 - (b) the account is denominated in sterling; and

⁽¹²⁾ SR (N.I.) 1987/465.

- (c) the account must at all times be managed in accordance with the Act and these Regulations by an authorised account provider and under terms agreed (the “agreed terms”) between the authorised account provider and the account holder.
- (2) Apart from other requirements of the Act and these Regulations, the agreed terms must include (or comply with, as the case may be) the conditions that—
 - (a) the authorised account provider must pay the account holder, or in the case of death their personal representatives, any bonus due in accordance with regulation 13;
 - (b) there is no restriction on the maximum or minimum amount or on timing (subject to the authorised account provider’s normal business hours) of withdrawals of the balance standing to the credit of the Help-to-Save account;
 - (c) there is no requirement that a minimum credit balance must be maintained in the account (with the result that an account with a nil balance is not automatically closed);
 - (d) the authorised account provider shall have no right of charge, lien, set-off, mortgage or other security against the money in the account; and
 - (e) the authorised account provider shall satisfy itself that any person to whom it delegates any of its functions or responsibilities under the agreed terms is competent to carry out those functions or responsibilities.

- (4) This regulation is subject to regulations 9 and 10.

- (2) The maximum monthly amount is to be a gross amount (ignoring previous withdrawals from the account and the mentioned exclusions in paragraph (1)).
 - (3) The minimum amount that can be paid into a Help-to-Save account is £1 or such smaller amount agreed by an authorised account provider.
 - (4) An amount paid into a Help-to-Save account in excess of the maximum monthly amount is not to be treated as an amount added to an account and must not be held in that account.
 - (5) This regulation is subject to regulation 6(2).

Amount of Bonus

- 13.—(1) A bonus is to be paid to an account holder—
- (a) at the end of the maturity period, and
 - (b) if earlier, also at the end of the period of 24 months beginning with the month in which the Help-to-Save account is opened (the “first bonus period”).
- (2) The amount of a bonus is to be nil if the account is closed or otherwise ceases to be a Help-to-Save account before the end of a period in respect of which a bonus would otherwise be payable.
- (3) The amount of a bonus is to be calculated by the authorised account provider by multiplying A by B where
- A is the number of whole pounds in the qualifying balance of the account, and
- B is 50 pence.

(4) The qualifying balance, in the case of a bonus that is paid at the end of the first bonus period, or at the end of the maturity period (if earlier), is the highest balance of an account achieved in that period.

(5) The qualifying balance, in the case of a bonus that is paid at the end of the maturity period, if later than the end of the first bonus period, is the highest balance of a Help-to-Save account achieved after the first bonus period, less the highest balance of the account achieved in the first bonus period (if any).

(6) In calculating any qualifying balance, the following are to be disregarded—

- (a) the amount of any bonus, interest or other sum paid by the authorised account provider under the terms of the Help-to-Save account;
- (b) any sum paid into the Help-to-Save account in breach of the limit specified in regulation 12; and

(7) The authorised account provider must pay the bonus to the account holder within 21 days from the end of the first bonus period or the maturity period (as the case requires).

(8) If the account holder dies, paragraph (7) does not apply and the authorised account provider must pay to the account holder’s personal representatives the amount of any bonus accrued to the date of death.

(9) A payment of bonus due under paragraph (8) must be made within 21 days of the end of the month in which HMRC receives evidence of the death of the account holder and of the status of the personal representatives.

(10) For the purposes of paragraph 3(7) of Schedule 2, an account holder is to be considered as suffering from a terminal illness if HMRC has received written evidence from a registered medical practitioner that the account holder is expected to live for less than 12 months.

Bonus claim

14.—(1) A bonus is only payable if a claim for it is made by the authorised account provider in accordance with arrangements made between HMRC and the Director of Savings.

(2) HMRC may from time to time specify—

- (a) the information to be included in a claim for a bonus;
- (b) the period to which such a claim is to relate (“claim period”); and
- (c) the form or manner in which such a claim is to be made.

(3) The claim is to be made on a date within such period provided for in accordance with those arrangements after the end of a claim period.

(4) HMRC in accordance with those arrangements must pay the authorised account provider for the account of the account holder any bonus amount that is due.

Rejection of bonus claim

15.—(1) HMRC must notify the authorised account provider of a rejection of any claim for a bonus together with reasons for the decision—

- (a) where the claim is made by the date referred to in regulation 14(3) (“due date”), within 14 days beginning with the day after the due date for the claim, and
- (b) where the claim is made later than the due date, within 14 days beginning with the day after receipt of the claim.

(2) The authorised account provider, on receipt of such notification, must notify the account holder within 14 days beginning with the day after the day of receipt.

(3) An account holder may within 90 days, beginning with the day after the expiry of the period referred to in paragraph (2), apply to HMRC for payment of a bonus which has been refused.

(4) Regulation 19 applies, in relation to an account holder, to a decision in respect of an application under paragraph (3).

(5) The effect of any notification or decision is not suspended by the making of an application or an appeal.

Recoupment of bonus etc.

16.—(1) Where—

- (a) the account holder was not an eligible person on an eligibility reference date; or
- (b) in relation to a Help-to-Save account, there is a breach of the declaration made under regulation 8(2)(b)(i), (ii) or (iv), the account is void and the persons mentioned in paragraph (4), who are to be jointly and severally liable, must account to HMRC for any amount of bonus paid in respect of the account.

(2) HMRC must notify the account holder of a Help-to-Save account becoming void under paragraph (1) within 14 days beginning with the day a determination to that effect is made.

(3) Where an amount of bonus is paid by HMRC to an authorised account provider in pursuance of the Act due to a misstatement or a mistake, or at a time when an account is not a Help-to-Save account, the persons mentioned in paragraph (4) must account to HMRC for such amount.

(4) The persons mentioned in this paragraph are—

- (a) the authorised account provider (to the extent that it has assets relating to the account, or directly or indirectly representing any of the payments, in its possession or control),
- (b) the account holder, or former account holder (to the extent that the payments have been made or credited to the account holder), and
- (c) any person in whom any of the payments, or any property directly or indirectly representing any of them, is vested (whether beneficially or otherwise).

(5) Where a person accountable under this regulation is notified by HMRC that an amount is due from that person under it, that amount is to be treated for the purposes of Part 6 of the Management Act (collection and recovery) as if it were tax charged in an assessment and due and payable.

(6) The time limits in sections 34 to 36 and 40 of the Management Act are to apply to amounts payable under this regulation as they apply to assessments.

(7) Regulation 19 applies to any notification under this regulation.

Payments by and to HMRC

17.—(1) Any amount which is payable by virtue of an assessment made, or treated as made, under these Regulations is payable on the day following the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which the notice of assessment is given.

(2) Paragraph (1) is subject to any proceedings relating to appeal.

(3) Sections 101 and 103 of the Finance Act 2009(13) apply for late payment interest on any amount that is payable to HMRC under these Regulations which amount is to be treated as income tax for this purpose.

(4) Sections 102 and 103 of that Act apply for repayment interest on any amount that is payable by HMRC under these Regulations which amount payable is to be treated as a repayment of an overpayment of income tax.

“Repair” of invalid accounts

18.—(1) Except in the case of a breach of the declaration made under regulation 8(2)(b)(i), (ii) or (iv) (where no repair of an account is possible), it is an overriding requirement to be satisfied in relation to an account that the authorised account provider and account holder, as the case may be, take any steps necessary to remedy any breach of these Regulations.

(2) Where a breach is remedied as mentioned in paragraph (1), the account must, to the extent of that breach, be treated as having been a valid Help-to-Save account at all times.

Appeals

19.—(1) This Regulation applies to a review or appeal in respect of a decision made or notification given by HMRC under any of regulations 8, 15 and 16.

(2) Notice of an appeal must be given to HMRC within 30 days after the date on which notice of the decision or other notification was given.

(3) Notice of an appeal must—

- (a) specify the grounds of appeal;
- (b) be given in writing;
- (c) be treated as a requirement by the appellant under section 49A(2)(a) of the Management Act for HMRC to review the matter in question;
- (d) contain sufficient information to identify the appellant and the decision against which the appeal is being made; and
- (e) be signed, or authenticated in another way authorised by HMRC, by or on behalf of the appellant.

(4) Sections 49, 49A, 49B, 49D to 49G, 49I and 54 of the Management Act⁽¹⁴⁾ apply in relation to proceedings for a review and appeal.

(5) The following provisions apply where a person is appealing to the Tribunal.

(6) The Tribunal must either—

- (a) dismiss the appeal, or
- (b) quash the whole or part of the decision to which the appeal relates.

(7) The Tribunal may act as mentioned in paragraph (6)(b) only to the extent that it is satisfied that the decision was wrong on one or more of the following grounds—

- (a) that the decision was based, wholly or partly, on an error of fact;
- (b) that the decision was wrong in law.

(8) If the Tribunal quashes the whole or part of a decision, it may either—

- (a) refer the matter back to HMRC with a direction to reconsider and make a new decision in accordance with its ruling, or
- (b) substitute its own decision for that of HMRC. The Tribunal may not direct HMRC to take any action which they would not otherwise have the power to take in relation to the decision.

⁽¹⁴⁾ Section 49 was substituted and sections 49A, 49B, 49D to 49G and 49I were inserted, by S.I.2009/56.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(9) A decision of the Tribunal made by virtue of this section has the same effect, and may be enforced in the same manner, as a decision of HMRC.

(10) In this Regulation “the Tribunal” means the First-tier Tribunal, or when determined by or under Tribunal Procedure Rules, the Upper Tribunal.
