

2008 CHAPTER 4

PART 2 N.I.

REGULATION OF TAXIS

Requirement for taxi licence N.I.

12.—(1) A taxi shall not be used in standing or plying for hire or reward or to carry passengers for hire or reward except under a licence which is in force for that taxi (in this Act referred to as a “taxi licence”).

(2) The driver of a taxi and the taxi operator for or in respect of a taxi used in contravention of this section are each guilty of an offence.

(3) The owner of a taxi who permits it to be used in contravention of this section is guilty of an offence.

(4) It is a defence in proceedings for an offence under subsection (2) for the driver or operator to show that the driver or operator (as the case may be) exercised all due diligence to prevent the taxi being used in contravention of this section.

- (a) taxis of such different classes as may be prescribed; and
 - (b) such different classes of use of taxis as may be prescribed.
- (3) The Department shall grant a taxi licence for a taxi if it is satisfied that—
- (a) the taxi—
 - (i) is suitable in such type, size and design as may be prescribed for use in standing or plying for hire or reward or to carry passengers for hire or reward;
 - (ii) meets such conditions as may be prescribed (which may include conditions relating to its age) to ensure that it is safe, comfortable and in a suitable mechanical condition for that use; and
 - (iii) meets any further requirements or conditions that may be prescribed
 - (b) there is in force in relation to the use of the taxi a policy of insurance or such security as complies with the requirements of Part 8 of the 1981 Order; and
 - (c) any further requirements that may be prescribed are met.
- (4) A taxi licence may not be granted in respect of more than one taxi.
- (5) A taxi licence shall be granted subject to such conditions as may be prescribed and such other conditions as the Department may think fit.
- (6) A taxi licence shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars as the Department may think fit.
- (7) A taxi licence shall be granted for one year or for such shorter period as the Department may consider appropriate in the circumstances of the case.
- (8) An applicant for a taxi licence may by notice appeal to the Department against—
- (a) a decision not to grant such a licence;
 - (b) a decision to grant such a licence in respect of a particular class of taxi or a particular class of use of taxi; or
 - (c) any condition (other than a prescribed condition) to which the licence is subject.
- (9) The time within which a person may bring such an appeal is 21 days from the date on which the notice of the decision appealed against is served on the person.
- (10) On an appeal under subsection (8), the Department may decide to—
- (a) confirm, reverse or vary the decision; or
 - (b) approve, revoke or vary the condition,
- (as the case may be) as it thinks fit.
- (11) The Department shall, on making a decision under subsection (10), give notice of the decision to the appellant including particulars of the grounds of the decision.

Duties of owners of licensed taxis N.I.

14.—(1) This section applies to the owner of any licensed taxi.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the owner shall present the taxi for inspection and testing by or on behalf of the Department within such period and at such place as the Department may by notice reasonably require.

(3) The taxi shall not be required to be presented under subsection (2) on more than three separate occasions during any one period of 12 months.

(4) The owner shall (without prejudice to Article 175 of the 1981 Order) report any accident to the taxi materially affecting—

- (a) the safety, performance or appearance of the taxi; or
- (b) the comfort or convenience of persons carried in the taxi, to the Department as soon as reasonably practicable and in any case within 72 hours of the accident occurring.

(5) If the ownership of the taxi changes, the person who was previously the owner shall within 14 days of the change—

- (a) give notice to the Department of that fact and the name and address of the new owner; and
- (b) return to the Department the taxi licence and the plate, disc, sign or distinguishing mark which was issued for the taxi under section 15.

(6) A person who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes any provision of this section is guilty of an offence.
