- (1) A person's failure to comply with a provision of an approved code of practice does not render that person liable to enforcement action of any kind.

 - (a) a failure by P to comply with a relevant provision of an approved code of practice may be relied upon as tending to establish that P is liable for the alleged standards failure, and
 - (b) compliance with a relevant provision of an approved code of practice may be relied upon as tending to establish that P is not liable for the alleged standards failure.
- (3) References in this section to an approved code of practice are references—
