PART 5

Supplementary

Information

Court to inform council of convictions

77.—(1) This section applies where a court convicts a person of any offence under this Act, other than an offence under section 76.

(2) Within 6 days of the court convicting the person, the court must send to the relevant council—

- (a) notice of the conviction and sentence (if any), and
- (b) a note of any revocation order or disqualification order made by the court in consequence of the conviction.

(3) The relevant council is—

- (a) where the offence relates to an HMO or any other premises, the council for the area in which the HMO or other premises is situated;
- (b) where the offence relates to an HMO licence or any notice issued under this Act, the council which issued the licence or notice.
