4.—(1) If the applicant for a review of a determination or any person to whom notice of the application has been given under regulation 3(4) requests a formal hearing of the application, the Department shall grant the request unless, after considering the grounds of the application and any reasons given for the request, it is satisfied that the review of the determination can properly be made without such a hearing.

(2) If the Department is satisfied that the review can properly be made without a formal hearing, it shall inform the person making the request of its refusal and of the reason for that refusal and may proceed to review the determination without such a hearing, but it shall not proceed to make its review of the determination until it has allowed the person making the request at least 21 days to make any written submissions in connection with the review.

(4) In any case in which a formal hearing of a review is held such hearing shall be in public except where the Department is satisfied that, by reason of the confidential or sensitive nature of matters raised, it is just and reasonable for the hearing or any part of it to be in private.

(6) A person who has the right to be heard shall be entitled to be represented by another person whether legally qualified or not.

Procedure for review decision

5.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the Department shall allow a period of at least 21 days to elapse after the sending of the notices required by regulation 3(4) and it shall then proceed to review the determination as soon as practicable with a view to confirming, varying or revoking that determination having regard to any representations that it has received.

(2) The Department may allow a period of less than 21 days to elapse before proceeding to review the determination in accordance with paragraph (1) with the agreement of all persons to whom notice of the application has been given.

(3) If it appears to the Department that any review involves a question of special difficulty, it may take the advice and assistance of an assessor who has the relevant professional qualifications.
