2005 No. 250 (S. 1)

REPRESENTATION OF THE PEOPLE

The Parliamentary Constituencies (Scotland) Order 2005

Made - - - - - 9th February 2005

Coming into force - - - - - 10th February 2005

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of February 2005

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas in pursuance of section 3(1) of the Parliamentary Constituencies Act 1986<sup>(1)</sup> the Boundary Commission for Scotland have submitted to the Secretary of State a report dated 30th November 2004 showing the constituencies into which they recommend, in accordance with that Act, that Scotland should be divided:

And whereas the Secretary of State has laid that report before Parliament together with the draft of this Order in Council to give effect, without modifications, to the recommendations contained in the report and each House of Parliament has by resolution approved the said draft:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of section 4 of the Parliamentary Constituencies Act 1986 and of all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

- 1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Parliamentary Constituencies (Scotland) Order 2005.
- (2) Subject to section 4(6) of the Parliamentary Constituencies Act 1986, this Order shall come into force on the day after the day on which it is made.
- (3) In this Order—
  - (a) any reference to a ward is a reference to the ward of the local government area in which that ward is situated; and
  - (b) any reference to a local government area is a reference to that area as it existed on 30th November 2004.
2. Scotland shall be divided into the constituencies—
  - (a) which are named in column 1 of the Schedule to this Order;

(1) 1986 c. 56.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (b) which comprise the areas which are set out in column 2 of that Schedule opposite the name of the constituency; and
  - (c) which are designated as being either county constituencies or burgh constituencies according to the name in column 1 of that Schedule.
3. Each electoral registration officer for the constituencies referred to in Article 2 above shall make such re-arrangement or adaptation of the registers of parliamentary electors as may be necessary to give effect to this Order.
4. The Parliamentary Constituencies (Scotland) Order 1995(2) is revoked.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

This Order gives effect, without modifications, to the recommendations contained in the Fifth Periodic Report of the Boundary Commission for Scotland dated 30th November 2004 (Cm 6427).

Article 2 of, and the Schedule to, this Order set out and describe the constituencies into which Scotland will be divided.

Every electoral registration officer is required to amend the registers of parliamentary electors to give effect to this Order (Article 3).

As a consequence of this Order, the Parliamentary Constituencies (Scotland) Order 1995 is revoked (Article 4).

By virtue of section 4(6) of the Parliamentary Constituencies Act 1986 and Article 1(2) of the Order, the coming into force of this Order does not affect any parliamentary election until a proclamation is issued by Her Majesty summoning a new Parliament.

This Order does not impose any new costs on business.
