

Council Decision of 25 February 2010 on setting up the Standing Committee on operational cooperation on internal security (2010/131/EU)

COUNCIL DECISION

of 25 February 2010

on setting up the Standing Committee on operational cooperation on internal security (2010/131/EU)

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in particular Article 240(3) thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) Article 71 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union provides that a standing committee shall be set up within the Council in order to ensure that operational cooperation on internal security is promoted and strengthened within the Union.
- (2) It is therefore appropriate to adopt a Decision on the setting up of such a Committee and to define its tasks,

HAS ADOPTED THIS DECISION:

Article 1

The Standing Committee on operational cooperation on internal security (hereinafter referred to as 'the Standing Committee') foreseen in Article 71 of the Treaty is hereby set up within the Council.

Article 2

The Standing Committee shall facilitate, promote and strengthen coordination of operational actions of the authorities of the Member States competent in the field of internal security.

Article 3

1 Without prejudice to the mandates of the bodies referred to in Article 5, the Standing Committee shall facilitate and ensure effective operational cooperation and coordination under Title V of Part Three of the Treaty, including in areas covered by police and customs cooperation and by authorities responsible for the control and protection of external borders. It shall also cover, where appropriate, judicial cooperation in criminal matters relevant to operational cooperation in the field of internal security.

2 The Standing Committee shall also evaluate the general direction and efficiency of operational cooperation; it shall identify possible shortcomings or failures and adopt appropriate concrete recommendations to address them.

3 The Standing Committee shall assist the Council in accordance with the provisions of Article 222 of the Treaty.
