(2) The Isle of Man Treasury will treat as binding—

(a) tariff information rulings and origin information rulings issued by the Commissioners in accordance with sub-paragraph (1)(a); and

(b) decisions made on review and appeal in accordance with sub-paragraph (1)(b).

10.—(1) Except as provided in this Annex or as may otherwise be agreed by the Commissioners and the Isle of Man Treasury, the Isle of Man Government will keep the law relating to import controls to the extent that it relates to safety and security correspondent with that of the United Kingdom and will legislate to maintain that correspondence whenever necessary and, in particular, when changes are made in relevant United Kingdom law.

(2) Compliance with the commitment in sub-paragraph (1) will require the introduction of legislation which requires Isle of Man Courts to have due regard to the relevant decisions of United Kingdom Courts when interpreting correspondent provisions of Isle of Man law relating to import controls to the extent that it relates to safety and security.

(3) Except as may be agreed from time to time by exchange of letters between the Commissioners and the Isle of Man Treasury, the Isle of Man Government will adopt practices and procedures for the management of operations relating to import controls to the extent that they relate to safety and security corresponding to those in the United Kingdom.

12.—(1) By this paragraph in conjunction with paragraph 16 of the Jersey Arrangement and paragraph 16 of the Guernsey Arrangement, the Joint Customs Committee is hereby established. The Joint Customs Committee will consist of representatives of the Isle of Man customs and excise service, the Commissioners, the Competent Authority of Jersey and the Competent Authority of Guernsey.

(2) The Joint Customs Committee will hold at least one meeting each year, at a place and on a date with an agenda fixed by mutual consent.

(3) The Joint Customs Committee will adopt its rules of procedure.

(4) The Joint Customs Committee will function as a forum for—

(a) the exchange of views on any points of common interest regarding the Arrangements;

(b) reviewing the operation of the Arrangements; and

(c) seeking appropriate ways and methods of preventing problems that might arise in areas covered by the Arrangements or of resolving disputes that may arise regarding the interpretation and application of the Arrangements.

(5) The preceding sub-paragraphs of this paragraph do not preclude bilateral discussions or correspondence between the Isle of Man customs and excise service and the Commissioners regarding any of the matters listed in sub-paragraph (4).

13. Following a request from the Isle of Man customs and excise service, the Commissioners will provide within twenty-eight calendar days, unless the Isle of Man customs and excise service and the Commissioners agree to an alternative time limit, such information as may reasonably be required by the Isle of Man Government on the operation of the Arrangements, and in particular to enable the Isle of Man customs and excise service to participate effectively in the Joint Customs Committee.

14. Where the Commissioners give notice to the Isle of Man customs and excise service, the Isle of Man customs and excise service will invite the Commissioners to visit and review its systems and facilities in order to enable the Commissioners to assess the Isle of Man's adherence to the terms of this Arrangement. Any visit under this sub-paragraph will take place on a date no more than fourteen calendar days after the Isle of Man customs and excise service receives notice from the Commissioners, or such other date as the Commissioners and the Isle of Man customs and excise service agree.

15. The definitions in paragraph 23 of the 1979 Agreement apply in respect of this Annex. In addition, for the purposes of this Annex, the following definitions apply—

“the 1979 Agreement” means the Agreement of which this Annex forms a part (as amended from time to time), but excluding this Annex;

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

Part 1 of the Schedule to this Order contains an Exchange of Letters between the Government of the United Kingdom and the Government of the Isle of Man relating to the Customs and Excise (Amendment) Arrangement 2018 (“the Arrangement”). Part 2 of the Schedule contains the text of the Arrangement. The Exchange of Letters and the Arrangement are “arrangements establishing a customs union” between the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man for the purposes of section 31(2) of the Taxation (Cross-border Trade) Act 2018.

The Arrangement amends the Customs and Excise Agreement 1979 between the Government of the United Kingdom and the Government of the Isle of Man, to which the Isle of Man Act 1979 gives effect. Pursuant to section 31(4) of the Taxation (Cross-border Trade) Act 2018, this Order will have effect for the purposes of import duty “despite any enactment”.

Article 1 provides for citation.

Article 2 provides that it is expedient that the arrangements specified in the Schedule should have effect for the purposes of import duty. Goods removed to the United Kingdom from the Isle of Man will be deemed not to be imported into the United Kingdom and will not therefore be subject to import duty (except as provided in section 8(2) of the Isle of Man Act 1979) (paragraph 3(1)(a))

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

of the Annex scheduled to the Arrangement). The United Kingdom will make provision for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC) to process applications for tariff information rulings and origin information rulings from persons intending to import goods from outside the United Kingdom-Crown Dependencies Customs Union into the Isle of Man, and for such persons to seek review and appeal of these rulings (paragraph 9 of the Annex scheduled to the Arrangement).

The Governments of the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man entered into the arrangements set out in the Schedule on 26 November 2018 (Part 1 of the Schedule). The Arrangement will, subject to limited exceptions, come into effect upon an exchange of letters between the Government of the United Kingdom and the Government of the Isle of Man (paragraph 17(2) of the Arrangement).

The date that the Arrangement comes into effect will, in due course, be published in the London, Edinburgh and Belfast Gazettes.

A full impact assessment has not been prepared for this instrument as it contains no substantive changes to tax policy.
