

REGULATION (EEC) No 641/69 OF THE COMMISSION

of 3 April 1969

on determining the origin of certain goods produced from eggs

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community;

Having regard to Council Regulation (EEC) No 802/68 of 27 June 1968 on the common definition of the concept of the origin of goods¹, and in particular Article 14 thereof;

Whereas the processes for the production of dried egg, dried egg yolk and dried egg white (ovalbumin) from eggs in shell or eggs not in shell can only be carried out in an undertaking equipped for that purpose; whereas those processes constitute a substantial and economically justified operation;

Whereas dried egg, dried egg yolk and dried egg white (ovalbumin) are products distinct from eggs in shell or eggs not in shell;

Whereas, consequently, in accordance with Article 5 of the above-mentioned Regulation, dried egg, dried egg yolk and dried egg white (ovalbumin) must be considered as originating in the country where the drying processes took place;

Whereas the provisions of this Regulation are in accordance with the Opinion of the Committee on Origin;

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Sole Article

The goods described in column 5 of the Table below which have been produced in one country from goods imported from another country and shown in column 2 of that Table, as the result of the processes listed in column 3 of that Table, shall be deemed to originate in the country where these processes took place.

| Goods imported and processed | | Processes which the imported goods have undergone | Goods produced | |
