NATIONAL HEALTH SERVICE, ENGLAND

The National Treatment Agency (Abolition) and the Health and Social Care Act 2012 (Consequential, Transitional and Saving Provisions) Order 2013

Made - - - - 5th February 2013
Laid before Parliament 13th February 2013
Coming into force - - 1st April 2013

The Secretary of State for Health makes the following Order in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 28(1), (2) and (5), 272(7) and (8) and 273(1) of the National Health Service Act 2006(1) and sections 303 and 304(9) and (10) of the Health and Social Care Act 2012(2).

The Secretary of State has, in accordance with section 28(7) of the National Health Service Act 2006, consulted such bodies as the Secretary of State has recognised as representing officers who, in the Secretary of State's opinion, are likely to be transferred, or affected by transfer, in pursuance of Part 2 of this Order.

The Secretary of State has consulted Scottish Ministers in accordance with section 303(4) of the Health and Social Care Act 2012.

PART 1

General

Citation, commencement, extent and application

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the National Treatment Agency (Abolition) and the Health and Social Care Act 2012 (Consequential, Transitional and Saving Provisions) Order 2013.

(2) This Order comes into force on 1st April 2013.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (4) and (5), this Order extends to England and Wales only.

(1) 2006 c. 41. The powers conferred by the National Health Service Act 2006 and exercised by the Secretary of State in making this Order are exercisable only in relation to England by virtue of section 271(1) of that Act; see Part 2 of the Order.
(2) 2012 c. 7.

(4) Any amendment or revocation made by this Order has the same extent as the enactment amended or revoked.

(5) Any transitional or saving provision made by this Order has the same extent as the enactment to which it relates.

(6) Part 2 of this Order applies in relation to England only.

PART 2

Abolition of the National Treatment Agency

Interpretation

2. In this Part—

“the Agency” means the National Treatment Agency established by article 2 of the National Treatment Agency (Establishment and Constitution) Order 2001(3); and

“the transfer date” means 1st April 2013.

Abolition of the Agency

3. The Agency is abolished.

Transfer of staff to the Secretary of State

4.—(1) This paragraph applies in relation to any person who—

(a) is employed by the Agency immediately before the transfer date; and

(b) has been notified in writing by the Agency prior to the transfer date that they are to be transferred to the employment of the Secretary of State.

(2) Any person to whom paragraph (1) applies is, on the transfer date, transferred to the employment of the Secretary of State.

(3) The contract of employment of a person whose employment transfers to the Secretary of State under paragraph (2)—

(a) is not terminated by that transfer; and

(b) has effect on and after the transfer date as if originally made between that person and the Secretary of State.

(4) Without prejudice to paragraph (3)—

(a) all the rights, powers, duties and liabilities of the Agency under or in connection with the contract of employment of any person whose employment transfers to the Secretary of State under paragraph (2), are transferred to the Secretary of State; and

(b) any act or omission before the transfer date by, or in relation to, the Agency, in respect of that person or that person’s contract of employment, is deemed to have been an act or omission of, or in relation to, the Secretary of State.

(5) Paragraphs (2) to (4) do not operate to transfer the contract of employment of a person to whom paragraph (1) applies, or any rights, powers, duties and liabilities under or in connection with that contract, if, before the transfer date, the person informs the Agency that they object to becoming employed by the Secretary of State.

(3) S.I. 2001/713. The relevant amending instrument is S.I. 2003/1827.

(6) Where a person to whom paragraph (1) applies has objected to the transfer of that person's contract of employment as described in paragraph (5), the transfer operates so as to terminate that person's contract of employment with the Agency.

(7) Subject to paragraph (8), a person whose contract of employment is terminated in accordance with paragraph (6) is not to be treated, for any purpose, as having been dismissed by the Agency.

(8) Where the transfer involves or would involve a substantial change in working conditions to the material detriment of a person whose employment is or would have transferred under paragraph (2), that person may treat the contract of employment as having been terminated, and that person is to be treated for any purpose as having been dismissed.

(9) No damages are payable by the employer as a result of a dismissal falling within paragraph (8) in respect of any failure by the employer to pay wages to a person in respect of a notice period which the person has failed to work.

(10) Paragraphs (2), (3) and (5) to (8) are without prejudice to any right of a person arising apart from this article to terminate that person's contract of employment without notice in acceptance of a repudiatory breach of contract by the employer.

Transfer of property and liabilities

5.—(1) Any property⁽⁴⁾ held by the Agency immediately before the transfer date is on the transfer date transferred to the Secretary of State.

(2) Any criminal liabilities of the Agency are on the transfer date transferred to the National Health Service Litigation Authority⁽⁵⁾.

(3) All other liabilities of the Agency are on the transfer date transferred to the Secretary of State.

Continuity and supplementary provision

6.—(1) Any right relating to property held by the Agency immediately before the transfer date that was enforceable by or against the Agency before the transfer date is, on and after that date, enforceable by or against the Secretary of State.

(2) Any act or omission by, or in relation to, the Agency before the transfer date in respect of—

- (a) the exercise of any of the functions of the Agency;
- (b) under or in connection with any contract or agreement entered into by the Agency; or
- (c) in connection with any of the property or liabilities of the Agency transferred by this Order, is deemed to have been an act or omission of, or in relation to, the Secretary of State.

(3) Subject to article 7, anything (which may include legal proceedings) which, when this Order comes into force, is in the process of being done by, or in relation to, the Agency in respect of, or in connection with—

- (a) the exercise by the Agency of any of its functions; or
- (b) any property or liabilities of the Agency transferred by this Order, is deemed to have effect as if done by, or in relation to, and may be continued by, or in relation to, the Secretary of State.

(4) Any reference to the Agency in any agreement (whether written or not), instrument or other document in connection with any of the functions of the Agency or any property or liabilities transferred by this Order is to be treated as a reference to the Secretary of State.

(4) "Property" includes rights; see section 275(1) of the National Health Service Act 2006.

(5) The National Health Service Litigation Authority is a Special Health Authority established by S.I. 1995/2800, to which there are amendments not relevant to this Order.

(5) No right to terminate or vary a contract, arrangement or instrument is to operate or become exercisable, and no provision of any contract, arrangement or instrument is to operate or become exercisable or be contravened, by reason of the transfer of any property or liabilities under or by virtue of this Order.

- (6) The transfer of any property, rights and liabilities by this Order is to be made—
- (a) irrespective of any requirement for consent that would otherwise apply (whether arising under any enactment, instrument, agreement or otherwise); and
 - (b) whether or not they would otherwise be capable of being transferred.

Complaints

7.—(1) A complaint made under the Health Service Commissioners Act 1993⁽⁶⁾ to the Health Service Commissioner for England in relation to the Agency may be investigated by the Commissioner notwithstanding the abolition of the Agency, and the Commissioner must send a copy of the report of the result of any such investigation to the Secretary of State.

(2) The Secretary of State shall, in accordance with the Local Authority Social Services and National Health Service Complaints (England) Regulations 2009⁽⁷⁾, handle any complaint made under those Regulations in relation to the Agency, as if the Secretary of State was a Special Health Authority and the complaint had been made to that Authority.

- (3) This article applies to complaints made before, on or after the transfer date.

Winding up of affairs of the Agency

8. The Secretary of State must take such action as may be necessary for the winding up of the affairs of the Agency, including the preparation of the outstanding accounts of the Agency and the performance of all statutory duties relating to those accounts.

Amendments and revocations consequential on the abolition of the Agency

9. The amendments and revocations in Schedule 1 have effect.

PART 3

The Health and Social Care Act 2012: consequential, transitional and saving provisions

Primary medical and dental services

- 10.—(1) In this article, “relevant Order” means—
- (a) the General Medical Services Transitional and Consequential Provisions Order 2004⁽⁸⁾,

(d) the General Dental Services and Personal Dental Services Transitional Provisions Order 2005(11), or

(e) the General Dental Services, Personal Dental Services and Abolition of the Dental Practice Board Transitional and Consequential Provisions Order 2006(12).

(2) The abolition of Primary Care Trusts by section 34 of the Health and Social Care Act 2012 does not affect the continuing operation of any provision of a relevant Order which but for that abolition would be capable of having effect after 31st March 2013.

(3) Any provision of a relevant Order—

(a) which has continuing effect after 31st March 2013, and

(b) which refers to a Primary Care Trust, is to be treated, so far as that provision falls to be applied to any act or omission occurring after that date, as if it referred to the National Health Service Commissioning Board.

(4) Any act or omission by or in relation to a Primary Care Trust before 1st April 2013 under or in connection with a provision of a relevant Order which has continuing effect after 31st March 2013 is, where appropriate, to be treated as an act or omission by or in relation to the National Health Service Commissioning Board.

(5) Anything which is in the process of being done by or in relation to a Primary Care Trust immediately before 1st April 2013 under or in connection with a provision of a relevant Order which has continuing effect after 31st March 2013 is, where appropriate, to be treated as done by or in relation to, and may be continued by or in relation to, the National Health Service Commissioning Board.

Consequential amendments and revocations

11. Schedule 2 (which contains amendments and revocations which are consequential on the Health and Social Care Act 2012) has effect.

Special educational needs: unfulfilled requests for medical advice

4. Any request for medical advice from a Primary Care Trust under regulation 7(1)(c) of the Education (Special Educational Needs) (England) (Consolidation) Regulations 2001⁽²²⁹⁾ which remains unfulfilled immediately before 1st April 2013 must be fulfilled by the person (namely the National Health Service Commissioning Board or a clinical commissioning group) to whom the request would have been made had it been made after 31st March 2013.

Continuing validity of prescription forms

5. Notwithstanding the amendments made by paragraphs 50 and 58 of Schedule 2, a prescription form provided by a Primary Care Trust for the purposes of private prescribing (which may also be used for the purposes of issuing a health prescription) is to continue to be valid for the purposes of—

- (a) regulations 15(1)(aa), (1A) and (1B) and 16(1D) of the Misuse of Drugs Regulations 2001⁽²³⁰⁾, and
- (b) regulations 15(1)(aa), (1A) and (1B) and 16(1D) of the Misuse of Drugs Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2002⁽²³¹⁾.

Local supervising authority

6.—(1) So far as necessary for any purposes after 31st March 2013, any act or omission by or in relation to a Strategic Health Authority before 1st April 2013 in its capacity as a local supervising authority under or in connection with—

- (a) article 43 of the Nursing and Midwifery Order 2001⁽²³²⁾, or
- (b) rules made under articles 42 and 43 of that Order, is to be treated as an act or omission by or in relation to the National Health Service Commissioning Board in its capacity as such an authority.

(2) The amendment made by paragraph 51(1) and (3) of Schedule 2 does not affect the continuing validity or effect —

- (a) of any appointment before 1st April 2013 of any person in accordance with rules made under articles 42 and 43 of the Nursing and Midwifery Order 2001, or
- (b) of any act or omission done by or in relation to any such person in their capacity as such an appointee before 1st April 2013.

(3) In this paragraph, “local supervising authority” has the same meaning as in the Nursing and Midwifery Order 2001.

Elections relating to statutory paternity and statutory adoption pay

7.—(1) The amendments made by paragraph 56 of Schedule 2—

- (a) do not affect the continuing validity or effect of any election made before 1st April 2013 under regulation 2 of the Statutory Paternity Pay and Statutory Adoption Pay (National Health Service Employees) Regulations 2002⁽²³³⁾, and
- (b) do not prevent a person employed immediately before that date (“the employee”) from making an election under that regulation on or after that date.

(2) An election made by virtue of sub-paragraph (1)(b) is to be made to the person to whom the employee's contract of employment is transferred by virtue of a transfer scheme under section 300 of the Health and Social Care Act 2012.

Continuing validity of medical cards

8. Notwithstanding the amendments made by paragraphs 64(1) and (2)(c), 70(1) and (2)(b), 71(1) and (2)(b) and 75(1) and (2)(b) of Schedule 2, a medical card issued by a Primary Care Trust is to continue to be valid for the purposes of—

- (a) the National Health Service (General Medical Services Contracts) (Wales) Regulations 2004(234),
- (b) the National Health Service (General Medical Services Contracts) (Scotland) Regulations 2004(235),
- (c) the National Health Service (Primary Medical Services Section 17C Agreements) (Scotland) Regulations 2004(236), and
- (d) the Health and Personal Social Services (General Medical Services Contracts) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2004(237).

Duty to co-operate with complaints

9. The amendment made by paragraph 64(1) and (8) of Schedule 2 does not affect the duty of a contractor under paragraph 95 of Schedule 6 to the National Health Service (General Medical Services Contracts) (Wales) Regulations 2004 to co-operate with any investigation of a complaint which is begun by a Primary Care Trust and which continues to be investigated after 31st March 2013.

10. The amendment made by paragraph 70(1) and (3)(b) of Schedule 2 does not affect the duty of a contractor under paragraph 87 of Schedule 5 to the National Health Service (General Medical Services Contracts) (Scotland) Regulations 2004 to co-operate with any investigation of a complaint which is begun by a Primary Care Trust and which continues to be investigated after 31st March 2013.

11. The amendment made by paragraph 71(1) and (3) of Schedule 2 does not affect the duty of a provider under paragraph 52 of Schedule 1 to the National Health Service (Primary Medical Services Section 17C Agreements) (Scotland) Regulations 2004 to co-operate with any investigation of a complaint which is begun by a Primary Care Trust and which continues to be investigated after 31st March 2013.

12. The amendment made by paragraph 75(1) and (4)(b) of Schedule 2 does not affect the duty of a contractor under paragraph 89 of Schedule 5 to the Health and Personal Social Services (General Medical Services Contracts) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2004 to co-operate with any investigation of a complaint which is begun by a Primary Care Trust and which continues to be investigated after 31st March 2013.

13. The amendment made by paragraph 95(1) and (4)(c) of Schedule 2 does not affect the duty of a contractor under paragraph 51 of Schedule 3 to the National Health Service (Personal Dental Services Agreements) (Wales) Regulations 2006(238) to co-operate with any investigation of a complaint which is begun by a Primary Care Trust and which continues to be investigated after 31st March 2013.

(238) S.I. 2006/489, to which there are amendments not relevant to this Order.

14. The amendment made by paragraph 96(1) and (4)(c) of Schedule 2 does not affect the duty of a contractor under paragraph 51 of Schedule 3 to the National Health Service (General Dental Services Contracts) (Wales) Regulations 2006(239) to co-operate with any investigation of a complaint which is begun by a Primary Care Trust and which continues to be investigated after 31st March 2013.

Continuing validity of nominations

15. The amendments made by paragraph 66(1) and (2) of Schedule 2 do not affect the continuation of any person's nomination as a legal representative for the purposes of Schedule 1 to the Medicines for Human Use (Clinical Trials) Regulations 2004(240) if that person was nominated by a Primary Care Trust or Strategic Health Authority.

Continuing validity of guidance

16. Any guidance issued by the National Institute for Health and Clinical Excellence for the purposes of paragraph 15 of Schedule 3 to the National Health Service (Personal Dental Services Agreements) (Wales) Regulations 2006 which has effect immediately before 1st April 2013 is to be treated after 31st March 2013 as if issued by the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence for those purposes.

17. Any guidance issued by the National Institute for Health and Clinical Excellence for the purposes of paragraph 14 of Schedule 3 to the National Health Service (General Dental Services Contracts) (Wales) Regulations 2006 which has effect immediately before 1st April 2013 is to be treated after 31st March 2013 as if issued by the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence for those purposes.

Complaints under the Local Authority Social Services and National Health Service Complaints (England) Regulations 2009

18. The amendments made by paragraph 123 of Schedule 2 do not affect the handling of any complaint which immediately before 1st April 2013 is being or is to be handled by a provider in accordance with regulation 7 of the Local Authority Social Services and National Health Service Complaints (England) Regulations 2009(241).

19.—(1) This paragraph applies to any complaint made to a Primary Care Trust or Strategic Health Authority (“the predecessor body”) under the Local Authority Social Services and National Health Service Complaints (England) Regulations 2009 which is still being handled by the predecessor body immediately before 1st April 2013.

(2) If the complaint relates to the exercise of a function which after 31st March 2013 is that of the National Health Service Commissioning Board, or to a service which after that date is provided under arrangements made by the Board, the Board must take over the handling of the complaint.

(3) If the complaint relates to the exercise of a function which after 31st March 2013 is that of a clinical commissioning group, or to a service which after that date is provided under arrangements made by such a group, the group must take over the handling of the complaint.

(4) If the complaint relates to the exercise of a function which after 31st March 2013 is that of a local authority exercising public health functions (within the meaning of the National Health Service Act 2006(242)), or to a service which after that date is provided under arrangements made by such an authority, the authority must take over the handling of the complaint as if the complaint had been made in accordance with Part 5 of the NHS Bodies and Local Authorities (Partnership Arrangements, Care Trusts, Public Health and Local Healthwatch) Regulations 2012(243).

20.—(1) This paragraph applies to any complaint under the Local Authority Social Services and National Health Service Complaints (England) Regulations 2009—

- (a) which falls to be made after 31st March 2013,
- (b) which relates to anything occurring before 1st April 2013, and
- (c) which if made before that date would have been made to a Primary Care Trust or Strategic Health Authority (“the predecessor body”).

(2) If the complaint relates to the exercise of a function which after 31st March 2013 is that of the National Health Service Commissioning Board, or to a service which after that date is provided under arrangements made by the Board, the complaint must be made to the Board which shall deal with or handle it in accordance with those Regulations.

(3) If the complaint relates to the exercise of a function which after 31st March 2013 is that of a clinical commissioning group, or to a service which after that date is provided under arrangements made by such a group, the complaint must be made to the group which shall deal with or handle it in accordance with those Regulations.

(4) If the complaint relates to the exercise of a function which after 31st March 2013 is that of a local authority exercising public health functions (within the meaning of the National Health Service Act 2006), or to a service which after that date is provided under arrangements made by such an authority, the complaint must be made to the authority which shall deal with or handle the complaint as if it had been made in accordance with Part 5 of the NHS Bodies and Local Authorities (Partnership Arrangements, Care Trusts, Public Health and Local Healthwatch) Regulations 2012.

21. If a local authority—

- (a) takes over the handling of a complaint in accordance with paragraph 19(4), or
- (b) deals with or handles a complaint in accordance with paragraph 20(4), regulation 29(2)(c) of the NHS Bodies and Local Authorities (Partnership Arrangements, Care Trusts, Public Health and Local Healthwatch) Regulations 2012 is to have effect as if the reference to the right to take a complaint to a Local Commissioner under the Local Government Act 1974(244) were a reference to the right to take a complaint to the Health Service Commissioner for England under the Health Service Commissioners Act 1993(245).

Continuing operation of pilot schemes

22.—(1) The amendments made by paragraph 154 of Schedule 2 do not affect the continuing operation after 31st March 2013 of any pilot scheme which has effect immediately before 1st April 2013.

(2) Any direct payment which but for that abolition could be payable under a pilot scheme by a Primary Care Trust after 31st March 2013 is to be payable by a successor body.

(3) Any act or omission by or in relation to a Primary Care Trust before 1st April 2013 under or in connection with any provision of a pilot scheme or the Direct Payments Regulations is, where appropriate, to be treated as an act or omission by or in relation to a successor body.

(4) Anything which is in the process of being done by or in relation to a Primary Care Trust immediately before 1st April 2013 under or in connection with any provision of a pilot scheme or the Direct Payments Regulations is, where appropriate, to be treated as done by or in relation to, and may be continued by or in relation to, a successor body.

(5) Any reference (however expressed) in a pilot scheme to a Primary Care Trust is, where appropriate, to be treated as a reference to a successor body.

(6) In the application of the Direct Payments Regulations to a pilot scheme which has continuing operation by virtue of sub-paragraph (1), any reference in those Regulations to a pilot health body is, where appropriate, to be treated as reference to a successor body.

(7) Where there is more than one successor body in relation to a Primary Care Trust in respect of which a pilot scheme has been made—

- (a) sub-paragraphs (2) to (5) are to apply separately in relation to each successor body, and
- (b) sub-paragraph (6), in its application to regulations 3 to 5 of the Direct Payments Regulations, is to have effect as if for “a successor body” there were substituted “all of the successor bodies”.

(8) In this paragraph—

“direct payment” means a direct payment under a pilot scheme;

“the Direct Payments Regulations” means the National Health Service (Direct Payments) Regulations 2010⁽²⁴⁶⁾;

“health body” means a clinical commissioning group, a local authority (within the meaning of section 2B of the National Health Service Act 2006⁽²⁴⁷⁾) or the National Health Commissioning Board;

“pilot scheme” means a pilot scheme under the Direct Payments Regulations;

“relevant function” means a power or duty to provide or arrange for the provision of anything to a person;

“successor body”, in relation to a Primary Care Trust in respect of which a pilot scheme has been made, means a health body whose relevant functions after 31st March 2013 are or include functions in respect of which, if criteria in the pilot scheme were met, direct payments under the scheme could be made.

Ongoing complaints: Wales

23.—(1) Sub-paragraph (2) applies if—

- (a) arrangements by a Strategic Health Authority or Primary Care Trust with a Welsh NHS body falling within Part 7 of the National Health Service (Concerns, Complaints and Redress Arrangements) (Wales) Regulations 2011⁽²⁴⁸⁾, or
- (b) liabilities under or in connection with such arrangements, are transferred to a clinical commissioning group, the National Health Service Commissioning Board, a local authority (within the meaning of section 2B of the National Health Service Act 2006) or another person by virtue of a transfer scheme under section 300 of the Health and Social Care Act 2012.

(2) That group, Board, authority or person is to be responsible for any relevant functions under Part 7 of those Regulations that fall to be performed after 31st March 2013.

Unpaid service to be taken into account

24. The amendments made by paragraph 165 of Schedule 2 are not to prevent unpaid service with a Primary Care Trust or Strategic Health Authority being taken into account for the purposes of regulation 38(6) of the Education (Student Support) Regulations 2011(249).

Publication of public sector equality duty information and equality objectives

25. In its application to a clinical commissioning group, the National Health Service Commissioning Board, the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence or the Health and Social Care Information Centre, regulation 2(2)(a) of the Equality Act 2010 (Specific Duties) Regulations 2011(250) (publication of public sector equality duty information not later than 31st January 2012) is to have effect as if the reference to 31st January 2012 were a reference to 31st January 2014.

26. In its application to the National Health Service Commissioning Board, the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence or the Health and Social Care Information Centre, regulation 3(2) (a) of those Regulations (publication of equality objectives not later than 6th April 2012) is to have effect as if the reference to 6th April 2012 were a reference to 6th April 2013.

27. In its application to a clinical commissioning group, regulation 3(2)(a) of those Regulations is to have effect as if the reference to 6th April 2012 were a reference to 13th October 2013.

Continuing validity and effect of patient group directions

28.—(1) The amendments made by paragraph 176 of Schedule 2 do not affect the continuing validity or effect of any patient group direction (within the meaning of Part 12 of the Human Medicines Regulations 2012(251)) which has effect immediately before 1st April 2013.

(2) Any such patient group direction is to have effect until it expires or is replaced.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order provides for the abolition of the National Treatment Agency (“the Agency”) and makes provision in consequence of the Health and Social Care Act 2012 (c. 7) (“the Act”).

Part 2 of the Order deals with the Agency, which was established by the National Treatment Agency (Establishment and Constitution) Order 2001, made under what is now section 28 of the National Health Service Act 2006 (“the 2006 Act”). Article 3 of the Order abolishes the Agency on 1st April 2013. Articles 4 and 5 make provision for the transfer of the staff, property and liabilities of the Agency. Article 6 makes provision for continuity and other matters relating to transfer. Articles 7 and 8 provide for the handling of complaints against the Agency, and the winding up of its affairs, after 1st April 2013. Article 9 and Schedule 1 make consequential revocations and amendments.

Part 3 of the Order makes consequential, transitional and saving provisions in relation to the Act. Article 10 deals with contracts and agreements entered into by Primary Care Trusts (“PCTs”) for (249)S.I. 2011/1986, to which there are amendments not relevant to this Order.

(250)S.I. 2011/2260, to which there are amendments not relevant to this Order.

(251)S.I. 2012/1916.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

the provision of primary medical or primary dental services which are still in existence and which are dealt with by the Orders listed in article 10(1). Article 10 ensures that, following the abolition of PCTs by section 34 of the Act, the National Health Service Commissioning Board (established by section 1H of the 2006 Act, as inserted by section 9 of the Act) will take on PCTs' responsibilities under such contracts.

Article 11 and Part 1 of Schedule 2 amend secondary legislation (including Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland secondary legislation) in consequence of the Act. These provisions are in consequence in particular of certain aspects of the Act:

- the abolition of Strategic Health Authorities and PCTs by sections 33 and 34 of the Act;
- the establishment of the National Health Service Commissioning Board;
- the establishment of clinical commissioning groups under section 14D of the 2006 Act, as inserted by section 25 of the Act;
- the assumption by the Secretary of State and local authorities of new functions in relation to public health (see section 1H(5) of the 2006 Act, as inserted by section 9 of the Act);
- the abolition of the right of certain bodies to discharge patients under section 23 of the Mental Health Act 1983 (c. 20) by section 39 of the Act;
- the abolition of the Health Protection Agency (see section 56 of the Act);
- the amendments made to Part 14 of the Local Government and Public Involvement in Health Act 2007 (c. 28) by Part 5 of the Act to provide for Local Healthwatch organisations to take on the role of representing service users which was formerly discharged by local involvement networks;
- the changes made to the system of scrutiny of the health service by Part 5 of the Act including, in particular, amendments to section 244 of the 2006 Act to provide for health scrutiny functions to be conferred directly on local authorities;
- the abolition of two Special Health Authorities (the National Institute for Health and Clinical Excellence and the Health and Social Care Information Centre) and their replacement by two new non-Departmental Public Bodies (the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence – see Part 8 of, and Schedules 17 and 18 to, the Act, and the Health and Social Care Information Centre – see Chapter 2 of Part 9 of, and Schedules 18 and 19 to, the Act); and
- the abolition of certain other bodies by Part 10 of, and Schedule 20 to, the Act (the Alcohol Education and Research Council, the Appointments Commission, the National Information Governance Board for Health and Social Care, the National Patient Safety Agency and the NHS Institute for Innovation and Improvement).

Part 2 of Schedule 2 to the Order lists the statutory instruments which are revoked in their entirety in consequence of the Act. Schedule 3 to the Order makes transitional and saving provision in respect of certain of the consequential amendments made by Schedule 2.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as the Order itself has no impact on the private sector or civil society organisations. A full Impact Assessment has been produced in relation to the provisions of the Act and a copy is available at www.dh.gov.uk/en/Publicationsandstatistics/Publications/PublicationsLegislation/DH_123583
