(5) A litigator, or, in the Court of Appeal, an advocate, may, where he claims remuneration for work done in respect of proceedings referred to in section 12(2)(f) of the Act, claim that there are exceptional circumstances which justify remuneration greater than the standard fee specified in paragraph (3) or paragraph (4).

(6) If the appropriate officer considers that there are such exceptional circumstances, he may allow the litigator, or, in the Court of Appeal, the advocate, such fee as appears to him to be reasonable (having regard to the standard fee) for such work as appears to him to have been reasonably done.

(7) If the appropriate officer considers that there are no such exceptional circumstances, the standard fee must apply.

(8) The fee payable to a litigator under this article must not exceed the rates set out in Schedule 2 as appropriate to the type of work, the court in which the proceedings took place, the grade and the situation of the office of the fee earner who did the work.

(9) In the application of paragraph (8), the rates appropriate to the Crown Court shall apply to proceedings in all courts other than a magistrates' court.

(10) The fee payable to an advocate in the Court of Appeal under this article must not exceed the maximum basic fee for a junior counsel set out in the Table following paragraph 10 of Schedule 4.

(11) The provisions of articles 5, 6, 19, 23, 24, 29, 30 and 31 apply with the necessary modifications to the remuneration payable to a representative under this article.

Interim payment of disbursements

14.—(1) A litigator may submit a claim to the appropriate officer for payment of a disbursement for which he has incurred liability in proceedings in the Crown Court in accordance with the provisions of this article.

(2) A claim for payment under paragraph (1) may be made where—

- (a) a litigator has obtained prior authority to incur expenditure of £100 or more under CDS Regulations; and

(3) Without prejudice to articles 16(4) and 16(5) a claim for payment under paragraph (1) must not exceed the maximum amount authorised under the prior authority.

(4) A claim for payment under paragraph (1) may be made at any time before the litigator submits a claim for fees under article 6.

(5) A claim for payment under paragraph (1) must be submitted to the appropriate officer in such form and manner as he may direct and must be accompanied by the authority to incur expenditure and any invoices or other documents in support of the claim.

(6) The appropriate officer must allow the disbursement subject to the limit in paragraph (3) if it appears to have been reasonably incurred in accordance with the prior authority.

(7) Where the appropriate officer allows the disbursement, he must notify the litigator and, where the disbursement includes the fees or charges of any person, that person, of the amount payable, and must authorise payment to the litigator accordingly.

(8) Articles 29 to 31 do not apply to a payment under this article.

Interim disbursements and final determination of fees

15.—(1) On a final determination of fees, articles 6(2) and 16 apply notwithstanding that a payment has been made under article 14.

(2) Where the amount found to be due under article 16 in respect of a disbursement is less than the amount paid under article 14 (“the interim payment”), the appropriate officer must deduct the difference from the sum otherwise payable to the litigator on the determination of fees, and where the amount due under article 16 exceeds the interim payment, the appropriate officer must add the difference to the amount otherwise payable to the litigator.

Determination of litigators’ disbursements

16.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) to (5), the appropriate officer must allow such disbursements claimed under article 6(2) as appear to him to have been reasonably incurred.

(2) If the disbursements claimed are abnormally large by reason of the distance of the court or the assisted person’s residence or both from the litigator’s place of business, the appropriate officer may limit reimbursement of the disbursements to what otherwise would, having regard to all the circumstances, be a reasonable amount.

(3) No question as to the propriety of any step or act in relation to which prior authority has been obtained under CDS Regulations may be raised on any determination of disbursements, unless the litigator knew or ought reasonably to have known that the purpose for which the authority was given had failed or had become irrelevant or unnecessary before the disbursements were incurred.

(4) Where disbursements are reasonably incurred in accordance with and subject to the limit imposed by a prior authority given under CDS Regulations, no question may be raised on any determination of fees as to the amount of the payment to be allowed for the step or act in relation to which the authority was given.

(5) Where disbursements are incurred in taking any steps or doing any act for which authority may be given under CDS Regulations, without such authority having been given or in excess of any fee so authorised, payment in respect of those disbursements may nevertheless be allowed on a determination of disbursements payable under article 6.

Interim payments in cases awaiting determination of fees

17.—(1) The appropriate officer must make an interim payment in respect of a claim for fees in proceedings in the Crown Court in accordance with this article.

- (b) in the case of a litigator, where the total fees claimed in accordance with Schedule 2 are £4,000 or more (exclusive of VAT); and
- (c) in the case of a litigator or an instructed advocate, where the claim for fees is for less than the amounts mentioned in (a) or (b) but is related to any claim for fees falling under (a) or (b).

(3) For the purposes of this article, the following claims for fees are related to each other —

- (a) the claims of representatives acting in the same proceedings for a defendant; and
- (b) the claims of any representative acting for any assisted person in related proceedings.

(4) Entitlement to a payment under paragraph (1) does not arise until three months have elapsed from the earlier of—

- (a) the date on which the claim for fees is received by the appropriate officer for determination, except that where there are related claims for fees, the date on which the last claim is received by the appropriate officer; or
- (b) three months after the conclusion of the last of any related proceedings.

(5) A litigator or an instructed advocate may submit a claim for an interim payment under this article where—

- (a) no payment has been made under paragraph (1); and

Amount of interim payments in cases awaiting determination of fees

18.—(1) Where entitlement to an interim payment arises under article 17, the amount payable is 40 per cent of the total claim for fees, less any sum already paid.

(2) Articles 29 to 31 do not apply to an interim payment under this article.

Staged payments in long Crown Court proceedings

19.—(1) A litigator or an instructed advocate may submit a claim to the appropriate officer for a staged payment of his fees in relation to proceedings in the Crown Court.

(2) Where a claim is submitted in accordance with this article, a staged payment must be allowed where the appropriate officer is satisfied—

- (a) that the claim relates to fees for a period of preparation of 100 hours or more, for which the litigator or instructed advocate will, subject to final determination of the fees payable, be entitled to be paid in accordance with Schedule 1 or Schedule 2, as appropriate; and
 - (b) that the period from committal, transfer or sending for trial (or from the date of the representation order, if later) to the conclusion of the Crown Court proceedings is likely to exceed 12 months, having regard, amongst other matters, to the number of defendants, the anticipated pleas and the weight and complexity of the case.
- (3) In this article “preparation” means—
- (a) in the case of advocates—

and is limited to preparation done before the trial, except in proceedings in which a preparatory hearing has been ordered under section 8 of the Criminal Justice Act 1987 (commencement of trial and arraignment), in which case it is limited to preparation done before the date on which the jury is sworn (or on which it became certain, by reason of pleas of guilty or otherwise, that the matter would not proceed to trial).

(4) The amount allowed for preparation falling within paragraph (3)(a) must be computed by reference to the number of hours of preparation which it appears to the appropriate officer, without prejudice to the final determination of the fees payable, has been reasonably done, multiplied by the hourly rate for special preparation as set out in the table following paragraph 19 of Schedule 1, as appropriate to the category of advocate.

(5) The amount allowed for preparation falling within paragraph (3)(b) must be computed by reference to the number of hours of preparation which it appears to the appropriate officer, without prejudice to the final determination of the fees payable, has been reasonably done, multiplied by the relevant hourly rate prescribed in Part 1 of Schedule 2, as appropriate to the class of work and the grade and office location of the fee earner.

(6) A claim for staged payment of fees under this article must be made to the appropriate officer in such form and manner as he may direct, including such case plan as he may require for the purposes of paragraph (2)(a).

(7) A litigator or instructed advocate may claim further staged payments in accordance with this article in respect of further periods of preparation exceeding 100 hours which were not included in an earlier claim.

(8) Articles 29 to 31 do not apply to a payment under this article.

(3) For the purposes of this article, the qualifying period is 20 days, and a day shall qualify as part of the relevant qualifying period, whether or not the days within the qualifying period are continuous, if the hearing begins at any time on that day.

(4) The amount payable in respect of each day which qualifies as part of the qualifying period is—

- (a) where the hearing begins before and ends after the luncheon adjournment, five times the hourly rate for a trainee solicitor or fee earner of equivalent experience attending court where more than one representative is instructed as prescribed in Part 1 of Schedule 2; or
- (b) where the hearing begins and ends before the luncheon adjournment, or begins after the luncheon adjournment, two and a half times the hourly rate referred to in sub-paragraph (a).

(5) A claim for an interim payment may be made in respect of a qualifying period and must be submitted in such form and manner as the appropriate officer may direct.

(6) Further interim payments under this article may be claimed if the trial lasts for further qualifying periods.

(7) A litigator who has obtained prior approval under CDS Regulations for the incurring of travelling or accommodation expenses may, at the same time as he submits a claim for an interim payment under this article, submit a claim for an interim payment of all such expenses incurred to date (less any expenses previously recovered by him by way of interim payment under this article).

(8) A claim under paragraph (7) must be submitted in such form and manner as the appropriate officer may direct, and must be supported by such evidence of the expense claimed as he may require.

- (3) Every application for a hardship payment must be accompanied by such information and documents as the appropriate officer may require as evidence of—
- (a) the work done by the representative in relation to the proceedings up to the date of the application; and
 - (b) the likelihood of financial hardship.
- (4) The amount of any hardship payment is at the discretion of the appropriate officer, but must not exceed such sum as would be reasonable remuneration for the work done by the representative in the proceedings up to the date of the application.
- (5) A hardship payment must not be made if it appears to the appropriate officer that the sum which would be reasonable remuneration for the representative, or the sum required to relieve his financial hardship, is less than £5,000 (excluding VAT).

PART 3

Graduated Fees for Guilty Pleas and Cracked Trials

Calculation of graduated fees in guilty pleas and cracked trials—

6. The amount of the graduated fee for a single trial advocate representing one assisted person in a guilty plea or cracked trial is—

- (a) the basic fee specified in the table following paragraph 7 as appropriate to the offence with which the assisted person is charged, the category of trial advocate and whether the case is a guilty plea or a cracked trial; and
- (b) the evidence uplift, as appropriate to the number of pages of prosecution evidence, calculated in accordance with the table following paragraph 7.

Tables of fees

7.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) and (3), for the purposes of paragraph 6 the basic fee and evidence uplift appropriate to any offence are specified in the Tables following this paragraph in accordance with the class within which that offence falls.

(2) Where—

- (a) the trial of a case does not commence on the date first fixed; or
- (b) the case is not taken and disposed of from the first warned list in which it is entered, the basic fee and evidence uplift for the offence are specified for the last third in the Table referred to in sub-paragraph (1).

(3) In this paragraph, and in the Tables following this paragraph, references to the first, second and last third are references to the first, second and last third—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (a) where a case is first listed for trial on a fixed date, of the period of time beginning after the date on which the case is so listed and ending before the date so fixed,
- (b) where the case is first placed in a warned list, of the period of time beginning after the date on which the case is so placed and ending before the date of the start of that warned list, and
- where the number of days in this period of time cannot be divided by three equally, any days remaining after such division must be added to the last third.

(4) Where a graduated fee is calculated in accordance with this Part for the purposes of paragraph 2(4), the fee must be calculated as if the trial had cracked in the final third.

(2) The fees payable in respect of attendance at the first three pre-trial conferences or views, as set out in sub-paragraph (1)(a) to (c), are included in the basic fee (B) specified in the Table following paragraph 5 or paragraph 7, as appropriate to the offence for which the assisted person is tried, the category of trial advocate and whether the case is a guilty plea, cracked trial or trial, provided that the trial advocate satisfies the appropriate officer that the work was reasonably necessary.

(6) Where a representation order is amended after the plea and case management hearing to provide for more than one advocate—

(a) the additional instructed advocate must notify the Court in writing of his appointment within 7 days of the date on which the representation order is amended; and

(b) each instructed advocate must notify the Court whether he is the leading instructed advocate or the led instructed advocate.

(7) Where no additional instructed advocate has been notified to the Court in accordance with sub-paragraph (6)(a), the advocate who attends the next hearing in the case will be deemed to be an instructed advocate and the Court will record in writing whether he is the leading instructed advocate or the led instructed advocate, as appropriate to the circumstances of the case.

(8) The Court will attach—

(a) any notice received under sub-paragraph (1) or sub-paragraph (6); and

(b) any record made by it under sub-paragraph (2), (3), (4), (5) or (7) to the representation order.

(9) An instructed advocate must remain as instructed advocate at all times, except where—

Payment of fees to instructed advocate

21.—(1) In accordance with article 23 the appropriate officer must notify each instructed advocate of the total fees payable and authorise payment to him accordingly.

(2) Payment of the fees in accordance with sub-paragraph (1) must be made to each instructed advocate.

(3) Where the representation order provides for a single advocate, the instructed advocate is responsible for arranging payment of fees to the trial advocate and any substitute advocate who has undertaken work on the case.

(4) Where there are two instructed advocates for an assisted person, payment must be made to each instructed advocate individually, and—

- (a) the leading instructed advocate is responsible for arranging payment of fees to the trial advocate and any substitute advocate who have undertaken work on the case of a type for which a leading advocate is responsible; and
- (b) the led instructed advocate is responsible for arranging payment of fees to the trial advocate and any substitute advocate who have undertaken work on the case of a type for which a led advocate is responsible.

(5) This paragraph does not apply to a claim for fees under paragraph 27, 28 or 29.

Additional charges and additional cases

22.—(1) Where an assisted person is charged with more than one offence on one indictment, the graduated fee payable to the trial advocate under this Schedule will be based on whichever of those offences the trial advocate selects.

(2) Where two or more cases to which this Schedule applies involving the same trial advocate are heard concurrently (whether involving the same or different assisted persons)—

- (a) the trial advocate must select one case (“the principal case”), which must be treated for the purposes of remuneration in accordance with this Schedule;

(4) Subject to sub-paragraphs (1) to (3), where a trial advocate or substitute advocate appears at a hearing forming part of two or more cases, he must be paid the fixed fee for that hearing specified in the Table following paragraph 19 in respect of one such case, without any increase in respect of the other cases.

(5) Where a trial advocate selects—

(a) one offence, in preference to another offence, under sub-paragraph (1); or

(b) one case as the principal case, in preference to another case, under sub-paragraph (2),

(a) the assisted person is represented by a single trial advocate; and

(b) another person charged on the same indictment with an offence falling within the same class is represented by two trial advocates, the single trial advocate must be paid the same fee as if he were appearing as junior to another trial advocate.

(3) Sub-paragraph (2) does not apply where the charge which the single trial advocate is instructed to defend (or, where there is more than one such charge, the charge forming the basis of remuneration in accordance with paragraph 21(1)) is for an offence falling within Class A.

Non-local appearances

24. Where an advocate is instructed to appear in a court which is not within 40 kilometres of his office or chambers, the appropriate officer may allow an amount for travelling and other expenses incidental to that appearance, provided that the amount must not be greater than the amount, if any, which would be payable to a trial advocate from the nearest local Bar or the nearest advocate's office (whichever is the nearer) unless the advocate instructed to appear has obtained prior approval under CDS Regulations for the incurring of such expenses or can justify his attendance having regard to all the relevant circumstances of the case.

Trials lasting over 40 days

25. (4) If a litigator so elects, he may claim standard fees under this Part in respect of work done by him notwithstanding that the proceedings in relation to which the work was done are not specified in sub-paragraph (2), and the provisions of this Part apply to such a claim with the necessary modifications, save that, where a litigator elects to claim the principal standard fee for preparation in respect of a trial which lasted more than two days, he shall be paid that fee (together with the appropriate standard fee for the other classes of work specified in paragraph 10(2)) and paragraph 8 does not apply.

(5) In relation to any hearing specified in paragraph 2(7), the fee specified in the Table following paragraph 10(5) for attendance at court where an advocate was instructed is only payable in the circumstances and to the extent provided by paragraph 2(6) to (9).

- (b) not less than the lower fee limit and not more than the upper fee limit, the appropriate officer must allow and pay the principal standard fee together with the standard fees for all other classes of works specified in paragraph 10(2);
- (c) more than the upper fee limit, no standard fees are payable and all fees must be determined in accordance with paragraph 2.
