the amount referred to in paragraph 8(6) modified (in a case where the person was employed in part-time employment immediately before he ceased to be in pensionable employment) such that in place of the definition of E there is substituted the following definition—

“E is the amount of the additional contributions for one year at the rate at which they would have been last payable on the assumption that the person would have been in full-time pensionable employment”.

(5) Where an election is made under sub-paragraph (2)(c), the amount of the lump sum payment is the aggregate of the amounts referred to in sub-paragraphs (3) and (4).

(6) An election under this paragraph shall state whether it is an election under paragraph (a) under paragraph (b) or under paragraph (c) of sub-paragraph (2).

10. Where paragraph 7 has become applicable and the person is entitled to a retirement lump sum which is smaller than the payment he could elect to make under that paragraph, he may instead elect, in the same way and during the same period, to make a payment under this paragraph of a lump sum equal to the retirement lump sum (so that paragraph 7 of Schedule 7 will apply accordingly).

11. Any retirement lump sum to which the person is entitled may, subject to paragraph 12(2)(d), be set off in whole or in part against any payment to be made under paragraph 8, 9 or 10.

12.—(1) This paragraph applies—

- (a) where paragraph 7 has become applicable because the person died while in pensionable employment, or
- (b) where he dies within 3 months after ceasing to be in pensionable employment without having made an election under paragraph 8 or 9, and another person (“the pensioner”) is entitled under regulation E26 to a long-term pension in respect of him.

(2) Where this paragraph applies—

- (a) the person is to be treated as having ceased to hold the employment when incapacitated,
- (b) any election that could have been made under paragraph 8 or 9 may, within 3 months after the death, be made by the pensioner, or in the case of a child by a person acting on his behalf,
- (c) if any payment due by virtue of such an election is not made within 3 months after the death the election ceases to have effect, and
- (d) a terminal sum may be set off against such a payment only to the extent that the person entitled to it consents.

PART II

METHOD B

13.—(1) Subject to paragraphs 14 to 16, the additional contributions consist of a lump sum of $A \times B \times C$,

where—

A is the length of the past period (that is to say, the period specified under regulation C4 (7) (a) or (8)(b)), expressed in years and any fraction of a year,

B is the annual rate of the person’s contributable salary at the date on which notice of the election was given, and

C is the percentage ascertained from Table 3 below.

15. Where notice of the election was given on or after applying for payment of retirement benefits, paragraph 13 has effect with the substitution as “B” of the person’s average salary.

16. Where notice of the election was given when the person was in part-time employment, the references in paragraphs 13 and 14 to contributable salary are to be construed as references to that which would have been payable if the person had at all material times been in comparable full-time employment.

SCHEDULE 5

Regulation C6

ADDITIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS FOR PAST PERIOD UNDER EARLIER PROVISIONS

1.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) to (5) and paragraphs 2, 3 and 4, where immediately before 3rd February 1998 contributions remained to be paid under regulation 26 of the 1976 Regulations (contributions payable by “Method I”), they are to continue to be paid at the rate at which, and until the end of the period during which, they were then payable; and during any period of contribution for a current period under regulation C9 or C10 they are to be paid direct to the Secretary of State.

(2) Subject to sub-paragraphs (3) to (5), the person paying the contributions may at any time elect to pay them at a higher rate.

(3) The higher rate must be an integral percentage, not in any case exceeding 9, of the person’s contributable salary.

(4) If he is paying other additional contributions under Part C, or towards the provision of a pension otherwise than under these Regulations, sub-paragraph (3) has effect with the substitution for “9” of the number obtained by deducting from 9 the percentage rate of those other contributions.

(5) An election under this paragraph—

(a) must be made by giving written notice to the Secretary of State, and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(b) has effect only if the Secretary of State notifies the person in writing that it has been accepted and, if the Secretary of State does so, has effect from the beginning of the month following the month in which he gives such notification.

2. Where an election has been made under paragraph 1, the period during which the contributions are to be paid is shortened to the same extent as it would have been if they had continued to be payable under regulation 26 of the 1976 Regulations.

3. If, before all the contributions payable under paragraph 1 or 2 have been paid, the person ceases to be in full-time pensionable employment or dies in such employment, paragraphs 7, 8 (except subparagraph (5)), and 10 to 12 of Schedule 4 (election to pay a lump sum etc.) and paragraphs 2(b), 3(b), 4 and 7 of Schedule 7 (reckonable service) apply as if the contributions had been payable under regulation C4, but with the substitution for Table 2 in paragraph 8(6) of Schedule 4 of the Table below.

4.—(1) A person may elect, by giving written notice to the Secretary of State, to cease to pay contributions payable by Method 1 but, in the case of such election being made, any additional contributions paid up to that time are not to be refunded.

(2) An election under this paragraph has effect only if the Secretary of State notifies the person in writing that it has been accepted.

5.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2) and paragraph 6, where immediately before 3rd February 1998 contributions remained to be paid under regulation 28 of the 1976 Regulations (contributions payable by “Method 3”), they are to continue to be paid until the end of the period for which they were then payable (“the contribution period”).

- (2) The contributions are to be paid only while the person—
- (a) is in full-time pensionable employment, or
 - (b) is paying additional contributions for a current period under regulation C9 or C10.

6.—(1) If before the end of the contribution period the contributions payable under paragraph 5 cease to be payable otherwise than by reason of the person's—

- (a) dying, or
- (b) becoming incapacitated before attaining the age of 60, he may by giving written notice to the Secretary of State within 3 months after the cessation elect to complete payment of the additional contributions by making a lump sum payment under this paragraph.

(2) Subject to paragraph 3 of Schedule 3, the amount of the payment is the total of the contributions that would have been payable for the remainder of the contribution period.

(3) A lump sum payable under this paragraph may, if he agrees, be set off against any retirement lump sum to which the person is entitled.

7. Where immediately before 3rd February 1998 contributions remained to be paid by virtue of regulation 29 of the 1976 Regulations (certain contributions first paid before 1973), they are to continue to be paid as if the 1976 Regulations had not been revoked by the 1988 Regulations.

8. Where immediately before 3rd February 1998 contributions remained to be paid under Part III of Schedule 4 to the 1988 Regulations (contributions payable by Method C) pursuant to an election under regulation C3(2)(c) of the 1988 Regulations made before 1st October 1996 they are to continue to be paid until the end of the period for which they were then payable.

9.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) and (3), if a person who has made an election under regulation C3(2)(c) of the 1988 Regulations—

- (a) before the end of the contribution period ceases to be in full-time pensionable employment, and
- (b) does not again enter such employment within one month and before becoming entitled to payment of retirement benefits, the election under regulation C3(2)(c) of the 1988 Regulations ceases to have effect.

(2) Unless he received a repayment of contributions under regulation C12, the person may by giving written notice to the Secretary of State within 3 months after the end of his employment elect to complete payment of the additional contributions so that paragraph 2 of Schedule 7 shall apply by making a lump sum payment under this paragraph.

(3) The amount of the payment is, subject to paragraph 3 of Schedule 3, the actuarial equivalent, when the employment ended, of the additional contributions that would have been payable for the remainder of the contribution period.

(4) If the payment is not made within 3 months after the end of the person's employment the election ceases to have effect.

where—

A is the member’s average salary,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

A is the annual rate at which the man’s contributable salary was last payable,

B is the length, expressed in years and any fraction of a year, of the period in respect of which the election was made, and

(2) Where this paragraph applies the widow may, subject to sub-paragraph (3), elect to pay family benefit contributions in respect of a period comprising all or part of so much of the deceased’s reckonable service as would otherwise not count in the calculation of family benefits.

(3) An election under this paragraph—

- (a) must be made by giving written notice to the Secretary of State within 3 months after the death,
- (b) must specify the period in respect of which it is made,

- (4) The family benefit contributions payable as a result of an election under this paragraph consist of a lump sum which is the actuarial equivalent of the contributions that would have been payable by the deceased if—
 - (a) he had made an election under paragraph 3, or, as the case may be, paragraph 4, in respect of the same period, and
 - (b) notice of that election had been given on the day before his death and had specified as the rate at which family benefit contributions were to be paid the maximum allowed by paragraph 14(2) and (3).

CONTRIBUTIONS: MARRIED WOMEN

10.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (3) and paragraph 11, a woman in relation to whom the election conditions are satisfied may elect to pay family benefit contributions in respect of the whole or a part of any reckonable service attributable to a period—

- (a) that ended before 1st April 1972, or
- (b) for which contributions have been paid under regulation C4, C6, C9 or C10, or attributable to the acceptance before 6th April 1988 of a transfer value.

(2) Subject to sub-paragraph (3) and paragraph 11, a woman in relation to whom the election conditions are satisfied may elect to pay family benefit contributions in respect of the whole or a part of any reckonable service not falling within sub-paragraph (1) which is attributable to a period that—

- (a) began after 31st March 1972 and ended before 6th April 1988, and
- (b) would otherwise not count in calculating any pension becoming payable to her widower.

(3) Where an election is made in respect of a part only of any service, the part must consist of one or more whole years.

(4) The election conditions are that she is married, and either—

- (a) is in pensionable employment, or
- (b) ceased after 5th April 1988 and before 1st April 1989 to be in such employment and immediately became entitled to payment of retirement benefits.

11.—(1) An election under paragraph 10(1) or (2)—

- (a) must be made by giving written notice to the Secretary of State within the period specified in sub-paragraphs (2) to (4),
- (b) must specify the period in respect of which it is made,
- (c) must state whether the contributions are to be paid by Method A (periodical payments) or by Method B (lump sum),
- (d) if the contributions are to be paid by Method A, must specify the rate at which they are to be paid, which must comply with paragraph 14(2) and (3),
- (e) has effect from the date on which the notice is received by the Secretary of State, and
- (f) except as provided in paragraph 14(4), is irrevocable.

(2) Where a woman’s pensionable employment is part-time, the reference in sub-paragraph (1) (d) to the rate at which contributions are to be paid is a reference to the rate as a percentage of the woman’s full-time equivalent salary.

(3) The period within which an election may be made is one of 6 months beginning on the relevant date.

(4) Where paragraph 10(4)(b) applies, the relevant date is 1st October 1988; in any other case, subject to sub-paragraph (5), the relevant date is the first date after 30th September 1988 on which the election conditions were or are satisfied.

(5) If during the period of 6 months beginning on that first date the election conditions ceased or cease to be satisfied, the relevant date becomes the first date on which they were or are again satisfied.

(6) A woman who could make an election under paragraph 10(2) may only make one under paragraph 10(1) if, and at the same time as, she elects under paragraph 10(2) to pay family benefit contributions in respect of the whole of the reckonable service there mentioned.

(7) Where elections are made both under paragraph 10(1) and under paragraph 10(2) they must specify the same method of payment.

(8) Payment may not in any case be made by Method A if—

- (a) the payment period would be less than one year, or
- (b) the woman is not in pensionable employment.

12.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), where payment is to be made by Method A the payment period is to be ascertained from, or, where the period in respect of which the election was made is not an exact number of years, by extrapolation from, Table 5 below.

Rate of Contributions	Period in years for which contributions are to be paid in respect of each year of period specified in election

7%	0.18	0.06
9%	0.14	0.04

(2) If the period ascertained in accordance with sub-paragraph (1) (“the Table period”) does not end with the last day of a month, the payment period ends with the last day of the month in which the Table period ends.

(3) Where payment is to be made by Method B, the lump sum payable, which must be paid within 3 months after its amount is notified by the Secretary of State, is—

- (a) for each year of service in respect of which an election was made under paragraph 10(1), 1.25%, and
- (b) for each year of service in respect of which an election was made under paragraph 10(2), 0.4%, of the appropriate amount, and pro rata for any period of less than a year.

- (4) The appropriate amount is—
 - (a) where the woman was in pensionable employment when the election took effect, the annual rate of her contributable salary at that time, and
 - (b) in any other case, her average salary.

13.—(1) The widower of a woman who—

- (a) died during the period beginning on 6th April 1988 and ending with 31st March 1989 without having made an election under paragraph 10, and
- (b) either was in pensionable employment when she died or had ceased during that period to be in such employment, may make a corresponding election under this paragraph.

- (2) A married woman who—
 - (a) ceased to be in pensionable employment during the period mentioned in sub-paragraph (1), and
 - (b) on ceasing to be in such employment did not immediately become entitled to payment of retirement benefits, may make a corresponding election under this paragraph if the conditions in sub-paragraph (3) are satisfied.

- (3) The conditions referred to in sub-paragraph (2) are that—
 - (a) the woman did not again enter pensionable employment, and
 - (b) she has become entitled to payment of retirement benefits.

(4) Where a woman to whom sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) would otherwise have applied dies before becoming entitled to payment of retirement benefits, her widower may make a corresponding election under this paragraph.

- (5) An election under this paragraph—
 - (a) must be made by giving written notice to the Secretary of State within the appropriate period,
 - (b) must specify the period in respect of which it is made, and
 - (c) is to be treated as an election to make payment by Method B.

- (6) The appropriate period referred to in sub-paragraph (5)(a) is—
 - (a) where sub-paragraph (1) applies, the period beginning on 1st October 1988 and ending with 31st March 1989,
 - (b) where sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) apply, 6 months from the date on which the woman became entitled to payment of retirement benefits, and
 - (c) where sub-paragraph (4) applies, 3 months from the date of her death.

PART III

CONTRIBUTIONS: COMMON PROVISIONS

14.—(1) This paragraph applies where—

- (a) an election is made under paragraph 3 or 4, or
- (b) an election is made under paragraph 10 to pay family benefit contributions by Method A.

(2) The rate at which family benefit contributions are to be paid, and any higher rate substituted by an election under sub-paragraph (4), must be an integral percentage, not in any case exceeding 9, of the person's contributable salary.

(3) In the case of a person who is paying additional contributions under regulation C4 or C6, or towards the provision of a pension otherwise than under these Regulations, sub-paragraph (2) has effect with the substitution for "9" of the number obtained by deducting from 9 the percentage rate of those contributions.

(4) The election may at any time be varied by an election to pay the family benefit contributions at a specified higher rate.

(5) An election under sub-paragraph (4) must be made by giving written notice to the Secretary of State, and has effect from the first day of the month following that in which the notice is received by him.

(6) The payment period begins on the first day of the month following that in which it is notified to the person by the Secretary of State.

(7) If after the start of the payment period there is an interval of more than 30 days during which the person is not in pensionable employment or paying additional contributions under regulation C9 or C10—

- (a) the interval is not part of the payment period, but
- (b) the end of the payment period is postponed by the length of the interval.

(8) If after the start of the payment period the person becomes employed in part-time pensionable employment, the length of the payment period is increased by so much of the period of part-time employment as does not count as reckonable service.

(9) If the original election is varied by one made under sub-paragraph (4) ("the further election") a new payment period begins on the effective date of the further election and the length of the new payment period is

where—

A is what the length of the payment period would have been if the increased rate had been specified in the original election,

B is the rate specified in the original election,

C is the increased rate, and

D is the period from the start of the payment period to the effective date of the further election.

(10) The contributions—

- (a) are payable from the start of the payment period,
- (b) continue to be payable while the person is in pensionable employment or paying additional contributions under regulation C9 or C10, and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (c) cease to be payable if he dies or becomes entitled to retirement benefits before the end of the payment period.

15.—(1) This paragraph—

- (a) applies where family benefit contributions to which paragraph 14 applies cease to be payable before the end of the payment period, and
- (b) has effect subject to paragraph 16.

(2) Where the person paying the contributions dies before attaining the age of 60, or (whether or not he later re-enters pensionable employment) becomes entitled to payment of retirement benefits by virtue of regulation E4(4) (incapacity)—

- (a) contributions are to be treated as having been paid in respect of the whole of the period in respect of which the election was made, but
- (b) if part of the payment period falls after his 60th birthday, the actuarial equivalent of the contributions that would have been payable during that part is to be deducted from the appropriate terminal sum.

(3) Where the person dies, or becomes entitled to payment of retirement benefits, after attaining the age of 60—

- (a) contributions are to be treated as having been paid in respect of the whole of the period in respect of which the election was made, but
- (b) there is to be deducted from the appropriate terminal sum an amount of

A is the annual rate at which his contributable salary was last payable,

B is the rate at which the contributions were last payable, and

C is the multiplier ascertained from, or, if the remainder of the payment period is not an exact number of years, by extrapolation from, Table 6 below.

(4) Where the person becomes entitled to payment of retirement benefits by virtue of regulation E4(5) (redundancy, etc.)—

- (a) he may, by giving written notice to the Secretary of State within 3 months after the end of his pensionable employment, elect to pay a lump sum which is the actuarial equivalent of the contributions that would have been payable during the remainder of the payment period,
- (b) if he does so elect, on payment of the lump sum, contributions are to be treated as having been paid in respect of the whole of the period in respect of which the original election was made, and
- (c) if he does not so elect, contributions are to be treated as having been paid in respect of

$$D \times \frac{E}{F},$$

where—

- D is the period in respect of which the original election was made,
- E is the period during which contributions were paid, and
- F is the payment period.

16. Where—

- (b) there is then a retrospective increase in the person's contributable salary, and
- (c) the consequent recalculation of the amount of the deduction or lump sum and of the appropriate terminal sum results in a greater increase in the amount of the deduction or lump sum than in the terminal sum, the person, or, as the case may be, his widow or widower or a beneficiary nominated under regulation E23, may notify the Secretary of State in writing that the amount of the deduction made or lump sum payable is not to be increased.

- (a) in relation to a retired teacher to whom this paragraph applies by virtue of sub-paragraph (1)(a), the date which was in relation to him the date of modification for the purposes of the Modification Regulations, and
- (b) in relation to a retired teacher to whom this paragraph applies by virtue of sub-paragraph (1)(b), the first day of the month next following that in which the election mentioned in that sub-paragraph was made.

(4) In the case of a retired teacher—

- (a) who was last in pensionable employment before 1st April 1980, and
- (b) whose retirement pension is one to which he became entitled by virtue of regulation E4(3) or (4), any additional period of reckonable service taken into account under regulation E8(2) is deemed for the purposes of sub-paragraph(2) to be such service as is there mentioned.

4. For the purposes of paragraphs 2 and 3 the reckonable service of a retired teacher is his effective reckonable service.

5. If, in calculating the amount of a retirement pension, there is taken into account any period of employment after 2nd April 1961 and before 6th April 1975 which was not non-participating employment the pension is, except as provided in paragraphs 7 and 8, reduced, for each year of such period, and proportionately for part of a year, by the appropriate amount specified in Table 2 below.

7. Where—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (a) a period of employment of a retired teacher which was not non-participating employment or in respect of which a payment in lieu of contributions had been made is treated as reckonable service by virtue of interchange provisions, and
- (b) the Secretary of State is informed of the amount by which his pension under the pension scheme applicable to him before interchange provisions applied to him would have been reduced in respect of that period by reason of graduated retirement benefit payable under the Act or of the method of calculating such reduction, the retirement pension in respect of that period is reduced by that amount or by an amount calculated in accordance with that method, as the case may be, and no reduction, is to be made under paragraph 5 or 6 in respect of that period.

8. No reduction in the amount of a retirement pension is to be made under paragraph 5 or 6 in respect of any period which is reckonable service by virtue of regulation D3 or D4 or of regulations under section 1 of the Superannuation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1948(70) (employment in national service).

9. A retirement pension payable to a part-time teacher, so far as it is attributable to any part-time service which was non-participating employment within the meaning of the Act (exclusive of any period of such employment in respect of which a payment in lieu of contributions has been made), is not to be less than the amount required to constitute the benefits in respect of that service equivalent pension benefits.

10.—(1) An annual pension in respect of any such service as is mentioned in paragraph 9 is to be paid to a part-time teacher to whom no retirement pension is payable under regulation E4 if he is in pensionable employment on attaining state pensionable age.

(2) A pension under this paragraph is of the amount required to constitute the benefits in respect of the service equivalent pension benefits and is payable from the day following that on which the part-time teacher ceases to be in pensionable employment or in employment which would, if he had not attained the age of 70, be pensionable employment.

(3) Regulation E33(2) (application for payment) applies in relation to a pension payable under this paragraph.

11. A part-time teacher to whom paragraph 10 applies is entitled to be paid a sum equal to the balance of his contributions computed as at the date of repayment in accordance with regulation C13 reduced by half the actuarial value of the pension payable to him under paragraph 10.

12.—(1) Any person who was employed in non-participating employment and attains state pensionable age is to be paid by way of equivalent pension benefits a sum equal to the actuarial value of a retirement pension at the following rate for each year of reckonable service—

	Man	Woman
during the period from 3rd April 1961 to 5th January 1964	£2.31	£1.92
during the period from 6th January 1964 to 5th April 1975	£3.48	£2.90

but excluding any period of such employment in respect of which—

- (a) a payment in lieu of contributions has been made, or
- (b) any retirement benefits are payable under regulation E4.

(70) 1948 c. 33.

(2) If on attaining state pensionable age he is still in pensionable employment payment is to be deferred until he ceases to be in pensionable employment, or in employment which would be pensionable employment if he had not attained the age of 70.

(3) Regulation E33(2) (application for payment) applies in relation to a sum payable under this paragraph.

PART II

EMPLOYMENT AT REDUCED SALARY

13. Subject to paragraphs 14 to 19, these Regulations apply as if the person had been one person in relation to pensionable employment (“the earlier employment”) up to the end of his employment at the previous rate and a separate person in relation to pensionable employment (“new employment”) from the start of his employment at the reduced rate, and accordingly apply separately in relation to each of those employments.

14. For the purposes of regulation E3 (qualification for retirement benefits), periods counting towards a qualifying period in relation to one of the employments count also in relation to the other.

15.—(1) For the purposes of regulation E32(2) (limits on reckonable service for calculating benefits), periods counting as reckonable service in relation to one of the employments count also in relation to the other.

(2) Any period excluded by regulation E32(2) is excluded in relation to new employment only.

16.—(1) A period for which the person has, before the first day of new employment, elected to pay additional contributions under regulation C4 does not count as reckonable service in relation to new employment but does, subject to sub-paragraph (2), count in relation to the earlier employment.

(2) An election to pay such contributions by Method A which was made less than 12 months before the first day of new employment ceases to have effect on that day, and any contributions paid in pursuance of it are to be refunded.

(3) If an election to pay such contributions is made on or after the first day of new employment—

- (a) the period to which it relates counts as reckonable service in relation to new employment but does not count in relation to the earlier employment, and
- (b) if the contributions are to be paid by Method B paragraph 14 of Schedule 4 (calculation of lump sum where salary reduced) does not apply.

17.—(1) This paragraph applies if the person becomes entitled to payment of retirement benefits by virtue of regulation E4(3) or(4) (incapacity).

(2) For the purposes of regulation E8 (enhancement) the appropriate period is to be calculated by reference to the aggregate of the period counting as reckonable service in relation to the earlier employment and the period so counting in relation to new employment, and

- (a) if he becomes entitled to payment of the benefits within 3 years after the start of new employment, the period counting as reckonable service in relation to the earlier employment, or
- (b) in any other case, the period so counting in relation to new employment,

18.—(1) For the purpose of calculating any death grant under regulation E20 or supplementary death grant under regulation E21 that may become payable in respect of the person—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (a) the average salary mentioned in regulations E20(2) and E21(2)—
 - (i) if the grant becomes payable within 3 years after the start of new employment, is his average salary in respect of the earlier employment, and
 - (ii) in any other case, is his average salary in respect of new employment,
 - (b) the retirement lump sum mentioned in regulation E20(2) is the aggregate of the lump sums that would have become payable as there mentioned in respect of each of the employments, enhanced in accordance with paragraph 17, and
 - (c) the retirement pension mentioned in E21(3) is the aggregate of the retirement pensions paid in respect of each of the employments.
- (2) Only one of either kind of grant is to be paid.

19. Regulation E26(7) does not have effect so as to preclude the payment of a children’s pension in respect of each of the employments.

PART III

POLICY SCHEMES

20. In this Part “policy scheme service” has the meaning that was given in regulation 3(2) of the Teachers' Superannuation (Policy Schemes) Regulations 1979(71) (“the 1979 Regulations”).

21. For the purposes of regulation C4(1) (case in which additional contributions may be paid for past period), if the person’s policy scheme service began before he first became employed in pensionable employment he is to be treated as having first become so employed when his policy scheme service began.

22. For the purposes of regulation E3 (qualification for retirement benefits), paragraph 1 of Schedule 8 has effect as if the person’s policy scheme service had been pensionable employment beginning after 5th April 1988.

23. Only 9/10ths of the person’s policy scheme service is effective reckonable service.

24.—(1) For the purposes of paragraphs 1 and 2 of Schedule 3 (maximum length of additional periods), if paragraph 1(2)(a) of Schedule 3 (continuous pensionable employment) applies the person’s adjusted age—

- (a) if when he made the election under regulation 4 of the 1979 Regulations he was subject to the policy scheme, is

and

- (b) in any other case, is

B – C,

where—

A is his age when the election took effect,

B is his age when pensionable employment in continuation of his policy scheme service began, and

C is 9/10ths of his policy scheme service.

(71) S.I. 1979/47.

(2) If paragraph 1(2)(b) of Schedule 3 applies, his adjusted age for the purposes mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) above is

where—

D is his age at the start of his most recent pensionable employment,

E is the total time spent by him in pensionable employment, and

F is 9/10ths of his policy scheme service.

25.—(1) For the purposes of paragraph 2 (National Insurance modifications), the person’s policy scheme service is to be treated as service after the end of June 1948.

(2) No reduction in the amount of his retirement pension is to be made under paragraph 5 or 6 in respect of the period of his policy scheme service.

PART IV

ADMITTED SERVICE

26.—(1) In the case of a person with admitted service who has not been in pensionable employment, regulation C12(1) (entitlement to repayment of contributions) has effect with the substitution—

(a) for “pensionable employment” of “admitted service”, and

(b) for “retirement benefits” of the benefits described in paragraph 27(1).

(2) In the case of any person with admitted service, regulation C13 (calculation of contributions to be repaid) has effect as if the amounts specified in regulation C13(3) included the contributions paid by him in respect of that service.

27.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) to (5) and paragraph 29, an annual pension and a lump sum (“admitted service benefits”) are payable in respect of admitted service.

(2) A person who has not been in pensionable employment is qualified for admitted service benefits if his admitted service amounts to at least 5 years.

(3) Any other person with admitted service is qualified for admitted service benefits if he is qualified for retirement benefits.

(4) A person who has not been in pensionable employment and is qualified for admitted service benefits becomes entitled to payment of them on his 60th birthday.

(5) Any other person qualified for admitted service benefits becomes entitled to payment of them when he becomes entitled to payment of retirement benefits.

A is the average annual rate of the person’s salary during his admitted service,

B is the length of the admitted service, expressed in years and any fraction of a year, and

C is so much of

$$\left(\frac{A}{80} \times B\right)$$

(2) The amount of the lump sum is

where—

A is the same as in sub-paragraph (1) and—

D is the length, expressed in years and any fraction of a year, of admitted service before 1st April 1963, and

E is the length, so expressed, of admitted service after 31st March 1963.

29. Regulations E18 (deferment etc. of benefits), E33 (payment of benefits) and E35 (benefits not assignable) apply in relation to admitted service benefits as they apply in relation to retirement benefits.

PART V

SPECIFIED COUNTRY SERVICE

30. Regulations E4 (entitlement to payment of retirement benefits), E6 (amount of retirement lump sum), E13(3) (pension becoming payable again after cessation on pensioner ceasing to be incapacitated), E15 (retirement benefits on cessation of further employment) and E16 (short-service annuity) have effect with the substitution for references (whether direct or not) to the age of 60 of references to the age obtained by deducting from 60 years a period of 3 months in respect of each complete year of up to 20 years of specified country service.

31. Subject to paragraph 32—

- (a) for the purpose of calculating retirement benefits, and grants under regulations E17, E20 and E21, and
- (b) for the purposes of regulation E32(2) (restriction of effective reckonable service to 45 years, etc.), specified country service counts as reckonable service at 1.5 times its actual length.

32. For the purposes of regulation E8 (enhancement of retirement benefits in case of incapacity), in calculating relevant service specified country service counts as reckonable service at its actual length.

PART VI

PERSONS FORMERLY MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL HEALTH SERVICE PENSION SCHEME

33. In this Part—

- (a) “the 1995 Regulations” means the National Health Service Pension Scheme Regulations 1995(72); and

(72) S.I. 1995/300.

- (b) the expressions “member” and “scheme” shall be construed in accordance with the 1995 Regulations.

34. This Part applies to a person who—

- (a) immediately before he was in pensionable employment (within the meaning of these Regulations) was in pensionable employment within the meaning of the 1995 Regulations; and
- (b) who ceased to be in pensionable employment within the meaning of the 1995 Regulations and became employed in pensionable employment within the meaning of these Regulations by virtue of a relevant transfer within the meaning of the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 1981(73).

35. Where a transfer value has been accepted in respect of a person to whom this Part applies pursuant to a written request made by that person within 12 months of the date of the transfer referred to in paragraph 34 he is entitled to count as reckonable service the period which, at the time of that transfer, he was entitled to count as pensionable service for the purposes of the 1995 Regulations.

36.—(1) If a person to whom this Part applies—

- (a) chose, while he was a member of the scheme to increase his right to benefits under the scheme by buying additional service under regulation Q1 of the 1995 Regulations by making regular additional contributions; and
- (b) at the time of the relevant transfer referred to in paragraph 34 had not completed the payment of the additional contributions

he may complete the payment of such contributions as if Part Q of the 1995 Regulations applied to him and (if he does so) shall accordingly be entitled to count as reckonable service the additional service which would have been bought under Part Q of the 1995 Regulations by the payment of such contributions.

(2) For the purposes of regulations C13, C18 and H6 the contributions referred to in this paragraph shall be treated as having been paid under regulation C4.

(3) For the purposes of any provision in these Regulations which imposes a maximum on the contributions which a person can make, the contributions referred to in this paragraph shall be treated as paid under Part C.

37. Where a person to whom this Part applies—

- (a) was, immediately before the relevant transfer referred to in paragraph 34, a person to whom regulation R2 of the 1995 Regulations or regulation 54 of the National Health Service (Superannuation) Regulations 1980(74) (special provision for certain nurses, physiotherapists, midwives and health visitors) or regulation R3 of the 1995 Regulations or regulation 55 of the National Health Service (Superannuation) Regulations 1980 (special provision for certain mental health officers) applied, and
- (b) has continued to be such a person after the said transfer save only that his employer was not an employing authority within the meaning of the 1995 Regulations, regulation E4 shall apply in relation to that person as if the references to the age of 60 were references to the age of 55.

(73) S.I. 1981/1794; amended by S.I. 1987/442, 1995/2587 and the Trade Union Reform and Employment Rights Act 1993 (c. 19), section 33.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

38.—(1) Where a transfer value has not been accepted in relation to a person to whom this Part applies, the period during which the person was in pensionable employment within the meaning of the 1995 Regulations is comprised in a qualifying period for the purposes of Regulation E3.

(2) Sub-paragraph (1) above shall not be taken as precluding such a period from falling within paragraph 4 of Schedule 8 in a case where a transfer value has been accepted.

and must not be such as to affect any equivalent pension benefits.

(3) The part allocated must not be such as to cause the retirement pension payable to be less than the guaranteed minimum in relation to employment up to 6th April 1997.

4.—(1) Before delivering a declaration a person must also at his own expense—

- (a) have satisfied the Secretary of State as to his health, and
- (b) have provided the Secretary of State with such information about the person for whose benefit the allocation is to be made, and verified it in such manner, as the Secretary of State may reasonably require.

(2) In order to satisfy the Secretary of State as to his health the person must have been examined by a medical practitioner nominated by the Secretary of State; he may if he wishes be examined by a second such practitioner if the Secretary of State is not satisfied as a result of the first examination.

5.—(1) On receiving a notice under paragraph 3 the Secretary of State is to notify the person in writing of—

- (a) the amount or estimated amount of his retirement pension,
- (b) if paragraph (3) of regulation E5 applies, the amount or estimated amount of the retirement pension to which he would be entitled if that paragraph did not apply,

(2) A declaration cannot take effect before the person's relevant birthday.

(3) A declaration has no effect if either the person making it or the person for whose benefit the allocation was to be made dies before the material time.

(4) In the case of a declaration made by a retiring employee the material time is the later of—

- (a) the day after that on which the declaration is delivered, and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (b) the day before that on which he becomes entitled to payment of retirement benefits.
- (5) In any other case the material time is the day on which the declaration is delivered.
- (6) A declaration may be revoked or varied by a further declaration delivered—

 - (b) in any other case, before the day on which the original declaration is delivered.

8.—(1) An allocation takes effect on the day on which the person making it becomes entitled to payment of retirement benefits.

(2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1), if a person other than a retiring employee dies in pensionable employment after his declaration has taken effect, he is to be taken to have become entitled to payment of retirement benefits on the date of his death.

- 9.—(1) If notice of intention has been given under paragraph 3 and by the later of—
- (a) the date of the person's becoming entitled to retirement benefits, and
 - (b) his relevant birthday,

no declaration has been delivered, then, from the later of those dates until he has either delivered a declaration or failed to satisfy the Secretary of State as mentioned in paragraph 5(3), 1/3rd of his retirement pension disregarding any actuarial reduction required by regulation E5(3) may be withheld.

- (2) Any resulting underpayment or overpayment is to be adjusted in due course.

10.—(1) If after a retiring employee has delivered a declaration the rate of his retirement pension is increased, otherwise than under the Pensions (Increase) Act 1971(75), the part allocated is correspondingly increased.

(2) Sub-paragraph (1) applies even if the increase in the retirement pension takes effect from a date earlier than the date of delivery of the declaration.

(3) The corresponding increase in the part allocated, which is to be rounded down to the nearest pound, takes effect from the same date as the increase in the retirement pension.

(4) If the alternative benefit is the one described in regulation E11(2)(b) (annuity for declarant followed by annuity for surviving spouse), the resulting increase in the first of those annuities takes effect from the same date as the increase in the retirement pension.

11. If after a person has delivered a declaration the rate of his retirement pension is reduced, the declaration continues to have effect but the part allocated is reduced to any extent necessary to secure that the restrictions in paragraph 1(2) are still complied with.

Regulations F2, F4

OUTWARD TRANSFERS

1. A transfer value is calculated on the cash equivalent basis if it is calculated in the manner prescribed under section 97 of the 1993 Act for the calculation of cash equivalents.

2. Where—

- (a) a transfer value is payable to the scheme managers of a club scheme or a personal pension scheme, or

- (b) the service to which it relates includes service before 1st September 1988, and
- (c) no right to a cash equivalent was acquired, the amount of the transfer value is the total of

A and the greater of B and C,

where—

A is a notional transfer value, calculated on the cash equivalent basis, in respect of the person's service after 31st August 1988,

B is a notional transfer value, calculated on the cash equivalent basis, in respect of his service before 1st September 1988, and

- (a) a transfer value is payable to the scheme managers of an approved pension scheme which is not a club scheme, and
- (b) the service to which it relates includes service before 1st September 1988, and
- (c) a right to a cash equivalent was acquired,

where—

D is the transfer value that would have been payable if paragraph 3 had applied, and

E is the amount of the cash equivalent,

5. Where—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (a) a transfer value is payable to the scheme managers of a personal pension scheme, and the transfer value is to be calculated on the cash equivalent basis but as if the person's pensionable employment had ended with 5th April 1988.

6.—(1) This paragraph applies where—

- (a) a transfer value falls to be calculated in accordance with paragraph 3 or 4, and
- (b) for the purposes of paragraph 3 C is greater than B.

(2) Subject to sub-paragraphs (3) and (4), if the transfer value is not paid within 6 months after the person ceased to be in pensionable employment the amount calculated in accordance with paragraph 3 or 4 is increased by adding to it interest on C at 9% per annum, compounded with 3-monthly rests, for each complete period of 3 months after the end of the employment and before the date of payment.

(3) If the employment ended before 1st April 1977 the amount calculated in accordance with paragraph 3 is increased by adding to it—

- (a) interest on C at 6% per annum, compounded with yearly rests, for each complete period of a year after the end of the employment and before 1st April 1977, and
- (b) interest on C at 9% per annum, compounded with 3 monthly rests, for the period of 3 months beginning on 1st April 1977 and for each subsequent complete period of 3 months before the date of payment.

7. Where a transfer value is paid to the scheme managers of an occupational pension scheme which is not a contracted-out scheme or of a personal pension scheme, there may be deducted from it the amount of any contributions equivalent premium paid by the Secretary of State.

PART II

INWARD TRANSFERS

8. If the employment in which the person was subject to the previous scheme was comparable British service, he is entitled to count as reckonable service the period of service certified by the scheme managers as having stood to his credit under the scheme when he ceased to be subject to it.

9.—(1) If—

- (a) the previous scheme is a club scheme service under which is not comparable British service, or
- (b) the previous scheme is a personal pension scheme or an approved pension scheme which is not a club scheme and the person has entered pensionable employment after 31st December 1985, he is entitled, unless paragraph 10 applies, to count as reckonable service the period specified in sub-paragraph (2).

(2) The period is one equal to the period of reckonable service that would enable the Secretary of State to pay a transfer value, calculated on an actuarial basis, of the same amount as the one accepted.

(3) In calculating the period specified in sub-paragraph (2)—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (a) if sub-paragraph (1)(a) applies and the request for the transfer value to be accepted was made within 12 months after the date on which the person entered pensionable employment, the calculation is to be made by reference to the age and salary notified by the scheme managers of the previous scheme as those by reference to which the transfer value accepted was calculated,
- (b) if sub-paragraph (1)(b) applies and the transfer value was received within 12 months after the date on which the person entered pensionable employment, the calculation is to be made by reference to his age, and the annual rate of his contributable salary, on that date,
- (c) in any other case, the calculation is to be made reference to his age, and the annual rate of his contributable salary, on the date on which the transfer value was received,
- (d) if sub-paragraph (1)(a) applies any sum representing interest that is included in the transfer value is not to be taken into account, and
- (e) if sub-paragraph (1)(b) applies any such sum is to be taken into account.

10.—(1) This paragraph applies where—

- (a) the condition specified in paragraph 9(1)(b) applies,
- (b) the person has made an election under regulation B6 (resumption of pensionable status),
- (c) the previous election under regulation B6 of the 1988 Regulations (election not to be pensionable) was made before 30 June 1994,
- (d) the person has been in excluded employment between the date of the election under regulation B6 of the 1988 Regulations and the date of the election under regulation B6 of these Regulations,
- (e) a transfer value was paid under regulation F1 of the 1988 Regulations or under Schedule 1A to the Social Security Pensions Act 1975(76) or chapter IV of Part IV of the 1993 Act in respect of the person in consequence of him ceasing to be in pensionable employment by virtue of the election under regulation B6 of the 1988 Regulations,
- (f) the person is an individual as is mentioned in section 172(1) of the 1995 Act, and
- (g) the Secretary of State accepts a transfer value under regulation F4 of the amount specified in sub-paragraph (3).

(2) In this paragraph “the period of original pensionable employment” means the period during which the person was in pensionable employment before he made his election under regulation B6 of the 1988 Regulations.

(3) The amount referred to in sub-paragraph (1)(g) is

where—

A is the transfer value which, calculated on the basis specified in paragraph 9(2), would enable the person to count the period of excluded employment as reckonable service as if it had been pensionable employment; and

B is the greater of—

- (a) the transfer value paid by the Secretary of State in respect of the person in consequence of his ceasing to be in pensionable employment by virtue of his election under regulation B6 of the 1988 Regulations together with—
 - (i) in a case where the transfer value was paid to the Secretary of State pursuant to regulation F4 within four weeks of the request under regulation F4(3) an amount, determined actuarially, which represents the income which would have been received had such sum been invested during the period starting at the end of the month in which the transfer value was paid under regulation F1 of the 1988 Regulations and ending at the end of the month in which the request under regulation F4(3) was made; and

- (ii) in any other case the amount referred to in paragraph (i) above together with a further amount, determined actuarially, which represents the income which would have been received compounded with monthly rests, had such sum been invested during the period starting at the end of the month in which the request under regulation F4(3) was made and ending at the end of the month in which the transfer value was paid to the Secretary of State; and
- (b) the amount which would be paid as a transfer value by the Secretary of State in respect of the person if at the date on which he made the election under regulation B6—
 - (i) he was in pensionable employment and made an election under regulation B5 (election not to be pensionable); and
 - (ii) he had been in pensionable employment for a period equal to the period of original pensionable employment.
- (4) Where this paragraph applies the person is entitled to count as reckonable service—
 - (a) the reckonable service arising from the period of original pensionable employment; and
 - (b) such service arising from the period of excluded employment as if it had been pensionable employment.

11. If—

- (a) the previous scheme is an approved pension scheme which is not a club scheme; and
- (b) the person entered pensionable employment before 1st January 1986, he is entitled to count as reckonable service a period calculated as if Schedule 7 to the 1976 Regulations, as in force on 31st August 1988, had continued in force.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. In this Schedule—

“the commencement date” means 3rd February 1998.

2.—(1) The substitution of these Regulations for the revoked instruments does not affect the continuity of the law.

(2) Anything done or having effect as if done under or for the purposes of a provision of the revoked instruments has effect, if it could have been done under or for the purposes of the corresponding provision of these Regulations, as if done under or for the purposes of that corresponding provision.

(3) Any reference, whether express or implied, in these Regulations or any other instrument or document to a provision of these regulations shall, so far as the context permits, be construed as including, in relation to the times, circumstances and purposes in relation to which the corresponding provision of the revoked instruments has effect, a reference to that corresponding provision.

(4) Any reference, whether express or implied, in any instrument or document to a provision of the revoked instruments shall be construed, so far as is required for continuing its effect, as including a reference to the corresponding provision of these Regulations.

(5) Any document made, served or issued on or after the commencement date which contains a reference to any of the revoked instruments shall be construed, except so far as a contrary intention appears, as referring or, as the context may require, including a reference to the corresponding provision of these Regulations.

(6) Where any provision of the revoked instruments (“the replacement provision”) re-enacted, with or without modification, a previous provision revoked by the revoked instruments (“the previous provision”), then, so far as is necessary to prevent the continuity of the law from being affected, any reference in these Regulations to the replacement provision shall, so far as the context permits, be construed as including a reference to that previous provision.

3. The revocation by these Regulations of a transitional provision relating to the coming into force of a provision re-enacted in these Regulations does not affect the operation of that transitional provision, so far as it remains capable of having effect, in relation to the provision as re-enacted.

4.—(1) The revocation by these Regulations of a provision previously revoked subject to savings does not affect the previous operation of those savings.

(2) The revocation by these Regulations of a saving made on the previous revocation of a provision does not affect the operation of the saving in so far as it remains capable of having effect.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations consolidate with amendments the provisions of the Teachers' Superannuation (Consolidation) Regulations 1988 as amended. The Regulations come into force on 3rd February 1998 but certain provisions have effect from 1st September 1997.

The main changes are as follows:

- failure to pay contributions under the Teachers' Superannuation (Additional Voluntary Contributions) Regulations 1994 is a ground for withdrawing “accepted school” status from an independent school (regulation B3(7)(c)(ii));
- regulation C2 contains new provisions whereby a person aged 50 or over, whether in full-time or part-time employment, whose salary is reduced or who takes up employment with a new employer at a reduced salary may, if the person satisfies certain conditions, elect to pay contributions at the old rate of salary uprated by the retail prices index. Where such an election is made regulation C3 provides that the person must pay employers' contributions on the difference between the old rate of salary and the new unless the employer or former employer elects to pay such contributions; this provision has effect from 1st September 1997;
- the provision formerly in C3(14) of the 1988 Regulations whereby an election to pay additional contributions is treated as not having been made if a declaration as to health is not made in good faith is not re-enacted. New provision is made in Schedule 4, paragraph 8(5) so that the special provisions which would otherwise apply where a person is incapacitated do not apply if the declaration as to health is not made in good faith;
- the provisions formerly in regulation C6 of the 1988 regulations whereby a past period in respect of which additional contributions can be paid is reduced if the person becomes entitled to count war service as reckonable service apply also to a case where a person is entitled to count additional reckonable service by virtue of the acceptance of a transfer value (regulation C7);
- regulation C10 (which re-enacts with modifications provisions formerly in regulation C8A of the 1988 Regulations) and which provides for a person who is called into service in a reserve force to be able to pay additional contributions at the rate of 6% of notional salary for a current period applies to persons who are called up under a call-out notice, or call out order or recall order under the Reserve Forces Act 1996.
- regulations E4(2),(3), and (5) of the 1988 Regulations are not re-enacted. Regulation E4(2) and (3) (Cases B and C) provided for entitlement to retirement benefits for persons in certain

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- types of employment described in Schedule 9 to the 1988 Regulations. Regulation E4(5) (Case D) provided for entitlement to retirement benefits for persons who had reached 70 and were in employment;
- in regulation E6 the formula for calculating the retirement lump sum is changed so that service before 1st October 1956 is treated in the same way as service undertaken on or after that date;
 - provision is made for the extension of the provisions for deferment, suspension or reduction of benefit where a person is convicted of offences of certain types in connection with pensionable employment to cases when a person has been convicted of such offences in connection with excluded employment (Regulation E18);
 - provision is made that nominations of persons to receive death grants or supplementary death grants must be in writing (regulations E20(8) and E21(7));
 - regulation E23 (which re-enacts with modifications regulation E22 of the 1988 Regulations) and which makes provision for the nomination of beneficiaries provides that a parent or brother or sister of the appointor must be either widowed or never have been married;
 - regulations E24 and E26 provide that a short-term and long-term pension may only be paid to a nominated beneficiary if the beneficiary was wholly or mainly dependent on the deceased at the date of death;
 - in regulation E31 (which re-enacts with modifications regulation E29 of the 1988 Regulations) the provisions for determining a person's average salary are changed with the effect that for average salary purposes regular part-time employment counts in the same way as full-time employment. Average salary is to be calculated by reference to the salary for the best 365 consecutive days of pensionable employment (rather than reckonable service) during the last 3 years of pensionable employment (rather than reckonable service); effectively, by virtue of regulation H13 and Schedule 16, this provision has effect from 1st September 1997.
 - new provision is made (regulation E31(11) to (14)) in a case where in any financial year during the average salary period a person has received an increase in contributable salary which is greater than 10% more than the "standard increase" (as defined). Under such circumstances the person will be treated as having received a salary increase of 10% more than the standard increase, unless the person's employer elects to pay an additional contribution under regulation G8;
 - the rate at which interest is paid on late payment of certain benefits is changed from being 1% above base rate to base rate. Additionally, there are some minor changes in the definition of "base rate" (regulation E34);
 - regulation G7 makes provision, in a case where a person has made an election under regulation C2, for an employer or former employer to pay employers' contributions on the difference between the old rate of salary and the new. Regulation G7 also makes provision where the teacher moves to a new employer. Under such circumstances the former employer's election can continue if confirmed by the former employer or the new employer can elect to pay employers' contributions on the difference in salary; this provision has effect from 1st September 1997;
 - regulation G8 makes provision for the additional contribution referred to in regulation E31(11). It is the actuarial value of the difference between retirement benefits based on the actual contributable salary and such benefits based on the contributable salary as if the person had received a salary increase of only 10% more than the standard increase.
 - regulation H1 (which re-enacts with modifications provisions formerly in regulation H1 of the 1988 Regulations and which provides that the Regulations are modified by Schedule 10 in certain cases where a person's salary is reduced) is extended to apply in certain cases where a person leaves employment with one employer and takes up employment with a new employer at a reduced salary. This provision has effect from 1st September 1997;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- regulation H6 provides for repayment of certain contributions where a person received an increase in salary such as is referred to in regulation E31(11) but no election under regulation G8 is made.
- regulation H9 (which provides for determination of questions) no longer provides that a determination by the Secretary of State shall be final. This is in consequence of the extension of the jurisdiction of the Pensions Ombudsman;
- in Schedule 1 “excluded employment” is defined as including part-time employment which would be pensionable if the person had so elected;
- in Schedule 3 the definition of “material benefits” in paragraph 2 is changed;
- the figures in Tables 1 to 3 in Schedule 4 (additional contributions for past period) are changed;
- the provisions formerly in Schedule 9 to the 1988 Regulations have been simplified;
- the provisions formerly in Part VI of Schedule 10 to the 1988 Regulations (which made special provision for service before 1st April 1945) are not re-enacted.
