

Commission Decision of 15 March 2006 on setting up a high level expert group to advise the European Commission on the implementation and the development of the i2010 strategy (2006/215/EC)

Article 5

Meeting expenses

The Commission shall reimburse travel and subsistence expenses for members, experts and observers in connection with the group's activities in accordance with the provisions in force in the Commission. The members shall not be paid for their duties.

Meeting expenses are reimbursed within the limits of the appropriations allocated to the department concerned under the annual procedure for allocating resources.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Commission Decision of 15 March 2006 on setting up a high level expert group to advise the European Commission on the implementation and the development of the i2010 strategy (2006/215/EC), Article 5.