

2009 CHAPTER 6

Declarations of presumed death

Powers of the High Court

- 4.—(1) The High Court, when making a declaration under section 1, may—
- (a) determine any question relating to the interest of any person in the property of the missing person;
 - (b) make such order in relation to any rights to or in any property acquired as a result of the making of the declaration as it considers reasonable in the circumstances of the case; or
 - (c) determine the domicile of the missing person at the time of his or her presumed death.
- (2) An order under subsection (1)(b) may, subject to any conditions specified therein, direct that the value of any rights to or in any property acquired as a result of the declaration shall not be recoverable by virtue of an order made under section 6(2).

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Presumption of Death Act (Northern Ireland) 2009, Section 4.
