attainment targets in subjects as they may require, together with the supporting material referred to in paragraph (6) to enable the verifying authority to verify the assessments.

(6) The supporting material consists of the pupil's written response to the standard tasks and such further material as the verifying authority may reasonably require.

(7) If after verification the verifying authority consider that the results of the standard task assessments are accurate, they shall so notify the head teacher, and the attainment levels of all pupils at the school determined by standard task assessments (whether or not verified) shall be the levels for the subject in question.

(8) If after verification the verifying authority consider that any of the results of the standard task assessments are inaccurate, they shall so notify the head teacher and, if the verifying authority so request, the head teacher shall as soon as practicable—

(3) In the case of mathematics, a pupil's level of attainment in the subject shall be  $\frac{\mathbf{a}}{\mathbf{b}}$  where:  $\mathbf{a}$  is the aggregate of his levels in each AT and his level in AT2 (number and algebra) weighted by a factor of three, and  $\mathbf{b}$  is the number of those ATs, with AT2 weighted by a factor of three.

(4) In the case of science, a pupil's level of attainment in the subject shall be  $\frac{\mathbf{a}}{\mathbf{b}}$  where:  $\mathbf{a}$  is the aggregate of his levels in each AT, with his level in AT1 (scientific enquiry) weighted by a factor of three, and  $\mathbf{b}$  is the number of those ATs, with AT1 weighted by a factor of three.

Pupils not subject to provisions of the National Curriculum

8.—(1) The modifications set out in this article apply in respect of pupils to whom provisions of the National Curriculum do not apply (including pupils with statements of special educational needs).

(2) Where in the case of any core subject one AT does not apply to such a pupil, this article shall have effect as if the number of ATs applying to the pupil were the total number of ATs in the subject and the AT which does not apply, and any weighting in respect thereof, were ignored.

(3) Where more than one AT in a core subject does not apply to such a pupil, this article shall not apply to him in relation to that subject.

Evaluation of Assessment Arrangements

9. The Authority shall make such arrangements as seem to them appropriate for determining the extent to which the provisions of articles 4 to 8 and their implementation achieve the purpose mentioned in article 1(2).

Supplementary powers of the Secretary of State

10. The Secretary of State may make such provisions giving full effect to or otherwise supplementing the provisions made by this Order (other than provisions conferring or imposing functions as mentioned in section 87(7) of the Education Act 2002) as appear to him to be expedient, including in particular provisions as to standard tasks for the purpose of assessing pupils' levels of attainment in any AT or core subject and as to the time when and the manner in which they are to be administered; and any provisions the Secretary of State may so make, shall be published by the Authority.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order revokes and re-enacts with modifications the Education (National Curriculum) (Key Stage 1 Assessment Arrangements) (England) Order 1999 (“the 1999 Order”) as amended by the Education (National Curriculum) (Key Stage 1 Assessment Arrangements) (England) (Amendment) Order 1999, the Education (National Curriculum) (Key Stage 1 Assessment Arrangements) (England) (Amendment) Order 2000 and the Education (National Curriculum) (Assessment Arrangements) (England) (Amendment) Order 2001, which are also revoked. It specifies the assessment arrangements for pupils who have completed the programme of study for the first key stage, as they apply to schools maintained by local education authorities (other than any established in a hospital) in England.

The main change from the 1999 Order is to extend the application of the provisions. The 1999 Order applied to pupils in the final year of the first key stage. By virtue of Article 1(2), this Order applies to pupils who have completed the programme of study for the first key stage. Where a head teacher judges a group of pupils, who have completed the Key Stage 1 programmes of study, to be ready to proceed to the programmes of study for Key Stage 2, those pupils may take the National Curriculum assessments early.
