2 A Contracting Party shall not be required to protect as a geographical indication a name that conflicts with the name of a plant variety, including a wine grape variety, or an animal breed and as a result is likely to mislead the consumer as to the true origin of the product.

Article 4

Scope of protection of geographical indications

1 The geographical indications listed in Annexes III and IV, as well as those added pursuant to Article 3(1), shall be protected against:

- a any direct or indirect commercial use of a protected name:

- b any misuse, imitation or evocation⁽⁶⁾, even if the true origin of the product is indicated or if the protected name is translated, transcribed, transliterated, or accompanied by an expression such as "style", "type", "method", "as produced in", "imitation", "flavour", "like" or similar;

2 If geographical indications are wholly or partially homonymous, protection shall be granted to each indication provided that it has been used in good faith and with due regard for local and traditional usage and the actual risk of confusion. Without prejudice to Article 23 of the Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (TRIPS), the Contracting Parties shall mutually decide the practical conditions of use under which the homonymous geographical indications will be differentiated from each other, taking into account the need to ensure equitable treatment of the producers concerned and that consumers are not misled. A homonymous name which misleads the consumer into believing that products come from another territory shall not be registered even if the name is accurate as far as the actual territory, region or place of origin of the product in question is concerned.

3 Where a Contracting Party, in the context of negotiations with a third country, proposes to protect a geographical indication of that third country, and the name is homonymous with a geographical indication of the other Contracting Party the latter shall be consulted and be given the opportunity to comment before the name is protected.

2 For geographical indications referred to in Article 2, the date of application for protection shall be the date of entry into force of this Agreement.

3 For geographical indications referred to in Article 3, the date of application for protection shall be the date of the transmission of a request to the other Contracting Party to protect a geographical indication.

4 For geographical indications referred to in Article 3, the Contracting Parties shall have no obligation to protect a geographical indication where, in the light of a reputed or well-known trade mark, protection is liable to mislead consumers as to the true identity of the product.

5 Without prejudice to paragraph 4, the Contracting Parties shall protect geographical indications also where a prior trade mark exists. A prior trade mark shall mean a trade mark the use of which corresponds to one of the situations referred to in Article 4(1), which has been applied for, registered or established by use, if that possibility is provided for by the legislation concerned, in the territory of one of the Contracting Parties before the date on which the application for protection of the geographical indication is submitted by the other Contracting Party under this Agreement. Such trade mark may continue to be used and renewed notwithstanding the protection of the geographical indication, provided that no grounds for the trade mark's invalidity or revocation exist in the legislation on trade marks of the Contracting Parties.
