Introduction

1. This Schedule sets out how to up-rate the rate of a person's state pension under section 7.

  - (a) ignoring any reduction under section 7(4) (in the case of a state pension under section 7),
  - (b) taking into account any reduction under section 14 (in the case of a state pension under section 4), and
  - (c) ignoring any increase under section 17.
3. In this Schedule a reference to “the amount of any state pension that has priority” means the rate of any state pension to which the person is entitled under section 2, 4 or 12.

any priority pension, is less than the full rate*

- (2) If at any time the full rate is increased, the rate of the person's state pension under section 7 is increased (at that time) by the same percentage as the increase in the full rate.

Rate of section 7 pension, when added to any priority pension, straddles the full rate

- 5.—(1) The rate of the person's state pension under section 7 is to be increased under this paragraph if—

(2) If at any time the full rate of the state pension is increased, the rate of the person's state pension under section 7 is increased (at that time) by an amount equal to the appropriate percentage of the shortfall immediately before that time.

(3) If at any time an order under section 132B of the Administration Act comes into operation, the rate of the person's state pension under section 7 is increased (at that time) by an amount equal to the appropriate percentage of the excess immediately before the order comes into operation.

Priority pension alone is equal to or higher than the full rate
