

Regulation (EC) No 1069/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 October 2009 laying down health rules as regards animal by-products and derived products not intended for human consumption and repealing Regulation (EC) No 1774/2002 (Animal by-products Regulation)

TITLE II

OBLIGATIONS OF OPERATORS

CHAPTER I

General obligations

Section 2

Registration and approval

Article 23

Registration of operators, establishments or plants

- 1 With a view to registration, operators shall:
 - a before commencing operations, notify the competent authority of any establishments or plants under their control which are active at any stage of the generation, transport, handling, processing, storage, placing on the market, distribution, use or disposal of animal by-products and derived products;
 - b provide the competent authority with information on:
 - (i) the category of animal by-products or derived products under their control;
 - (ii) the nature of the operations performed using animal by-products or derived products as starting material.

2 Operators shall provide the competent authority with up-to-date information on any establishments or plants under their control as referred to in point (a) of paragraph 1, including any significant change in activities such as any closure of an existing establishment or plant.

[^{F13} The appropriate authority may, by regulations, make detailed rules relating to registration under paragraph 1.]

4 By way of derogation from paragraph 1, no notification with a view to registration shall be required for activities with respect to which establishments generating animal by-products have already been approved or registered in accordance with Regulation (EC) No 852/2004 or Regulation (EC) No 853/2004; and for activities with respect to which establishments or plants have already been approved in accordance with Article 24 of this Regulation.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Regulation (EC) No 1069/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council, Article 23. (See end of Document for details)

The same derogation shall apply for the activities involving the generation of animal by-products on site only, which are carried out on farms or other premises where animals are kept, bred or taken care of.
