

ANNEX

DEFINITIONS OF TERMS USED IN THIS LIST

"Riot control agents"

Substances which, under the expected conditions of use for riot control purposes, produce rapidly in humans sensory irritation or disabling physical effects which disappear within a short time following termination of exposure. (Tear gases are a subset of "riot control agents".)