

---

STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

---

2010 No. 1627

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION
MARINE MANAGEMENT

The Marine Strategy Regulations 2010

Made	- - - -	16th June 2010
Laid before Parliament		22nd June 2010
Coming into force		15th July 2010

THE MARINE STRATEGY REGULATIONS 2010

PART 1

1. Citation, commencement and application
2. Interpretation
3. Meaning of “the marine strategy area” and “marine waters”

PART 2

4. The general duties
5. Functions of the Secretary of State in the development of the marine strategy
6. Functions of the devolved policy authorities in the development of the marine strategy
7. Co-ordination in the development of the marine strategy
8. Cooperation in implementation of the marine strategy
9. Duty to have regard to the marine strategy

PART 3

10. Assessment of marine waters
11. Determination of good environmental status
12. Environmental targets and indicators
13. Monitoring
14. Programme of measures
15. Exceptions
16. Relationship with Water Framework Directive

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

PART 4

- 17. Notification
- 18. Public participation

PART 5

- 19. Directions to, and assistance from, public authorities
- 20. Guidance
Signature

---

SCHEDULE 1 — Definitions

PART 1 — Meaning of (a) “retained function” and (b) “any function in relation to which functions are exercisable by a Minister of the Crown or Government Department”

- 1. In these Regulations, “retained function” means as respects the Scottish...
- 2. (1) For the purpose of paragraph 1(a) to (c) and...
- 3. For the purpose of paragraph 1(e), “relevant ancillary function” means...
- 4. For the purposes of regulation 2(1) and paragraph 3, functions...
- 5. The functions mentioned in paragraph 4(c) are—
  - PART 2 — Directive definitions
  - PART 3 — Water Framework Directive definitions

SCHEDULE 2 — Enactments in relation to which duty in regulation 4 applies

Explanatory Note