CHAPTER 4

BANNING ORDERS IN RELATION TO REGULATED MATCHES

Banning orders: additional requirements

46.—(1) A banning order may, if the court making the order thinks fit, impose additional requirements on the person subject to the order in relation to any regulated matches.

(2) The court by which a banning order was made may, on an application made by—

- (a) the person subject to the order, or
- (b) the person who was the prosecutor in relation to the order, vary the order so as to impose, replace or omit any such requirements.

(3) In the case of a banning order made by a magistrates' court, the reference in subsection (2) to the court by which it was made includes a reference to any magistrates' court acting for the same county court division as that court.
