
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Energy Act (Northern Ireland) 2011, Cross Heading: Supplemental provisions relating to transfers. (See end of Document for details)

SCHEDULE

ENERGY TRANSFER SCHEMES

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 Sch.: power to apply (with modifications) conferred (26.10.2023) by Energy Act 2023 \(c. 52\), s. 334(2)(l), Sch. 18 para. 50

Supplemental provisions relating to transfers

7.—(1) An energy transfer scheme may make incidental, supplemental, consequential and transitional provision in connection with the other provisions of the scheme.

(2) Such provision may include different provision for different cases or different purposes.

(3) In particular, an energy transfer scheme may make provision, in relation to a provision of the scheme—

- (a) for the new energy company to be treated as the same person in law as the old energy company;
- (b) for agreements made, transactions effected or other things done by or in relation to the old energy company to be treated, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of or in connection with a transfer in accordance with the scheme, as made, effected or done by or in relation to the new energy company;
- (c) for references in an agreement, instrument or other document to the old energy company or to an employee or office holder with the old energy company to have effect, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of or in connection with a transfer in accordance with the scheme, with such modifications as are specified in the scheme;
- (d) that the effect of any transfer in accordance with the scheme in relation to contracts of employment with the old energy company is not to terminate any of those contracts but is to be that periods of employment with that company are to count for all purposes as periods of employment with the new energy company;
- (e) for proceedings commenced by or against the old energy company to be continued by or against the new energy company.

(4) Sub-paragraph (3)(c) does not apply to references in a statutory provision.

(5) An energy transfer scheme may make provision for disputes as to the effect of the scheme between the old energy company and the new energy company to be referred to such arbitration as may be specified in or determined under the scheme.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Energy Act (Northern Ireland) 2011, Cross Heading: Supplemental provisions relating to transfers. (See end of Document for details)

(6) Where a person is entitled, in consequence of an energy transfer scheme, to possession of a document relating in part to the title to land or other property in Northern Ireland, or to the management of such land or other property, the scheme may—

- (a) provide for that person to be treated as having given another person an acknowledgement in writing of the right of that other person to production of the document and to delivery of copies of it; and
- (b) apply section 9 of the Conveyancing Act 1881 (c. 41) (with any specified modifications) in relation to any such case.

(7) In this paragraph references to a transfer in accordance with an energy transfer scheme include references to the creation in accordance with such a scheme of an interest, right or liability.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Energy Act (Northern Ireland) 2011, Cross Heading: Supplemental provisions relating to transfers.